A letter was received Tuesday at The Herald office from Mrs. Gordon Gove in Boise, Idaho telling of the train trip she made with her daughter, Leola, who is ill with leukemia.

She says, "we are out here having a wonderful time and Leola stood the trip very well. Her blood count on Sept. 11 was 10.8 grams.

"The trip did not tire her any more than it did her sister, Beth, and I. There was a hospital bed at the union station and she rested for three hours before the next train left for Boise and we giggled at her sister's antics."

Bagwell Was Here

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

And He Liked TP Men

Workers at Tecumseh Products got lavish praise from Paul Bagwell, Republican candidate for governor who was in town Tuesday.

"They're the most courteous best mannered people I've met in visiting factories all over the state," candidate Bagwell said.

The GOP hopeful went directly to the Products upon his arrival in Tecumseh.

As is his habit, he introduced himself to everyone he met, smiling, "I'd like to go to work for you after November."

From there, his party was whisked to Don's Grill for lunch, but the luncheon of escalloped potatoes and ham never had a chance. Person after person was introduced to him and he chatted with each, ended up with a scanty meal indeed.

Well versed in state affairs, the Republican hopeful is champing at the bit to square off with Governor Williams in a series of debates.

☆

"WWJ-TV offered us four, half-hour spots at prime times", he explained. "Williams would only accept one, Oct. 23, and that won't be a debate. Rather two speeches made after one another."

Then he mused, "I hope I'm on last because I'll turn my portion into a rebuttle of his statements."

While he's a definite longshot, Mr. Bagwell is confident of one sweep—the Upper Peninsula, where he made six campaign junkets.

"We'll carry the U. P. with the biggest margin since 1932," he stated.

But he has reason for some confidence in previously solid Democratic strongholds, namely industrial centers.

Two years ago, as a candidate for auditor general, he visited dozens of plants. Interest in the GOP cause was nil. His campaign literature ended up on parking lots and sidewalks.

This summer, he was back again, talking to many of the same men and this time their attitude has changed. They were leaning away from the Democratic line.

After nearly two hours in Tecumseh, the GOP candidate motored to Adrian, where he attended the Lennawee County Fair.

He Won't Forget This Birthday

Scott Elliott won't forget his fifth birthday. His grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliott of Iowa gave him a pony named Lightening. Scott's only problem now is hurrying home from Patterson kindergarten in time to have a pre-lunch ride.

County Apple Queen

A Lenawee County Apple Queen will be chosen next month as part of the Tecumseh Apple Week promotion.

Complete details of how girls between 14 and 18 may enter the competition for the regal title will appear in next week's Herald.

The enterprise is under sponsorship of the Retail Division of the Chamber of Commerce, which so succesfully staged the recent Sidewalk Carnival.

Announcing the queen will be a highlight of Oct. 31.

Others will be:

1. Sidewalk displays of produce—with emphasis on apples — grown by Lenawee County fruitmen.

2. Auto show of 1959 models along sidewalks.

3. Giant parade with new cars, queen and children in Halloween costumes.

4. Variety of bargains at Tecumseh stores.

Claude Helms of Helms Furniture is serving as general chairman of the promotion, working closely with Don Murphy, Chamber executive secretary.

Mr. Helms has so far named Harvey Wilson, Chuck Butler, Dick Hicks, Dick Eggleston, Earl Baldwin, Merlin Downing, Faye Whelan and Tom Riordan as committeemen.

50th Anniversary Celebration Held

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Wellnitz of Grovenor Highway celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon at their home with open house.

About 200 relatives, friends and neighbors from Holloway, Palmyra, Deerfield, Adrian, Tecumseh, Tipton, Blissfield, Petersburg and Toledo, Defiance, Holgate, Ohio and Louisville, Kentucky were present.

A four-tiered wedding cake was decorated with rosebuds and topped with the numerals, 50, in gold.

Granddaughters of the couple assisted with the serving. They are Ann Wellnitz, Jeannine Martolock, Judy Brenningstall and Barbara D. Others assisting were Mrs. Martha Rockie of Adrian, Mrs. Albert Smith of Deerfield, Mrs. Merton Speller of Blissfield, Mrs. Lonnie McMichael and daughter, Linda of Tipton and Pamela Gautz.

Mary Foster Circle

The Mary Foster Circle of the Methodist Church met recently at the home of Mrs. James D. Nixon and during the meeting guests in attendance.

Mrs. Robert Wood and Mrs. E. Wright were the guests.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Nixonn and during the meeting it was decided to sponsor a Girl Scout troop again this year.

Plans were discussed for the all-church rummage sale October 3 and 4.

The October 20 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs Carlos Jones with Mrs. Lillian Wood and Mrs. Ervin Buss cohostesses.

Guests to Show Pix of Africa

Dr. Perry Rawson will speak at Tecumseh Friends Church Sunday evening at 7:30.

Dr. and Mrs. Rawson, medical missionaries on furlough, will show pictures of their work in Urundi, Belgian Congo, Africa. Dr. Rawson is in charge of the Friends Hospital of Urundi. Mrs. Rawson assists Dr. Rawson and conducts a school for missionaries' children.

Dr. Rawson will be remembered as a surgeon in this area before going to Africa. The Rawsons are members of the Rollin Friends Church.

These Youngsters Stage 'Peter Pan'

Five weeks ago when a group of Herrick Park youngsters saw the movie "Peter Pan" they got an idea: let's stage our own version.

The Bill Damons, 509 Outer Dr., presented the children with a recording of Mary Martin's version and the project started.

Playing the record until it was almost worn out, the youngsters mimicked the various actors.

As the rehearsals continued, the parents volunteered their help and last Saturday afternoon was picked for a public performance.

The Damon garage was used for a stage, which featured two sets as prepared by Mr. Damon and Al Russell, 102 Outer Dr. while the stage was being made ready, mothers fashioned costumes.

With admissions for 10c for adults and five for children, the show played to an overflow audience of 40. Chairs loaned by Tom Corkery of Collins-Corkery Funeral Home were filled and some had to stand.

Gate receipts totaled $3.50.

The children announced that the entire amount would be donated to Herrick Memorial Hospital to help furnish a surgery recovery room.

Old-New Song

"You're A Grand Old Flag", which will be featured by massed units at the Band Festival October 7, was written by George M. Cohan and was first published in the year 1906.

It became popular at that time and as good music never dies it is reliving its life again in our modern times.

It will be thrilling and inspiring when the great massed band of over 600 young musicians plays this old-new song at the Lenawee County Band Festival.

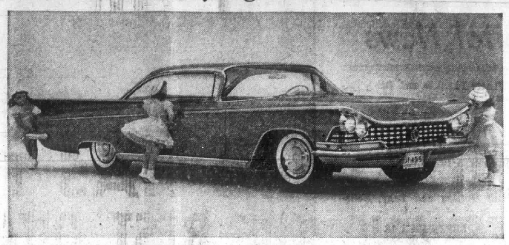
Buick's New Styling Is Sleek And Low



Sleek and low describes Buick's new styling for 1959. The model shown is the luxurious two-door Electra hardtop which measures less than 55 inches in height yet retains approximately the same headroom as last year's Buick. The "delta-wing" styling of the rear fenders that flare out to a point, and twin headlights that are set on an angle give the new Buick a look that is light and jaunty. Compound windshields that curve back into the roof and eliminate wind noise are a feature on all 1959 Buicks. The Electra is powered by a 401-cubic inch V-8 engine with 10.5-to-1 compression ratio. Twin turbine Dynaflow and power steering are standard on all models in the Electra series.

Later the entered apprentice degree will be conferred in the lodge room by a cast of past masters from Palestine headed by James O. Lunsford and assisted by the Palestine Quartette.

Britton Woman Writes to Ike; Gets Answer

Do you remember the picture and story about the Robert McCrate family of Britton buying shoes which appeared in The Herald several months ago?

Mrs. McCrate sent a clipping of it to President Eisenhower along with a note about the high cost of living.

In due time, a note from the White House arrived, written by Sherman Adams, assistant to the president.

It reads:

Dear Mrs. McCrate:

The President has asked me to thank you for your letter enclosing the newspaper clippings. He certainly enjoyed reading about you and your fine family.

I can assure you that the President continues to be deeply concerned with the problem about which you write, particularly as it affects so seriously the lives of millions of Americans who must live on fixed incomes and those who, because of rising prices, experience difficulty in providing for themselves and their families.

In a free economy such as ours, there are of course many activities other than governmental which can have great impaction price levels. Consequently, a successful effort to combat inflation must have the support of all our citizens.

The President is most appreciative of your expression of confidence in him.

Sincerely,
SHERMAN ADAMS

BEWARE OF BALLYHOO VITAMINS

"Vitamin deficiency" has become a kind of catch phrase. Yet it relates to health, the province of your physician.

Should you suspect that you need vitamins, consult your doctor. Let him decide what vitamins, if any, are required.

How much more sensible a procedure than to succumb impetuously to nonprofessional ballyhoo for all-purpose, bargain vitamins.

Rely on your physician's advice. When he writes a prescription, we are prepared to fill it promptly.

Behind the Scenes with Guest Stars

Behind the scenes with the Clark Lake Players, who staged "The Boy Friend" here last week:

The day started at 8 a.m. for Director Bill McAnallen and assistants Bob Waldo and Mike Kressbach, all of whom were busy getting scenery and properties loaded, and transported to Tecumseh. Time was of the essence as they set to work adapting the sets to the Strand stage. Sandwiches and malts at two o'clock were brought to them.

The entire cast, which arrived at two for rehearsal, was enchanted with our town, so the director gave them 30 minutes in which to investigate the downtown section and see the soundbooth from which they had heard their own songs as they had come into town.

☆

BACK AT THE Strand, Mr. McAnallen gave them a run-through of the changes which would be necessary to adapt to this stage.

His talk was not unlike a coach talking to his football squad.

The Clark Lake Players include some 40 people altogether, the cast, stage manager, wardrobe women, prompters, lighting, and the other persons needed to keep the show rolling. They all kept to their work until the director dismissed them so that they might eat and freshen up before the evening's performance. As soon as they heard "Dismissed, be back at 7:45", they made a bee-line for Dr. Richard Coak's residence a block away.

Since they were an hour overtime rehearsing, it meant some real hurrying. Hospital Auxiliary members were on hand to see that the plates were promptly filled. The meal of ham, escalloped potatoes, salad, cakes, pies, relishes, coffee and rolls had been donated by members of the Auxiliary. Each and every one of the company mentioned gratitude at being so well cared for.

☆

TECHNICAL DIRECTOR Waldo, who also played a lead, was involved with a bit of re-wiring at the very last moment, so he was working until a half-hour before curtain-time. A tub of hot water was waiting to take off the day's grime when he arrived at the Coak home a few minutes after eight. He had a minute to bolt some food and get back to the Strand before he went on in the first act, as Tony.

☆

THE CHARMING young lady, Brooke Bandfield, who played the role of Polly was ill but no one of the audience could have detected it. She was a smiling girl who sang beautifully in spite of it. In show business, the motto "The show must go on" still holds.

☆

AT THE LAST curtain, after generous applause, these tired young people remained on stage to help pack costumes and properties into the trailer.

The entire Company had been invited to go to Tecumseh Country Club for some relaxation before they returned home. They were delighted with this one last time to be together for a good time at the end of the season. They said good-byes that would have to hold until next summer.

Mr. McAnallen and Mike Kressbach will soon be leaving for New York, while some of the others will return to their usual winter routines and await the day when casting begins next summer.

State Parks Attract Record Numbers in '58

LANSING — Michigan's state parks and recreation areas were bursting at the seams through late August as attendance totals ran well ahead of last year's level.

Through August 31, some 15,408,000 persons jammed into the 59 state parks and recreation areas—an increase of about two percent over the heavy use recorded during the same period last week.

Camping, meanwhile, continued its tremendous increase in popularity, with 128,100 camp permits issued through the month of August.

This total represents an increase of more than 16 percent in camp use over the same period in 1957.

A message from Ralph Hodges, "Your Pharmacist"

SELF MEDICATION CAN BE DANGEROUS.

There is no machine invented that is as complex as your own body. Yet, when something is wrong with their body, some people attempt to correct it themselves.

CORRECT DIAGNOSIS IS NECESSARY TO PROPER TREATMENT.

It is almost impossible for any untrained person to repair a modern machine. Only skilled, experienced people are entrusted with such work. Since your body is ever so much more difficult to repair, why let anyone who is not an expert, even yourself, tinker with it?

ONLY A PHYSICIAN HAS THE KNOWLEDGE AND TRAINING.

At the first sign of any illness, let him discover the cause, instead of depending on home remedies that usually only give temporary relief.

LET YOUR PHYSICIAN PRESCRIBE PROPER MEDICATION.

From the many medicines in a prescription pharmacy he will specify the particular one best for you. You will save much future sickness-time, perhaps even your life, if you follow this sincere advice.

REALTY VIEWS

"We want you to sell our house, "Mr. Winkler said, "but I think 30 days is enough time for your exclusive listing."

"I can appreciate your position," I replied, "you are afraid we may not work at selling your house. So you'd like to try something else if we don't produce. But, let me put your mind at ease. We know your house is saleable, and the price is reasonable. The only other worry we have is TIME. Granted enough time, someone will appear who will want to buy it. We only get paid for results. So give us at least 90 days to work it out. We may not need it, and believe me, we'll sell it yet today if we get the chance."

Mr. Winkler wrinkled his brow and said, "That's quite awhile."

"Let me ask you a question," I said. "If I can prove 90 days is a reasonably short time, will you agree?"

"Yes," he said, with a grin, "but how can you prove it?"

"That's easy," I replied. "All it takes is for you to go to the bank and borrow $1000 on a 90 day note. You'll see how fast 90 days slip by."

Mr. Winkler laughed and picked up the pen. "O.K.," he said, "but get it sold."

We did - 71 days after signing the listing contract.

May we help you to SELL your property?

She has been visiting a son, Dr. Floyd P. Allen in Cincinnati and says it will be her last trip there.

Her letter reads, in part: "Please send my Tecumseh Herald to my old address, 14405 Coyle, Ave., Detroit 27, Mich., so I will get it without fail on September 13. And, many thanks. ANOTHER SUBDIVISION — This is the tri-level, three-bedroom home recently constructed for McCoy & Powell Real Estate as the first dwelling in its Sylvan Hills Subdivision, east of Tecumseh. This is one of three important business developments to be announced this week.

BUSINESS REPORT:

3 Newcomers Here

Three interesting developments have broken on the Tecumseh business front this week. One is a new housing subdivision, opened east of town. The second is an automobile agency, which will distribute the popular Rambler. The third is a department store, being established in the former A&P building.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

LAST WEEK'S STORY BY Allan Seager about the possibility of Tecumseh civic center caused a stir.

There were lots of questions—especially, where is the money to come from?

But the answer to this will have to come later. Let it suffice to say that there is an organization which does provide funds for such community cultural centers.

And should Tecumseh come up with a concrete idea of what the city needs and wants, everything could fall into place.

Right now, citizens are being asked what they think about a community center.

This canvas is being conducted by the Chamber of Commerce to get opinions from "every person in Tecumseh."

Don Murphy, Chamber executive secretary, asks "When you are called on to answer this question, if you were to have your answer ready it would save much time."

Initial speculation calls for a separate auditorium, which could seat about 1,000 for plays, meetings, musicals, concerts, etc.; a gymnasium for use by all, daytime or evenings; a library; meeting rooms for organizations; a youth center.

The list of ideas can extend on indefinitely—and that's what the committee wants.

After the survey is made, all thoughts will be considered, carefully weighed, included with a master plan or discarded.

The formal proposal will be made only after a complete plan has been formulated.

Be ready with your ideas — in fact, it might be nice if you sat down and jotted them down, mailed to the Chamber.

☆

CONRATULATIONS TO DUNC Leckta and Mike Rotunno, Tecumseh High School football coaches, who certainly inspired their gridders to a great performance against Hudson Friday.

The capacity crowd enjoyed the performance and as for the Indian rooters, they were certainly thrilled.

"Maybe this is THE year," could have been their thoughts.

The day before the game, Coach Leckta told this writer that his present crew offered more talent than any bunch in his many years of coaching.

"But," he added, "I can't seem to make the boys realize it."

Maybe they do now. With plenty of hard work and determination the lads can become quite a football team.

Here's one sport that is plain back-straining hard work. The boy who wants to earn his way in football has got to give up an awful lot. He has to be willing to sacrifice spare time, dates, rich foods. His rewards come in the form of knowing he has done a good job and played a part in an over-all team success.

In later life, he'll find his "hours of toil" have made him into a man, one who will stand up to adversity and bad breaks, always willing to battle the odds and come out a winner more often than not.

We think the "new look" in Tecumseh football is going to make a lot of difference to a lot of people.

☆

THERE'S A LOT OF WRITING talent around town and last week another skilled author was "discovered."

When Senator Potter's lovely wife visited here, local Republic leader Jack Shutt suggested a picture.

We agreed—then came right back at the likeable Jack with a request that he have a party booster fashion a yarn of Mrs. Potter's Tecumseh stop.

"Know just the girl!" Jack replied immediately.

And that's how it is we have such a fine story, written by Mrs. Terry Mackin, about the Friday coffee.

Mary is a journalism graduate of Ohio Wesleyan. Hope we can get her to perform more often.

1 Rambler Cars Going on Sale

A Rambler automobile agency will soon be selling the popular small cars in Tecumseh.

Opening in another week, in conjunction with introduction of 1959 models, the dealership is owned by Harvey Wilson.

It will be located at 123 S. Ottawa St., former site of Mr. Wilson's DeSoto-Plymouth, which moved last winter to a west-end local.

Lamar Cheever, a Wilson salesman, has been named manager of the Rambler agency.

"The popularity of the small, economy cars has prompted us to bring the rambler to Tecumseh," Mr. Cheever said.

He added that complete Rambler service facilities will be available, under direction of Mack Holland.

Detailed announcement of the Rambler opening will appear in next week's Herald.

2 Subdivision Is Underway

Sylvan Hills, Tecumseh's newest subdivision, officially will be underway with an open house Saturday at its first home from 1 to 8 p.m.

Located east of Tecumseh on M-50, just beyond the city limits, it is being handled through McCoy & Powell Real Estate agency.

With 69 lots in the first plat, most of them wooded and adjoining Tecumseh County Club, the area is highly restricted as to size and quality of home.

The model is a pre-fabricated tri-level with three bedrooms, furnished family room, den, living room with dining-L.

Built-in range and oven highlight the kitchen. The house has

3 Store Will Sell Clothes

A department store will be opened in the old A&P building on N. Evans St. the middle of next month, announces Chester Merritt of Clinton.

It will be called the Van-Mers Dept. Store and a partnership between Mr. Merrit and Hubert VanCamp, who owns the property.

Mr. Merrit will manage the operation and Mr. VanCamp will take care of the books.

The 40x120 layout will be filled with men's women's and children's clothing and shoes. Not planned for are ladies better dresses and coats.

"We hope we'll have enough room for the merchandise we plan to have," stated Mr. Merritt, who operates a shoe shop in Clinton.

The business will employ four, in addition to the partner.

Option on Ten Acres in City

Light Metals Plating Considering Plant

Light Metals Plating Co. have taken out an option on 10 acres of land for a future industrial plant on S. Maumee St., across from Tecumseh Products Union Hall.

Joseph J. Weyn, of Dearborn, company president, reports no definite date has been set for construction of a chemical manufacturing and electroplating plant.

The company's zinc-titanium electroplating process is being acclaimed as the greatest plating advancement in 25 years.

If and when a plant is established here, plating involving the new process undoubtedly will be employed in the Tecumseh plant.

Mr. Weyn, and Ted Templeton of Templeton Construction Company took out an option on the land

Jack Osborn, local real estate agent, handled the transaction, which was with G&W Woodworking Company.

Light metals which has been converted from a partnership and is now being registered as a corporation, acquired a 28,000 square foot building at Wayne this week.

Mr. Weyn will become a Tecumseh resident in another week, moving into a River Acres home, built for him by Templeton Construction.

Earl Kotts, patent attorney for the firm, already resides here, having moved into his new house at 1100 N. River Ct., also in River Acres, three weeks ago.

Cliff Preston Dies Suddenly

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Collins-Corkery Funeral Home for Clifford B. Preston, owner of the Airport Bowl who passed away Monday morning at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

He suffered a heart attack Sunday evening.

Mr. Preston lived at 505 Pottawatamie St.

He was 56-years-old.

Born June 8, 1902 in Raisin township, he had spent his entire life in this community. He was the son of William and Sarah Barker Preston, was a member of the Masonic Lodge.

He is survived by his wife, Pansy, and a number of nieces and nephews. His parents and two sisters preceded him in death.

The Rev. Paul Brantingham officiated and burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Pall bearers were Robert Calvin, Richard Eggleston, Gale Hooten, Darwin Creger, Dermont Poley Sr. and David Limbrick.

HAPPY ENDING — Howard Kronberg J.r. (left) holds his son, and happily chats with Clarence Marsh, the neighbor who saved the three-year-old boy's life Sunday when he fell into a pool of water, created by a break in a Herrick Park water main. "I can never repay him for what he did," Mr. Kronberg said Monday.

Scouts Stage Rodeo

Tecumseh's Recreation Field will become a colorful sight Saturday afternoon from 4 until 7:30 p.m.

Brownies and Girl Scouts including the Junior High and Senior Scouts will assemble for their second annual Rodeo.

A total of 350 Scouts and 100 adults, representing 30 troops, are eligible to attend.

This year there will have about 40 Scouts from Clinton as their guests. General chairman Mrs. Don C. Creger states that the girls are not only enthusiastic over the opportunity to dress western style but that they are happy also in their work assignments for the day.

Each troop acts as a committee with the leader as the chairman.

The Brownies will be dogies and the Intermediate Scouts will be the cowhands again this year.

☆

THE CHUCK wagon will be on hand to dispense the snack provided through the courtesy of the Kroger Company.

Kroger manager Dick Myers has made all arrangements for potato chips, hot dogs, cookies and milk in quantities enough to feed 800 hungry girls.

Tepees will serve as supply centers and first aid stations. Western music to the tune of guitars played by local cowboys and hay rides for all will be new features this year.

Another stampede is scheduled and time is alloted for sports, and games. The awarding of plaques and pennants, square dancing, a song-fest and a goodnight ceremonial will take place around the camp fire.

☆

PURPOSE OF Rodeo Day is to expedite registrations, stimulate attendance on this occasion, besides having fun and fellowship together. This is not a money-making scheme, but each one will contribute toward the expenses.

The Tecumseh Girl Scout Association is an agency of the Tecumseh Community Chest and Mrs. Robert G. Anderson is the president.

In case of inclement weather the Rodeo will be held in the High School gymnasium.

Youth Injured When Busses Crash

Carl Bower, a 13-year-old eighth grader at Tecumseh Junior High, was seriously injured Tuesday afternoon when pinned between two school busses.

The accident took place about 3:15 as busses were being loaded along E. Shawnee St.

In serious condition upon his arrival at Herrick Memorial Hospital, Carl the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bower of Ridge Highway, was kept in an oxygen tent that night because of shock.

He has a compound fracture of the left leg and internal injuries. Wednesday morning his condition was still too delicate for taking X-rays.

☆

POLICE CHIEF George Kilbourn explained the freak mishap.

In bus No. 7, Jim Withrow, 15 of 108 S. Occidental St., asked driver Bert Wade of Paul's Trailer Court, who was standing outside, if he could turn on a radio in the vehicle.

This is a regular car radio which the students often listen to. Its power comes from the bus battery, which can be switched on by turning the ignition key to the left.

By mistake, Jim turned it to the right. The bus, in gear, lurched forward, smashing the one ahead of it. Three more vehicles were similarly hit.

Carl was walking between the third and fourth when the chain reaction began.

3-Year-Old Is Saved from Death

Three-year-old, flaxen haired Michael Kronberg is enjoying life as much as ever these days.

But as he scurries about his neighborhood in Herrick Park he doesn't realize just how close he came to losing that life.

On Sunday, Mike, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kronberg, Jr., 415 Center Dr., almost drown in a pool of water along Island Dr. It was caused by a water main, which broke Saturday.

An alert resident of the subdivision, Clarence Marsh of 601 Herrick Park Dr., was mowing his lawn when the accident took place.

Mr. Marsh heard the splash as little Mike fell into the water. He turned and saw him sink completely below the surface.

Rushing across the street to the water, Mr. Marsh spied Michael's arm and snatched it, pulling the youngster to safety.

The quickness of Mr. Marsh's action not only saved young Mike's life, but prevented any after effects.

The youth's dad and Mr. Marsh are both Tecumseh Products Co. employees.

Mr. Kronberg is a 10-year veteran who drives a Clark truck. Mr. Marsh has been with the company 25 years, does valve plate inspection.

Friends Church Homecoming Day Will Be Sunday

Family Homecoming Day will be held at the Tecumseh Friends Church Sunday, beginning with the 10 a.m. worship service for the whole family.

Sunday school for all ages will be followed by a program.

Two Christian Endeavor Groups meet at 6:30, one for children up to 12-years and one for ages 13 to 30.

At 7:30 there will be a hymn sing with several special numbers and a message by the pastor, Rev. Paul Brantingham.

Those in charge of the activities for the day are Ellen Brantingham, chairman, Naomi Sallows, Helen Brugger and Dick Richardson.

Dance Studio Opens Monday

Jackie Bixler will open her Tecumseh Dance Studio with classes Monday, Oct. 6 from 2 until 10 p.m.

Temporarily, the sessions will be held in the Eagles Hall, 125 S. Evans St., next door to The Herald office.

Mrs. Bixler explains there are still several openings in all age groups—which include boys and girls from three-years-old, through teens and adults.

Instructions will be given in ballroom, tap, ballet, toe and modern jazz.

Anyone interested in enrolling should call Jackson, collect, St. 3-1594.

As the number of students grows, two additional days of lessons will be added, states Mrs. Bixler.

Kiwanis Club Sells Peanuts on 'Kids Day'

Sixteen members of the Tecumseh Club will be selling peanuts Friday and Saturday in the group's second annual Kids' Day.

Proceeds from the sale go into the club's youth program, which includes sponsoring a Little League team and lending assistance to the Teen Club.

Dr. George Burkhard will serve as chairman of the 1958 observance.

Kiwanians will located at strategic spots downtown from 3 p.m. Friday and all day Saturday.

In addition, 25 business places will have peanuts on sale in special Kiwanis cartons Friday and Saturday.

Will Take Part in 'Band Day'

ANN ARBOR — Tenth Annual Band Day at The University of Michigan Saturday will be another record-breaker, with 195 bands and 12,500 participants on hand to provide an added attraction for the football opener with Southern California.

Among the bands will be Tecumseh High School's unit under direction of Don Johnson.

The record-breaking number of participants will not be the only highlight of the day since Michigan Band Director W. D. Revelli has come up with a real headliner - Meredith Wilson, noted band conductor and composer who wrote the book, music and lyrics for the current Broadway hit, "The Music Man."

"Seventy Six Trombones" is one of the hits from that show and Meredith will be directing not just 76 trombones, but 1,076 trombones when the massed bands perform this selection under his direction at half-time.

The high school bands are due in Ann Arbor at 8:15 a.m. to rehearse for the big afternoon spectacle.

Band Day was started in 1949 with 29 bands and 1,850 participants. By 1957, the figures had jumped to 188 bands and 12,000 participants.

VOICE of THE HERALD

City Has Grave Responsibility

When a broken water main in Herrick Park was left uncovered over the weekend, a three-year-old nearly lost his life.

The seeping water formed a dangerous pool several feet deep and it was into this that the curious lad fell and nearly drown. But for the swiftness of a neighbor, the youth probably never could have pulled himself to safety.

When the broken main was reported Saturday night, city workers placed several smudge pots around it, along with a wooden barrier. This type of warning would keep alert adults from walking into it, but was practically useless with children.

On Sunday, after the city had been notified of the near-drowning the opening was covered — exactly what should have been done the previous night.

The city has a grave responsibility in such cases. Its duty is clear: a fool-proof type of protection must cover all openings in streets whenever workmen are not present.

On at least one other occasion, a manhole was left virtually unprotected while city employees left their job for lunch.

In practically no time a four-year-old was peering into it and only the warning shouts of a woman nearby caused the boy to move away from the dangerous opening.

She telephoned the city hall and was assured something would be done — but it never was.

City council must remind those responsible to be on the alert when such incidents as the broken water main in Herrick Park occur in the future.

A Change in Date?

We'd like to see the Lenawee County Fair changed a little — if possible.

Mainly, the sticky point is the week the Fair is held.

Over the years, the various county fairs have learned more and more towards exhibits by young people, which we think is good. Only problem is that when Fair time comes in Lenawee County, schools are in session.

Fair folks say, "why not give the kids a day off?"

School officials think, "Classes have just begun and wham, a holiday."

Both parties have good points.

The whole thing could be simplified if the Fair board decided to choose earlier dates, while school was still out.

Weather conditions, which have long been a bugaboo here, might be more predictable in late summer, thus helping on the all-important attendance angle.

With more folks attending, then possibly something could be done to pave walkways between exhibits and paint some of the buildings.

If there's anything discouraging to Fair visitors, it's having to pick one's way through oozing gumbo to get to some of the exhibition places, then find them sadly in need of a coat of paint.

And when youngsters know for sure they're going to the Fair, because it's held before school starts maybe more would want to enter competition, again helping to make it a more interesting event.

Heading in Right Direction

Fr[illegible] often city officials are criticized for their action. Frequently, criticism results from misinformation or from failure to recognize the officials' objective.

Last week, Council approved a measure which should help many residents financially and also save the city from annual expenses which could be greatly reduced.

This measure is a $100,000 revolving fund to be established by floating a general obligation bond issue at the November general election.

Approval by the electorate of the bond issue will not raise taxes; however, it will let property owners borrow money from the city for special assessments at a low rate of interest over a long period of time.

Many times during the past decade officials have borrowed as much as $18,500, repayable within a year from taxes already in effect and at a cost of $1,500 to $2,000. Total repayment by the city is approximately $20,000.

The $100,000 revolving fund will save at least $13,000 a year. Officials can secure a long-term, 30-year loan on the bonds, repayable at an interest rate of about 3½ percent.

The fund will remain intact for special assessment projects for people whose payments for borrowing will in turn continue the revolving fund's existence. Bond retirement payments of $6,500 and less will come from present taxes.

There should be no question about backing the revolving fund at the general election. Property owners should back it 100 percent.

Mineral Clubbers Show Collections at County Fair

Fifteen members of the Rock and Mineral Club displayed their collections at the Lenawee County Fair last week.

The displays were judged by William Barnhouse, president of the Michigan Gem and Mineral Society, from Jackson. They were judged on all-over neatness and type of display.

Diane Ries placed first, Glenn Slick, second and Gregg King, third.

The next meeting of the Club will be Saturday from 2 to 4 p.m. at the home of the leader, Mrs. Clare Handy.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Handy and Diane Ries were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Barnhouse Sunday and were encouraged when he said that he would assist them in forming an adult group and also in acquiring a charter.

A place for both the children and adult groups to meet is needed.

3-Sunday Series Begins This Week for Methodists

Congregation at the Methodist Church in Tecumseh will hear sermons in a series on Worship the next three Sundays.

The Rev. James D. Nixon has announced the themes as follows:

September 28 "The Shared Perspective" on attendance and adoration.

Oct. 5 "Confession that Counts!" on World-Wide Communion Sunday.

Oct. 12 "The Task is Shared!", dealing with the place of the sermon in worship.

Next week Methodists will conduct a friendly visitation campaign among their own members.

This is under the direction of Mrs. Carlos Jones, Chairman of the Commission on Membership and Evangelism.

An attendance registration will be taken during the service each Sunday from Oct. 5 to Christmas.

"Worship can be a creative experience, and every pastor wants it to be this for each of his members," explained Mr. Nixon. "There are ample churches in Tecumseh to meet the needs of all her people and all of us have ample needs to be met!"

Arlene Fuller Is Married in Manchester

MRS. CLINTON B. FISK

Arlene R. Fuller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell C. Fuller and Clinton B. Fisk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Fisk, all of Manchester were united in matrimony in the Emanuel Evangelical and Reformed Church in that city Saturday.

The Rev. Karl H. A. Rest performed the double ring service before the altar banked with white Fuji mums and glads.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of ivory Italian silk taffeta fashioned with long sleeves and fitted bodice of Chantilly lace, rounded neckline sparkled with sequins and a full circular skirt worn over a hoop.

Her silk illusion veil was held in place by a pearl crown and she carried a white Bible topped with an orchid and stephanotis.

Her attendants were Elaine and Margery Fisk and Mary Fuller and the best man was James E. Brown. Guests were seated by Douglas Grady, Jr. and William Rhoades.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church parlors for 250 guests.

The newlyweds will reside at 414 E. Main St. Manchester following a wedding trip into Northern Michigan.

Tie Battle Ends with Tecumseh on 2-Yard Line

By JIM LINCOLN

A mere two yards from paydirt prevented the Tecumseh Indians from shocking a visiting Hudson eleven Friday night.

The Hudson Tigers, victors in their last 20 games, left town with a 0-0 tie with the Indians, largely thanks to a game-ending whistle with Tecumseh in control of the pigskin on Hudson's two.

Friday night at Monroe, Tecumseh opens Southeastern Michigan Conference play against Catholic Central.

Although last Friday's scoreless clash failed to produce a winner here, Coach Dunc Leckta's debut will be remembered for fielding a vastly improved team in comparison to the opening 1957 varsity.

Tecumseh led the Tigers in every department, including penalties, and completely dominated play in the second half when Hudson failed to move past its own 47-yard line.

The visitors stole the show in the opening quarter, romping for a TD, nullified by a penalty, and once moving to the one-yard line.

The local eleven four times moved inside Hudson's 25-yard marker, once to the six and then to the two-yard line at the end of the game. A threat in the first half to the one was called back by one of eight Tecumseh penalties.

Halfbacks Mike Walters and Dave Weakley shared the rushing game for the Indians, Walters netting 85 yards in 11 carries and Weakley, 84 yards in 13 attempts.

Twice both broke into the clear with Walters nearly going all the way in the first quarter with a 53-yard run from the Indians' 10. Weakley clipped off 25 yards in the final minute to Hudson's three.

Larry Yoakum connected on six of 13 passes for 66 yards, while clever ball handling quarterback Dick McGill hit on one pass for 16 yards for Hudson.

Tecumseh, via passing and rushing, rolled up 244 yards to 137 yards for Hudson. The Tigers gained only 35 yards on the ground in the second half.

Britton-Macon Beats Waldron

Britton-Macon rolled to an easy 18-0 win over Waldron last Friday night at Hudson, scoring twice in the first half and again in the final stanza.

Bull-like Jerry Benedict tallied twice for the Tories, with scoring plunges from seven and two yards. Halfback Dave Servoss tallied Britton's final TD in the fourth period from the three.

Two other TDs, both by Benedict, were nullified by penalties.

An inept Waldron offense never moved beyond the Britton 40-yard line any time during the game.

Britton	6	6	0	6	—18
Waldron	0	0	0	0	— 0

Britton Scoring: Benedict 2 (plunges, 7, 2); Servoss (plunge, 3).

Visiting Here

Senator Charles E. Potter, will visit Lenawee County Monday. He will be at Don's Grill from 10 to 11 in the morning.

His wife visited Tecumseh last Friday when many local women turned out to greet her at a coffee hour at Don's Grill.

Senator Potter is running for re-election on the Republican party to represent Michigan in the U.S. Senate.

Mothers of Twins

Mrs. Robert Bush in Macon entertained the members of the Mothers of Twins Club Tuesday evening. They were present from Tecumseh, Britton, Deerfield and Wamplers Lake.

Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield presided and Mrs. Carlos Kinsley of Tecumseh was welcomed as a new member.

It's pretty hard to think of anything in our life that is giving us as much all-around entertainment as our television set. Socialogists even say that it is "making us a nation of families" again by keeping us together in our living rooms as of days of old.

For us at COOK ELECTRIC it is particularly wonderful, because we're in the middle of it all, so to speak. We meet a lot of nice people every day handling the problems of keeping the best of TV Viewing in the home.

To do the best job we're getting the latest bulletins from electronic institutions which keep us up-to-date in a fast, changing industry. Service instruments and techniques, types of sets and color are improving steadily.

In connection with these ideas, we're going to appear in this newspaper every week and let you know about some of the interesting subjects and experiences that come our way. We're sure that this column will be enjoyable and make your TV viewing more appreciative.

Everything But Politics

By MARY A. MACKIN

What do women talk about when they meet a senator's wife? Why woman talk, of course.

Politics didn't enter the conversation of a group of Tecumseh women who gathered for a coffee hour last week to meet and chat with Lorraine Potter, wife of U.S. Senator Charles Potter.

The only mention of politics came from several gentlemen who stopped and greeted Mrs. Potter, but when the women met the petite, vivacious lady, they joined the group and soon began their special art of conversation over the coffee cups.

☆

THE SUBJECT of clothes naturally arose, and in her case, it involves selecting and caring for a wardrobe for extensive travel.

Attractive in a tailored soft wool, beige dress and small black hat, the senator's wife said she was very familiar with living out of a suitcase. (She handles a travel iron with great ease.)

Mrs. Potter's efficiency and stamina was realized by the group when she told them that she had been touring since June 22, with only two brief trips to her apartment in Washington.

After the present tour, she'll go to her Mullet Lake, Michigan home—just long enough to get her clothes in order, pack and begin her final month's tour.

Then finally home, Nov. 3!

☆

TRAVELLIN IS second nature to Mrs. Potter, who has no children, and when she spoke of the great length of time she has been away from her home and apartment, there was no trace of weariness.

Instead, she energetically told the group that she will have been to 83 counties in Michigan by the end of this week. She loves meeting people, and finds women in general very similar.

Mrs. Donald Josephson, according to Mrs. Potter, is her "girl Friday" who helps plan the itinerary, makes arrangements and generally assists. She has been with the senator's wife since the beginning of the tour.

The two charming ladies have motored in Mrs. Josephson's '53 car, "Old Faithful". Much of their travel is done at night in order to make the morning visits.

THE FORTUNATE women who met Mrs. Potter won't forget greeting this lovely and gracious lady.

Perhaps the group's impression may have been summed up by one woman who enjoyed meeting Mrs. Potter and said, "I always judge a man by his wife."

"TO MAKE A MOUNTAIN OUT OF A MOLE-HILL"

There once was a man who suffered from indigestion. Everytime he read an ad about how to relieve it, he bought a different patent medicine. He hated radio and television because the announcers reminded him of his stomachaches. He tried their remedies too, but still suffered.

He worried, because he thought he might have ulcers. One day he said to himself, "I will consult a physician." The physician examined him, prescribed the particular medicine that could help him most, and he got better.

Moral—Wasn't he the foolish one to wait so long before consulting his physician?

TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTO

ANNUAL REUNION—Fr. Thomas J. Collins (right) cigar happily clamped in his mouth, greets one of his Sunday guests, John Ruehle of Detroit. Occasion was the fifth annual reunion of a Detroit youth club the Tecumseh priest started in 1939. There were 83 present Sunday, members and their every-growing families.

Priest Entertains 83

When Fr. Thomas J. Collins, pastor at St. Elizabeth, was a young priest assigned to St. Ambrose parish in Detroit he organized a youth club.

That was 1939.

The club flourished and grew to a membership of nearly 150.

Then the war came and soon Fr. Collins was transferred. The club dissolved.

But the time spent under Fr. Collins guidance was never forgotten.

★

FIVE YEARS AGO, the club's secretary rounded up as many members as possible and one summer Sunday they decended on Tecumseh, much to the delight of Fr. Collins.

There were new husbands and wives to meet — and plenty of little ones, too.

Everyone had so much fun, it was decided the reunion should be an annual affair.

Every year since, the group has come to our city for an afternoon of fun and chatter.

Sunday was the day this year and shortly after noon the guests began to arrive, each family loaded down with fried chicken, potato salad, pies, cakes, rolls—everything to stuff the hungriest.

☆

ALTOGETHER there were 83 guests and the auditorium in St. Elizabeth school, where they ate, was filled with happy chatter. The youngsters soon migrated to the school's playground, giving the adults a chance to exchange news and have that second and third cup of coffee.

One interesting point brought out at the gathering: as a direct result of joining the St. Ambrose youth club 23 marriages between members developed.

After about three hours, the entire group adjourned to the Church where Fr. Collins held benediction, the traditional reunion closing.

Census of Catholics Slated for October

During October, 115 men of St. Elizabeth parish will be making a house-to-house Catholic census.

They will be part of a 40,000 task force over the entire six counties which comprise the Detroit Archdiocese, completing the survey requested by Edward Cardinal Mooney.

The volunteers are obtaining information only about Catholic families, although in an effort to contact every Catholic, they will call at every house.

St. Elizabeth's parish has been divided into zones under the chairmanship of Joseph Piazza, 603 Orchard Lane.

A meeting of all 115 canvassers will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. in the St. Elizabeth school.

Scout Official Visits Tecumseh

The long awaited member of the Great Lakes Regional Staff Office of Girl Scouts is finally coming to Tecumseh.

Teresa Burleigh will be at the Tecumseh Scout Cabin Wed., Oct. 1 from 10 to 12 noon to speak to Brownie and Girl Scout leaders and committee women from Lenawee and Hillsdale counties.

She will speak on "Plans for Council Coverage in this Section of Michigan".

All Scouters in Lenawee County have been invited and coffee will be served preceding the meeting.

Mrs. Wyeth Allen, also of the Regional Office Comimttee, will accompany Miss Burleigh.

PROMOTION DAY

Primary and Junior Departments of the First Baptist Church will hold promotion day services Sunday at 10 a.m.

A flannelgraph demonstration will be used to depict the growth of the child from nursery to senior high classes. All parents are cordially invited to attend.

Installing 2 Pipelines

Consumers Power Company plans to install new pipeline facilities to Tecumseh and Blissfield to enable the company to provide increased amounts of natural gas to its customers in those Lenawee County communities.

The company will install a line two and a half miles long into Blissfield from the main transmission lines of the Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company west of the city.

The new line, four inches in diameter, will augment the existing two inch line which now serves the city.

At Tecumseh, a four-inch line will be installed to the Panhandle line from the Tecumseh metering station, a distance of about one mile. This line also will augment an existing two inch line.

In a hearing before the Michigan Public Service Commission in Lansing Tuesday, John B. Simpson, vice president in charge of gas operations, said the lines will be installed this fall and will be in service by November 1 if the commission grants its permission for the project.

Mr. Simpson said that increased use of gas by customers in the two towns makes the additional pipeline facilities necessary.

Books Are Sought for Prison Library

A drive for 20,000 books to restock the library of Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson has opened.

Conducted by the Volunteers of America, posts in the Detroit, Jackson, Lansing, Battle Creek, Grand Rapids and Adrian areas and Adriann areas will participate.

Tecumseh residents can phone 7075-R after 5 p.m. and have the books they wish to donate picked up.

Deadlines Are Near for Soil Bank Program

Two dates are important for farmers who intend to take part in the 1959 Conservation Reserve program of the Soil Bank.

Oct. 10 is the final date for requesting the establishment of a "maximum farm payment rate" on the individual farm.

A farmer uses this rate in deciding whether he wishes to participate in the reserve and also as a basis for making application for participation.

Farmers may either offer their land at the maximum rate or at a lower rate.

County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committees have been instructed to consider farms offered at a lower rate before those offered at the maximum rate.

☆

OCT. 24, IS the deadline for making applications for conservation reserve contracts. At this time, the individual sets the rate at which he offers his farm for the conservation reserve.

Farmers should ask themselves questions such as the following in considering participation in the conservation reserve.

If answers are "yes" to a number of them, then the reserve will likely be to the farmer's advantage.

"Are your crop yields usually lower than those of your neighbors?"

"Are crops failures common in your area or your system of farming?"

"Do the prices of products you sell vary greatly from year to year?"

"Is the low proportion of your investment in buildings and equipment and high proportion in land?"

"Are you considering off-farm employment, or more of it?"

Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of the purchaser's attorney approving the legality of the notes, to be secured at the purchaser's expense. The purchaser shall furnish notes ready for execution at his expense. Notes will be delivered at the United Savings Bank, Tecumseh, Michigan.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

October 5-11 Is Time To Write Friends Letters

International Letter Writing Week will be celebrated during the week of October 5 to 11, Postmaster Jack Metcalf announced.

Twenty-one years ago, realizing the importance of written communication, the Post Office Department joined in the observance of an annual letter writing week—an event celebrated to emphasize the meaning and value of letter writing as an link between people throughout the world.

Postmaster Metcalf explained that by participating in both International Letter Writing Week and National Letter Writing Week this worthwhile objective is promoted between all peoples everywhere.

"As we all know so well," Mr. Metcalf, said, "a personal letter is next to an actual visit, the most intimate means we have to communicate with our fellow human beings. Letters between our citizens and between peoples of different nations are a sure method of establishing friendly relationships and understandings.

"I urge all citizens of Tecumseh, Michigan, to join in this celebration of International Letter Writing Week. And at the same time, don't overlook your friends and relatives in America. Write them a letter too!"

New Scout Troop Formed; Tecumseh Now Boasts 28

The Tecumseh Girl Scout Association with Mrs. Robert Anderson as president has initiated the patrol system into the program this fall.

A troop of 58 girls, with Mrs. Laine Holden and Mrs. Jack Hanna as leader and assistant leader, are divided into five separate patrols each with a leader and assistant.

Beside the new troop, there are 27 other troops of Brownie and Scouts with 350 members and 100 registered adults.

Mrs. Kenneth Ostrum is compiling a registry of used uniforms for both Brownies and Girl Scouts. Anyone having one to sell or give away, or anyone needing a uniform may obtain the necessary information from her. Her phone is 544-W.

Great Attendences Attest to Themes of Band Festival

It is sometimes asked why the Tecumseh Band Festival adopts religious and patriotic titles for its programs.

Suggestions have been made that would make the programs lighter.

The promoters of this event believe that a production of this kind demands the type of title that we are using this year and have used in the past.

Already used are "Seekers of Freedom," "This is America," "One World," "America the Beautiful" and others of this nature.

"The great crowds that attend this annual evening entertainment justify our belief that the American people love the patriotic and religious story of our country," states Clare Camburn.

"We are sure that the people of Lenawee County will justify us in calling the next Tecumseh Band Festival of Oct. 7, "God Bless America."

Becky Loft Wins '58 Pigeon Trophy

Annual trophy awarded by the Maple City Pigeon Club to the loft posting the best speed for the series of young bird races was won by the Bill and Larry Beckey loft of 703 S. Adrian, Tecumseh, this season.

Bill and Larry clinched the trophy by winning the last race of the season last Sunday.

Their average speed for the series of seven races covering over 1,000 miles was 1,276.63 yards per minute or about 43 mph.

REALTY VIEWS

"Whew, I'm exhausted" said Mrs. Glendon as she came in our office on a warm summer day. "We've been house hunting," she explained. "Mostly running down Owner signs and ads. But we can't find a thing we want."

"That's right," Mr. Glendon said. "Have you got any suggestions?"

I nodded, "We know how frustrating house-hunting can be. So we've devised a shortcut method."

"What's that? he asked.

"Essentially, "I replied, "We work WITH a buyer to determine the type of home he needs and can afford. It eliminates the endless hours driving up and down city streets, looking at unsuitable homes."

"What do I have to do to cooperate?"

"That's easy too," I said. "Merely answer our questions as best you can. We aren't trying to pry into your personal life, but the more we know about your finances, size of family, age of your children, your family interests, and so on, the better we can help you."

"I get it," he said. "You'll help us select the type of house we need within a price range we can afford."

"Exactly," I replied.

After a series of questions, I mentioned a home which seemed to fit. We inspected it.

"This is it," said Mrs. Glendon with a smile. "What an easy way to find a house."

May we help you find the right home too?

With Tecumseh Teens

BY MARY V. SEAGER

AT A MEETING OF THE Teen Club committee chairmen and the new president, Marilyn Helzerman, last Tuesday after school, the committees for the year were picked out.

Every member of the club is on some committee. Later committee meetings will be called by the chairmen.

A meeting of the Teen Club officers, advisers from the service clubs, and the committee chairmen was held last Wednesday evening at the Club.

The officers are:

Marilyn Helzerman, president.

David Hohenstein, vice-president.

Sherry Tucker, secretary.

Larry Titley, treasurer.

The advisers from the service clubs were Mr. Jacoby, Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Lucas, Mr. Knudson and Dr. Burkhart.

The treasurer reported that the club has approximately $256.63 in its savings and checking accounts. Numerous bills covering the recent decoration program were presented.

Appointed committee to clean the Teen Club thoroughly once a month was suggested, but nothing definite was decided.

The membership problem was also discussed. The idea of having the membership cards run from Sept. to Sept was suggested. For those kids whose cards run out in January, they would only have to pay 50c for the rest of the year. However, it was not definitely decided.

A new ruling was proposed and passed about signing in and out of the dances. All guests must sign with their sponsors and sign out with their own signature on their departure. No one will be allowed to return after they have left the dance.

The chaperones will be chosen from the service clubs and the members' parents.

The first big dance of the year has been tentatively placed on Oct. 31 with Broderick's Band to play. His band will also play six free dances during the year by union arrangement.

The possibilities of getting a drinking fountain and amplifiers for the record player were also discussed.

From now on all purses will be locked in a cupboard. The key will be given to someone in charge. That person will get the purses out.

The Teen Club sold half a gallon of white paint to the Senior class for $2. A thanks to Sherry Tucker, the secretary for her notes.

☆

INDIVIDUAL CLASS PICTURES were taken Thursday morning first, second and third hours, for the annual.

☆

THERE WAS A RECORD dance after the Hudson game Friday night which was sponsored by the FNC. The school ruling that ticket sales will stop at 10:30 after football games is going to be strictly enforced. There was a large crowd attending.

THERE WAS A TEEN CLUB dance Saturday night from nine until 12 with records. There was a good turn-out.

GAA INITIATION WAS HELD Monday evening in the high school gymnasium. More about that next week.

FFA held a meeting for officers and members Monday night also.

☆

THE JUNIOR MAGAZINE sales started on Wednesday with a class meeting during second hour. More about that, too!, next week.

☆

OUR FIRST AWAY GAME OF the season is with Monroe CC. This should be a great game, so let's have a good turn-out to back the team.

10 Bands Perform Tuesday at Annual Festival

With the title, "God Bless America," the annual Lenawee County Band Festival is being presented Tuesday at 8 p.m. on Recreation Field.

Ten Lenawee County high school bands will take part, each presenting six minutes of music and intricate marching in the 12th annual Festival.

The program portrays historical happenings, traditions of America and even a glance in the future, explains Clare Camburn, originator of the Band Festival idea.

BRITTON, under direction of David Bowin, will start the Festival. Its theme is "The Liberty Bell". On July 8, 1776, our forefathers rang the Liberty Bell, which proclaimed their God-given freedom.

Soon after, the Declaration of Independence was signed. The Britton band will form the Liberty Bell and play suitable music.

Next comes MORENCI, with Charles Winzler in charge, will feature, "The Freeing of the Slaves". God has guided us through many critical times by giving us inspired leaders.

During Civil War Days our land was blessed by the wisdom of the great and humble Abraham Lincoln. Morenci will portray happenings of that time.

ADDISON deals with the theme, "Churches of America". The churches are filled today as never before and it is the American's freedom to worship as he chooses. A Tecumseh church bell will ring during this part of the Festival.

"America the Beautiful" is the theme for TECUMSEH. The beauty of our country is an endless subject. The mountains, the plains, the cities. Under the direction of Don Johnson, what this band does should be interesting indeed.

"Industry", has been taken by BLISSFIELD, David McCoy, director. Our industrial might has no comparison. There is a wealth of material here for Blissfield.

The "Happy Farmer" theme, with SAND CREEK, led by Phil Bush, coming next on the program, should produce some good old tunes and possibly a square-dance.

The scene then changes again to "Culture". DEERFIELD Band, under the direction of Harland Nye, takes the field to portray this boundless subject.

ONSTED Band, with Tom Course in charge, has chosen "School Days". Here we will go back to the three R's and perhaps contrast the old red school house with those of our modern era.

In taking "College Songs", the band from CLINTON, directed by Richard Wegner, has taken an inspiring theme. The marches and songs of the great colleges of America are familiar to most people.

In "The New Age", Alvin Bohms and his ADRIAN musicians will portray some of the things of the future. We are about to enter the space age. In this new age, what were once considered fairy tales, will come true. The Atom will be harnessed. The stars will become our neighbors.

The massed band, composed of over 600 high school musicians will close the program with, "Silver Anniversary" march by Paul Yoder, "You're a Grand Old Flag", by George Cohan, and Star Spangled Banner.

Working on the Band Festival this year are Glenn Kohler, Marjorie Wickwire, Don Purkey and Harold Easton.

Tickets are on sale at C. A. Wright & Son, Don's Grill, Adrian Federal Savings, Tecumseh High School and The Herald.

Admission charges are 75c and 35c.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

THAT'S A MIGHTY HEADY feeling — having an undefeated football team in town.

Next two games are at home, Airport Friday and Mason in a week. Can those Indians keep it up? We hope so.

Jim Lincoln brings complete details on the fourth page of this section.

☆

JUST ONE YEAR AGO THIS week, Jim and I took over as your editors.

Believe me it has been an exciting, rewarding and revealing 12 months, although it hardly seems but a few weeks ago we came to Tecumseh.

Time flies, to coin a phrase.

Looking back at the first of 52 Long and Short columns by this writer, it seems worthwhile quoting a bit.

Back in that initial effort I wrote:

"How did it happen we decided to buy The Tecumseh Herald?

"Of the towns and cities we looked over this summer in our efforts to find 'that' paper, this community stood head and shoulders above all the others."

(This still stands, maybe a little stronger after being around a while.)

"In Tecumseh there is a vitality and growth, fine schools, progressive business establishments, substantial industry.

"As we saw it, Tecumseh is a place where young folks with ambition and a willingness to work can fashion an exciting and rewarding future.

"It's a family-type community, one in which a person wants to raise his children."

(With 12 months under our belts, Jim and I agree with this initial observation 100%.)

"Between us Jim and I have had more than 10 years of experience in the weekly field and that's exactly the sort of newspapering we like the best.

"Both of us get a kick out of writing, selling advertising, taking pictures — and joining the gang in the backshop on press days to help make up pages and mail out the paper.

"We feel the variety offered in weekly journalism beats the daily field, magazine, public relations, radio and television news.

"In addition, followers of the weekly are so much more appreciative. They carefully read their hometown weekly — no scanning here."

(When fashioning this paragraph, I didn't realize how extremely right I was—more so than I could ever imagine. No citizenry did more to make its editors feel right at home than the people of Tecumseh did for Jim and I.

(We were happily flooded with comments those first weeks from folks who said they enjoyed the job we were doing, liked the additional news and the ease with which it could be read. We'll always treasure those wonderful comments.)

"News is the backbone of any newspaper and that's what we will pack our pages with every issue.

"Your help is requested on this point. Lots of stories are self-evident—council and school activities, sports. But there are plenty which The Herald can get only through a tip from a reader.

"Needless to say, Jim and I will greatly appreciate hearing from you should you have a bit of news. That goes for small as well as big yarns."

(This, of course, still stands—and always will as long as we operate your hometown newspaper.)

"Letters to The Herald—whether brickbat or praise—are always welcome. These must be signed if they are to be printed. However, if you want your name withheld we'll be happy to do that. Knowing who writes is protection for us, so that we have proof it is authentic."

(We still enjoy letters, so be sure to write whenever you'd like.)

"For 107 years now, Tecumseh and the surrounding areas have had their weekly Herald.

"Doubtless there have been ups and downs, but through it all, the folks hereabouts have stood firmly behind their hometown paper.

"We humbly accept the responsibility to carry on the destiny of The Herald and hope we can do a competent job for the community."

Since we fashioned those thoughts a year ago, many things have happened in Tecumseh. Most have been for the good. In some of these The Herald played a part.

We have always felt that a newspaper should be an intrinsic segment of the community in which it exists.

In its news columns, the paper must report — honestly, objectively.

Its feature stories and pictures should entertain.

The heart of a good publication is the editorial section. With careful thought and well-prepared articles, public opinion of the community can be molded.

The populace is made aware of certain conditions through the editorial columns, can be led as a body into doing something about them.

At all times, the publishers of The Herald are open to your opinions, you suggestions.

☆

WE GOOFED AND WE'RE sorry.

This all has to do with an ad, appearing in the second section, for W. D. Brown, painter

The catch line should read: "LOOK WHAT HAPPENED TO KARL SCHNEIDER ! !"

I haven't the heart to write the way we garbled poor Karl's last name.

Don't hold it against Mr. Brown, though he'll do a good job of painting for you.

ARTIST RUSSELL STEINKE

Art Classes Begin on Monday Evening

Russell Steinke's art courses begin Monday.

Being held on the second floor of the old Schneider Bros. building on W. Chicago Blvd., next door to Adrian Federal Savings, first session is Monday afternoon, 1 to 4.

Other periods are Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, also evenings of both these days, 7 to 10.

So far, 38 students have signed up, with a dozen more prospects to be contacted, explains Mr. Steinke.

He'll teach oil painting, pastel and black and white — the latter in charcoal, pencil and pen and ink.

Mr. Steinke has been teaching art for seven years in his home-studio on Red Mill Pond.

He studied at the University of Michigan and for three years at the Art Students League in New York.

At the League he was student of Louis Bouche, who is known for his mural work at the Eisenhower museum in Kansas, and Robert B. Hale, curator of American Art at the Metopolitan Museum in New York.

Mr. Steinke was named to the Board of Controls of the League, an honor bestowed upon only the leading artists affiliated with it.

Dan Cisco Lost

Tecumseh's football fortunes took a dip Wednesday when Coach Duncan Leckta learned Dan Cisco suffered a cracked vetebra Monday.

The injury didn't bother Dan, who was in school when his mother called that an X-ray showed the fracture. He was placed in a cast that day.

Battling for Cisco's fullback position will be Ron Johnson and John Aho, the latter who has been brought up from the junior varsity.

Les Dejonghe will fill Dan's defensive role at left end.

Two Flashers Are Being Installed

Traffic flashers at two points on Adrian Highway north and south of the new Tecumseh Acres elementary school, will soon be installed.

City manager Ed Nelson states that the warning devices will slow vehicles to 15 miles an hour.

Civic Center

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Folks Agreeing on Three Points

What's the latest report on the proposed civic center for Tecumseh?

Allan Seager, local author who has been a leader in the group discussing the possibility, makes this observation:

"Most of the folks with whom I've talked have agreed on three things which should be included —an auditorium, a youth center and a library."

What else should be included?

That's the question the civic center committee hopes to have answered in the next few months

The group's desire is to have an opinion stated by every citizen in the area.

"It's entirely up to people what they want a civic center to accomplish," states Mr. Seager.

The St. Lawrence Seaway, he feels, could eventually put Tecumseh at the edge of a metropolitan area. This would have its effects.

Another aspect to be considered: would this be a center for just Tecumseh residents, or would it be something to advertise the community and attract visitors here? Possibly help to induce families to move here?

He continued by saying that such a center should be considered in the light of what may develop here in 20 or 30 years.

The Chamber of Commerce is conducting a canvas of the community to obtain personal opinions.

Don Murphy, Chamber secretary, invites anyone interested to send their thoughts about a community center directly to the Chamber without waiting to be contacted.

Catholic Census Beginning Monday in Tecumseh Area

A census of Catholics in this area begins Monday.

Nearly 100 men from St. Elizbeth's parish will be making a house-to-house canvas to gather the information.

The men will only concern themselves with those persons who have been Baptized in the Catholic Faith.

'All information is confidential," explains cairman Joe Piazza.

The census is being sought by Edward Cardinal Mooney to determine the number of Catholic men, women and children living in the Archdiocese of Detroit.

It further will determine the number of children receiving or not receiving religious training; the number of children of preschool age.

These statistics will assist in determining future building needs for the archdiocese.

Married children residing with parents are to be considered as a separate family.

Workers will continue with the census until Oct. 19.

4th, 5th, 6th Graders Moving into New School

Tecumseh Acres school will be opened for grades four, five and six Oct, 13, announces Supt. James McDowell.

Half of the rooms will be completed about Oct. 10, permitting the first students to enter the new building the following Monday.

All Tecumseh Acres students have been attending Patterson mornings, while regular Patterson pupils went afternoons.

Beginning Oct. 13, Patterson's fourth, fifth and sixth graders will go full days, 9 a.m. until 12 noon, 1:15 until 3:45 p.m.

Children in kindergarten-through-third will continue the present arrangement until approximately Nov. 1, Mr. McDowell stated.

Apple Queen To Enter State Contest

Winner of the Lenawee Count Apple Queen title, being staged in Tecumseh Oct. 31, will take part in state competition at Grand Rapids in December.

She'll be given a complete wardrobe for the Michigan affair as her award for being named county queen, reports Mrs. Beatrice Ring and Dick Hicks, chairman of the Tecumseh contest.

With the Michigan regal title goes some fabulous trips and prizes.

These include a junket to Washington, D.C., New York City, Philadelphia and Boston in company with Michigan queens of potatoes, blossoms, peaches, cherries and dairy, to mention a few.

In previous years, the state queens have also been sent to Chicago and Minneapolis for special events.

Of course, all expenses are paid.

Girls in the contest here will be judged by three out-of-county qualified persons.

Their selection for queen will be based on these points:

1. Beauty, 50%.
2. Personality, 20%.
3. Poise, 15%.
4. Apple knowledge, 15%.

Entrants should be 17 by Dec. 1 and no older than 25. They must be single and residents of Lenawee County.

Mr. Hicks has dispatched letters to principals of the 14 Lenawee County high schools, to Adrian College and Siena Heights inviting them to have students select at least one entrant from each area.

"The contest is open to anyone wishing to take part," explains Mr. Hicks. A picture and short personality sketch of each contestant should be mailed to the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce no later than Oct. 20.

Selecting of a Lenawee County Queen is part of Tecumseh's celebration of National Apple Week, Oct. 26-31. During it, area apple growers will display their produce on specially constructed sidewalk counters.

The Tecumseh Area Ministerial Association announced a union observance of Reformation season with a service to be held October 19 at the Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. Dr. Henry Hitt Crane of Detroit will be the speaker.

He has been an unflinching spokesman for causes which have not always been popular such as civil rights, justice in labor-management relations, separation of church and state, abolition of A-and H-bomb tests and Christian pacifism.

The service will serve to remind people of many Christian churches of the things for which they stand as "protestants", rather than what they oppose.

The offering will serve to defray the expenses of the service.

Unbeaten Indians Face Airport

By JIM LINCOLN

Coach Dunc Leckta's Tecumseh Indians whipped Monroe CC last Friday night, 7 to 0, despite seven fumbles and failure to tally on four other scoring opportunities.

The win moved the Indians into the top spot in the Southeastern Michigan Conference, a position they could strengthen here Friday night when Tecumseh is host to the Airport eleven.

Friday's victory at Monroe proved costly for the Indians when Dave Weakly, regular right halfback suffered a fractured left arm and is probably now lost for the season.

Coach Leckta has juggled the backfield for this week and will start Steve Kruger at quarterback and move Larry Yoakum to right half.

Another change will find Tom Walters starting at right end instead of Terry Hendricks.

Only Tecumseh mistakes prevented the game at Monroe from turning into a rout. The Indians fumbled away the pigskin in the first quarter after moving to a first down on the Monroe two-yard line.

In the second quarter, Tecumseh had a TD-run nullified by a clipping penalty, and in the third period a drive deep into Monroe territory again was lost by a fumble.

A sustained 60-yard drive in the final quarter ended with Mike Walters plunging over from the one. Yoakum placekicked the extra point.

Monroe CC, winner by a lopsided score in its opener, was completely bottled up and registered only one first down in the entire game. Tecumseh rolled to about 15 first downs and over 240 yards rushing. Yoakum hit on 7 of 12 passes.

Reports about Airport reveal a team about the same size of Tecumseh, a speedy quarterback in Lyle Lambrix and a couple of good size players on the line.

Tecumseh	0	0 0 7

Scoring: Walters (1, plunge). Extra Point: Yoakum, placekick.

OUT SIX WEEKS—That's the verdict on Dave Weakly (right), who suffered a fracture of his arm in the Monroe Catholic Central win last week. Taking his place in the starting lineup will be Steve Kruger (left), who turned in an exceptional performance last week following Dave's injury.

Dutch Looks Good in Special Match

Darwin "Dutch" Creger, one of Tecumseh's 300 bowlers of last year, did right well for himself in a warmup match Sunday.

Invited to cross alleys with Johnny King, Ohio and Illinois state champion, at Lenawee Recreation, Dutch was outstanding.

King managed to nip him 679-624 in the scheduled series, but when the pair rolled another three-game series, Dutch took it, 610-544.

One of Tecumseh's finest keglers, Dutch tossed a perfect game during a league match last winter at the Tecumseh Airport Bowl.

Adrian CC Wins Over Britton 11

A second-half rally fell one point short for Britton-Macon last Friday night when the Tories bowed to visiting Adrian CC, 13 to 12.

After a dismal first half dominated by Adrian, Britton rallied in the third quarter for two scores. Neither team threatened seriously in the final stanza.

The loss evens Britton's record at 1-1. Adrian CC is undefeated with two victories.

With Tecumseh Teens

BY MARY V. SEAGER

IT'S BEEN A LONG TIME since the townspeople have heard shouting and horn honking on the Friday night after an "away" football game. It sounds awfully nice.

Let's everyone help support the team to a League championship this year by going to all the games. Start with the Airport game this Friday night here!

☆

THERE WAS A GOOD CROWD at the Teen Club dance on Saturday night. The dance ran from nine to twelve with records. These dances will be held on the weekends of away football and basketball games.

☆

GAA HELD ITS ANNUAL initiation last Monday night.

Fifty-three girls became members of the club then. They had to crawl through a fun-house in which here was: soggy oatmeal, rotten tomatoes, limp spaghetti and at the end they had to sit in mud and corncobs, be rubbed with grease, have starch poured in their hair and had to eat partially cooked tapioca.

After this they took a shower and cleaned up the mess. A regular meeting was held in Monday with volleyball, football, soccer, and field hockey being played.

☆

FNC ALSO HELD THEIR initiation this week.

☆

ANNUAL JUNIOR MAGAZINE sales was started Wednesday with a class meeting during second hour. The salesman came and explained the art of selling magazines to the class.

There will be really nice prizes for the top two salesmen in the class; a watch, phonograph, bicycle or portable radio. The top 39 will receive Tecumseh toy bears or dogs.

The sales end on Oct. 8. The percentage of money gained from the sales will be used to finance the senior trip.

☆

MR. TATAR, THE ADVISER, Doris Oliphant, the president, and Dave Champanois, the vice-president of the Student Council went to Ann Arbor to the Student Council Convention.

It began with the general assembly with four different speakers. At 10:45 there was a total group discussion. The small discussion groups started at 11:30.

The discussions were of a type helpful to advisers, council officers, and council members.

The luncheons were held in the League and Union ballrooms with speakers. The convention adjourned at three o'clock.

Some cabbage head!

Ivan Maynard raised one that weighed 17½ pounds, was 38 inches around — all in his garden near Ridgeway.

The cabbage has a normal core and is solid inside. It is 11 inches high and will no doubt provide salad material for sometime.

APPROVES CHOICE—U. S. Senator Charles E. Potter seems pleased with the sign Tecumsehite Mrs. Donald Nixon displays for him. Occasion was the Potter visit here Monday for a coffee in Don's Grill. Senator Potter crossed up the local hosts, drank milk, thereby making an opportunity to boost dairy farming in Michigan.

United Nations Back This Children,s Fund

Local campaign for UNICEF will get under way with a meeting of all interested persons Oct. 8 at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Bonner, 800 Rogers Highway.

What does UNICEF mean. The initials used so often mean United Nations International Children's Fund.

It is supported entirely by voluntary contributions, mainly from governments. Private individuals also contribute from small sums to substantial amounts raised in local campaigns.

UNICEF is an intregal part of the United Nations. It was set up in 1946 by the General Assembly, is governed by an Executive Board of 30 nations which meets twice a year.

UNICEF helps countries to control mass diseases. It supplies drugs, vaccines, and equipment to combat malaria and TB. It helps to alleviate malnutrition by supplying powdered milk.

Two-thirds of the world's 900,000,000 children are ill or undernourished. We all have a stake in UNICEF — for health problems have no boundiaries.

Apple Growers Should Check for Leaf Rollers

Red-banded leaf rollers are busy at work in the state's fruit trees, reports Al Dowdy, insect control specialist at Michigan State University.

Infestations are spotty, but Dowdy says the pest is still a real threat to fruit growers.

You can't see much damage on fruits now. But as the fruits mature, the pest causes blemishes on the skin. And injury continues after harvest unless fruits are promptly and properly cared for.

Apples are usually hardest hit although the leaf roller likes all Michigan fruits, Dowdy points out.

It isn't easy to spot the leaf rollers because the little greenish worms live inside "rolled" or webbed leaves which are often attached to fruits. Check trees closely to see if there are any of the little worms.

If you've got an average of three to five worms per tree, Dowdy recommends you spray with a chemical called phosdrin. It is the only insecticide that will control the leaf roller at this time.

Dowdy cautions users of phosdrin to read carefully and follow directions on the container. The material is highly toxic. Fruits can be sprayed up to one day before harvest.

Two Brantingham Boys Attend Malone College

James and Dave Brantingham, sons of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Brantingham, 212 Van Buren St. have enrolled at Malone College — Ohio's newest Christian college campus—in Canton.

A Quaker institution, Malone College began its second year of operation here last week with 315 students registering for classes.

These students came from 11 states and represent 29 different denominations, including all three major faiths.

In September, 1957 Malone College moved from Cleveland where the campus had been located for 65 years to its new buildings located in northwestern residential Canton.

At this same time Malone also began the development of a liberal arts curriculum with instruction offered in the new divisions of science, social science, education, and literature.

Dave is a senior and Jim a sophomore.

Thanks again,

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kromberg, Jr.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to all who were so kind to us during the illness and death of our husband and father. Especially the Rev. J. D. GOODWILL VISITS

ANTENNAS

We were called out on an antenna job the other day and what I experienced might help anyone who is contemplating erecting their own antenna system. This fellow put his antenna high up on a barn roof top some two hundred feet from his home. His reasoning was that it was higher and therefore it would get him a better picture.

First of all, the longer the lead-in, the weaker the signal becomes. And second, height is not always the answer for the best antenna; other considerations coming before it. In this case, the right type of antenna directly on his roof was the answer to receiving the best signal.

Phone 692-J and let Cook Electric service your antenna problem. We have had numerous experiences in this area and will cost ess in the long run.

Ray B. Sommers was graduated from Fayette High School in Ohio, and received his college education at Huntington College in Huntington, Indiana. While at Huntington, Mr. Sommers majored in mathematics and minored in physics and chemistry. Immediately following graduation from college Mr. Sommers spent four years in the Air Force, serving his overseas tour in Fairbanks, Alaska, as a jet pilot. For the past two years Mr. Sommers taught science and mathematics in the Morenci Area Schools. He is married, and has one daughter, aged 2. The Sommerses are living at 1011 River Acres Drive.

The Important Item: Readers

One year ago this week, the circulation of The Herald was flirting with the 2,000 mark.

Today, it stands at 2,650—an increase of about 33⅓.

In the newspaper business, readership is the important item. How many folks read The Herald each week?

Based on national surveys which state that every purchased publication is read by an average of three persons, we have a total readership of 7,950.

That's our selling point to advertisers. It's not how many copies, it's how many people see the ads.

On this point, our loyal followers can do their hometown newspaper a lot of good by telling store keepers when they buy, "I saw your ad in this week's Herald."

Then too, when folks spend their hard-earned cash on a paper you can be sure they're going to read it, especially when they'll find considerable hometown news on all of its pages.

This brings us to the "meaty point" of our editorial. A newspaper is primarily made up of news. Each week, all its resources are strained to the breaking point to gather every fact available about the things which took place in the community the previous seven days.

Future happenings also get considerable attention—and often times, editorial boosts.

Take as an example this week's edition:

- The Band Festival is next Tuesday and we've devoted considerable space telling our readers about the event.
- In several weeks, the Chamber of Commerce is picking a Lenawee County Apple Queen—this also gets detailed attention.

And so it goes, every worthwhile event in the area—whether big or small—gets a helping hand from the community newspaper, which, after all is its job.

We have presented these thoughts for two reasons: this is National Newspaper Week and it also is our first birthday as publishers of The Herald.

This Is Robust 12-Year-Old

Few events in any community can match the Lenawee County Band Festival, which is held annually in Tecumseh.

Featuring ten well-drilled and talented high school musical organizations, the Festival celebrates its 12th birthday Tuesday.

And what a robust 12-year-old the Festival has grown into!

This year's event is being sponsored by the new Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce—but two old timers will be on hand to do their stuff.

One of the pair is Clare Camburn, retired Tecumseh High School band instructor, who conceived the original idea and has been close to the Festival each year since.

Other is The Rev. Blair Bashore, the fellow who has long worked with Mr. Camburn and handles the public address.

We hardly need state that the Festival is grand entertainment. Most of you already know that.

But to those who haven't attended a Festival, possibly newcomers to the community, if you have the opportunity, be in the Recreation Field grandstand Tuesday evening.

Here are our congratulations to the Band Festival on its 12th birthday.

'Reverend' Is Not a Title

(Editor's note: This editorial appeared recently in The Lapeer County Press and we thought it would be of interest to our readers.)

To make your pastor happy, call him something besides "Reverend."

More often than not, the word is wrongly used, so commonly that many ministers accept it as one of the crosses they must bear.

Many people say 'Reverend Smith' and what is still worse, 'good morning, Reverend.'

It is never proper to speak to a minister as 'reverend' or to speak to him as 'Reverend Smith.'

Alexander Woolcott used to call this error a 'light hearted vu'garity.'

The Christian Century has spoken of it as an 'odious practice which beginning with the illiterate and unchurched, has spread in recent years until one is no longer safe from it.'

Unlike the words professor, judge and dean, which are titles and nouns, reverend is neither. It is not a title, it is not a noun. It is an adjective.

While one may properly speak of a judge or a dean, he does not properly speak of a 'reverend.'

The word reverend is exactly like the word 'honorable' in its use. You don't speak of 'an honorable.' You don't say 'good morning Honorable Franklin.'

The word is used only in speaking OF a person never in speaking TO a person. It is never properly used without the article THE preceding it and without the term mister or the Christian name of the clergyman coming between it and his surname.

'Adam and Eve' Portrays Story of Creation

Filmed in the flesh and Eastman color, "Adam and Eve", which opens at the Strand Theatre Tuesday for five days, appears on the motion picture screen in the first true and natural portrayal of man's creation.

"You will experience with Adam the first awareness of Eve as a woman," states Walt Nichols.

Artistically treated with love and intelligence, "Adam and Eve" visualizes the creation of the world and its two first human beings. It dares to tell the story of their first living moments and what happens when they eat the forbidden fruit.

Christine Martel, Miss Universe and Miss France of 1953, one of the world's most beautiful women, portrays the difficult role of Eve.

"Adam and Eve" is a frank and authentic portrayal of creation as Producer-Director Gout captures the controversial subject on film without losing any of the beauty, naturalness or authenticity of the story.

On the same program a Featurette in Color and Cinemascope, "Land of the Bible," a story of the old and the new land of the Bible—"Israel," the birthplace of three religious faiths.

Education means developing the mind, not stuffing the memory.

THS Senior Working for Merit Scholarship

Principal Neville L. Hart of Tecumseh High School today announced that senior David Holden has been named Semi-finalists in the 1958-59 National Merit Scholarship competition.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Holden, 208 S. Union St.

David is among 10,000 of the highest scorers on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, the nationwide test of educational development given in over 14,000 high schools last April.

The Semifinalists outscored over 479,000 classmates, and thus moved a step closer to an estimated $5 million in Merit Scholarships to be awarded in the 1958-59 program.

They now face another rigorous three-hour examination December 6, the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board, which will further substantiate their high scores.

In the final phase of the competition, high school grades, extra-curricular activities, school citizenship and leadership of the students will be evaluated, along with the scores on the tests.

About May 1, at least 735 fortunate young people will be named the Merit Scholars of 1959.

All Finalists will receive Certificates of Merit attesting to their high ability; and all colleges and universities will be notified, thus enabling these students to be considered for a wide range of other scholarship awards.

Merit Scholarships are four-year award covering the four undergraduate college years, and each award carries a stipend tailored to the need of the individual winner. The stipends have been averaging about $650 a year.

"Will I really get automatic receipts if I pay by check?"

Indeed, yes. When a check that you've drawn on your account at our bank is presented to us for payment, we "cancel" it by punching holes in it to show that it has been paid. Cancellation plus the payee's endorsement makes the check itself a receipt. Then we return the check, and your other cancelled checks, to you with our regular statement of your account. Complete receipts make for better personal records, which make for better-balanced personal budgets. Come in; open a checking account here; use it often!

A message from Ralph Hodges, "Your Pharmacist"

FROM OCTOBER 5th to 11th WE CELEBRATE NATIONAL PHARMACY WEEK.

It has alwayys been pharmacy's responsibility to supply the medicines and health-aids necessary for the preservation of health and the cure of sickness.

WITHIN THE LAST FIFTY YEARS, PHARMACY HAS MADE MORE BENEFICIAL PROGRESS THAN DURING THE PAST THOUSANDS OF YEARS.

We now have potent specifics that can be depended upon to accomplish a desired result. In our prescription departments are thousands of different bottles, containing important medicines that ancient rulers would have given their kingdom to possess.

DURING PHARMACY WEEK WE RENEW OUR PLEDGE TO PRACTICE PHARMACY AS OUR CODE OF ETHICS DIRECTS.

Pharmacists are taught to consider the health and safety of the public to be more important than greater profits.

YOU CAN ALWAYS DEPEND ON A PHARMACIST.

That is why thoughtful people make certain that every medicine or health-aid is secured from a pharmacy. Our knowledge and desire to preserve our professional reputation assures that every product we supply will be potently fresh, of recognized quality and fairly priced.

Young Trees Available Now

LANSING — Some 18,000,000 young trees have been placed on sale by the Michigan Conservation Department and orders are being accepted for fall planting season.

The planting stock available from state nurseries includes red pine seedlings and transplants and jack pine seedlings. Prices vary according to age class and species.

Planting stock is sold at cost by state nurseries for reforestation purposes and Christmas tree production, but not for ornamental plantings.

Tree plantings for reforestation produce valuable timber products and are extremely beneficial to recreation, wildlife, and soil and water conservation on farmlands.

Lifting of young trees is underway at the Department's three nurseries and stock ordered now will arrive in time for fall planting. Usually, stock is shipped up to November 1.

A postcard to the Conservation Department's Forestry Division, Lansing 26, will bring full details and order blanks.

Cub Pack Needs 4 Interested Men

Cub Scout Pack 4 needs four responsible men interested in Scouting if the program of that pack is to continue in this community.

A meeting will be held in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Dustin Monday at 8:30 p.m.

Fathers of Cubs in this pack are asked by the committee to attend this meeting. Two evenings a month is the time required to help promote a boy's Scouting experience.

Cub Scouts and their families of this pack started the 1958-59 year with a skating party Monday evening.

If the boys are as determined in Scouting as they were in upright skating, this will be a meaningful year, stated one Scout mother.

Nazarene Church of Tecumseh Joins in National Plan

Plans for the Tecumseh Nazarene Church to take part in the denomination's goal of reaching one million people with a personal visit during a "Week of Witnessing," Oct. 5-12, were announced here this week.

The Rev. Dale R. Harvey, pastor, said the local church will endeavor to bring a "vital Christian witness" to at least 125 persons.

Mrs. Harold Lawhead is the chairman of the visitation program.

A record attendance is expected at the 10 a.m. service on Oct. 12—Golden Anniversary of the denomination.

An attractive four-page folder in gold and black will be given out during the Week of Witnessing. It is entitled: "You are one in a million"

The folder tells how Nazarenes around the world will be witnessed to "salvation through Christ" during that week. On the back is an invitation to the anniversary Sunday morning service, Oct. 12.

What Is Faith? Here's Opinion of One Person

Robert W. Ries of 7167 Ridge Rd. suggests a column of favorite meditations.

He submits this one by Dr. J. W. Wimberly of Madison, Wisconsin for the pleasure of Herald readers.

What is Christianitly? What is our faith?

Faith is not made up of sweetly sung hymns, of correctly phrased prayers, or rounded sonorous tones from the pulpit. Christianity is stuff of very stuff.

Christanity is about you—the best about you and the worst about you. Scripture teaches us with plainess, that the basic motivation of unredeemed man is the satisfaction of his ego.

Faith is an intellectual acquiesence to the proposition Jesus Christ is the Son of God, Lord and Savior of our lives, but it is more than acceptance.

More than an affirmative nod of the head, it is an experience with Jesus Christ which lifts all of life, turns it inside out, and brings into being a new person.

A person who knows the supreme joy of having his life ruled by the power and glory of God.

"TOMORROW WILL GIVE US SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT"

When you reach the future tomorrows, will you think about what you might have done in the present to insure a healthier life? Are you punishing your body now by not taking proper care of it?

There is nothing more ageing than prolonged sickness. Any illness has a tendency to overwork the heart and other important organs. The sooner trouble is corrected the better.

At the first sign of any ailment visit your physician. He will diagnose what is wrong, and prescribe medication to correct it so that you will have many healthier tomorrows.

TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTO

NATIONAL PUBLICITY — This photograph of an aluminum top for a Ford Ranchero owned by Carl Barnes, 516 W. Pottawatamie St., appears in the current issue of Ford Times. This is the pocket-size publication put out by Ford Motor and sent to all Ford owners. Mr. Barnes' inovation was made with the help of Meyers Aircraft. It weighs about 45 pounds, screws in place, is strong enough to hold a boat on top. Windows are of safety glass.

Fight Against Cancer Big Auxiliary Project

Mrs. Leedy Myers of Kansas, national VFW Auxiliary president, visits Detroit next week.

Among those meeting with her will be Tecumseh Auxiliary president, Mrs. Gaza Kish, and four other members of the local group.

Mrs. Myer's program for the Auxiliary during her term as president emphasizes her interest in the Auxiliary fund for cancer aid and research, which she calls "our organization's most worthwhile project".

"Our members, of course, receive direct gifts from this fund", she points out, "but more important is the fact that the research we make possible will some day benefit all Americans".

She has set the goal for the 1958-59 cancer fund at $325,000 which equals one dollar per member. The fund, started ten years ago is built by voluntary contributions from Auxiliary members.

SINCE 1948 MEMBERS have given $737,575, of which $580,000 has been granted to approved institutions doing research on cancer.

In the same time, $184,000 has been returned outright to Auxiliary members who are suffering with cancer, to help pay for operations and other medical expenses.

Auxiliary members annually give more than 3 million dollars, and devote thousands of volunteer hours, to many other programs for hospitalized veterans and their families, community service, Americanism education, youth groups, civil defense and veterans' legislation, and contribute heavily to the multi-million dollar V.F.W. National Home at Eaton Rapids, Michigan for the children of deceased or disabled veterans.

REMEMBER 1954

The cautious buyer in 1954 decided to "Wait for prices to come down" — Remember?

He's paying 11% more than the 1954 prices for the same house today and 61% more than the prices 11 years ago! Yes, we know that the 1958 Buyer is even more cautious today, but we'd like to remind you of what happened before and, we feel sure, will happen again — he'll pay more in 1959 and 1960 than today's prices.

THIS IS A GOOD TIME TO BUY REAL ESTATE

John Jacob Astor said "The time to buy is the time when others are selling." He did pretty well! We have some excellent values today that we can strongly recommend to those sincerely interested in GOOD VALUES. COME IN AND TALK IT OVER.

St. Peter's Celebrating 125th Birthday

First service in the 125th anniversary celebration of St. Peter's Episcopal Church will be held Sunday with a prayer for the anniversary said at both the 8 and 11 a.m. gatherings.

At the 11 a.m. family worship of the Holy Communion there will be a choir procession around the inside of the church to the "Station" near the front door where a commemoration of the laying of the cornerstone will be held.

Excerpts from the sermon preached on that occasion by the Rev. W. N. Lyster, first rector, will be read by the present rector, the Rev. Frank Hawthorne.

The parish still has in its possession the preaching gown worn by "Priest Lyster," as he was then often called.

Angelican clergy of a hundred years ago and more donned gowns over their cassocks when they entered the pulpit.

The Rev. Jack Lee, Director of the Department of Boys Work of the Diocese of Michigan and a one-time lay leader at St. Peter's will act as Gospeller and assistant at the Eucharist.

The first Episcopal services in Tecumseh were held in the home of Dr. Peter Galatian, a physician, two years before the present building was commenced.

After William Lyster was elected rector, a subscription was raised for the construction of the church from townspeople and from contributions in the east, among whom were included President Andrew Jackson and Henry Clay.

Visitors are welcome at both services and at the coffee hour following.

Recent improvements have been made to the church, which is the oldest standing Episcopal church building in Michigan and one of the oldest in the midwest.

The church has been completely re-wired, the tower has been flood lighted and new fixtures will be hung on the porch and in the vestibules.

In the planning stage are wrought iron railings for the the front steps, redecoration of the sanctuary and the rest of the interior, remodeling of the Sacristy and a complete painting of the exterior. The porch and front has been painted for the anniversary.

On Oct. 30 the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, Bishop of Michigan, will speak at the parish anniversary banquet.

On Nov. 2 the Bishop will return for Confirmation at 11 a.m. and for the Open House in the afternoon to which townspeople and friends from neighboring communities will be invited.

Queen Entries Roll In

Orchards Will Display Wares Aiong Sidewalks

Entries for the Lenawee Apple Queen contest have been rolling in, Dick Hicks told Chamber of Commerce retail division board Tuesday at a luncheon meeting.

Deadline is Oct. 20, he explained and by then probably 25 or 30 will have gotten into the contest.

The County Queen will be chosen here Oct. 31.

Students at Tecumseh High School named Renate Hoffman, Johanna Young and Linda Hanna as their choice Tuesday afternoon.

The County queen will be entered in state competition at Grand Rapids in December. Her award from the Chamber here will be a complete wardrobe for this affair.

Girls judged as two top runners-up will each get $25 Savings Bonds. Each entrant will also be given a prize. Mrs. Beatrice Ring is in charge of this.

☆

SELECTING A queen is just one portion of a Tecumseh celebration by County growers.

At a meeting of the County Horticulture Society Monday, Chamber secretary Don Murphy learned from five orchard owners that they would be on hand.

These include Jack Mowatt & Son, Lewis Orchard, Keeney Orchard, German Orchard and Tanner Orchard.

Bob Reis of Ridgeway had previously agreed.

Others are being contacted by Faye Whelan and Owen Partridge, co-chairmen of this part of the celebration.

Besides apples, the guests will likely have cider, honey and other orchard products. These will all be for sale.

☆

THE ANNUAL Halloween parade and prize awarding also figures in with Harvey Wilson in charge of the parade and Dick Eggleston arranging for awards to children wearing the most outstanding costumes.

The parade is expected to include the High School band, 1959 convertibles with queen and hunners-up and youngsters in Halloween get-up.

There'll also be cider and donuts for all the small fry, this under direction of local service clubs.

NEWEST AGENCY—A Rambler agency, managed by Lamar Cheever, opened this week in Tecumseh. It is owned by Harvey Wilson and located in his former Plymouth showroom at the corner of E. Pottawatamie and Ottawa. Rambler is the small car sensation which has skyrocketed in sales the past year. Its manufacturer, American Motors, showed the biggest profit gain of any auto manufacturer during fiscal 1957.

Council Session 'Roars' on into Tuesday A. M.

By JIM LINCOLN

A sudden change in Michigan law for placing issues on the November ballot has kayoed Council's intentions of putting the revolving fund before the voters next month.

City attorney James Beardsley reported to Council Monday night that notice of change was received only three days in advance of the deadline, Sept. 16.

Also, Council did not act officially on the fund until Sept. 15, the day before.

Mr. Beardsley suggested a special election, probably in late January or February. The revolving fund, new in the state, would save the city considerable money without raising taxes.

☆

COUNCIL, presented with a petition by Mrs. Harold Clark, rejected the Tecumseh High School FFA's proposal to use land near the dump for raising steers and building a small shelter there.

Mrs. Clark also presented a petition, signed by many, protesting the stench from the city dump.

Council authorized city manager Ed Nelson to investigate fencing the entire dump and to limit dumping by residents to certain hours. Better control of dumping and burning is sought.

Editor's note—Mrs. Clark and the city manager, jostling each other about the dump's condition, what to do, etc., highlighted the entire marathon council session — it lasted until 12:15 a.m. Tuesday—with a brief exchange over whether rats should be allowed to grow fat at the dump.

Mrs. Clark, protesting the shooting of rats during late hours, inquired about the city's contacts with an exterminating company.

Mr. Nelson exclaimed the exterminating company was ruining what was once good hunting and shooting for local hunters, who in turn had protested the city was destroying the sport.

Both agreed the rats should go.

☆

JACK OSBURN, Tecumseh real estate agent, aired his complaints as to the failure of the city manager to make final decisions.

He said that he and William Powell, another local realty agent, stand to loose $3,000 to $4,000 because the city official implied one thing and did another.

Mr. Nelson defended his position by saying there was confusion concerning the installation of water and sewer lines to property, recently sold by the real estate men.

Mr. Osburn said it was his understanding and that of other interested parties that the city manager had promised to install water and sewer lines to the edge of property proposed for a subdivision behind the Kroger store.

The city manager replied that the lines were to be installed to the edge of M-50, and not several hundred feet north.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

WOULD YOU CHANCE A guess on the number of compressors Tecumseh Products has made during its 24 years here?

The correct number appears at the end of this column.

ARE THERE ANY HAM radio operators in the area?

Brother John of Boysville is looking for a volunteer who would like to work with some of his young men.

There is ample radio equipment at the school and some interested boys—but nobody qualified to instruct.

Brother John says he would like to have an evening class, possibly once a week.

Call Macon 38 if you'd like to help out.

AT FRIDAY'S FOOTBALL game, an Airport player was seriously injured.

Tim Neill, at the public address, asked for a doctor to report to the visitor's bench. Luckily Dr. Merwin Blanden was present and responded.

Maybe we should have a team physician, who would be on the bench at every game, always ready to check boys in case of injury, moments after the accident occurs.

TO JAZZ UP OUR LITTLE piece on having an undefeated football team in town last week, column we ran this cut—

Well, we're not the superstitious kind. Nor do we think Coaches Leckta and Rotunno are

☆

ONE OF THE GAYEST DOGS around Friday was "Tubo", a two-year-old brown, cocker spaniel owned by Mr. and Mrs. Don Purkey, N. Occidental Highway.

While driving by the Purkey home, I saw a well-fed pheasant blast off from the weeds near the roadway, obviously flushed by someone.

That someone was "Tubo", who appeared a fraction of a second later, tearing down the road.

Suddenly, out of sheer exhilaration, "Tubo" leaped straight up into the air—it looked about two or three feet off the ground.

I would loved to have caught this fetching autum tableau on film.

"When folks need an oil change or lube and want to get groceries, they can leave their autos with us, visit A&P. When the shopping list is completed, their car will be ready," he adds.

The new Standard will feature a complete line of that firm's products, offer battery service and car washes. Road service will also be available.

Orders for home-heating oil, bulk gasoline and oil can be made at the station and they'll be relayed to James R. Barton, local Standard bulkman.

Rounding out the staff will be Earl Kruger, full-time; Jerry Barton Elroy Vanderpool, Tom Dickinson, part-time.

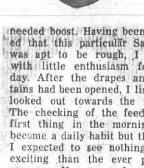
Through My Window



With thanks to the Doctor for his pokes and pills and thanks to the Herald for again making space available for our weekly chats, here I am back again! I also want to thank all of you for the thoughtful cards, notes and personal inquiries. I am sure your best wishes played no small part in getting me back on the 'well list' again.

When one isn't feeling well there is nothing more depressing than bad weather or at least that is how it seems to me. This one particular day had been miserable; a more untypical August day is hard to imagine. A drizzly rain had fallen off and on all day and the lead gray clouds hung low. The thermometer barely rose out of the 50's; it was all thoroughly depressing. Just to make matters worse, as if they needed to be, my little virus seemed to be enjoying the bad weather and was having a field day. My temperature had gone up, the chills had come back—it was the kind of a day good only to forget.

Late in the afternoon, Mom had just gotten home, a timid sun made several weak attempts to break through the oppressing layer of clouds. Mom had just popped the thermometer in my mouth and, while waiting for those unbelievably long three minutes to pass, the sun really broke through and we began to notice several blue-jays flying about. Finally the thermometer came out and as if it were a signal, a blue-jay lit on the feeder. Seconds later another came and then another. Almost before I could get Mom's attention, we had FIVE blue-jay's on the feeder!

We could hardly believe our eyes! Over and over we counted. One - two - three - four - there were actually five blue-jays crowded on our small feeder. How exciting! All our aches and pains were forgotten. During the two or three minutes that the blue-jay family spent at our free lunch counter all the discomfort and gloom of the day faded away. Even now thinking back and remembering our feeder full of jay's gives us a thrill.

Upon another occasion Mother Nature gave our morale a much needed boost. Having been warned that this particular Saturday was apt to be rough, I awoke with little enthusiasm for the day. After the drapes and curtains had been opened, I listlessly looked out towards the feeder. The checking of the feeder the first thing in the morning has become a daily habit but this day I expected to see nothing more exciting than the ever present sparrows. How wrong I was! Just as my sleepy eyes focused on the feeder in flew Mrs. Downy Woodpecker. (How striking she looked in her new fall suit of black and white.)

Although the downy's are common visitors in the Winter, during the summer months they like to rough it in the woods; we hadn't seen any of them since last Spring. For quite a while Mrs. Downy worked on the limb attached to the feeder and the longer I watcher her, the higher my spirits rose. By the time she had completed her inspection and had flown away, I was fully prepared to face the day, which fortunately turned out to be not nearly as bad as we had expected.

So it is, that over and over again we are repaid, and repaid a hundred fold, for the time and money spent in maintaining our feeding stations. The birds are always interesting to watch but when an occasion arises that calls for something a little special or extra, they always come through with what is needed. When down, either physically or mentally, it is amazing what a boost those little extras at the feeder can be. We will always be grateful to Mother Nature and her feathered children!

Next Week: Kids Will Be Kids.

Report Card System Changing

By JAMES McDOWELL
Superintendent of Schools

Reporting to parents the progress which a child is making in school is an important and difficult matter.

Last year, improved report cards were developed by the Board of Education, parents, administration and teachers for all grades, kindergarten through twelve.

However, further study indicates a need for additional information in several areas and a program has been developed to improve reporting to parents this year.

The improved plan of reporting to parents in the elementary school cannot begin in all grades at once, as certain preliminary information must be gathered together before reporting and this begins at the kindergarten level.

Therefore, this year the improved reporting can be done only in the first and second grades as only in those grades is it possible to select as yet adequate facts.

In the third grade through the sixth the cards which were developed last year will be used and in the seventh through the twelfth grade an improved card similar to that used last year has been developed.

The greatest improvement is in the reporting to parents of progress made in the first and second grades this year and which, if approved by the parents, will be advanced next year to the third grade.

☆

CHILDREN IN Tecumseh have in the past been graded in letter markings A, B, C, D, and E, according to whether the child was excellent, above average, average, below average, or failing in the group to which he was assigned.

If the group was in general a slow group, a child might rate higher than he would be in a faster group. Parents judged their children primarily by whether they came home with an A or some other letter mark.

Honor rolls were once a feature of this kind of marking and parents berated their children if they didn't "Make the Grade," so to speak.

Psychologically this is known to be deleterious to improvement and the honor roll system was abandoned in Tecumseh Public Schools years ago.

At the high school level, at the present, it is still necessary to mark on the letter basis as colleges and universities require this letter grade for entrance.

However, in the elementary school it is not necessary and an improved method has been developed and will be used this fall.

☆

THE CALIFORNIA Achievement tests were used to test all first-grade pupils last spring and a different form of the same test will be given this fall with the express idea of using the information to report the progress of the child to parents.

These tests indicate the grade level of a pupil in months and years in the areas of reading vocabulary, reading comprehension, arithmetic reasoning, arithmetic fundamentals, mechanics of English and spelling.

Thus a parent will not receive a letter mark indicating the position of the pupil in his class but a number indicating the grade level of his child in reference to children all over the United States.

For instance a child may actually be in the second month of the school grade and receive a mark of fifth month of the second grade in reading vocabulary on the test.

This would indicate that the child is three months further advanced in reading vocabulary than the average pupil in his grade all over the United States at this point in his education.

Areas needing improvement are evident as well as areas of superiority and the teacher and parents may be able to plan to help their children more readily.

☆

PARENTS IN the kindergarten, first and second grades should not be expecting letter grades on papers and cards as this type of reporting will not be done this year.

An evening meeting for parents of these children will be held before results of the tests are made available to parents and the administration and teachers will be present to review report cards wit parents.

These reports will not be available until after the twelfth week of school and these pupils will not receive information until after that date.

Dog Is Shot Seven Times

A dog was shot seven times by police Tuesday, but escaped and hadn't been located by noon Wednesday.

First reported on the lawn of the Glenn Kohler residence at 203 Iroquis St. patrolman J. T. Callihan attempted to lasso it.

The officer fired into it five times with his services revolver, but wasn't able to kill it.

That afternoon, the dog was sighted across the creek from the football field and the chase began again.

This time two shots were pumped into the animal, before it again bolted out of sight.

Bleeding badly, the animal is believed to have died sometime Tuesday night, but officers couldn't find its corpse.

Carol Bumpus Marries Gerald L. MacQueen

The First Methodist Church in Adrian was the setting for an Autumn wedding Sunday afternoon when Carol Ann Bumpus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin P. Deis of Tipton, became the bride of Gerald L. MacQueen of Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren MacQueen of 717 College Ave. are the parents of the bridegroom.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ivan Hodgson before a background of lighted candelabra, palms and baskets of white chryysanthemums.

Richard Wegner, church organist, accompanied the bridegroom's uncle, Paul MacQueen, of Muskegon when he sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar.

White satin bows marked the family pews, the guests being seated by Merrill Bales, Donald Swartz and James Bohs, all of Adrian.

☆

WITH HER FATHER, the bride approached the altar in a mint green street length gown of lace over taffeta.

Her nose length veil fell from a lace tiara trimmed with iridescent sequins and tiny green pearl beads. Satin slippers tinted to match completed the ensemble.

The bride's only jewelry was a two strand crystal necklace, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible topped with yellow roses and white bebe chrysanthemums tied with white ribbon streamers in lovers knots.

☆

THE BRIDE asked her sister, Joan Deis, to attend her as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Marilyn MacQueen, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Donald Swartz and Lois Oliver.

The attendants were dressed alike in bottle green frocks featuring lace bodices, circlet necklines, taffeta midriffs and harem skirts. A large bow distinguished the back of each gown.

The white gloves and crystal earrings worn by the attendants were gifts of the bride.

The daughter of the bride, Debra Kay Bumpus and Candace Winzeler, the bridegroom's cousin, were flower girls.

They wore identical mint green taffeta dresses fashioned with round necklines and puffed sleeves.

☆

LARRY MACQUEEN assisted his brother as best man. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Deis wore a sapphire blue suit with matching hat and black accessories. Mrs. MacQueen chose a dress of copenhagen blue with mauve accessories.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors for more than 250 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Loren E. Davis, received the guests as hosts. Joan Whelan of Tipton registered the guests.

Mrs. Leona Waldron of Adrian cut and served the four tiered wedding cake from a lace covered table.

Presiding at the punch bowl and coffee service were Mrs. Merrill Bales and Mrs. Roy Andrews. Evelyn Winzeler served the ice cream.

Assisting with the bridegroom's cake was Mrs. Norman Benschoter. Mrs. Rodney Bird and Mrs. George Winzeler were in charge of the gifts.

☆

WHEN THE COUPLE left on a wedding trip through northern Michigan, the bride wore a black and white tweed suit with red accessories.

To her shoulder was pinned the corsage from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. MacQueen will make their home in Palmyra.

The bride attended high school in Tecumseh and is employed as teletype operator at the Bridgeport Brass Company in Adrian.

Mr. MacQueen is employed at Dana Corporation in Toledo as time study engineer. He attended Adrian schools and Tri-State College.

The bridegroom's parents entertained the wedding party at the Country Kitchen after rehearsal Saturday evening.

With Tecumseh Teens

BY MARY V. SEAGER

THERE WAS A MEETING OF the Teen Club officers, committee chairmen, and legislature members with the representatives from the service clubs.

There will be a quarter charge for signing fake names when signing in and out of dances. If the person isn't caught, the ticket-seller will be charged.

Mr. Lucas stated that the Rotary Club would have its share of the unpaid bills paid before the next meeting.

The fuel bill was discussed and it was agreed to get someone to take care of it all winter.

Regular meetings will be held the first and third Wednesday of each month.

Mr. Lucas suggested that selling Christmas trees would be a good way to raise money. There were some objections.

Complaints about the selection and volume of the records at record dances were brought up.

After this it was reported that an amplifier would cost about $90.

Mr. Hamilton said he would look into it.,

The possibility of a juke-box was also discussed. Larry Titley suggested that a bake sale as a money-making project be brought up at the dance next Saturday.

The bake sale committee includes Gail Elliott, Linda Dicks and Clarence Champanois. Poor attendance at these meetings was talked about.

FIRST PEP MEETING OF THE year Friday featured a skit. The pep band and majorettes also performed.

In the playlet Jeanie Hohenstein as Sonny (dressed as a young boy) had to have a dollar for the game with Airport.

She went around asking first Carol Spangler as Beulah (in blackface), Donna Niron dressed as his mother, Mary Colgrove as his grandmother, Kendra Ringman as his younger brother (dressed as a very young boy) and Suzie Rohweder) as Paw with his jug, for the money.

When she was refused each time she shot the offending person.

The first time around was in 33⅓ speed, the second in 45, and the third in 78. Jeanie wound up by saying that they didn't care how you got the money for the game just so long as you came to it.

THE CHEERLEADERS SPONsored a record dance after the game.

☆

THE STUDENT COUNCIL met last Thursday at 2 p.m. under the direction of Doris Oliphant. The secretary and treasurer's reports were read and approved. Among the topics under discussion were the Apple Queen contest, Homecoming, the school variety show), and the Spirit Trophy which will be continued.

☆

THE STUDENT COUNCIL will handle voting for Apple Queen during the study halls on Tuesday.

THE SENIOR CLASS WON the spirit trophy for the Airport game with 54% of their class present. Let's go, you other classes! The seniors won it last year, too!

☆

A REPRESENTATIVE FROM Kalamazoo met Monday during fifth hour with the college prep seniors to talk about the smaller colleges and universities.

☆

THERE WAS A WELL-ATtended Teen Club record dance Saturday.

☆

SOME MORE OF THE COMmittees for the Teen Club are the Planning committee headed by Jane Dillon and Barb Velandra. Members are Joanne Allshouse, Carol Bilby, Jerry Collier, Gail Elliott, Pat Gibson, Pat Gurtzweiler, Virginia Hodges, Marilou Layton, Anna Kay McCann, Judy Moynihan, Bill Ross, Jim Randall, Bill Sisson, Graham Morden, Norman Tucker, Terry Hendricks, Gorden Williams, Betty Andrews, Suzie Owen, Mary Jane Cleveland, and Robert Schneider.

Mason '11' Next for High-Flying Tecumseh Indians

By JIM LINCOLN

Scoring in each quarter, three times in the second, Tecumseh trounced visiting Airport last Friday night, 39 to 0.

The undefeated Indians, 2-0-1 for the season undoubtedly will face stiffer competition here Friday evening against Mason. Held to a scoreless deadlock in its opener with Hudson, Tecumseh boasts a 7-0 win over Monroe CC, besides routing Airport.

Coach Dunc Leckta, forced to make two big moves in the Tecumseh backfield for the Airport fray, had terrific success.

Regular quarterback Larry Yoakum was switched to right half, replacing the injured Dave Weakley. Steve Kruger, substitute right half in the early games, took over at quarterback. Ron Johnson filled in at full for injured Dan Cisco.

Both Yoakum and Kruger starred. Yoakum tallied three touchdowns and kicked two extra points. Kruger connected on 12 of 19 passes, three for TDs.

The Indians struck quickly in the initial period, Yoakum taking a handoff from Kruger on Airport's 24. Kruger faked beautifully on the play, pulling practically the entire Airport 11 out of position.

On the first play in the second period, Kruger flipped a 35-yard pass to Yoakum, who raced the remaining 45 yards for the score.

About midway through the quarter, Kruger again hit Yoakum with a pass for a TD and a 19-0 lead. Junior halfback Roger Mead scored just before the half from the Airport one.

Tom Walters, starting his first game at end took in a Kruger pass in the third period for a score, the play covering 10 yards. Mike Walters concluded the scoring in the final quarter, plunging over from the one.

Airport, inept throughout the contest, garnered only five first downs, two by penalties, and total net yardage by rushing and passing was a minus five yards.

The Indians rolled to 13 first downs, gained 224 yards on the ground and 225 yards through the air—a total of 449.

Top ground gainers were Yoakum and Mike Walters. Yoakum totalled 86 yards by rushing and Walters 67 yards. Clarence Champonis picked up 30 yards, nearly breaking away for a TD in the final quarter; John Aho, 17 yards; Roger Mead, 9 yards; and Ron Johnson, 2 yards.

Scoring: Yoakum 3 (24, run; 71, pass-run; 13, pass), Mead (1, plunge), T. Walters (10, pass), M. Walters (1, plunge). PAT: Yoakum 3, placekicks.

KEEP PLUGGING—The man in the pork-pie hat, Coach Dunc Leckta, who has done some masterful tutoring in just three gamees, here encourages his new quarterback Steve Kruger, who firmly established himself as a fine signal caller and passer against Airport. Steve connected on 12 of 19 aerials, was also outstanding in his ball handling.

NEW FULLBACK—Ron Johnson, (34), who started at fullback in place of the injured Dan Cisco, reels off a short gain as an Airport player makes a diving attempt to stop him. Steve Kruger (24) handed off to Ron.

VOICE of THE HERALD

What About the Money?

Considerable has been written and spoken about the proposed "all-inclusive" community center for Tecumseh.

As a starter, the building might have an auditorium, youth center and library. Such things as a gymnasium, meeting rooms, dining hall, etc. have also been suggested.

But what one practical-minded woman wants to know:

"How will Tecumseh maintain such a fabulous establishment?"

The question is timely and for that matter, others will chime in, where will the cash come from to build it?

Money always has to be considered, but in this case the committee doing the initial spade work has agreed:

For the present, cost of constructing and maintaining a Tecumseh civic center will not be considered.

"First of all," say committeemen, "Let's find out what area citizens would like to have, what they feel would do the best job for the community. This includes every man, woman and child who wants to have his opinion heard."

(Note: If you have a definite idea about the proposed center, send it to Don Murphy, Chamber of Commerce, Tecumseh.)

A survey is underway with the hopes that a wide variety of residents will be contacted, each to give his or her impressions of a civic building here.

When this is complete, the committee will sit down and sift through them, then put together a master plan.

At this time, the greenback will probably raise its handsome head and the talk will switch to how much and where can it might be obtained.

We might add that the group working on the project includes some of our leading citizens, all deadly earnest in the effort to bring Tecumseh the finest facilities possibly.

The Herald wishes them God's speed.

That Annual Problem

"We need leaders," Boy Scout officials tell us.

An annual problem and one that should have a simple answer. Maybe our reasoning is ajar and it's just too simple an answer that we have in mind.

But this is the way we feel: if the Scouting programs are in danger of faltering because of the leader problem, fathers of boys taking part should volunteer.

It's a known fact that not everyone possesses the quality of being a leader, but if there are 100 boys in Scouting in Tecumseh there should be 20 or 25 dads who are potential leaders.

These are the men who should volunteer.

When a teen-age boy is engaged in an activity, his dad should be willing, if it's physically possible, to offer his services.

As for the usual excuse, "there just isn't time," in some cases dad will have to make time. After all pro football on TV, golf or cards with the boys is never as important as helping his youngster.

'...a Public Experience'

...nths ago, members of the Tecumseh Ministerial Association discussed what positive step they could take to do their community a definite service.

The concensus was that at least once each year the Association should bring on unusual and absorbing event into the area.

As one minister explains it, to "offer the community an outstanding public experience."

Their first effort was extremely well received. That was the lecture on the Dead Sea Scrolls last winter.

The group is about to bring another event to Tecumseh and The Herald recomends it to area Protestants.

It will be the talk by Dr. Henry H. Crane of Detroit, a brilliant speaker, at the Methodist Church Sunday, Oct. 19.

The 12-man Ministerial Association is to be congratulated for such activities.

'You Got to Tell 'Em'

We noted with considerable interest a story in the Detroit Free Press, telling of "Hurry-Up Harry" Suffrin, who just opened another branch store.

The article recounted Mr. Suffrin's 38 years in the clothing business around Detroit.

One paragraph particularly caught our eye. It told of Suffrin's beginning and read:

"His opening day was preceded by a whirlwind advertising campaign — always one of Suffrin's keys to success."

These 17 words, we feel, reveal an engaging theme, as long ago stated so simply by some anonymous bard: "If you want to sell 'em, you got to tell 'em."

And if you'll pardon a slight plug, there's no more effective or less expensive way to "tell 'em" than newspaper advertising.

"Tell me about civilian life —high taxes, inflation, cost of living and all that..."

Nurses Attend 'M' Conference

Local nurses are attending a conference at the University of Michigan.

The meeting, sponsored by the South Central Michigan League for Nursing and the University School of Nursing Extension Service, is being held in the Michigan Union and includes panel discussions and demonstration of Techniques and Methods.

Nurses from Herrick Memorial Hospital attending are Mrs. Helen Miller, superintendent of nurses; Mrs. Laverne Mull, Mrs. Grover Bingham and Mrs. Robert Baird.

Herb Simpson Is Appointed A&P Assistant

Appointment of Herbert T. T. Simpson as assistant manager of A&P Food Stores' super market in Tecumseh, has been announced by Vice President R. R. Betz of the company's Toledo Unit, which operates stores in sections of Michigan, Ohio and Indiana.

Mr. Simpson, who was formerly connected ... A&P Food here in 1950-1951, has been associated with the company store in Monroe for the past five years.

He first started with the food chain as a part-time clerk in 1944 in LaJolla, Calif. and became a full-time head stock and receiving clerk in 1949.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson and their two children, Herbert, Jr. 8 and Michael, 6, make their home at 197 Burt St.

Speaker Chooses Topic

Dr. Henry Hitt Crane, at the Union Reformation Service on Sunday, Oct. 19, will speak on the subject, "The Modern Relevance of Protestant Principles."

At 7:30 p.m. in the Methodist Church, it is sponsored by the Tecumseh Area Ministerial Association.

Dr. Crane was for the past 20 years pastor of Central Methodist Church in Detroit. During that period he averaged better than one address each day.

He was educated at Wesleyan University, Boston U School of Theology and Harvard.

He holds honorary doctor's degrees from five universities. He is probably best known for his speaking on college and university campuses having lectured at over 200 different such institutions.

"His reputation for mature Christian statesmanship is world-wide," says a representative of the Ministerial Association.

☆

DR. CRANE has been interested in sports and the arts, in addition to religious and social concerns.

He was an All-American basketball guard, member of the tennis team and manager of the football team in collge. He was also active in dramatics and the glee club.

He is a licensed private pilot. Memberships include Masonic, Kiwanis, Exchange, Rotary International (honorary) and Detroit Athletic Club.

Henry Hitt Crane is, on his father's side, of a line of five generations of Methodist ministers; and his son Frank Crane II is also a Methodist minister.

He has travelled extensively in Europe, and with Mrs. Crane undertook a 14-month world tour. He was a delegate to the World Council of Churches in Amsterdam in 1948.

Requests should be made by writing or by calling Capt. Trickett at the Army Reserve Training Center, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Laws From Which The Consumers Benefit . . .

Regulations regarding the dispensing and use of drugs and medicines are wholly for the welfare of the consumer. Because of wholesome enforcement and observance by the pharmacists, the need for costly policing has never been required.

Our profession is guided and lives and works by the spirit of these regulations as well as by the laws themselves. The integrity of all—an accepted fact is continually working in behalf of our patrons, and all benefit thereby.

Concerned Speaker; Responsive Listener

Methodists in Tecumseh will hear a sermon next Sunday on the theme, "Pastor and People, Sermon Partners!"

The Rev. James D. Nixon, pastor, will remind his congregation of their part of the responsibility for the sermon.

"Preaching involves both a concerned speaker and a concerned and responsive listener," says Mr. Nixon.

Methodists continue their attendance emphasis, and those attending worship this Sunday will be asked again to share in the registration of the total congregation. This practice will be observed each Sunday until Christmas.

The Service of Worship is at 10 o'clock, and is followed by Church School at 11:15.

Junior High Students Receive Report Cards

Next Monday, Tecumseh Junior High students will take home a mid-nine weeks report of progress, reports Principal David Dick.

"Because there are only two marking periods in a semester, the Junior High School staff felt the parents should have an earlier report to acquaint them with the general progress of their children," he said.

The report will be general in nature and not as detailed as a regular report card.

FOR ALL WE HOLD SACRED
. . . ATTEND CHURCH !

To: Bobby's Church School Teacher
From: Bobby's Parents

'You're O.K.' That's the highest praise in our Bobby's vocabulary!

You must be as busy as we are . . . keeping house, raising a family, meeting all the challenges of parenthood.

Yet you volunteered to teach a dozen boisterous boys the great truths of Christianity.

You sacrifice hours every week . . . in preparation, in prayer, in patience.

But, because you are part of the Church—the one institution which lives to serve God and man—we have taken you for granted.

We'll be at worship next Sunday. Bobby wants us there. And seeing what the Church means to him, we want the same spiritual foundation for our own lives.

Thank you! We marvel at all you have done for Bobby without our help and example. How much more we will accomplish together . . . Bobby's parents, Bobby's teacher, and OUR God.

Copyright 1958, Keister Adv. Service, Strasburg, Va.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Rainy Day Hobby

Neil DePuy brought a sample of his rainy day hobby to the Herald office this week for inspection by the guys and gals. It is the third lovely serving tray that he has made for his 3 granddaughters birthday gifts.

This tray was made from sycamore, birch bark from Escanaba, Michigan with a maple and walnut inlay and edged with zebra wood from Africa.

The DePuys went to Charlotte over the weekend to visit with his son, Wendell and family and to deliver the tray to Sandra whose birthday anniversary was an event of September 11 .

Inscribed on the bottom of the tray is the kind of wood it is made from Sandra's name and birth date and a greeting from "Grandpa and Lucille."

Mr. DePuy has made trays for Adelle DePuy whose birthday anniversary is August 13 and for Ruth Ann Coates whose is March 12.

Gardening is the hobby that keeps him busy when the days are nice and this year the results were especially pleasing. He brought colored picture proof that his sweet corn was far higher than his lovely wife's head.

Tecumseh residents will be glad to hear that this retired gentleman is finding life most satisfying with his various hobbies.

State Police Post Holding Open House

Clinton's shiney new, tri-level State Police Post will be on public display all day Sunday.

Commanding officer, Sgt. Carl Anderson invites all area citizens to drop in and have a look around during this open house.

Of special interest will be the radar car, skin diving display and exhibition of narcotics. The state emergency truck will also be on hand.

A flag-raising ceremony is schedule for 3:30 with short talks by Joseph Childs, State Police commissioner, and Circuit Judge Rex Martin. Capt. Forrest White, Jackson District commander, will also be on the program.

Mayors of Tecumseh, Clinton, Saline, Manchester and Onsted have all been invited.

Clinton American Legion's color guard will handle the flag raising and Clinton High Band is going to provide musical selections. The Rev. James O. Simons, pastor of the Clinton Methodist Church, will give the invocation.

The entire post, one of the newest in the state, will be open for inspection.

Visitors can see radio dispatch equipment, the interrogation and squad rooms, where officers make out their reports. They also can take a look at offices of the post commander and detective.

There are sleeping facilities for 13 men in the post's four bedrooms, all to be open for the public to see.

All 21 men assigned to Clinton are expected to be on hand to assist guests and answer their questions about equipment and State Police procedures.

Tecumseh and Clinton Chamber of Commerce are teaming to sponsor this open house.

Moore Trial Takes 2 Days for Decision

Robert D. Moore, 28, was found guilty shortly before noon Wednesday of a reckless operation charge, stemmed back to an incident occurring on North Evans Street, May 30.

The lengthy jury trial, an oddity here under the circumstances, began early Tuesday afternoon, adjourned at 5:30, and then reconvened at 9:30 Wednesday morning.

After the jury of four ladies and two men returned its verdict, Justice of Peace Robert French, who presided, announced sentencing would take place later, probably Friday or Saturday or early next week.

The reckless operation charge resulted after Mr. Moore hit three barrels, barricading green cement in another traffic lane, the evening of Memorial Day.

Police Sgt. Eugene Skinner and Officer J. T. Callihan witnessed the traffic violation, and testified along with Police Chief George Kilbourn.

☆

CHIEF KILBOURN said Mr. Moore asked him after the accident if the charge could not be changed to one under another city ordinance. The police chief remarked the reason for the request was that Mr. Moore did not want to jeopardize his driver's license.

Lawrence Hammond, defendant's attorney, contended the violation should be tried under the ordinance for altering or injuring traffic controls. Attorney for the people, Robert Baker, stated the reckless operation charge was proper.

Testifying at the trial, other than the police officers and Mr. Moore, were Mr. and Mrs. Karl Schneider, who were with Mr. and Mrs. Moore at the time, Dr. Robert Mohr, and Dr. Robert Bowers.

Seth Hand, Lillian M. Owen, Lillian Hoagland, Viola Marks, Mable Duncan and Lester Rogers, foreman, served on the jury.

Character witnesses for Mr. Moore were Perry Satterthwaite, Ned Badwin and Ed Heilman.

Both lawyers are from Adrian.

Pheasant Season Opening Monday

Many Tecumseh-area hunters will be among the 500,000 in Michigan opening pheasant season Monday at 10 a.m.

A bumper crop is predicted, reminiscent of the lush 1940 gunning. This is due to ideal hatching conditions last spring which was void of heavy rains.

Cyclist Rides into Automobile

Danny Hare, 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hare, 207 N. Maumee St., escaped serious injuries Sunday afternoon when he rode his bicycle into the side of an automobile driven by Geral Noe, 803 N. Union.

Mr. Noe was driving south on N. Maumee when the boy darted in front of him.

He swerved to miss the youth but the bike hit the side of the car.

Danny was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital, treated for abrasions and bruises about the head and elbow and released.

No summons was issued.

Big 3s New Models Will Go on Display

Three Tecumseh auto dealers will be displaying new cars for the first time Thursday and Friday.

Butler Motor Sales will have 1959 Fords; Schneider Bros., '59 Chevrolets; and Wilson Motor Sales, the 1959 Plymouths.

Other dealers in town, Fisher Pontiac, Wilson Rambler, and Bailey Oldsmobile, have shown new models previously, as did Schneider Bros. for the Buick.

Wilson Motors will display the new DeSoto next week.

Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

HERE HE IS AGAIN—THAT little football-kicking cat who seems to help bring Tecumseh's grid team a measure of good luck.

In any event, we promised to run it as long as the Indians continued to keep on the undefeated trail.

And during the week in one of my lighter moments, I came up with a nickname—sort of a twist on Puss n Boots, for our cat: "Bootin Pussy."

WHEN A BUNCH OF FELLOWS get together for a hunting or fishing trip anything can happen.

So it went on a recent junket into Newfoundland for a group of 13, including a Tecumseh physician and dentist.

The same men have been making annual jaunts together for some years and after each one they gather to show movies and rehash the most recent trip.

Among the party this year was a businessman from Toledo, who brought along his 17-year-old son.

Several fiendish minds concocted a practical joke to play on the lad — and it almost backfired them right back to the States.

A can of gold paint and a tiny brush were slipped into the fishing gear and upon arriving at camp — a desolate area which has only seen white men half a dozen times — the "jokers" picked up about 30 or 40 pieces of quartz.

To these, they applied some streaks of gold paint, then "salted" the stones at the edge of a lake and ran a string right out into the water. The effect was brilliant.

The next step was to get the boy to go on a hunt of rare stones.

The dentist led the way, but to his astonishment, not a single piece of gold was visible.

What could have happened?

A few hours later they found out. Father and son, in complete innocence, had gone for a stroll and accidentally stumbled onto the find. They snatched up every rock, convinced they had really struck gold.

But they didn't tell a soul.

At supper that night, when the dad casually asked how one went about buying a piece of land in

Leukemia Victim Buried on Sunday in Lenawee Hills

Death came to 12-year-old, leukemia victim Leola Gove Oct. 8 in Boise, Idaho where with her mother, Mrs. Gordan Gove, and sister, Beth, she had been vacationing with relatives.

She contracted leukemia in April and had been hospitalized on and off since then.

Mr. and Mrs. Gove honored their daughter's strong desire to travel even though they knew she was critically ill.

She was born in Tecumseh Jan. 26, 1946 and is survived by her parents and sister, one brother, Paul, at home; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wellnitz of Tipton and Irvin Gove of Tecumseh.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Collins-Corkery Funeral Home with the Rev. Paul Brantingham officiating.

Bearers were Paul and Norman Scott, Russell Riere, Allen and Leon Hunt and Harry McElhiney.

Burial was in Lenawee Hills Memorial cemetery.

Chamber Holding General Meeting Thursday, Oct. 23

A general membership meeting of Chamber of Commerce will be held Oct. 23 in the VFW hall.

Chairman for the affair is Dr. Robert Murray.

With cider and donuts as refreshments, the meeting is to be informal and will feature reports of various committee chairmen.

"It will be an important meeting," states Dr. Richard Coak, "A chance for all of us to sit down and look at ourselves, a healthy thing."

Chamber officials hope that the turnout will approach the "Meet Murph" banquet, which attracted an over-flow crowd

Trick Is To Treat

An orginizational meeting for the UNICEF project was held Oct. 8 at the home of Mrs. Robert Benner.

Present were representatives from the Presbyterian and the Methodist Churches, which are cooperating in the program.

This year, children equipped with canisters and identification tags, will attempt to call at every house in Tecumseh.

The calls will be made on the evening of Oct. 30, from 6 to 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Carrol Sprague was appointed to map the area into zones.

Parents or older youth will transport the children to specified areas, and then the children will call at only the homes in their alloted zone.

☆

MRS. DOUGLAS SPRAGUE will be in charge of giving out the canisters at the church.

Mrs. Aden Mead, Mrs. John Hamilton and Mrs. James Nixon will plan the party, which will be held after the children return, for a those who participated in the collections.

Mrs. Robert Bonner is the publicity chairman.

"All of us are familiar with the words Trick or Treat at Halloween time. The UNICEF project uses the slogan, 'The trick is to treat all the world's children', says Mrs. Bonner.

We can do this by giving a few pennies, nickles, or dimes, which the United Nations' committee uses to buy milk, drugs, and insecticides for children who are less fortunate than we," she goes on.

Does Michigan Need New Constitution?

(Editor's note: Don Brazee, author of this article, is a veteran Tecumseh city councilman and teacher of government courses at Tecumseh High School.)

By DON BRAZEE

Does Michigan Need a New Constitution?

This is the fundamental question citizens will be asked to answer in November, when they vote on the subject of whether or not to call a Constitutional convention.

A constitution should set forth the basic philosophy of government and should clearly define authority and responsibility.

It should not be in such specific terms as to become inflexible and need amendments each time a new situation arises.

A 1958 Constitutional Convention would take an over-all look at Michigan's 50-year-old document to decide whether it gives citizens the best possible framework of government.

☆

IT SHOULD study and consider the following points:

1. FLEXIBILITY.

Does it allow us to meet changing needs and increasing costs of government? Do the proposals for finance and taxation, particularly those added by amendment, provide for the government services necessary for expanding population and a changing society?

Of 119 proposed amendments to the present constitution, 63 have been adopted, many containing the kind of specific detail which can only be changed by further amendments as new situations arise.

Continued distrust of the legislature has led to serious restrictions on its power over the appropriation of funds.

Amendments have earmarked revenue for schools, highways and local government, leaving only about 32% of the state's revenue to be apportioned among other state functions.

Proposals to obtain home rule for counties and allow a state income tax have been repeatedly rejected. Because of the number of amendments and the "don'ts" placed on the legislature, the present Michigan constitution has a very low rating.

2. RESPONSIVENESS.

Is Michigan's government responsive to the will of the people?

Should there be fewer elected and more appointed state officials?

Should the governor, other elected state officials, or legislators have longer terms?

Does the present apportionment make adequate provision for the factors required for good representation, e.g. area and population?

3. ACCOUNTABILITY.

Are the lines of authority and responsibility in the executive branch clearly drawn?

Do we have too many boards and commissions to administer the state's law efficiently?

Should the governor and the lt. governor be elected as a team (as are the president and the vice-president of the U.S.) and be the only elected officials in the executive branch?

Is the public interest served by electing administrative officials whose jobs are essentially

TECUMSEH CANDIDATES—Among the girls competing for the title of Lenawee County Apple Queen will be this trio of Tecumseh girls, from left, Johanna Young, Renate Hoffmann and Linda Hanna. Contest is being held Oct. 31 in the Strand Theatre at 2 p.m. Later that same afternoon the annual Halloween parade will feature all the girls, led by the Queen, riding in 1959 convertibles.

Apple Growers Getting Ready for Celebration

Apple growers in Lenawee County are generating real enthusiasm for the displays they'll set up on Chicago Blvd. Oct. 31 as part of Tecumseh's celebration of National Apple Week.

Mrs. Charles Kapnick, whose husband and his brother, Arlan, operate Lewis Orchards, tells about plans being made at their place.

Besides a wagon-load of crisp, red apples, the Lewis display — all of which is going to be for sale—will include cider, apple pies, apple cookies and apple butter.

Lewis Orchard is one of six growers who have so far agreed to take part.

Children Found Late Wednesday

Two youngstrs, Allen Roe, 2½, and Becky Jones, 3, lost since 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, were found by a searching party that afternoon, shortly after 4.

The two missing children created one of the biggest hunts in the Blissfield area. A state police airplane, a private plane, students, neighbors, and state police from posts in southern Michigan joined in the search.

The bedragged children were unharmed. Their pet dog led searchers to them, near the Atkins school.

Fund Drive Opens October 27

October is the month, throughout Michigan when we think of helping United Fund agencies. These are the ones whose purpose is to provide better care for the health, welfare, recreational and character building needs of the people.

Tecumseh is on schedule in its plans for the drive here, according to Walt Nichols, the chairman.

He says that every effort will be made to have the Oct. 27 kick-off brunch an interesting and educational procedure.

His divisional chairmen are now seeking workers.

☆

LOCAL AGENCIES, asking for $4,950, have budgets as follows:

Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce for the band festival and the children's Halloween and Christmas parties, $1000.

2. The Tecumseh Service Club, which does welfare work, $800.

3. Summer recreational program, $2,200.

3. Tecumseh Scout Organization, for maintenance, repairs, and insurance on Scout Cabin, $300.

4. Tecumseh Girl Scout Association, for awards consisting of pins, badges etc, camp fees, leadership training courses, and Brownie roller skating party fee $550.

5. Administration costs and membership fees of Community Chest, $100.

For several years Tecumseh has contributed without hesitation its share to the Michigan United Fund.

Therefore, the Lenawee County United Fund drive should not be a difficult procedure for the citizens here, Mr. Nichols feels.

☆

ALL PERSONS who expect to be out of town during the drive are cordially invited to leave with or send their contributions to Merlyn Downing at the United Savings Bank.

Checks should be made payable to the Tecumseh Community Chest, Merlyn Downing.

Celebrate 25th Anniversary

In celebration of the 25th anniversary, their only daughter, Sandra Kay, is planning on open house at their home at 1200 Shady Lane Sunday afternoon, Oct. 19, from 2 until 5 p.m.

The Ross' are requesting that gifts be omitted.

LONG & SHORT

Newfoundland the boys knew what had taken place.

Being "good jokers" they didn't tell the true facts, but started playing it by ear, based on this new development.

The local doctor has a relative who owns land purchased from the Canadian government, so he explained in great detail how the deal was arranged.

The fishermen returned home and still not a word.

Minus dad and son, the group agreed that at the yearly post-trip get-together, a trophy would be awarded the one [illegible]

Well, the affair came off the other night at the Rock Inn and the father and son were called up before the group—still thinking they had found real gold.

Carefully, the whole story was unfolded.

The 17-year-old was dumbfounded; he couldn't believe what he heard.

Not so with pop. As the joke was reeled out his face got longer and longer, redder and redder.

Without a word he stumbled back to his chair, there to be greeted by his devoted wife laughing so hard she nearly fell to pieces.

This didn't make dad any happier.

The fact is, if he had brought along his 12 gauge shotgun he would no doubt have blasted the whole room to powder.

Our fellows tried to talk with him, but the victim just sat there, drilling holes through them with his eyes.

And so, today, in the basement of a home somewhere in Toledo, piled in a dingy corner are about 40 rocks with gold paint on them and a dented trophy — apparently hurled at the heap by a disillusioned outdoorman.

It was Mrs. King's job to layout these and other important facts in poster form for a Spanish-speaking group which is staging the baile.

She struggled valiantly for some time, when finished proudly translated her effort to everyone within earshot.

CONSTITUTION

non-policy making? Does the court system need reorganization to speed justice?

4. CHECKS AND BALANCES' Is there balance between the three branches of government in the tradition of safeguarding representative government?

5. LOCAL GOVERNMENT. Are the provisions for local government (village, city, township, county) adequate to meet the increasing demands for local governmental services?

Should there be home rule for counties? Are the provisions for financing local governments adequate, equitable and flexible?

☆

SINCE ABOUT 1920, theories of public administration have favored the writing of more flexible state constitutions so that changing needs may be met by statute rather than amendment.

These theories seek to strengthen the three branches of government.

Many of the proposals constitute a return to the philosophies of the writers of the federal and early state constitutions.

Such changes would:

A. STRENGTHEN the executive by the election of fewer state officials; lengthen the term of the governor and give him more appointive power; improve budgeting, accounting and purchasing procedures and reduce the number of state administrative departments.

B. LENGTHEN the terms of legislators; make the state auditor responsible to the legislature; increase the legislative reference service, and streamine legislative procedures for greater efficiency and time utilization.

C. PUT RESPONSIBILITY for the court system in the hands of the chief justice and a judicial council, and free the selection of judges from political pressures.

I'm voting in November for a Constitutional Convention. Are you?

LaDonna Buku Is Married to Duane Oswald Saturday

The Rev. Father J. Cullins performed the double ring ceremony that united in marriage LaDonna Buku, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Buku, and Duane Lee Oswald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Oswald, Saturday morning at the St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

The altar was graced with baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums and the family pews were marked with white satin bows.

Mrs. Ben Hammack played traditional nuptial music and accompanied Wallace Whiting who sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white nylon and satin. Her jewelry was a strand of pearls, the gift of the groom and she carried an arrangement of white mums on a white prayer book.

☆

BARBARA BUKU was her cousin's maid of honor in a ballerina length gown of blue nylon with a matching head band holding in place the short circular veil. She carried a cascade arrangement of yellow carnations.

Mrs. Jay Fisher, cousin of the groom, was the bridesmaid in red nylon with matching headband and veil. She carried white carnations.

Marsha Gautz, cousin of the groom and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gautz, was the flower girl in a floor-length gown of white appliqued nylon.

She carried a miniature cascade of coral carnations and walked with the ring bearer, Paul Gautz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gautz.

☆

MICHAEL BUKU was his nephew's best man and the guests were seated by Donald Leo and Robert Oswald, brothers of the groom.

Mrs. Buku chose a black dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Oswald wore royal blue with white accesosries.

Both mothers wore a corsage of coral carnations with mums. The grandmothers wore corsages of white carnations with mums.

A reception was held for the couple after the ceremony at the St. Elizabeth school auditorium.

Refreshments were served from a white linen-covered table centered with a beautiful four-tiered wedding cake made by Mrs. Clarence Randolph, friend of the bride.

☆

THE BRIDE attended Tecumseh High School and the groom is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and is employed at Tecumseh Products.

Friday evening, following the rehearsal, Mr. and Mrs. Oswald entertained the wedding party and their families at their home.

Showers were given for the bride by Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Milton Appel and Mrs. Randolph.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Oswald will live at Paul's Trailer Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay E. B. Luce announce the recent marriage of their daughter, Beverly Jean to Richard R. Rudd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rudd of Tecumseh. Open house in their honor will be held Sunday Oct. 19 in the K. of P. Hall in Tipton from 3 to 5 p.m.

WABJ Manager Resigns, Buys Business Here

Vic Palpant of Adrian, Tecumseh manager for Radio Station WABJ, has resigned his position to purchase Ruffer's Gas & Appliances here.

Mr. Palpant, who will move to Tecumseh, bought out Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ruffer. The Ruffers had operated the business for slightly more than one year.

Before joining WABJ in August of 1957, Mr. Palpant was affiliated with the Protane Gas Co. as a salesman.

Officially taking over Oct. 20, the new owner will call the operation Palpant's Gas & Appliances. It is located at 107 E. Chicago Blvd.

It will continue to sell bottled gas, elecitric and gas appliances.

A grand opening will be staged in about two weeks, states Mr. Palpant.

Decorate Downtown for '58 Homecoming

This year's Tecumseh High School Homecoming celebration will get a big boost from city merchants.

Retail board of the Chamber of Commerce has decided to decorate the downtown with orange and black streamers and place old-time photos in store windows.

Dick Eggleston will be in charge.

There was talk too that old-time graduation classes would get together and march in the annual parade, which features the band and a variety of homecoming floats.

The annual event will be Nov. 7 with Hillsdale the football foe.

Society Hears T. Lord's Life

Fifty members attended the meeting of the St. Elizabeth Altar Society recently and heard a book review, "Played By Ear", delightfully presented by Mrs. Gladys Lopshire.

It was an autobiography of Father Daniel A. Lord, S.J.

Preceding the meeting at the school the group met at the church for Rosary and benediction and the meeting was opened with the Altar Society prayer.

Mrs. Jack Osburn, president, urged the members to support UNICEF at Halloween time.

The Altar committee for October included Mrs. Florence Smith, Mrs. Francis Spreeman, Mrs. Adele Neidlinger and Mrs. R. C. Roll.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wallace Whiting, chairman; Mrs. Paul Rudd, co-chairman; Mrs. Ivan Lindstrom, Mrs. Ray Whiting, Mrs. E. J. Crawford, Mrs. Richard Drouillard, Mrs. Thomas Corkery, Mrs. Stephen Buku, Mrs. Paul Burns, Mrs. Fay Greene, Mrs. Joseph Tressler and Mrs. Walter Mueller.

139 Establishes A Church Record

The Rev. Dale Harvey, pastor of the Tecumseh Church of the Nazarene, reports a record attendance of 139 for the Golden Anniversary celebration Sunday.

Instrumental music and piano selections were enjoyed.

A class of three, Mr. and Mrs. William Berkely and son, Terry, of Adrian were welcomed into membership.

In addition, seating will be available in the social room where the address may be heard over the regular public address system of the church.

List Needs for Family Insurance

Insurance should be included in the young family's overall financial plan, according to Grace Gerrard of the home management department at Michigan State University.

First of all the young father needs protection for his children and wife in case he dies prematurely. Renewable term insurance—five year periods—is good.

It gives the maximum coverage for the least amount of money and can be readily terminated when children become of age. An ordinary life policy is good for protection of the widow.

Or you may want to investigate the combination or family income policy to use instead of two separate ones.

☆

IF YOU HAVE a house you need insurance on it. And mortgage redemption insurance is highly desirable. This is a decreasing term insurance rates are quite reasonable for young men. After 35 perhaps it is too expensive.

Hospital insurance is, of course, imortant for the whole family. If you have the opportunity to get on a group plan that offers good coverage, take advantage of it.

The newest think available in this line is "catastrophe" or major medical insurance. You can reduce the premium cost by having a deductible amount, like $200—just like auto insurance.

A co-insurance clause — you agree to pay the first 10 to 25 per cent—also reduces cost.

Loss of income insurance is also desirable, but there is a limit as to the amount a family can afford. If the wife is prepared to earn a living, that may be the protection against loss of father's income.

ENGAGED—Dolores E. Peterson and James H. Colson of Berkley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer E. Colson of Outer Drive, Tecumseh, have become engaged announced parents of the bride-elect, Prof. and Mrs. Ralph G. Peterson of Ann Arbor, at a recent family dinner.

Miss Peterson is a graduate of the Ann Arbor High School and Eastern Michigan College, where she was affiliated with Delta Zeta sorority. She is presently teaching in the Grosse Pointe school system.

Mr. Colson is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and Michigan State University. He served a four-year tour of duty with the Air Force, and is a landscape architect with Lionts Nursery in Berkley.

Bedford Next for Undefeated Tecumseh Grid Crew

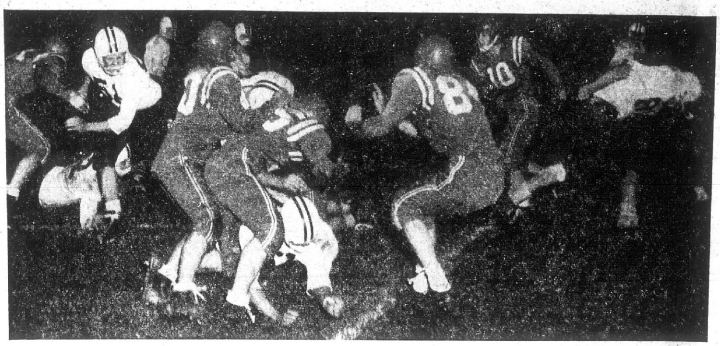
Coach Dunc Leckta's Indians continued undefeated here Friday night, completely outclassing the visiting Mason eleven 27-0, for their third straight victory.

The only blemish on an otherwise perfect record is a 0-0 tie with Hudson in the opener, a game in which Tecumseh did everything except score.

Friday night the Indians face Bedford at Temperance in what will probably be the local eleven's toughest game in the Southeastern Michigan Conference. Bedford holds a 1-0 record in league play.

Tackle Dave Hohenstein, who missed the Mason game, may be ready for Bedford.

Tecumseh so dominated the tilt here with Mason that the visitors tallied only four first downs, of which two were aided by penalties, and gained a total net yardage of 43 yards by rushing and passing.



TOUCHDOWN PANORAMA — A terrific effort by Tecumseh's offensive line, spearheaded here by Larry Neitling's block made this score possible. Dan Cisco took the ball off left guard for the tally.

The Indians rolled to 19 first downs, rushed for 333 yards on the ground and passed for another 70 yards. Top gainers were Larry Yoakum with 134 yards in 14 carries; Mike Walters, 130 yards, nine rushes; and Dan Cisco, 49 yards, nine carries.

Steve Kruger hit on five of eight passes for a total of 70 yards. One pass was intercepted.

Walters indicated what was to come in the early minutes of the contest when he broke free off tackle and scampered 49 yards to paydirt.

In the second period, largely behind the plunging of Cisco, Tecumseh moved 54 yards with Yoakum tallying from the one. The Indians marched 51 and 55 yards in the third and fourth quarters respectively, with Cisco scoring both times from the one-yard line.

The game marked the continued brilliance of the backfield and especially the offensive and defensive lines. The defense has yet to yield a TD with the schedule nearly half over.

Cisco, injured the previous week and though to be out for the season, returned to the lineup against Mason and turned in his best stint since wearing a Tecumseh uniform.

Tecumseh	7	7	6	7

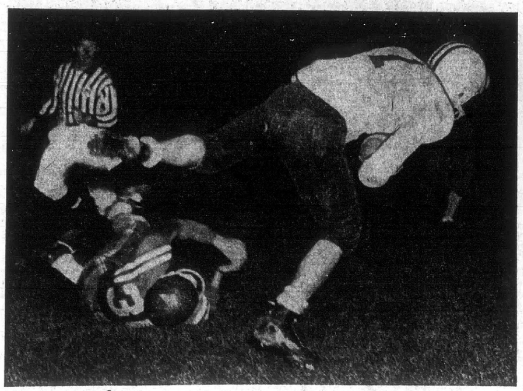
Scoring: Walters (49, run), Yoakum (1, plunge), Cisco 2 (1-yard plunges). PAT: Yoakum, 3 (placekicks).

Honors Birthday of Fred Sheldon

A family gathering honoring the 85th birthday anniversary of Fred Sheldon was held Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hoag of Saginaw, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sheldon and son, Barry, of Dundee and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bacon all attended the morning worship at the First Baptist church with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon.

Following dinner in Clinton they enjoyed the afternoon at the Sheldon home when ice cream and the birthday cake were served and presented their father with a fine gift.



LEAPIN' LARRY — Enjoying another sparkling performance was halfback Larry Yoakum, who gained 134 yards against Mason. An unsuccessful tackler spun Larry here, but couldn't bring him down as the Indian runner scooted on for another five

Borrow $50,000 To Meet Expenses

The Tecumseh school board accepted low bids for fuel oil from the Sun Oil Company of Toledo and from Sinclair Oil Company at Adrian, at a board meeting Monday night.

Nine companies submitted bids. All bids accepted were the lowest.

In other action, the board approved a resolution to borrow $50,000 from the local bank to help meet current expenses.

Supt. James McDowell also pointed out to the board that the school lacked funds to pay contractors for necessary equipment installed and now being installed.

Teen Age Bowlers Open on Saturday

Bowling leagues for both High School and Junior High boys open up Saturday, reports Dermont Poley, who will be directing them.

About 75 boys are taking part in the program.

Encouraging teen age boys to bowl was always an import project with the late Cliff Preston. His wife, who now operates the Airport Bowl, has continued the effort.

The youths are given special rates of 25c per game, loaned shoes without cost.

All 12 Airport Bowl alleys will be in action as the young mn go for strikes and sparss.

Their leagues are scantioned by the Junior ABC.

Mr. Poley is looking for a few more sponsors—at $25 per season. This covers shirts, scantion fee and trophies. Interested parties can call 306-R.

They Catch Gingerbread Man

(Editor's note: Mrs. Bertram Updike, who provided this story, has had articles on kindergarten activities printed in Parents magazine and the National Educational Association publication.)

"You can't catch me, I'm the gingerbread man!"

Seventy-three children in Mrs. Bertram Updike's kindergarten classes at Patterson School not only caught him, but ate him too!

One of the first stories that kindergarteners enjoy is "The Gingerbread Man" and it has been on the request list many times.

It has been dramatized, sung about and listened to since school first started this fall.

After drawings of him had been made to take home to mother, several children said that they would like to eat him, just as the old Fox did, because he looked so good.

Plans were immediately made to fashion some real gingerbread men at school and the big day finally arrived last week. Each child was given a ball of brown dough on waxed paper. Gingerbread men were soon ready for the oven—complete with raisin buttons, eyes, teeth and a small red candy nose.

Back and forth the filled pans were carried to the kitchen and the delicious smells filled the whole school.

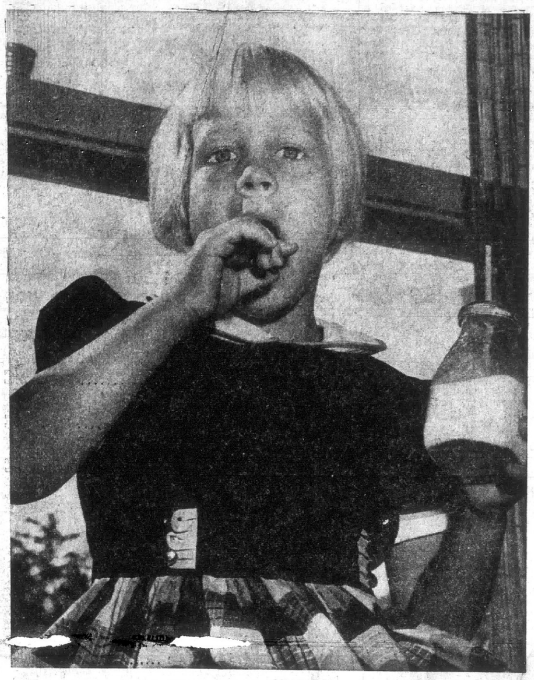
When the daily milk arrived and it was time to really eat the gingerbread men, joy was on every little five-year-old face.

"However we saw several men carefully wrapped in napkins to take home, not even one raisin eye touched," Mrs. Updike reported, adding "He just looked too good to eat."

All Photos by Tecumseh Herald

HAVE SOME DOUGH—Mrs. Dorothy Westdike, elementary art teacher, was on hand to help pass out gingerbread dought to each boy and girl, starting the project.

ROLL AND PAT — This is serious business, attests Cindy Coffee, at left. She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Coffee, 212 Iroquois St. Next to Cindy are Kevin Limese, son of Mrs. Lucille Limes, 729 N. Union St. and Cathy Cook, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carlton Cook, 140 Brown St.



TIME TO EAT HIM—Jenny Jadwin, daughter of Mrs. Gloria Jadwin, 207 W. Brown St., is about to crunch into her Gingerbread Man. Jenny is among the Patterson kindergarteners who fashioned and baked the cookies last week.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Sealed Bids Preferred

Criticism has been leveled at Tecumseh Council regarding issuance of a group health and accident insurance policy for city employees.

Six companies submitted bids and according to city manager Ed Nelson, there was scant difference in the various fees.

One of the companies, Metropolitan Life, represented by councilman James Freckleton was low bidder, and it eventually was Metropolitan which was awarded the coverage.

The Herald made a thorough check and found no irregularities.

However, the procedure followed in obtaining bids is open to question. The city manager contacted local agents personally and requested them to bid.

Rather, the method should have been to advertise for sealed bids and have them opened and discussed at a regular meeting.

Following this line of action would conform to accepted governmental operation and avoid future misunderstanding.

Blood Is Always Needed

By MRS. ROBERT GODFREY

Has it ever occurred to you that the time may come—in fact, the time may be today — that you will be ill and need a pint of blood?

A pint from large blood bank sitting in the corner of a small room in the Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Ordinarily in a hospital this is a routine matter—a patient needs a pint of blood, so a doctor orders it and immediately the equipment is set up and a transfusion of blood from the blood bank is given.

There is one small change to be made in this story in Tecumseh—the blood bank at Herrick Memorial Hospital is practically empty.

Empty because, we the people of Tecumseh are not donating blood, so it will be in the bank when needed.

Blood is often borrowed from St. Joseph's blood bank when an emergency occurs, but borrowing means it has to be paid back.

Time plays a leading role in all emergencies and it takes time to get blood from Ann Arbor to Tecumseh. So this is our problem and we must meet the need here in Tecumseh.

There are many service clubs of various types in Tecumseh and the surrounding area. If these groups would be responsible for a few pints of blood each month there would never be a lack at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Why not start a lasting campaign — "A Blood Donor Day". Set aside one day each month for donating blood and then each service organization could have an "Honor Roll of Those Who Gave."

We need blood. We need action in Tecumseh.

Hard To Say 'Goodbye'

When owners of a business sell out, it's always difficult for their friends and fellow merchants along business row to say goodbye.

Especially so when they are folks like Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ruffer, who took over a bottled gas and appliance business in Tecumseh little more than a year ago.

They decided to sell and found a ready buyer in Vic Palpant, who has been managing the local studio of WABJ.

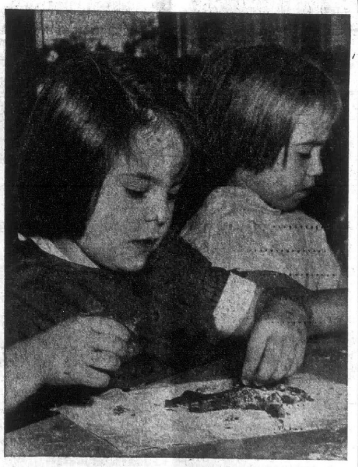
The Ruffers have been real boosters of Tecumseh, were among the first to get behind the new Chamber of Commerce in those first difficult weeks when the goal of 100 members was sought.

Most think of the Chamber as well-established—and it is, now.

But then getting merchants to join the parade was often a "hard-sell' chore. Not so with the Ruffers.

This is just one example of their spirit of cooperation and we're going to miss it.

We'd like to wish them and the new owner the best of luck.



RAISIN FOR EYES—Carefully placing them is Susan Beardsley (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Beardsley, 401 W. Chicago Blvd. Just as intent is Barbara Haeussler, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wes Haeussler, 513 Seminole Dr.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Dad Knows His "A-Bee-C's"

Quite a "to do" on Main Street yesterday—lucky that Dad Blake was on the scene.

Seems a swarm of bees appeared from some place and hovered low over the sidewalk between the bank and Post Office. Everybody got sort of panicky. Then Dad appeared...

He borrowed a woman's purse-mirror and flashed a beam of sunlight into the swarm. Then he swung the beam slowly across the street into the eaves of Allen's warehouse. Right! The bees followed the light and roosted there.

From where I sit, every problem needs just one good solution. And it occurs to me that in living with our neighbors, our Founding Fathers gave us the right idea. It's called "tolerance." In practice it means that your choice of tea or buttermilk should be as honored as my preference for a glass of beer. Makes for a "hive" of good neighbors.

Through My Window

WE WISHED AND IT HAPPENED!

A past article dwelt with the thrill of watching pretty Papa Cardinal court the lady of his choice. Taking her out to dinner he would see that she was comfortably situated on the feeder and then proceed to pick out the tastiest sunflower seeds and tenderly feed them to her.

All this was done with a great flourish—my, how had he worked to be impressive.

As their romance progressed from the courting stage to the serious business of nest building and raising a family, oh, how we wished that when the babies were old enough the parents would bring them to the feeder.

Well, it happened.

One by one they, or more correctly be brought the young birds to the feeder. It was always the male bird and from the difference in size and color we are sure there were three youngsters.

Very young cardinals are the most nondescript ordinary looking things imaginable; dull grayish brown in color, they show no signs of their black face-mask and even their bills are a mousey brown or black.

It was hard to believe these drab little birds would soon wear the brilliant scarlet of the male cardinal or the lovely pastels of the female.

A MISTAKE in that last sentence, it is incorrect to say the baby cardinals, when we saw them, were very little. With their soft baby feathers all fluffed out they looked as big as their proud but overworked father.

Like all the rest of the bird babies we have had at the feeder, the young cardinals could, when begging for food, present a picture of utter helplessness.

No wonder Papa just brought one at a time; one was all he could possibly cope with. Wings aflutter and a demanding mouth open wide, the young bird was constantly begging to be fed.

On legs sometimes a little wobbly he never let the older bird get more than two hops away.

☆

AS MENTIONED before, we never saw the female feeding her off-spring at the feeder, I suppose she took them elsewhere. Morning and late afternoon were apparently Papa's feeding time.

He was faithful to his family and, with our help, a good provider but it was amusing how clearly he showed what a strain it was. Before the children went out on their own we, could see that he had actually lost weight and his beautiful coat had lost some of its luster.

(This latter mentioned condition of his fathers was undoubtedly a natural thing due to the season, but fancifully thinking it does fit in with the picture of the harassed Father.)

In what seemed an amazingly short length of time the trio of youngsters were out on their own. Happily for us they continued their daily visits. When once started, it was interesting to see just how quickly they colored up.

At first there were just a few red streaks in their tail; next we noticed that the wings were showing a little color too. About this time traces of cardinal character began to appear on the birds' faces.

The black face-mask started to show and the dull brown bill started to turn red. The change in the bill was almost spectacular, each day we could see that it grew more brilliant.

☆

NOW THAT the birds have attained their full growth and their feathers have smoothed down, they are not as easy to tell apart as they were at first.

When very young there was a decided difference in size between two of them; one was bigger and more aggressive than his smaller and more timid brother.

The third one was, and still is, "a chip off the old block."

In every way but one Papa is a prize winning, blue-ribbon cardinal. He is flaming red in color and his jet black face-mask sets off bright sparkling eyes. His one distraction is his tail—it is short, very short.

So too, one of the youngsters has all the characteristics of a top-notch cardinal except his tail. As a baby is was ridiculously little, almost non-existant, but now it is grown out a little and is much like Papa's, noticeably short.

☆

THIS IS THE first year we have had the opportunity of watching the full courting, nest building and child-raising cycle.

Our often repeated wish of having baby cardinals come to the feeder came true and what a thrill! It was an exciting experience, one which I hope will be repeated next year!

SPEAKS AT WORSHIP

A representative of the Gideons will be present at the morning worship service at the First Baptist Church Oct. 19 to speak on the work done by the Gideons and to receive contributions.

Corn Picking Demonstration

Members of the Tecumseh Chapter of the Future Farmers of America this fall are taking part in a state-wide campaign to prevent corn harvest accidents before they happen.

The local chapter, in cooperation with the Hoyt Whelan Implement Co., is planning a safe corn picking demonstration on the school corn plots east of the sewage plant.

All farmers who pick corn in this area are requested to attend this demonstration. The Tecumseh adult farmers class will be on hand along with the boys' parents. Thursday, October 23 at 1 p.m. is the time.

Farmers who agree to follow safe rules to prevent corn harvest accidents will have a "Safe Operator — 1958" sticker put on his equipment, according to Paul Burns, vocational agriculture instructor.

These stickers will be given out by the FFA boys durng the demonstration.

In addition, the farm wife will receive a table pledge card which will serve to remind both her and her husband that farm safety is a family affair.

☆

THE FFA BOYS will be armed with facts that can help the local farmer do a safer and better job of harvesting his corn.

"Farm equipment is designed for safe operation, but the operator must follow safe operating rules," says Jack Allen, President of he Tecumseh FFA Chapter.

Efforts of the state FFA members, along with those of many other interested organizations, individuals and farm equipment dealers, are cutting down the number of corn harvest accidents.

In addition to the picker-dryer demonstration the local agriculture department will have displayed approximately 15 samples of corn taken from 1/100th acre which was grown by members of the adult farmer class for their entry in the corn growing contest. The practices used by the farmers will be available for inspection.

If enough interest is shown by farmers this will be an annual event by the Tecumseh Future Farmer Chapter according to Mr. Burns.

FFA Lists Activities

The summer activities of the FFA included; the nomination of Farmer Degree, installation of officers, attendance of Karl Kimerer at the American Institute of Co-operatives Officers, a trip to Hill and Dale Resort on Crystal Lake, construction of an automatic waterer for the steers, the sale of steers at the Battle Creek Sale and locally, and a visit by the Nebraska boys.

Ken Bortel, 20 years old, of Britton is among ten other young Michigan farmers who have been recommended for the American Farmer Degree, the highest degree conferred by the Future Farmers of America. The group was selected by the National Board of FFA directors, and the winners will be announced at the organization's national convention, October 13-16, in Kansas City, Mo.

The installation of officers in the Britton chapter took place at the club's June 2 meeting. Officers installed were: President, Barry Brablec; Vice President, David Henning Secretary, Jerry Papworth; Treasurer, Larry Ivan; Reporter, Jerry Dicks; and Sentinel, Jerry McCrate.

Karl Kimerer returned home Thursday, August 28, after attending the 30th National Meeting of the American Institute of Co-operative at Pennsylvania State University, August 24-27. Karl has been active in FFA and 4H. He is State Vice-President of the FFA. At the meeting he participated in a panel discussion on solving agricultural problems through co-operatives.

They prescribe from the thousands of different drugs pharmacists-stock, the one that will help most. They are no longer restricted to the few they can carry in their bag or office. "A man needs to feel secure"... Al told the boss ... and the boss agreed.
Matter of fact, they also agreed that Blue Cross-Blue Shield health care helps fill that need ... helps make a man feel more secure both on the job and off.
That's why the boss provided Blue Cross-Blue Shield protection to begin with.
And that's why Blue Cross-Blue Shield coverage was such an important element in the contracts recently negotiated between the UAW, AFL-CIO and Ford, Chrysler and General Motors. All of these major contracts include the new "M-75" medical plan which provides more security than ever for group members.
How about you? Do you have the extra security that Blue Cross-Blue Shield can offer?

New Type of Marking Introduced

Tecumseh Junior and Senior High Schools have adopted an improved method of reporting pupil progress this year, states James McDowell.

Pupil progress reports will be issued at intervals of nine weeks (two each semester), and the quality of the pupils' work will be graded according to the following system:

A—Outstanding in thoroughness, accomplishment and initiative.

B—Above average in accuracy, accomplishment and initiative.

C — Average in accomplishment.

D—Unsatisfactory.

E—Failure. No credit.

I—Incomplete.

Pupils will receive a letter grade in each subject to indicate their achievement in the mastery of the subject.

The instructor will also indicate on the Progress Report possible reasons for unsatisfactory progress in the subject.

From time to time, teachers will send reports to the parents of students whose work in school is unsatisfactory.

"These reports try to analyze the reasons for poor work, and we hope that these suggestions will be accepted as an attempt to be helpful," Mr. McDowell explains.

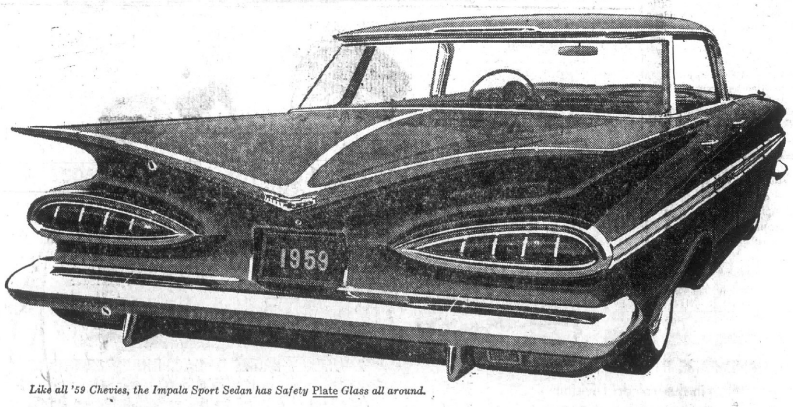
Now... all America sees the one that's truly new!



Like all '59 Chevies, the Impala Sport Sedan has Safety Plate Glass all around.

what America wants, America gets in a Chevy!

'59 CHEVROLET

CHEVROLET

It's shaped to the new American taste with a lean, clean silhouette, crisp new contours, beautifully restrained accents. It brings you more spaciousness and comfort with a new Body by Fisher. It has a bright new sheen—a new kind of finish that keeps its luster without waxing for up to three years. New bigger brakes. Vast new areas of visibility. New Hi-Thrift 6. New handling ease and road steadiness. It's new right down to the tires!

Never before has an automobile manufacturer made such sweeping changes two years in a row. And never before has any car been new like this one.

The 1959 Chevrolet is more than a restyled car—more, even, than a completely new car. It's your kind of car. Shaped to reward your new taste in style with a fresh Slimline design that brings entirely new poise and proportion to automobile styling. Inside the new and roomier Body by Fisher you'll find truly tasteful elegance. And you'll have clear seeing from every seat. The new Vista-Panoramic windshield curves overhead—and there are new bigger windows, too.

When you take the wheel, you find Chevy's newness goes down deep. A new steering ratio makes handling easier. New suspension engineering gives you a more stable ride. There's a sweet new edition of Turboglide*. A new Hi-Thrift 6 that goes and goes on a gallon. Vim-packed V8's. New and bigger brakes. Even tougher, safer Tyrex cord tires.

There's still more! A new finish that keeps its shine without waxing or polishing for up to three years. New Impala models. New wagons—including one with a rear-facing rear seat. And, with all that's new, you'll find those fine Chevrolet virtues of economy and practicality. Stop in now and see the '59 Chevrolet.

KEEPER—Dallas Bailey keeps the county Animal Shelter spotless for dogs and cats.

Fine Home for Pets

A fine home awaits pets which ra neo longer wanted or mistreated. It's the Lenawee County Humane Society Animal Shelter on Acadamy Rd., about 10 miles south of Tecumseh.

The Shelter ,opened last February, is ably managed by Dallas Bailey, assisted by his wife who also keeps a tidy apartment at the other end of the building.

Bill Hammaker, Tecumseh, president of the county society for the past two years and a leader in raising funds for the shelter, says no dog or cat will be rejected at the shelter.

The Society operates the shelter solely through donations. Individual gifts and large donations from the Tecumseh Community Fund made it possible to start construction last year.

The building, designed by Tecumseh architect Jim Smith, cost approximately $17,000. A mortgage of only $3,500 remains at the local bank.

New owners, on taking a dog, puppy or kitten from the shelter, are asked for a contribution. The same is true for an owner leaving a pet.

There are 10 large and 14 small cages inside the shelter, and several runway type cages on a rear porch. County veterinarians work closely with Mr. Bailey, keeping the better animals and destroying the others.

The shelter is in no woy connected with the county dog warden and his duties.

Former 4-H Members Being Asked To Help

Former 4-H members living in Lenawee County will find it easy to participate in the 4-H Alumni Roll Call now going on to raise funds to help build Camp Kett.

During the Roll Call drive, which runs until Nov. 15, every man and woman now living in Lenawee County who ever belonged to a 4-H Club will be asked to answer the Roll Call by contributing a $1 or more, toward building the new State 4-H Training Center.

Contributors' names will be listed at the Center under the County where they lived when they were 4-H Club members.

Special envelopes and Roll Call cards have been placed at the County Extension office and at other places throughout the County.

Dedicated to training youth leaders, the $300,000 State Training Center will be located on a 140-acre tract owned by the 4-H Club Foundation of Michigan on Center Lake in Osceola County.

He Remembers The Olden Days

The Herald office received a letter from Walter Norris of Staten Island, New York this week renewing his subscription and mentioning the changes in the paper since Scovil Stacy had it 60 or 70 years ago.

He knew Mr. Stacy well and says that though he has been away from Tecumseh for 58 years he has not lost his interest in the city.

It is always interesting to hear from our readers, especially those veteran subscribers.

Two Get Degrees

Herbert N. Beck, son of Russell Johnson of Tecumseh, received his BA degree in economics during the summer term at Michigan State University this year.

Howard H. Driggs, son of Howard Driggs of Palmyra, was also among the 681 students who earned degrees. He received a BS in dairy manufacturing.

Mary Alice Gets Letter from...

An interesting piece of mail was received last week by Mary Alice Stutesman, as a result of a picture and story about her appearing in The Herald.

6713 Tulip Hill Terrace,
Washington 16, D. C.

"Dear Miss Stutesman:

"One of our most distinguished Foreign Service officers—Assistant Secretary Joseph C. Satterthwaite—who is a native son of Michigan, sent me the clipping which reported that you had won this year's Michigan American Legion Auxiliary Americanism contest.

"I am writing not only to add my congratulations to the many you have undoubtedly received, but also to express an interest in your family which, I assume, is related to mine. It is my understandng that all of us are decended from Pennsylvania Dutch families who came over here in the eighteenth century, but most of them have spelled their names with a "z" or perhaps Stutsman.

"Until I saw the clipping in the Tecumseh paper, I knew of no other members of the family who spelled their name as we do.

"My father and grandfather were born and raised in Peru, Indiana, and I believe that before then there was at least one generation near Dayton, Ohio, and that before that they lived in Pennsylvania, not far from Hagerstown, Maryland.

"However, the main purpose in my writing is to applaud achievements by Stutesman anywhere and to wish you good fortune in your life.

"Sincerely yours,
"John H. Stutesman, Jr."

To become a champion, fight one more round.

READY FOR LAUNCHING — Walt Nichols, manager of the Strand Theatre, makes fast a message to the basket of his "80 Days" balloon in case it should break away. Assisting him are Alan and Carol Kapnick.

Balloon Floats 150 Feet Above Strand Theatre

Floating nearly 150 feet above the Strand Theatre is a balloon —a model of the one used in the film, "Around the World in 80 Days."

By coincidence, that's the picture currently playing at the Strand.

Manager Walt Nichols, assisted by his wife, Jet, fashioned the display in two days.

The heart is a surplus Air Force weather balloon, which he obtained for $10.

Expensive item is the helium used to inflate it—$27.50 for a tank.

Around the balloon, the Nichols fashioned a net and from it hung a miniature basket. The ring used to draw the strings together is a cut-down hula-hoop

Walt launched the bag Monday afternoon and just in case it should happen to break away from its mooring, taped the following message to the basket:

Dear Finder:

I am being used for a promotion in advertising Mike Todd's "Around The World in 80 Days", this picture now playing the Strand theatre in Tecumseh, Michigan.

I am being allowed to float over the marquee about 150 feet up in the air.

Should I break loose from my ties will my new owner please drop a line to the above theatre and tell them where you found me?

I was filled with non-explosive Helium gas to where I was 14 feet in girth.

If you have not seen the above picture "Around the World in 80 Days" may I suggest that you see it, for the greatest entertainment of your life.

Signed,
THE BALLOON

Is Waste Paper Bit of Problem

Is waste paper or a place to keep a large waste paper basket a problem in your kitchen.

A waste paper bin or chute built into your kitchen cupboard may be the answer to your problem, suggests Coral Morris, extension specialist in home management at Michigan State University.

Milk cartons, boxes from foods and package mixes, and grocery sacks make up a large portion of the waste paper.

These accumulate near the food preparation center and the sink so locate the "trash" chute or bin in this area — as near the sink as possible is usually a good place.

The bin-like opening is hinged at the bottom and flips open at the touch of a handle near the top. If you have a basement below the kitchen area, a chute or metal tube from the bin opening can lead to a trash container in the basement.

If there is no basement below — or you just prefer not to have a trash container immediately below in the basement — your built-in waste paper collector can be a large tilt bin.

Like the chute type, the bin is hinged at the bottom and flips open easily with a handle at the top. Use a single liner in the bin to hold waste material and make the bin easy to clean.

Murph Reports

By DON MURPHY
Executive Secretary

In this day and age, when almost everyone is looking for an angle or a 'gimick' in connection with any entertainment or promotion, we have in Tecumseh what is known as the Lenawee County Band Festival.

This Festival is unique in that as far as we know there isn't anything like it put on anywhere in the country.

We should be proud of this fact and proud also that we have such people as Clare Camburn and the Rev. Blair Bashore, the orinigators of the Festival, that give so freely of their time and talents to make this event a possibility.

Much thanks should go to these men along with every participating bandmaster and the members of their respective bands. Many other people worked to make this Festival a success and each and every one of these people also deserve the thanks of the community and the county.

Meet New Teacher

Gerald J. Janousek, 36 year-old, is a native of East Grand Rapids where he graduated from Wyoming Park High School in 1940. He attended the University of Grand Rapids and received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Olivet College. He is now the science teacher in the Junior High School here. After receiving his B. A. degree he attended Michigan State University, the University of Heidelberg, Germany and the University of Belgium. He has also done work at the University of Michigan, George Williams College, Springfield and Adrian Colleges. Mr. Janousek has had 8½ years experience in YMCA work in Detroit, Bay City and Adrian. The past 2½ years he taught science, vocal music and physical education at Madison Agricultural School. He was also head baseball and basketball coach and organized a summer program for the community.

In Europe during World War II, he was wounded five times in action, was awarded Oak Leaf Clusters. He and his wife, Charlotte, have two daughters, Deborah 10½, and Susan 8 years old.

Being a newcomer to our city I would like to give a stranger's opinion after viewing this Festival for the first time.

First I would like to say that we should be proud to live in a county where we can get together, and without cost, upwards of 600 young musicians and assemble them one one field and have them perform like only high-spirited, upstanding American youngsters could. I for one am proud and am happy to admit it.

Besides being proud, I am also happy to say that when the rolling drums and music from every instrument blared forth our forever favorite, Star "Spangled Banner," I suffered an acute case of Spinetinglingitis.

I swelled with pride, pride built from the knowledge that these youngsters were the ones that the destiny of our great country depended upon, proud because they were doing this because they wanted to, and just plain proud and happy that I am an American.

These youngsters who every day are referred to as such outlandish names as "Delinquent" or just another "Teenager", with some fancy adjectives fastened on, for my part are the backbone of our existence and I am proud and happy to hand over the security of the future of our great country to such people as those who would stand there and play so beautifully and with so much feeling, and of their own free will, our "National Anthem".

If this Festival, held annually, can make only one person feel as it made me feel, then it is worth its weight in pure gold. All I can say is that if it is in my power, or if I can do anything toward it, this Festival will be an annual event as long as I am around Tecumseh or Lenawee County, and it will grow in popularity.

Young Men Interested in Attending Service Academies, Act Now

Rep. George Meader said today he will appoint four Second District youths to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., one to the Military Academy at West Point, N.Y., and one to the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colo., for the academic year beginning July 1959.

Meader said 10 Michigan vacancies also will be available at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point, N.Y., for which he will make nominations for the statewide competition.

Young men interested in attending the U.S. Coast Guard Academy should contact the U.S. Coast Guard, Washington 25, D.C., for information about the nationwide competitive examination.

The U.S. Civil Service Commission, meanwhile, announced November 17, 1958, as the date for its preliminary academy examination. The test will be held in this area at Adrian, Ann Arbor and Jackson.

Meader asked interested young men to write him direct at 305 House Office Building, Washington 25, D.C., by October 31, 1958.

Grade School Students Will Get TB Tests

Tuberculosis tests will begin Oct. 22 in all Tecumseh area schools for children in grades one through the eighth.

It is a cooperative program, undertaken by the Lenawee County Health Department and the local doctors, with the State Department of Health and the Tuberculosis Association.

Two days after the test has been given by the doctor in the school, the area on the skin is to be checked by a nurse.

A positive test, or reaction, does not mean active tuberculosis, but means that at some time a child may have been exposed to the disease.

It is, therefore, necessary that the child with a positive test and adult members of his family be X-rayed now and annually.

Cards, letters and leaflets explaining the test have been sent to parents through the school.

Parents have been asked to sign the cards enclosed, if they wish their child to be tested. These cards are to be returned to the school promptly.

No child will be tested without the parent's consent in writing. If the test is missed in his own school the child may present his card for the test in any other center in the county where testing is being done.

For this information call Earl Greene or the Tecumseh Herald office.

WHAT'S COOKING IN TECUMSEH

Fried Chicken

Mrs. Floyd Barrett give us her recipe for Fried Chicken in Batter this week, and since a good many Tecumseh area people have eaten food prepared by this excellent cook we are sure they will be glad to have it.

Mrs. Barrett is well known in this area for her culinary art because she has managed the serving of public banquets, luncheons and dinners of all kinds for the Tecumseh Grange and First Baptist Church, being a member of both.

For ten years she managed a food tent at the Lenawee County Fair, the first five years as a Grange project and the last five for the church. During those years she was home economics chairman for each.

Mr. Barrett always helps with the various projects. So in turn Mrs. Barrett assists with the farm work when necessary, by driving the tractor and doing all kinds of field work.

☆

THE BARRETTS HAVE one son, Jack, who with his wife, Jean, own and live on the farm next door.

Mrs. Barrett and her husband are active Grangers, holding membership in the local organization, the Pomona, State and National Granges and serving on the degree teams of both the local and Pomona groups. She also holds an office in the Pomona Grange.

She is a member of the Macon Woman's Club and Extension Club, Lake Ridge Farm Bureau, Tecumseh Hospital Auxiliary, Woman's Society and Happy Home Builders Class of the church.

☆

BESIDES REALLY enjoying baking and cooking Mrs. Barrett likes to sew and raised 300 chickens this year. Twenty-five broilers are already in the freezer. The Barretts also raise a garden mainly so that they may pick and freeze the fresh vegetables.

Mrs. Barrett graduated from Britton-Macon High School and attended Eastern Michigan College. After this she taught grammar school and also worked at Fords for three years during the labor shortage.

When asked to give an amusing happening from her various activities she said "It amuses me now to think back of planning a banquet for 200. Then the day of the banquet the number was raised to 375, then 400, and finally having 425 make their appearance in the evening to eat. Then is when one wishes he could perform some magic."

☆

FRIED CHICKEN in Batter

1 egg
1 cup milk
1 cup sifted all purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1½ teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 frying chicken (2½ to 3 lbs.) cut in pieces.

Beat egg and stir milk.

Add sifted dry ingredients and beat until smooth.

Dip pieces of chicken in batter and fry in fat heated in fry well to 365 degrees.

Cook larger pieces first for about 15 minutes. Fry backs and wings about 13 minutes and liver one minute.

Drain on paper toweling.

For larger chicken, boil 20 to 25 minutes first, then remove from liquid and cool. Then dip and fry in the usual manner. Reduce frying time.

Our Readers Write

To the Editor:

I don't know why I should write to you about this, but I want to get something off my chest and I want someone else to know about it. I guess your columns are read by a lot of people and it's a good to share an idea.

I sat at the football game Friday night and watched our Tecumseh "Indians" play a fine game. I enjoyed every minute of it. I was glad for the good coaching staff, the nice uniforms, and most of all for all the fine boys who go out for football.

I am proud of Tecumseh's team and their record this season. We have had a boost in community morale by their "unscored on" record. We'd like to see it continued.

But I'll tell you something, Mr. Editor: the cheering was lousy! Now don't think that I'm criticizing the Cheer Leaders, a mighty pert passle of gals! They do their job well, believe me. And I'm not criticizing the students, because most of them were busting their lungs out there, whether scoring or not.

The trouble was with me! and a couple of hundred adults just like myself more or less. We sat there and enjoyed the game and liked the uniforms and were thankful for a winning team, but we didn't utter a single yell to encourage the team !

I didn't feel too guilty about it at the time, but the more I think about it the guiltier I feel! The team hasn't let Tecumseh down and they won't—not even if and when they lose one.

The trouble is that we adults think we are really supporting the team by just sittin' there, but we ain't. I feel bad about it, because I haven't played fair with the team and the coaches and the Cheer Leaders and the student body! Next game, I plan to do my share of cheering!

Yours truly,
Ami Theone

Corn Qualifies 'Non-Compliance'

Price supports will be made available for 1958 crop corn which is not produced in compliance with acreage allotment controls in designated commercial areas.

Similar "noncomplance" support was available for the 1956 and 1957 crops.

The additional support will be at a national average of $1.00 per bushel.

DURING THE RECESS ON Thursday Doris Oliphant, Student Council president, Carol Spangler, council secretary and myself visited a Regional student council convention that was also held at the Ann Arbor High School.

At nine o'clock there was a general session in the study hall of about 60 members. At this meeting everyone was divided into various groups that would discuess the regional constitution.

At 9:30 everyone went to their room assigned to their group. From 9:30 to 10:30 common student council problems were discussed.

From what I observed in my group it seems to me that the Tecumseh High School Student Council is efficient, well-run and has handled the most common problems well.

Everything that was discussed had been satisfactorily solved at Tecumseh. At 10:30 the groups switched to their assigned topic dealing with the regional constitution. Any changes were voted on at the afternoon general session at Tappan Junior High. The afternoon session started at 1 and ended at 3.

Kickoff Brunch Opens United Fund Drive

Tecumseh's 150 United Fund volunteer workers will gather for a Drive Kickoff Brunch Monday at 10:15 in the American Legion Hall, announces general chairman Walt Nichols.

Festivities actually begin 15 minutes earlier when the Tecumseh High School band, under Don Johnson, marches along Chicago Blvd. and down S. Evans to the Legion Hall.

Twenty-four members of the band will go into the building and stage a five-minute "rouser" session.

This will be followed by the High School's 92-voice choir, Les Bennett directing, presenting a 10-minute medley for the workers.

Then, as the volunteers enjoy coffee, milk and sweet rolls, chairman Nichols will outline solicitation procedures. Complete kits for each worker will be distributed.

The Legion Auxiliary will serve the refreshments, which are being donated by Kroger, A&P and Van's Pastry. Members of the High School musical groups will be treated by the Coca-Cola Bottling of Adrian, which is sending a truck over, will park it in front of the hall. The Legion is providing its hall free.

"We want to thank the businesses and people who have donated toward this brunch," states Mr. Nichols.

Tecumseh's goal this year is $5,000 and for the first time this community will be a part of the Lenawee County United Fund Drive.

A 4x12 foot thermometer will go up Friday in downtown Tecumseh charting both the local effort and the county-wide drive. The county goal is $161,000.

Volunteers will leave the brunch and begin door-to-door solicitations. The campaign closes here Nov. 11, in the county the following day.

THREE ARE TWO — The Russell Gunderson triplets celebrated their second birthday last week. Sister Sue, three, shows the girls one of their cakes. The triplets are Betty Ann, Sally Ann and Mary Ann. (Not necessarily in that order as it was no little trick keeping identification notes on the spirited trio.) Story appears on page 2.

Celebrate Apple Week with Silver Dollars

Next week will be a big one for Tecumseh merchants as the retail division of the Chamber of Commerce stages another town-wide promotion.

It's going to be pegged on a celebration of National Apple Week and will revolve about the popular, tangy fruit.

Merchants announce there'll be another gimmick — the silver dollar. With every purchase of $10 worth of merchandise, shoppers will be given a silver buck.

Growers in the County will display apples and apple products along Chicago Blvd. in the business district all day Oct. 31, selling from their stands.

New 1959 automobiles will be placed downtown, too, by Tecumseh dealers.

The County Apple Queen is being selected Oct. 31, at 2 p.m. in the Strand Theatre. She and the various runners-up will be in the annual Halloween parade, which will also include the Tecumseh High School band, new cars and children dressed in costumes.

The youngsters will receive treats and those in most outstanding get-ups given prizes.

Store Opens Friday

Tecumseh's newest retail outlet, the Van-Mers Department Store, is staging a grand opening Friday and Saturday.

Featuring clothes and shoes for the entire family, it is located in the former A&P building.

The entire 4,800 square feet of space has been entirely remodeled with new tile floor, new lighting and an interior paint job.

There is parking north of the building for 37 cars.

Owned by a partnership of Chester Merrit and Hubert Van Camp, the business is expected to help attract more folks to Tecumseh for their family shopping.

Opening-week visitors will be given an opportunity to win a raft of prizes including a sport coat, suit, sport jacket, hat, sport shirts, hunting outfit, slacks ties and nine pairs of shoes.

Some of the prizes will be awarded this Saturday at 3 p.m. and the balance the following week.

Mr. Merrit will be store manager and Mr. VanCamp handle the books.

Max Williams of Clinton will serve as assistant manager and be in charge of the shoe section.

Work on the store began the first week of September and has continued daily — and often nightly — right up to the opening.

All of the store's attractive counters and shelving were custom-built with materials furnished by the R. S. Moore & Son Lumber Co.

Electric sign and some of the store's wiring was handled by Cook Electric, Inc.

Both Baldwin and Hite hardware stores provided fixtures.

Exchange Club Works for New Scoreboard

To buy an electric scoreboard for Tecumseh football field —that's the purpose of an Exchange Club Rummage Sale this Friday and Saturday at 130 W. Chicago Blvd.

The sale of general rummage will be open from 9 to 9 on Friday, 9 to 6 on Saturday.

The Exchange Club is going to purchase a new electric scoreboard for the High School Athletic Field.

The club has about $500 on hand, and needs an approximate total of $2,000.

President Bob Bonner has said that the Exchange Club wants to give the Tecumseh Indians and Coach Duncan Leckta all the encouragement possible.

"Their scores this season would certainly look fine in lights," he said.

Old clothing, appliances, and general rummage will be available at the sale, being held in the Schneider building across from the Gamble Store.

Donations of all kinds will be appreciated by the Exchange Club and by all who will enjoy the new electric scoreboard in the years to come.

For pick-up on Thursday you may phone 429 or 838.

Trick or Treat Night—Oct. 30

Trick or Treat night in Tecumseh will be Thursday, Oct. 30, proclaims Mayor Oley Hanna.

Only on that evening should children beg, states the mayor.

When boys and girls are permitted by parents to go out several evenings it creates a hardship on citizens.

If limited to one night, folks will be supplied and stay home to pass out treats.

Oct. 31 Is Last Day for Changes in Telephone Book

"It won't be long before all the telephone users, residential and business customers alike in Britton, Clinton and Tecumseh, will receive new telephone directories for 1958," D. W. Clark, Tecumseh District Manager for General Telephone Company has announced.

"Correct initials, names and addresses are necessary to assure complete and adequate representation in the alphabetical section and the Yellow Pages as well," he stated.

The final closing date for making changes or adding new listings to the new directory is October 31, 1958.

Clark urged that all customers wishing to make any changes should call the business office as soon as possible to enable the telephone company to make the corrections or additions before the new directory is printed.

Businessman's Mother Dies

Lyle DesErmia's mother, Mrs. Charles DesErmia of Onsted, passed away Saturday at Bixby Hospital after suffering an attack of illness that morning.

She was 83, the oldest member of the Onsted Baptist Church.

She is survived, besides her son, her husband; one daughter, Mrs. Arlone Brickbauer of Plymouth, Wisconsin, four grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Dunn Funeral Home with the Rev. F. D. Hague officiating and burial was in Maple Shade cemetery.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

What is the main benefit of having a Lenawee County United Fund Drive as opposed to separate community efforts?

To be exact: $25,000 more for county need and charitable organizations.

Last year, without a combined county drive, a total of $135,000 was collected in various efforts, including a separate Red Cross drive.

This year, with Tecumseh, Adrian, Hudson and Deerfield and rural areas of the county joining hands under a combined banner—including Red Cross — the expected total will be $161,000.

That's a difference of $26,000, which will be realized for just an additional $1,000 in administrative expenditure to organize the county, giving a net gain of $25,000.

This money goes into the participating communities and the nearly 40 agencies which assist all peoples of Lenawee County.

The main reason for the $25,000 more is the payroll deduction plan, which will encourage more industrial workers to donate.

Those who live in Blissfield, Clinton or Morenci—communities not in the county drive — and work, for example, at Tecumseh Products, may earmark their gifts for these towns and the money will be sent there as it is deducted.

This later point apparently caused some confusion last week at the Products. I hope this helps clear it up.

There has been a lot said about the county drive, much of it adverse.

Summed up, folks have moaned that all we were doing was helping Adrian.

They failed to consider the drive as a helping hand for the needy and an opportunity to better county agencies.

They failed to consider how much more can be accomplished if we worked together.

The above mentioned $25,000 more in funds is a case in point.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN SALING, 219 S. Oneida St., discovered a pleasant surprise in their garden Sunday — a beautifully blooming Easter lily.

☆

WHEN A READER HEARD that Tecumseh tied Bedford Friday, she suggested we run half of Bootin' Pussy this time.

We don't exactly agree—a tie not being a defeat and actually from what we hear, this one may be even a moral victory for the Indians.

So here he is again.

And good luck against Willow Run this week.

Band Parents Asked To Help

Parents of band members are needed to assist with a new project initiated by the Band Boosters Club to help finance supplies for the new band room.

Both parents and students will be working in the downtown section with canisters for Tecumseh Band Days, Oct. 31 and Nov. 1.

Those who can help are asked to call either 489-R, 72-R or 1116.

Cider and Donuts Are Refreshments for C. of C. Session

Members of the Chamber of Commerce gather Thursday evening at 7:30 in the VFW hall for an informal business and social session.

Cider and donuts will be served as committee chairmen give reports.

Don Murphy, executive secretary and Dr. Richard Coak, president, will outline future plans of the Chamber.

"We hope that every one of our more than 100 members will be on hand," Dr. Coak said.

Moore Fined $64 by City Justice

Robert D. Moore, 28, has been fined $50 and $14.80 costs for reckless operation, stemming from an incident last May 30.

Justice of Peace Robert French, who heard the case here at a jury trial last week, fined him Tuesday.

Robert Baker, attorney for the people, presented his statement for $358 to council Monday night. The city also has been billed for court costs, Mr. French reports.

Two Hurt Hunting

Two were hurt Monday while hunting. Richard Carter of Tipton received a wound on the back of his left hand about 12:05 p.m. and Lee Bush of Tecumseh was hit in the right temple about 5:15 p.m.

Neither wounds were serious.

Presbyterians Invite Public to Fellowship

The First Presbyterian Church wil observe a full day of celebration on Sunday, Oct. 26 in connection with the anniversary of the Reformation.

Family worship will be at 10 and church school classes for all ages at 11 a.m.

The entire community is invited to share in the evening of felowship, study and service at 5 p.m. A potluck supper will be served, followed by worship at 5:40 conducted by the young people.

The full length movie, "Martin Luther" will be shown. Nursery care will be provided for the youngsters who can enjoy Walt Disney's musical comedies, "Melody Time" featuring Johnny Appleseed, Little Toot and Pecos Pete.

Councilmen Handle Routine Problems

Council handled numerous routine problems Monday night, and then discussed traffic situation on Adrian St. at the new Tecumseh Acres School.

Officials authorized traffic control improvements for slowing traffic through the area.

Council also recommended that regular hours be established for the city dump. City Manager Ed Nelson reports the hours will be 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Saturday, and from 7:30 to noon on Sundays.

Don't Burn Leafs in Gutter

This is the time to burn leaves and city manager Ed Nelson issues a reminder.

They should not be fired in the gutter, he states, because this will create a storm sewer problem when rain washes the gutters and the residue plugs the lines.

City trucks are busy picking up leaves, he says, and will take all those in piles along sides of roadways.

Farm Bureau Opposes New 'M' Constitution

A heated discussion concerning the question, "Does Michigan Need a New Constitution?" was held at the meeting of the Newburg Farm Bureau Saturday evening.

The group would like to go on record opposing a complete new document, but realizes that ammendments are necessary.

Members feel that in changing, the people of Michigan might find themselves without a constitution for as long as a year or more.

The Farm Bureau is interested in rousing the people to become better informed and thus better equipped to vote in November.

During the business meeting it was decided to change the date of meetings from the third to the first Saturday of each month. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Tonneberger.

This meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Solarski who served refreshments in conclusion.

Mr. Solarski, new chairman, presided over the meeting. The topic for discussion was "Members Must Decide Farm Bureau Future."

City Triplets Celebrate Their Second Birthday

Sally Ann, Mary Ann and Betty Ann Gunderson, the 2-year-old triplets of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gunderson, S. Occidental Rd., celebrated their second birthday last week.

The Gunderson girls are the only triplets born at Herrick Memorial Hospital, where incidentally their mother works as a nurse, part time.

Until a week ago Mr. and Mrs. Gunderson cared for their triplets and big sister, Sue Ann, unaided, but the girls have become so active that Ellen Sunkle of Hanover, Mich, has been engaged to make sure of their safe.

Helping to celebrate the occasion were a host of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Darcy Stark of Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Stark of Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sunkle of Hanover and Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Gunderson of Dearborn were guests on Tuesday.

Guests during the day on Sunday, Oct. 12, were Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Gunderson of Dearborn, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Garry of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Catron of Garden City, Judy Gunderson of Dearborn, Jack Ferdig of Souix Falls, S. Dakota, Mrs. Mae Sessum of Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Donlin and seven children of Kalamazoo and Ellen Sunkle of Hanover.

Sue Ann celebrated her third birthday anniversary Oct. 2 with a children's party.

Let's Give Him a Chance

We have been observing with great interest the political battle between G. Mennen Williams and Paul Bagwell over the post of Michigan governor.

Williams, of course, is the old pro, a shrewd political mind with a well-developed machine going for him.

He seems to be finding a progressively tougher foe in Bagwell as the battle waxes on.

The GOP hopeful has qualified himself every inch a fighter and his continued efforts to get into the ring with Soapy and slug it out has brought this question to mind:

Is the bow-tied chief executive a mite timid about facing Bagwell in a series of televised debates?

(Note: The Bagwell-Williams TV session Oct. 23 will not be a debate, as Bagwell had sought, rather two 15-minute talks with no rebuttles.)

Williams, or his close associates, may have come up with this reasoning: Bagwell, after all, being a speech teacher and a polished extemporanious talker, might pull the rug out from under Soapy. Verbally, that is.

We met Bagwell when he visited Tecumseh recently and in a 20-minute interview concluded:

1. The GOP candidate is deadly serious about his effort and he has not spared himself in five months of campaigning.
2. He knows Michigan's industrial climate.
3. His sights have been set on several excellent objectives if he wins, namely, 100,000 new factory jobs and a clean-up of Michigan labor violence.

Bagwell is sharp. He has neither a political machine or even the all-out, active backing of his party, but he seems not even to notice. He swings along the torturous campaign trail as if every Republican in Michigan was dancing along behind him with roars of "We want Bagwell."

He has been accused of giving Michigan a black eye because he has brought up the industrial climate. Bagwell says it isn't good — and we agree.

There are many thing which figure in a new industry coming into a state or an old one leaving. We're not experts on the subject, but we feel industry has been regarding Michigan with a jaundiced eye for some time.

With all that this state offers in the way of land, water, transportation, labor market and utilities, there should never be a question of plants wanting to leave.

That's where the intangibles of governmental influence come in — and in Michigan there arises a question. It is based on Williams tie-in with the UAW-CIO.

This has apparently created a wariness among the people who make the decisions about industry's coming and goings. And when someone is wary, he doesn't act the way we would like him to — at least in a manner to benefit Michigan.

Over the 10 years Williams has held the No. 1 spot in Michigan, the state has steadily gone deeper into the red — this while Ohio, for example, has built up its treasury backlog.

The task of leading Michigan out of this financial wilderness may be an impossible one.

We'd like to see Paul Bagwell given the chance though.

Our Chance To Help

Some time between Monday and the next 12 days, every home in this area will have a visitor.

"Would you like to give to the Lenawee County United Fund?" each householder will be asked.

Behind that question stands hours and days of work and planning, almost all of it donated by folks of your community.

They have great faith in the coming fund drive and we hope you will, too.

Tecumseh, for the first time, will take part in the County Drive. Some feel it's a perilous step.

At least one leading citizen has come out publicly and said we should proceed with caution, examine the results.

We go along with this—to a point.

Let's review the facts.

A majority of members of the Tecumseh Chest board voted to join the county drive. These folks are all respected members of our community.

They delved deeply into the idea, held open meetings, got opinion and then came up with an affirmative decision.

Shouldn't we in turn, give our local group an all-out affirmative vote in this drive by backing it as we would back a purely Tecumseh drive?

We'll tote up the results when it's all over—and we would guess right now they're going to be startlingly happy ones.

But for now, let's lend our individual, active support to this effort without any provisos or reservations. Let's give as much as we are able.

An Excellent Project

Our city's Exchange Club, in The Herald's opinion, has in the works an excellent project—an electric scoreboard for the football field.

Tecumseh's gridiron fortunes, up until this season, had been pretty downtrodden.

Two young men, Duncan Leckta and Mike Rotunno, came to town and took over the coaching reins.

They were fortunate to find several outstanding lads available and this helped. But more important they were able to build a completely new football philosophy here.

Where before, Indian players merely went through the motions, the current crew soon had knuckled down and found out how an average player can become good and a good player great.

Thanks to head coach Leckta and his able assistant, Mr. Rotunno, Tecumseh became a bona fied football town.

And that's where the Exchange club comes in. Its members began a scoreboard project last year and it seemed unnecessary to hurry along.

But now we have a real reason to hustle and make sure our first-class football layout is complete. The only item missing is that board.

Exchange is having a rummage sale this weekend and we encourage you to stop in and look around.

Buy something and help get that scoreboard. If you don't find an item you need, how about leaving a contribution anyway?

Children Volunteer To Make Collections

The UNICEF program here is being sponsored by the Methodist, Presbyterian and St. Elizabeth Catholic churches.

Children, who are going to make the collections, will meet at the Methodist church at 6 p.m., Oct. 30.

They will be accompanied by an adult and will make calls in a definite area.

Children who desire to do so may wear costumes, but no masks. They will return to the Methodist church for a party following solicitations.

Aim of the UNICEF program is to help make Halloween a holiday from malnutrition and disease for all the world's children.

☆

UNICEF is a United Nations' supported program. All of the money collected locally is sent to the UN committee in New York, to be used for buying much-needed supplies for children all over the world.

UNICEF is the largest international organization set up exclusively to assist children and their mothers. UNICEF's aid has already reached children in over 115 countries and territories.

"When a child calls at your house, wearing a black and orange tag with the words 'Trick or Treat' and the picture of a child blowing a horn, welcome him and put a few coins in his canister and you will be helping some of the world's 600 million ill and hungry youngsters," states Mrs. Rober Bonner, this year's chairman.

Last year over 2,000,000 in more than 8,500 communities shared their fun on Halloween for UNICEF.

"The children are eagerly awaiting their opportunity to collect pennies, nickels, and dimes to help. We hope the parents will be equally as eager to give," adds Mrs. Bonner.

State Music Group Meets Here Oct. 28

Mrs. Henry Vaughan entertained members of the Tecumseh Music Club Tuesday at her home near Clinton. She was assisted by Mrs. J. M. Mulvaney and Mrs. Marvin Schroder.

The program time was devoted to a dress rehearsal of the grass roots opera "Monette" by Joan-elen McKee.

The opera will be used to entertain the South Central District of Michigan State Federation of Music Clubs Oct. 28 when it meets in the Baptist Youth House. The meeting will begin at 9 a.m. with the program at 2:30 p.m.

The luncheon will be at 12:30 when the guest speaker is Mrs. Mrs. Gilbert Burrell, president of the State Federation of Music Clubs.

Anyone is welcome to attend and reservations may be mane with Mrs. Fred Oberlin or any other music club member by Oct. 25.

Life seems to be a continuous struggle. As soon as we leave Mother's protetive womb we cry for our food and from then on try our best to secure the necessities of existance, plus some hapiness.

Those who live contented lives are fortunate. Wise men teach that contentment comes from religious belief, living in accordance with the Golden Rule and enjoying good health.

Our work as a pharmacist is dedicated to your better health. It is our privilege to supply the medicines and health-aids so necessary for your contentment. We welcome the opportunity to be of help.

700 Guests Tour Clinton Post

Nearly 700 guests attended the open house Sunday at Clinton's new State Police Post, reports Sgt. Carl Anderson, commanding officer.

State commissioner Joseph Childs outlined the history of the post, from the time of its two-man status to the present 21-man setup.

Judge Rex Martin complimented the State Policemen on their new building, emphasizing that it was the calibre of men and not the physical assets which made the Post great.

Sgt. Anderson introduced 19 of his officers who were able to be on hand for the affair.

Guests toured the facilities, viewed narcotics and skin-diving equipment displays, saw the state's emergency vehicle.

Chambers of Commerce from Clinton and Tecumseh combined to stage the open house.

Understanding Between Faiths Is Talk Theme

Approximately 350 persons heard Dr. Henry Hitt Crane at the Union Reformation Service Sunday evening.

The service was arranged by the Tecumseh Area Ministerial Association.

In his address Dr. Crane expressed a deep concern for understanding between faiths. He felt that Protestants have not been giving sufficient attention to the element of personal freedom which their faith insures.

"We have an obligation to have informed minds, with regard to religion and the world in which we live," he said.

"Then we must stand ready to defend and use the religious freedom which is ours."

The worth and implied responsibility of religious freedom was the theme throughout Dr. Crane's address.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thompson accompanied by Mrs. John R. Thompson of Adrian were in Chicago last week to be present at a Convocation held at the Conrad Hilton Hotel, when a Fellowship in the American College of Surgeons was conferred upon their son, Dr. John R. Thompson of Adrian.

Tipton Community Church Scene of Night Wedding

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Tipton Community Church was decorated with hampers of white chrysanthemums, palms and lighted candelabra for the wedding ceremony of Grace Esther Willnow and Lowell B. Crockett Saturday evening.

The Rev. Robert Bergman of Gloria dei United Lutheran church performed the double ring ceremony and Mrs. Ronald Hartung of Adrian sang, accompanied by Mrs. Allan Graybill.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Willnow of rural Tipton and the groom is the son of Mrs. Kathryn Crockett and the late John Crockett of Riga.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore a floor length gown of nylon tulle and chantilly lace over shimmering satin.

She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations and her only jewelry, pearl earrings, were a gift of the groom.

☆

MRS. CARL MACBETH was the matron of honor with Mrs. Russell Logan and Mrs. Wayne McKnight as other attendants. They wore identical ballerina length gowns in blue, yellow and pink.

Their pearl earrings were gifts of the bride. They carried crescent bouquets of fall flowers tilted to match their gowns.

Carl MacBeth was the best man and the guests were seated by James Dominique and Howard Salsbury.

Mrs. Willnow chose slate blue nylon and lace with bright blue and silver accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Crockett wore corn-flower blue nylon and lace with pink and white accessories. Both mothers wore pink sweetheart roses.

A reception for 275 guests was held in the Odd Fellows Hall in Tecumseh following the ceremony.

A five-tiered wedding cake centered the bride's tabe.

☆

HAMPERS OF WHITE and yellow flowers decorated the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Driffill received the guests as hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kahle had charge of gifts, Mrs. Hilbert Brooks registered the guests, Bernadine Hogan cut and served the bride's cake and Mrs. James Dominique served the groom's cake.

Others assisting were Mrs. Fredrick Johnson, Karen Echel barger and Mrs. Richard Bailey.

Music for the reception was furnished by the "Four Notes" from Milan.

When the couple left for their wedding trip through the south the bride was wearing a black and white tweed suit with red accessories with the corsage from her bridal bouquet pinned to her shoulder.

☆

WHEN THEY return they will make their home east of Ogden Center on Weston Rd.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School, 1954, and is employed by the Talon Inc.

The groom is a graduate of Blissfield High School, 1950, served two years in the army and is employed at Revco Inc. in Deerfield.

The rehearsal dinner was held at the home of the groom's mother on W. Munger Rd. in Tipton Friday evening.

Trucks are the only commercial vehicles which serve all of Michigan—bringing merchandise and materials from every part of the world to every Michigan household, farm and business concern.

In fact, for hundreds of Michigan communities motor vehicles are the sole means of transportation—autos and buses for passengers, trucks for freight. These communities are not served by any other transportation system!

So, you see, because trucks can and do go wherever there are roads, ample supplies of food, furniture, medical supplies, tools and machinery—necessities and luxuries from everywhere—are available anytime to people in all of Michigan.

Those in small out-of-the-way communities are as well fed, well housed and well clothed as the people of Michigan's largest metropolitan centers—thanks to trucks!

Badly Outweighed in Line, Tecumseh Manages Deadlock

A game Tecumseh eleven, tremendously outweighed on the line, rallied Friday night against a fired-up Bedford team for a 6-6 tie.

The huge Bedford crew, sporting three hefties on the line, one topping the 250-pound mark, and a 230-pound fullback, rolled through Tecumseh in the opening period for its only score. The TD was the first yielded by Tecumseh in four games this season.

Tecumseh had control of the ball only twice during the first half and marched 69 yards in 12 plays to tie the game in the second stanza.

The Indians, still undefeated, travel to Willow Run this Friday night for a non-league encounter with Willow Run. The team pulled a large following to Bedford and many local boosters are expecting to make the trip to Willow Run.

With the exception of Tecumseh's scoring drive, Bedford completely dominated the first half. Doug Dove, giant fullback, plowed through the Indian line and proved to be Bedford's entire offense.

After scoring in the opening period, the Mules drove to Tecumseh's four just before the half. The effort was the last for Bedford, which was out played in the second half, managing one minor offensive to Tecumseh's 35 late in the fourth quarter.

Coach Dunc Leckta's team twice moved inside Bedford's 20-yard line in the second half, once to the four. The first drive ended with a fumble on the 15 and the second on the four when Bedford took over on downs.

The first threat saw Larry Yoakum scamper 20 yards, almost for a touchdown, and the second drive was sparked by a 31-yard pass play from Steve Kruger to Mike Walters.

Yoakum, who scored for the Indians from the seven-yard line, just missed his place kick try when the pigskin faded to the right.

Bedford's big first half gave the Mules the edge in statistics. Bedford totaled 14 first downs (nine in the first half) to nine for Tecumseh and gained 194 yards by rushing and passing to Tecumseh's 149.

Bedford scoring: Dove (1, plunge). Run PAT failed.
Tecumseh scoring: Yoakum (7, run). Place kick missed.

Through My Window

KIDS WILL BE KIDS

Now most of summer's babies are out on their own and doing a fairly good job of acting like adults. It is not hard to remember a month or so ago when such was not the case, however.

Just as the blue-jean, white-buck crowd can be so grown up one minute and so kiddish the next, so did the adolescent birds find that growing up was a hard, hard job.

Two young titmice had an especially difficult time. In the first place their appearance was definitely juvenile.

The adult titmouse is one of the slickest birds imaginable; he never has a feather out of place.

The youngsters, however, instead of being smooth and streamlined were balls of soft gray feathers. These unruly feathers simply would not lay down and the result was a untidy, ruffled wind-blown look.

☆

IN ADDITION to their undignified appearance, these two little birds loved to play follow the leader. Always close together, one would sail down to the feeder, quicky grab a seed and be off.

His brother, or sister, as the case was, would be right behind and go through the exact procedure of grab-and-fly. Playing through an afternoon-long dinner must have been lots of fun, at least they always seem to be having a great time.

The squirrels too showed their age, or rather lack of age, at the feeder.

Again we had a pair of youngsters and although almost full grown when they made their first appearance, they still had lots to learn.

One squirrel had a calm easy-going disposition, but her brother was definitely the uleer type. Once on the feeder he would spend most of his time worrying that something was going to drive him off.

Always on the alert, he would grab a kernel of corn and then dash from one side of the feeder to the other checking to see if all was as it should be. Often he would get so excited that he would forget to eat.

His sister, however, loved her food and once comfortably seated by the ear of corn, she wouldn't worry about trouble until it came, which, of course, it usually didn't.

☆

IT TOOK both squirrels several weeks to learn exactly what they should do on the feder.
er.

Both had trouble with the ear of corn; it was not only hard to get the kernels off, but they also had trouble holding such little bits. Even when all the intricacies of feeding station dining had been mastered and their eating habits were quite adult, they insisted upon approaching the feeder in the most unusual manner.

Instead of climbing up the post, they presisted in using the "overland route."

From a nearby tree they jumped to the flat roof of our room, then a short jump to the metal awning over the big window made a delightful scratching noise; another drop put them on the roof of the small feeding station and from there it was a mere five foot jump to the tray from which they ate.

Sure it was the long way around, but it must have been fun.

(Fortunately for our nerves, because the running across the roof and scratching along the awning were noisy, they finally outgrew this phase and now approached the feeder in the orthodox manner of climbing up the post.)

☆

THE SINGLE incident that was the most "kiddish" and gave us the biggest laugh involved two blue-jays.

They were peacefuly eating at the feeder when suddenly one looked up and saw the other's tail not too far away. A little hop brought him within range.

With what I will always maintain was a mischievous look, he eyed the lovely blue and white tail of the other bird and then with great deliberation, opened his mouth and took hold of that pretty tail.

At first he gave just a little pull and when this brought no results, he opened his mouth again, took a firmer hold and really gave a good yank.

With a loud squawk of surprise and a frantic beating of wings that sent the seeds flying, away flew Mr. Pretty Tail.

Giving the bird's equivalent of a satisfied chuckle, the mischievous jay watched the other's hurried departure and then, the impish look still in his eyes, settled back to eating his lunch.

Now, of course, most of this playfulness is gone and life is a serious business. Only on rare occasions do the titmice play follow-the-leader and it is an unusual sight to see two blue-jay's sharing the feeder.

But at the proper age, whether they wear fur coats, feathers or blue jeans, kids will be kids!

Buy Washer That Meets Yours Needs

You need a new washing machine, but what shall you get — automatic or non-automatic?

In spite of convenience features of an automatic washer you may feel a non-automatic is a better choice for you, point out home management specialists at Michigan State University.

An automatic washer saves your time and energy. Although total washing time may be longer, you can do other activities while the machine does the work of washing.

However, you'll probably have to make some changes in your work habits in order to make best use of an automatic washer. Instead of a special wash day you may find "a batch a day" more convenient with the automatic machine.

☆

YOU DO NOT need wash tubs with an automatic, unless you choose one that saves suds for a second washing load.

If your laundry space is limited, this may be an important consideration as well as the fact that less work space is needed around an automatic than around a non-automatic.

Don't forget to consider the comparative purchase price, installation requirements, probable need for more service calls with the automatic, and the necessity of an ample supply of hot, soft water for satisfactory operation.

How much does the convenience of an automatic washer mean to you and does the cost fit into your family spending plan?

Mary makes things grow. A full generation ago she planted love in a young man's heart . . . nourished it . . . watched it bloom through shrill and quiet years alike.

And Alec knows—a love like this deserves security.

Blue Cross-Blue Shield health care helps provide it—even after retirement—and it'll never be canceled because of old age or long illness. What's more, Alec and Mary are protected against unexpected hospital or medical expenses.

But then, perhaps you and your family are protected by Blue Cross-Blue Shield, too. If not, ask about it . . . especially the new "M-75" medical plan.

Burning Straw Can Be Costly

Burning your stubble and straw is much more costly than you might realize, say South Dakota College Extension Soil Specialists.

The straw and stubble from one acre of oats that has produced 50 bushels of grain contains 20 pounds of nitrogen, six pounds of phosphorus, 30 pounds of potash, and 40 pounds of humus according to their studies.

The same amount of fertility elements would be produced from the straw of a 25 bushel per acre wheat field and a 35 bushel per acre barley field.

Burning of such fields would mean a drop in yield of five to eight bushels per acre for next year's corn crop, seven to ten bushels for oats and three to five bushels per acre loss on wheat estimate the South Dakota specialists.

Fertilize Grasslands Now, Expert Suggests

Farmers who fertilize their grasslands and legumes now, rather than wait until spring, can increase their net profits from forage as much as 200 per cent. So contends Dr. Russell Coleman, Executive Vice President of the National Plant Food Institute, said today.

"The increased profits from fall applications of fertilizer on grasses and legumes result from utilization of labor during the slack time following harvest and the extension of the grazing period for livestock," Dr. Coleman explained.

He said, "There are other economic advantages from fall fertilization" such as:

1. Savings on feed bills; 2. More luscious growth of grass in the following spring, at least three weeks earlier; 3. Greater conservation of soil structure by avoiding compaction caused by heavy farm machinery.

Fireman Save Your Firehouse!

Looking back over these columns for the past six years, I notice I've always been partial to the "unlikely" twist.

For instance, the policeman who got a ticket for parking . . . the candidate who forgot to vote on Election Day . . . the firemen who discovered that the firehouse was burning.

But now I've got to confess one on myself. I started with the Clarion twenty years ago—and every night since, a copy of the newspaper has been left at my front door. Not so last night—my subscription expired!

From where I sit, the trouble with all of us now and again is that we get so wrapped up in other people's affairs that we neglect our own. It's like the people who are concerned with my right to enjoy an occasional glass of beer. I don't impose my choice on them—why shouldn't they act likewise. We all have enough to do to keep our own "papers" in order.

Leafs Are Valuable

Don't throw away those leaves and lawn clippings this fall. Those leaves can be turned into valuable fertilizer, according to James Porter, Michigan State University extension soils specialist.

Most garden soils are lacking in organic matter and can use the fertilizer.

A compost pile is the converter of leaves to fertilizer. You can build up a pile using materials like leaves, lawn clippings, corn stover, garden refuse or straw.

The pie is allowed to decay overwinter and the following summer and then you have valuable humus material to add to your soil. It may be used in the flower and vegetable garden as a surface mulch or worked into the top soil.

☆

HERE ARE the directions for making a compost pile as listed by Mr. Porter.

Build the pile in layers, with a few handfuls of fertilizer scattered over each new supply of organic matter that is added.

The best fertilizer to use is 12-6-6, 10-6-4, 10-10-10, 12-12-12 or 8-8-8. Use 100, pounds in a compost pile of 125 cubic feet.

Also add about 25 pounds of finely ground lime, either mixed with fertilizer or applied separately.

☆

NEXT SPRINKLE a little garden soil in each layer to inoculate the pile with decay organisms. Keep the pile moist, but do not apply enough water to cause drainage.

The top of the pile should be saucer shaped to catch rain or water from a sprinkler.

Woven wire or picket fencing fashioned into a circle will aid building and confirming the compost pile.

Newest in Milking Facilities Gets Job Done in Record Time

Do you think you could milk 60 cows in an hour?

It would be quite a trick even at dairy farms with some automatic milking equipment.

But there's a new device, known as the Chore-Boy low-vacuum herringbone pipeline milking system, that makes it possible.

A $10,000 Chore-Boy setup recently went into operation at the Heimerdinger farm on M-52 north of Tecumseh and it's proving a real time saver.

The Heimerdinger boys—Clarence, Jr., George and Dave — have taken over their dad's farm of 500 acres and a herd of 130.

They daily milk 70 in just a little over an hour in the newly-constructed milking parlors they built themselves.

Right now their herd is worth $40,000 and will grow in value as the trio adds registered stock.

Promptly at 5 p.m., each night milking begins and the cows crowd into a waiting area, almost like football fans outside the bleacher gate looking for it to open on the day of an important contest.

The brothers take turns milking—it's a one-man operation. The one man on duty operates inside, pulls the door open and permits five cows on each side.

The girls know where to go, being greeted at each stall with dry feed.

Operating from a depressed runway between the two rows, the milker has a hose with a snap-on nozzle which he uses to wash the animals, then slips the milkers on cows along one side.

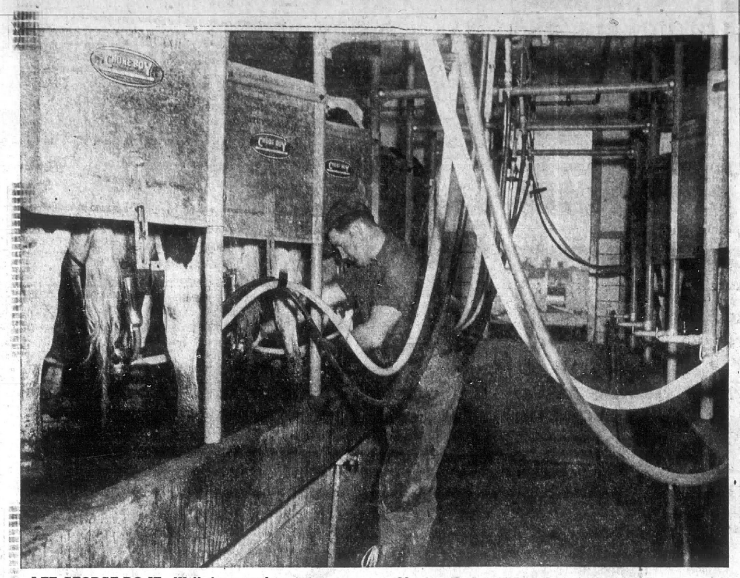
The milk travels overhead through transparent pipes into an adjoining, spotlessly-clean milk room where it flows into a huge stainless steel tank, kept at 38 to 40 degrees.

As one animal is finished, the brother on duty switches the milker onto the animal directly opposite.

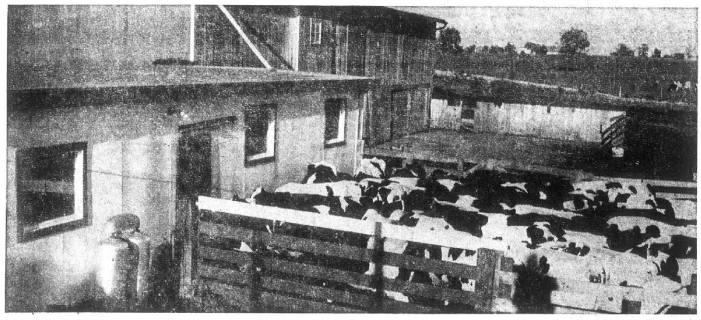
When one row of five is completely done, a gate next to the first cow at the far end is swung open and the quintet ushered out the exit. Another five then are brought in the entrance.

At present, the Heimerdingers market about 325 gallons each day.

THEY OPERATE IT—The three Heimerdinger brothers, Clarence, Jr., George and Dave, are combining their efforts in a dairy farm on M-52, north of Tecumseh near Clinton, using modern milking equipment.



LET GEORGE DO IT—Well, for a week at a time, anyway. Here brother George takes his turn in the milk house, running through 70 cows in about one hour and 20 minutes. Actually, George and his two brothers look forward to their turns, the new management is so efficient.



TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTOS

WHO'S NEXT?—Cows are like football fans waiting for stadium gate to open before a big game as they queue up awaiting their turn. As if they were trying to establish a new speed record every night, the animals battle to get in when door opens. Heimerdinger brothers plan to construct a pole shelter for about 80 cows in area where they are pictured.

Garden Club Sees Bird Pix

Mrs. Cal Roll entertained 20 members of the Tecumseh Garden Club Friday at her home when Mrs. Carlos Jones gave the report of the nominating committee.

During the business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Theodore Rundell, a discussion was held concerning a contribution to the permanent home in St. Louis, Missouri. This is a national project home for the aged.

Mrs. Pau Maves presented pictures of birds obtained from Mrs. Joseph Shoemaker, State Bird Chairman, and Mrs. Herbert Newman did the narration.

Mrs. Maves aso showed pictures of their recent trip to the Caribbean and some garden flower pictures.

Tea was served by Mrs. Caros Jones, Mrs. Wibur Rumpf and Mrs. George Wright. Ann Carson poured.

Mrs. Robert Bonner will be hostess for the meeting Nov. 21 at 2 p.m.

Two more orchards have agreed to display apples next Friday in Tecumseh. These include Badalluca and DeGrott.

Others which previously said they'd be coming are Jack Mowat & Son, Lewis, Keeney, German, Tanner and Reis.

These growers will locate along the north side of Chicago Blvd. from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m.

Although no parking will be allowed along business row during the day, people making purchases from apple growers may stop long enough to load into their cars.

Faye Whelan and Owen Partridge are co-chairmen of this phase of the Apple Week celebration.

MINISTER SPEAKING

The Rev. James Nixon will speak on "The Church and a Christian Community" at the meeting of the Mabel Lawrence Circle of the Methodist Church Thursday, Oct. 23, at the home of Mrs. Frank Gray.

The meeting will be at 8 p.m. and Mrs. Earl Stewart will be co-hostess.

PRODUCTS WORKER EUGENE KISH WITH '59 FORD HE WON.

'59 Ford for $8

Probably the happiest man making a contribution to the current United Fund campaign is Eugene Kish of Dundee, an employee of Tecumseh Products.

Eugene pledged $8 on the payroll deduction plan earmarked it for Monroe County—and was given a lucky number on a 1959 Ford, which Tecumseh Products had donated to help stimulate giving.

An assembler on condensers, Mr. Kish was hard at work Friday when his foreman Louis Maska rushed up with the news that Gene had won the car.

The drawing had been held at the main gate and everyone waited patiently for Louis to bring Gene.

It's a long walk from the south end of the plant where the pair work and most of the way Gene wondered if he was being kidded.

Moments after arriving, R. W. Herrick presented Gene with the keys and then Gene started getting excited.

Back at home Mrs. Kish and the two Kish children went wild at the news.

The family has been driving a 1950 model. Now this will become Mrs. Kish's car, who welcomes it for use on shopping trips and jaunts to her father's farm while Gene is working.

Apple Queen Being Named in Afternoon

Apples and silver dollars.

That's the combination in Tecumseh Friday as the community celebrates National Apple Week.

Chicago Blvd. will blossom with Lenawee County fruit growers' displays of apples, honey, cider and baked goods made from County-grown McIntosh, Red Delicious, Jonathans and half a dozen other varieties.

A County Apple Queen will be chosen that day and from here she'll be entered in the Dec. 2 state competition for the title of Michigan Queen.

Merchans are joining the spirit and that's where the siver dollars come in—one will be given with each $10 purchase in most Tecumseh stores all day Friday.

In addition, many storemen are working the idea in reverse, giving exceptional bargains for silver dollars.

☆

SIXTEEN YOUNG ladies from the county will compete for the Queen title at the Strand Theatre, beginning at 2 p.m.

Among the candidates and their communities:

ADRIAN—Nancy Black, Janice Byrd, Olivia Garza and Judith Tolford.

BLISSFIELD — Judy Bierly, Cora Jean Goetz and Sue VanLoocke.

BROOKLYN — Sandra Lee Schwer.

CLINTON—Kay Creger.

MANITOU BEACH—Pat Clark.

MORENCI — Peggy McCaskey and Choyce Strayer.

TECUMSEH — Linda Hanna, Renate Hoffman, Brenda Porter and Johanna Young.

Judging the contest will be three out-county persons, who will not be known until the time of the competition.

The Queen will receive a complete wardrobe for her appearance in the state competition and the first two runners-up are each being given $25 Savings Bonds, gifts of the Chamber of Commerce. Each of the other entrants will get a string of pearls.

Following the judging the queen and other girls will ride in the annual Halloween parade. (Complete details of the parade appear in another story on this page.)

Industrial Donations at $95,373

Industrial giving to the Lenawee County United Fund has almost reached its goal of $115,379, reports Harry Spencer, chairman of the drive.

Industries in Tecumseh will meet their quota of $42,000, predicts Mr. Spencer.

At Tuesday night's report meeting, it was revealed Tecumseh Products and United Products Workers had pledged more than $38,000, or 86% of their goal.

Other Tecumseh businesses in the industrial division have so far reached:

Ottawa Machine, 102% of goal.
Jones Sealing, 60% of goal.
Hayden Flour, 50% of goal.
R. S. Moore employees, 50% of goal.
Comfort Brick & Tile, 77% of goal.

☆

INDUSTRIAL giving in other communities showed:

Adrian, $45,000 (73%)
Hudson, $5,244 (131%)
Deerfield, $6,687 (174%)
Addison, $1,369 (112%).
Out county, $213 (12%).

Including Tecumseh this is a total of $95,373.

Member Sought for Scout Troop

Calling young men from 11 to 14-years-old interested in joining a Boy Scout troop.

One of Tecumseh's oldest units, troop 4, has been reorganized with Dr. Don Phelan as Scoutmaster.

The troop meets each Tuesday from 7 until 9 p.m. in the St. Elizabeth school gymnasium.

A well-rounded Scouting program is planned, including at least one overnight outing a month, explains Chuck Dodson, one of the troops committeemen.

Everyone is welcome, including former Troop 4 members and graduates of the Cub program.

If you're interested, be at Tuesday's meeting.

Help World's Children

Tecumseh children will Trick or Treat for the world's children through UNICEF Thursday night between 6 and 8 p.m. They are to meet at the Methodist church to obtain the cannisters and return there for a party following.

Memorial Mass Time Changed

A change in time for the Edward Cardinal Mooney Memorial Mass has been announced by the Rev. Thomas J. Collins, pastor of St. Elizabeth's.

Instead of Thursday morning at 11, it will be that evening at 8, states Father Collins.

Confessions will be heard between 7 and 8 p.m.

On Saturday, which is All-Saints, Masses will be at 7:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

All-Souls Masses will be Monday, instead of Sunday, and at 6:30, 7:30 and 9 a.m., the pastor reports.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

IT WAS FUN ATTENDING last week's Chamber of Commerce gathering.

A year ago at this time, the Chamber was simply a faint dream in the hearts of a few merchants — and pretty far-distant at that.

As the various committee chairman outlined what had happened over the past few months, my mind wandered back to the beginning.

To get a real Chamber here, a few businessmen agreed, there would have to be a full-time secretary, one with experience. A minimum budget of $10,000 was decided upon.

How to get it?

"Simple", piped up someone, "100 members at $100 each."

And so it started.

As expected, a lot of people said it couldn't be done — impossible.

But like the tortoise in his race with the hare, the group struggled onward and in something like 32 days, the goal was reached.

Which I guess goes to prove once again when you have an objective and are willing to give it everything you have, that wish will be realized.

☆

OVER THE WEEKEND, THE Riordans were in Midland and I spent Friday night sitting in a steady downpour watching Bay City Central edge past Midland in a Class A football game.

What was as interesting as the contest was the stadium.

Seating almost 10,000 on permanent and temporary seats, the layout was opened this fall and really is a beauty.

Built on open land without grass, the entire gridiron had to be sodded—at a cost of $8,700!

You can see that Midland really goes all out on football. We wonder, though, if this sodding bit might be carrying things a mite too far.

☆

STILL ROLLING ALONG, THE Indian gridders have added another scalp — Willow Run—to their belts, and so say hello to Bootin' Pussy again.

Coach Dunc Leckta's lads have so far piled up 119 points to six by the same number of opponents.

It's Howe Military Academy next. Good luck fellows, from your mascot Bootin'.

☆

THE 175 VOLUNTEERS WHO attended Monday's Brunch got a real thrill from the 10-minute medlay presented by Les Bennett's 94-voice High School chorus.

After the session, Les told me that his group, along with Don Johnson's band, will on Dec. 11 be having a Christmas concert in the Strand Theatre, which incidentally has perfect acoustics for "live" musical presentations.

The young folks have already begun work on the effort, Les said, and an unusual performance is in the offing.

Certainly, many of the 175 who enjoyed the Monday performance will most likely do a job of word-of-mouth advertising for the Christmas program. I know I will.

Downtown Will Be Decorated for Homecoming

A gayly-decorated downtown will be the scene for the annual Tecumseh High School Homecoming parade Friday, Nov. 7.

Retail division of the Chamber of Commerce, with Dick Eggleston as chairman, is undertaking the project.

'Go, Indians, Go" is the theme of the decorations with 14x20 orange posters appearing in all store windows.

Black and orange banners will flutter over the sidewalks in front of all downtown stores.

Two giant streamers, reaching across Chicago Blvd., will scream the catch words.

Annual Homecoming parade with the High School band and floats begins at 2 p.m.

That evening, at the Hillsdale game, floats will again be shown and the Homecoming Queen announced.

Get Out Vote Speaker Says

Sheriff Robert Stites and Robert Wooster, member of the speakers bureau for the United Fund, talked at the Kiwanis club's weekly dinner Thursday evening at the Rebekah Lodge.

Richard Hicks presided and Dr. Richard Coak was program chairman.

Sheriff Stites' main topic was the importance of members going to the polls November 4. He also extended an invitation to the Kiwanis club to tour the jail.

Mr. Stites said by doing this, you get a much better insight as to what the Sheriff's department really is.

Mr. Wooster, in his talk on the Lenawee County United Fund Campaign, stated that this is the first time the United Fund has been made into a county project. Most of the time was spent on a question and answer session.

The Kiwanis club will hold its 1959 election of officers November.

Mrs. Rhein Named Chairman of Booth for Coming Bazaar

Mrs. Lloyd Rhein is chairman of the baked goods booth that the St. Peter's Guild will provide for the bazaar to be held Nov. 15.

Plans were completed for the booth at a recent meeting of the Guild in the Parish Hall.

Mrs. John Keeney had charge of the worship. Mrs. Herbert Gilmore presented the program from the Walden Woods workshop concerning worship and prayer.

Mrs. Keeney and Mrs. Frank Keeney served refreshments.

Mrs. M. W. Wilson will be hostess for the Nov. 13 meeting when a Thanksgiving program with Mrs. Frank Keeney in charge will be presented.

Volunteers Start Quest for $5,000 Local Quota

'Please."

That's the slogan of this year's United Fund campaign and currently nearly 190 volunteer solicitors in Tecumseh are busy working towards the community goal of $5,000.

Going door-to-door, the local team is asking for help to support Tecumseh recreation and Scout programs, also to assist nearly 40 national, state and county charitable organizations.

The Herald urges each family to give what it is able.

CHAIRMAN SPEAKS—Walt Nichols, who has done an excellent job in leading the local campaign group, speaks to his volunteer workers at Monday's brunch. The huge poster hanging behind Walt is the picture theme for this year's drive.

Brunch Opens It

"We're just people trying to help other people," Howard White of Deerfield told 175 Tecumseh United Fund Drive volunteers at Monday morning's kickoff brunch.

Mr. White has been at work for several years organizing the county fund-raising effort, which has become a reality for the first time this year.

The brunch was a rousing success, with short talks by Mr. White and Harry Spencer, a Tecumseh resident who is general chairman of the County drive, and thanks to the organizational work of Walt Nichols, local chairman.

Mr. Spencer told the workers, "You'll run into resistance, but America is built on resistance."

"There isn't a finer cause you could be devoting your time to," he added.

The program got a musical start when the Tecumseh High School band marched to the American Legion hall where the session was held.

"A rouser group" from the band, directed by Don Johnson, pried the lid off things and when the youngsters were done there couldn't have been a sleepy eye in the place.

The 92-voice High School chorus followed, presenting a medlay under the direction of Les Bennett. High point was a varied presentation of the Dixieland ballad, "When the Saints Come Marching Home."

During his portion of the program, Mr. Spencer told the audience a trophy is going to be awarded to one of the four communities taking part—Tecumseh, Adrian, Deerfield or Hudson — whichever reaches the highest percentage of its goal.

The complete list of volunteers appears on page four of the second section.

Ads Tell the Story

There's going to be a lot of excitement downtown Friday as apples and silver dollars grab the spotlight.

Merchants are planning some exceptional values and you can read about them in this week's Herald ads.

The sharp buyers will want to check carefully and we know it's going to be well worth the time.

AS THE EXCHANGE CLUB hurries along in its project to purchase an electric scoreboard for Tecumseh's football field, may we offer an idea for other service clubs or maybe the Jaycees?

The press box and announcer's arrangement here are as poor as any in the state.

Most fields have a large, functional area in which the public addressman can work with his spotters, newspaper writers assemble notes and stories and motion picture folks grind away.

They all do vital jobs and can perform with greater efficiency with proper facilities.

It needen't be a costly affair, if members can volunteer the labor—possibly even obtain donations of materials.

REFRESHMENTS AT THE Clinton State Police post's open house were furnished by the Tecumseh Kroger store, a fact we neglected to report in last week's story.

And speaking of eats, Meadowridge Dairy contributed part of the snack for the Community Chest Brunch, another item overlooked in the recent story about it.

Tecumseh Women Wins 400 Pounds in Sweepstakes

Mrs. Louis Richards said, 'I never won anything before in my life" as the photographer snapped her picture with the Irish Hospitals Sweepstakes ticket and the letter telling her that she was a winner.

She'll receive a check for 400 English pounds—good for about $1,200 in American greenbacks.

Mrs. Richards won even before the race was run, since her choice, "Troilus," was scratched but according to race rules all bettors on such horses are paid off.

When asked what she intended to do with the money, Mrs. Richards said, "Well, we just bought a new house."

The home is located at 506 Murray Drive and the Richards have only recently moved into it.

Everyone Sparkles as Indians Snow Willow Run

By JIM LINCOLN

Undefeated Tecumseh rolled almost at will against outmanned Willow Run last Friday night, 40-0.

Rain and even Willow Run's homecoming festivities failed to deter the Indians who tallied once in the first, three times in the second, and twice in the fourth quarters.

This Saturday afternoon at 1:30, Tecumseh travels to the Howe Military School. A number of local fans are expecting to make a jaunt, about 90 miles from here.

Mike Walters cracked the Willow Run fray wide open early in the first period, streaking 47 yards through a big hole in the right side of WR's line.

The Indians copped three TDs in the second stanza with Larry Yoakum plunging over from the one; Steve Kruger scoring on a keeper play for 20 yards; and Kruger passing to Bob O'Neill for 19 yards and the third TD.

A fumble, one of three for the Indians during the game, prevented another score shortly after the half. Seconds after the fourth quarter began, Kruger sneaked over for Tecumseh's fifth touchdown.

Coach Dunc Leckta's team tallied its final TD when a Kruger to Yoakum pass went for 43 yards. Yoakum, who has placekicked for all of Tecumseh's extra points this year, booted the 40th point and his fourth PAT of the WR game.

Tecumseh picked up seven first downs to 6 for WR. The Indians gained 302 yards, 224 on the ground 78 by passes. Willow Run gained 89 yards net by running and passing.

Yoakum carried 89 yards in 11 carries and Walters, 85 yards in 8 carries. Kruger connected on four of seven passes, Yoakum missed on two passes with WR intercepting his second toss.

Up front, Coach Leckta heaped praise on both offensive and defensive line play.

Snowing the efforts of Willow Run's running and passing were Capt. Dave Champanois, Dave Hohenstein, Jim Curth, Jim Neitling, Les Dejonghe, Bob O'Neill, Ron Hathaway and Don Sweet.

Providing crisp blocking were the two Daves, Lee Britton, Jim Curth and Jim Neitling.

The easy victory boosted Tecumseh's record to 4-0-2 for the season. Willow Run's won-loss record is 2-4.

Tecumseh	7	20	0	13

Tecumseh Scoring: Kruger 2 (20, run; 1, sneak); Walters 1 (47, run); O'Neill 1 (19, pass from Kruger); Yoakum 2 (1, plunge; 43, pass from Kruger). PAT—Yoakum 4 (placements).

Victims Slip, Not Trip

Slipping or tripping, not obstructions, are the major causes of falls on stairs in farm homes.

Two agricultural engineers at Michigan State University report this finding after studying 100 home stairway fall accidents. Only about three per cent of the victims reported stepping on obstructions on the stairs.

The engineers, conclude that a safety problem exists from the standpoint of stair covering materials and step uniformity. As a result, they have begun other tests to learn more about the "slipping potential" of various covering materials.

Another important finding of the study is that 11 per cent of those who fell were not even intending to use the stairs. This figure included people who chose the wrong door in a strange house and found themselves stepping directly on the stairs.

Others chose the wrong doorway when it was dark. These types of accidents point up the problems of home design especially of stairs and doorway construction and location.

More than 2,200 farm people die each year as a result of falls. Tumbles on stairs and steps cause about one-third of these accidents.

Develop Alfalfa Cutting Schedule

High crop yields have meant more feed for livestock on the farm or more crops to sell, but they have also caused a big problem in harvesting and handling.

This is especially true with alfalfa. First cutting of this hay crop comes at the same time that most farmers are busy putting in crops like corn, beans or sugar beets. High alfalfa yields have meant added work at one of the busiest times of the year.

Farm crops scientists at Michigan State University have developed an alfalfa cutting management system that may solve this problem. They are trying out two, three and four cutting treatments.

This alfalfa cutting study is only one of many different research projects that are under study at Michigan State University Farms.

Corn, sugar beets, potatoes, turf grasses, forage, sorghum, buckwheat and soybeans are some of the crops involved in trials that are being conducted by farm crops and soils scientists.

Sprucing Up Backs of Stores Is Next

A downtown beautification program is being started by the Chamber of Commerce, secretary Don Murphy told members at a general session last week.

Explaining that the back entrance areas of many business-row establishments are in sad condition, Mr. Murphy told of a tour he and two others made.

City manager Ed Nelson and Chamber president Dr. Richard Coak accompanied Mr. Murphy on an inspection of alleys.

"Long-time residents never seem to notice these things," Mr. Murphy said, "But newcomers spot them the first thing."

"And newcomers will play an increasingly more important part in the growth of business here.

"With better free off-street parking behind stores becoming available, folks get their first impression of our town from the alley side.

"We've got a big job in fixing up this part of our business district," Mr. Murphy said.

☆

ON THE off-street parking situation, chairman of that committee for the Chamber, Bill Wright, told of improvements being made.

Using portions of monies realized from parking meters, the large lot south of E. Chicago, between Evans and Ottawa, has been hard-topped.

An entrance to the lot at Evans, next to the fire station, has been completed over the railroad tracks, Mr. Wright said.

In time, other lots immediately behind the four-corner district will be paved.

☆

DOOR-TO-DOOR solicitations were also discussed and a committee is working on the problem of weeding out the undesirable and lessening the constant selling by out-of-towners.

"Eventually," Mr. Murphy explained, "Every home in Tecumseh will have a small sticker on its front door which states that only solicitors cleared by the Chamber office and bearing an approved card will be permitted to call."

Publicity chairman Tom Riordan recounted, with the aid of a huge scrapbook filled with newspaper clippings, the progress of the Chamber since it was formed last winter.

Cider and sweet rolls were served to the 40 in attendance by a refreshment committee, headed by Dr. Bob Murray.

Karl Schneider, chairman of the industrial development committee, told the group about efforts being made to bring new plants to Tecumseh.

Membership committee chairman Cole LaMasters explained that a drive for new members will be conducted next spring.

97-Year-Old Former Resident Passes Away

Funeral services were held Saturday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Mrs. Delia Agnes Carpenter.

She passed away Wednesday evening at the Masonic home in Alma, was 97-years-old and had been in failing health for the past five years.

Born July 9, 1861 the daughter of Sylvester and Julia Camp Carpenter, she spent her entire life in the Tecumseh area before going to Alma.

Survived by one sister, Mrs. Orman Lamkin of Tecumseh and a few distant relatives, she was a member of the First Baptist Church and the Order of the Eastern Star.

The Rev. Alvin Brazee officiated, assisted by the Rev. B. O. Bashore. Burial was in Tipton cemetery. Bearers were Donald Beal, Floyd Bryan, Fred Dickinson, Lester Rogers, Kenneth Hall and Alvin Brazee.

Clinton Girl Makes Free Press Front Page

Clinton residents were happily surprised Tuesday morning when they opened the Detroit Free Press to the front page and saw the smiling face of their own Sandra Clack shaking hands with Vice President Richard Nixon.

Miss Clack is a student at the Flint School for the Deaf where Mr. Nixon stopped on his tour through Michigan Monday.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clack who have the Purity Coffee Shop in Clinton.

Goodwill Needs School Clothes During Autumn

Basic reason a person contributes usable discards to Goodwill Industries is to give handicapped persons an opportunity for jobs and physical training and rehabilitation.

There is a secondary purpose. It is to offer high quality clothing and other merchandise to low-income families at minimum cost.

Families whose children would otherwise be without adequate clothing or whose homes would otherwise be sparsely furnished are able to have these necessities without asking for charity.

At no time of the year is it more important for Goodwill stores to have an adeqate supply of children's and teen-age clothing in its stores than during the first weeks of school.

An unusual rush this year on the eight Goodwill stores has left the store racks depleted. This is due in a large measure to economic conditions.

Contributions are down, and because of high employment, the demand for Goodwill clothing is great. In an appeal to those who have for those who don't have, Harold H. McKinnon, executive secretary of Detroit, said:

"There are many handicapped workers at Goodwill who need the discards at this time to keep them on the job. Goodwill has the facilities and the workers to process enough school clothing for the demand."

1959 Model Year Should Be Auto 'Shot in Arm'

DETROIT . . . The general manager of De Soto Division today expressed confidence that the 1959 model year will be a "very good one for the automobile industry."

In a speech before 4,000 De Soto dealers, including Harvey Wilson of Tecumseh, gathered in Detroit for the largest single dealer meeting in the history of the industry, J. B. Wagstaff based his optimism for the new model year on three major counts:

1. The disposition of the American public toward buying a new car is higher than it has been in the last 12 months.

We have noted in recent weeks a rapid improvement in economic conditions. This coupled with a wave of optimism is fast restoring public confidence, so important to the sale of durable goods, such as automobiles."

2. The restoration of confidence can mean that "literally hundreds of thousands of persons who postponed or delayed purchase of new cars will be back at the market places as the wave of good economic health continues to grow."

3. Across the board, the industry is introducing sweeping engineering and styling changes, giving the 1959 models the "greatest changes in the industry at any time since the fall of 1954."

CHAMBER of COMMERCE

Murph Reports

By DON MURPHY
Executive Secretary

The old saying, "first you crawl, then you toddle, then you walk, then you run", is really a good way to describe what the good people of Tecumseh are doing.

When coming here July 1st this year, the business outlook wasn't what you could call cherry, of course it wasn't down too low either, but let us say that it was dull. Since that time things have picked up to a fairly fast walk and from the looks of things, and the willingness of the people to work together, we will be into a trot pretty soon.

Your board of directors is working real hard to get things organized and moving, and deserve the cooperation of every person in Tecumseh.

The retail division of the Tecumseh chamber has shown, by the work done on making the Sidewalk Carnival a success, that it is out to satisfy the buying public, and that it will go to the limit to do so.

There is another overall promotion coming in October and the retailers are going to do their best to make it as attractive, if not more so, than the Sidewalk Carnival was. So why don't you make it a point to watch your paper for this event and be sure to come and see us.

I have been asked about the possibility of new industry coming to Tecumseh.

All I have to say to this is: Locating new industry is the most competitive business in the world today, we are working on it and have several prospects but until a new industry moves into your town you are not sure of it. So until I have something more definite I will just say that there are a couple of industrialists that are interested in the Tecumseh area.

I would like to list some of the things that big business looks for in a town when it is considering it for a location for a new plant:

1. They make sure that the people of the town are in accord in wanting additional industry in the town.

2. Recreational facilities.

3. Nice schools with a good scholastic standing. Also churches.

4. A nice up-to-date shopping center.

5. A good residential area, one that the people take pride in and keep looking nice.

6. Good transportation facilities.

7. Strange as it may seem, these people usually don't ask about taxes. This is contrary to what most people think, but never the less it is true.

I would like to say that number one above is the most important. These people won't come to the Chamber office to ask about these things, because they know that I have the right answers for them.

They will go to the different places of business and to the people themselves and ask questions.

So when you are approached by a stranger and drawn into conversation, please remember that he may be a businessman getting the ideas of the people as to whether Tecumseh wants additional industry or not.

It is up to you to sell your community.

HE MAY BE AN INDUSTRIAL PROSPECT

The visitor to your town or to the lakes and streams of your area is an important person.

But he may be more important than you think; more important, that is, to the future of your town. He may be the executive of a manufacturing company which could consider your town as the location for its expansion, now or in the future.

Talk to him about your town as a good place for industry to locate and prosper. At the slightest indication that he might someday be an industrial prospect, or that he could lead your town to one, call in a representative of your industrial development committee for detailed discussion with him. A town on its toes always looks good.

Almost always you'll find that a company's interest in a town began when somebody visited the town and liked it.

Join hands with your local industrial development organization and the Michigan Economic Development Department to help your community prosper.

This ad is published as a public service by this newspaper in cooperation with the Michigan Press Association and the Michigan Economic Development Department.

MICHIGAN MEANS BUSINESS

VOICE of THE HERALD

Are You Stupid?

Americans are a proud race.

We might bicker and fight among ourselves, but let someone outside our ranks do something to wrangle us and we're forged together as one.

We have a battle on our hands now—but too few realize it.

The fight: getting out to vote.

So many have fallen down on the job in recent years that the situation has become alarming.

Standard Oil Co., like most American firms, has kept hands off in things political, This fall it has swung around to a different viewpoint.

After all, the firm reasons, isn't electing officials one of our greatest gifts?

So Standard Oil has gone all out to make Americans conscious of their No. 1 duty as citizens—to vote.

They're not telling us whom to vote for, just be sure to cast a ballot.

The company has come up with some alarming facts:

In the 1898 general election, 83% of people voted.

In 1916 it was 72%.

In 1936 it was 57%.

In 1952 it was 50%.

Apparently, we think we're just too busy or we're so stupid we don't know the value of the free election.

We're afraid it's plain stupidy.

The only way folks can refute that one is to get out next Tuesday and vote.

Don't be among the stupid.

Our Choice: Paul Bagwell

In an editorial last week, we stated our feeling on the race between Governor Williams and his opponent of Nov. 4, Paul Bagwell.

We picked Bagwell.

In brief review, we think him a capable, sincere man with depth and drive. He would make Michigan a good governor.

Mr. Williams has held the post for 10 years and during that time the state has steadily gone deeper into the red.

Although the long-time chief executive of Michigan tosses up a smoke screen whenever Mr. Bagwell mentions the adverse industrial climate here, we feel Mr. Williams has done our state little good on this count.

His tie-up with Walter Reuther — and, for that matter, we object to someone becoming interlocked with any large group — is a definite debit on the Williams ledger.

Mr. Bagwell has set his sites on a clean-up of labor union and bringing Michigan 100,000 new industrial jobs.

We recommend a vote for Bagwell.

PTA Completing Opinionaires

Britton-Macon PTA will join with hundreds of others across the state in a major fall project of "Studying Michigan Schools."

The project was developed to meet the request of PTA members all over the state for a guide to help them learn more about their schools and public education in Michigan.

Local members will seek to determine facts about the school's educational program, teaching staff and financial problems.

Booklets were given to the members present at the October meeting, copies available at the school office, one for each family represented in the PTA. opinionaire to be filled out and returned to the president, Elwood Bush, Route 2, Tecumseh by Dec. 1.

These booklets contain an

The opinionaires will be evaluated and sent on to the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Members are asked not to discuss their opinions with others before completing their opinionaires and also to secure the booklet as soon as possible. The cooperation of each member is necessary to make the study successful in helping to improve schools.

You are what you think you are.

Mayor H. H. Hanna has issued this proclamation.

Whereas: Tecumseh Band Boosters Organization is assembling tags, and the proceeds from these will be used to aid in financing supplies for the new bandroom.

I do hereby urge the citizens of this community, in appreciation for the work of our excellent band and its capable bandmaster, Don Johnson, to contribute through the purchase of tags.

Corn Losses Can Be High

Know how much corn you're leaving in the field?

Chances are harvest losses in the form of shelled corn on the ground and ears missed by the picker are amounting to about 10 per cent of the crop.

This average loss valued at $1 a bushel would cost you $8 an acre on an 80 bushel crop.

Elmer Rossman, corn production scientist at the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station, suggests you check to see exactly how much corn you are losing. If is is very much, take immediate steps to correct the loss.

Here's how to check losses: Measure a distance down a row and pick all ears missed by the picker. For 40 inch rows, check 131 feet; 36 inch rows, 145 feet; 30 inch rows, 137 feet, and 42 inch rows, 124 feet.

Each good sized ear weighing around three-fourths pounds represents a loss of about one bushel per acre.

☆

YOU CAN estimate shelled corn losses by counting kernels on the ground within a 40 inch square. A count of 20 kernels per square equals about one bushel loss per acre. Take several counts in various parts of the field and average them to get the estimated loss.

Many farmers in Michigan judge the effectiveness of corn harvest by freedom of husk on harvested ears. They measure "clean picking" by the amount of husk attached to ears in the wagon or crib.

This is the least important characteristic of good corn harvest. There is no price penalty for corn with a few husks attached. There is no increase in spoilage in the crib, at recommended moisture content for harvest, when ears have some husks still remaining.

Shelled corn losses are frequently high when the picker is adjusted to remove all the husks. Many farmers would improve their corn profits by paying less attention to husks left on the ears and more attention to ear and shelled corn left in the field, Rossman says.

☆

THE FOLLOWING suggestions may help reduce these losses:

Harvest early—25 per cent for safe cribbing, 35 per cent moisture where driers are available. Losses increase rapidly as harvest is delayed. In one experiment, losses were 5 per cent on October 26, 8.5 per cent on November 20, and 18.4 per cent on December 7. Growing early maturing hybrids will help reduce losses in that these hybrids can be harvested earier while weather is more favorable and stalk lodging in less.

Reduce speed at harvest since losses increase at higher tractor speed. Losses averaged 7, 10, and 15 per cent for tractor speeds of 2.6, 3.4, and 4.6 miles per hour.

Set snapping rolls as close together as possible to reduce shelled corn losses. Increasing roll speed in thick plantings may help to reduce shelled corn loss and clogging of picker.

Keep picker snouts close to the ground so as to get under the down stalks and bring them to the gathering chain. Drive carefully to center the picker on the row. Driving slightly off center of the row may double picking losses.

Plant hybrids that have good records for resistance to stalk

"Just what are the advantages of a joint checking account?"

First off, a great advantage to a husband and wife is that either can sign a check to pay a bill, or for any other purpose. Both enjoy, too, the advantages that every checking account offers: Safe, effortless transfer of funds (checks can be safely mailed) . . . easier, more accurate record-keeping (stubs are records; cancelled checks, receipts). Why not get full measure of all these advantages for your family. Start your own joint checking account, here at our bank!

Mrs. Mensing New Patterson PTA Treasurer

Two-hundred attended the Patterson PTA recently when the teachers were introduced by principal R. T. Gillman.

Jack Puffer, Lowell Edwards, Roy Hamilton, Ken Hinkleman and Carl Schneider volunteered to assemble playground equipment.

Mrs. Charles Mensing was elected the new treasurer to replace Mrs. Wynne Matteson, who will now be a member of the Tecumseh Acres organization.

Oscar Bryan presided as a discussion was held concerning the matter of meeting dates. It was tabled until the November meeting.

It was decided that the annual fair will be held in March.

In addition to the room award it was decided that $3 will be given to the teacher for the purchase of a book to be kept in the room.

Mrs. Frank Laskey's room won the award this month. Following the room visitation, refreshments were served.

Now's the Time To Make Plans for GI Mailing

Jack Metcalf, Tecumseh postmaster, announced Monday that packages and Christmas cards for overseas mailing should be posted Nov. 1 to Nov. 20 if they are to reach service men by Christmas.

Air mail packages and cards should be mailed Dec. 1 to Dec. 10.

Boxes for overseas transmission must be of strong construction because of the great distance these parcels must be transported and the handling and storage they must undergo.

It is suggested that residents check with the post office as to size and weight limitations. Domestic rates of postage are applicable and postage must be fully prepaid.

Air mail weighing not to exceed eight ounces is chargeable at the rate of 7c per ounce and articles weighing over eight ounces are chargeable at the rate of 80c per pound.

'Do Not Throw the Baby Out with the Bath'

Members of the Tecumseh Child Study Club at the annual Michigan Child Study Association Conference at Michigan State University heard a noted educator defend the present American system of education.

Dr. Ernest O. Melby, M.S.U. College of Education, admitted that not everything about the present educational system is perfect, but he pleaded, "Do not throw the baby out with the bath."

"Let's not throw away all of our present school program and go back to the old," he appealed. He urged the 450 study club leaders at the Kellogg Center conference to stand up and be counted in favor of education for all, respect of the individual, and the present promotion method.

"The major problem facing education today," he said, "is that we don't think education is important, and until we do it will never reach its greatest potential."

Dr. Melby also challenged the women to encourage teaching as a vital profession. "We have a teacher shortage today because people do not believe that the teaching profession is important.

"Youths more than anything want to be respected in their community, and we must act to give teachers the recognition they deserve."

Colorful Chart Used for Lesson at Gathering

A colorful chart was used by Mrs. Merlin Downing and Mrs. George Downard recently in presenting the lesson for the Raisin Green Bees Extension Club when they met at the home of Mrs. James Feight.

The lesson, "Developing a Healthy Personality," was followed by a spirited discussion.

Each member was presented with a publication on children from the Michigan State University in cooperation with the extension service.

Plans were made for the Christmas open house when all clubs in the county participate.

Meeting for Nov. 14 at the Holloway Presbyterian church at 1 p.m. was also announced.

Mrs. Robert Beevers on Green Road will be hostess for the Nov. 17 gathering when the roll call will be, "What We Have to be Thankful For."

Refreshments were served from a table centered around the Halloween theme.

Our Readers Write

October 27, 1958

Letter to Editor:

Some time ago, when The Herald carried articles about our nursery school, I received a note and a generous amount of money from one of the readers, who preferred to remain anonymous.

The note indicated that although this person had no children of nursery school age, he or she thought it was a fine thing for our community, and therefore, wished to contribute something.

It was signed "one interested in children".

Naturally, I was deeply touched, and thought perhaps this person could be thanked through the same medium which made him or her aware of our "project in child development".

I do want to convey the idea that our appreciation is triple in character: parents, children and teacher.

Many thanks for your help and cooperation.

Sincerely,
Lee Bennett

Mrs. Robert Beard Hostess to Club

Mrs. Robert Beard entertained members of the Progress Extension Club at her home Monday evening when 13 were present.

Wife Always Does...

ANN ARBOR — Farm women spend far more time sweating over a hot stove and performing other household tasks than do city wives, says a University of Michigan sociologist.

Prof. Robert O. Blood, Jr. of The University of Michigan bases his findings on a comparison of 731 housewives in Wayne Oakland, and Macomb Counties with 178 farm wives in Washtenaw, Lenawee and Hillsdale Counties.

The fact that a "farmer's work is never done" puts his wife at a disadvantage, compared with the city dweller, Blood notes:

"Even if the farmer props his feet up like his city cousin to relax for a moment, he can always beg off from housework because of the urgency of his farm chores.

"Indeed, the pressure may even be reversed, with the wife called on to help out in emergencies by driving the tractor, running errands, and so forth."

BLOOD FOUND farm wives are much more likely always to do such feminine tasks as grocery shopping, getting their husband's breakfast on weekdays, doing the evening dishes and straightening the living room when company is expected:

Wife always does . .	City	Farm
Grocery Shopping	36%	45%
Weekday breakfast	66%	86%
Evening dishes	70%	88%
Straighten living room	66%	86%

Farm women also do more of the household repairs and lawn mowing, though both these are generally men's work. Farm husbands have more to do about shovelling the walks and keeping track of money and bills, however — presumably because these tasks are associated with running the farm.

Nine out of 10 farm wives say they make half or more of all these goods themselves at home, compared to only one in 10 city wives.

☆

MORE THAN two-thirds the farm wives reported they helped their husbands with his work directly, compared to less than one in 10 city wives.

On the other hand, city wives were much more likely to have jobs outside the home and to work longer hours on this type employment.

But Blood notes: "The fact that city wives tend to be substantially younger than farm wives appears to account for much of the difference in the number who work full-time outside the home."

On balance, he continues, "Farm women spend substantially more time and energy in tasks around the house which contribute directly to the physical or financial well-being of other family members than do city wives."

Soil Testing Time Is Now

It's soil testing time again, remind soils specialists at Michigan State University.

And to help you with the job, they suggest you pick up a copy of Extension Folder F-174—Test Your Soil—at the county extension office. Copies are free.

The folder has a sample information form and a map outline that will help make the job of taking soil samples easier and more accurate.

Samples must be carefully taken, the specialists point out. A fertilizer recommendation is no better than the sample from which it was made.

Soil testing facilities are available at the county extension office. A small charge is made to cover the cost of labor and chemicals involved. The common tests include pH (soil acidity), phosphorus and potassium.

1,000 Give Okay on Vaccine Test

About 1,000 forms were returned by parents in cooperation with the Tecumseh Community Health Study recently.

The forms request that children be included in the program to gain added information about the effect of a vaccine of known safety, believed to be effective against the diseases of influenza, colds, bronchitis and pneumonia.

Injections will be given by local physicians Thursday, Nov. 6.

Through My Window

COLOR, COLOR, COLOR!

Everywhere we looked there was color. Again this year Mother Nature collaborated with and directed the work of Jack Frost, Father Time and Ol' North Wind until our "window pictures" were a riot of vivid and exciting colors.

Autumn put on her usual lovely show and wasn't it beautiful, beautiful, beautiful.

The yellows came first; the elms, walnuts, birches and willows with, of course, a few maples. Each morning we were treated to a thrilling sight.

An ever-later rising sun struggled to lift a sleepy head above Mrs. Mast's house, the tree tops were transformed into brilliant golden things as Ol' Sol continued his climb, his magical rays shown ever lower until soon, we looked out on a world of gold.

Sun-sets were even more spectacular. The fast-setting sun provided the back-lighting which gave the leaves a radiant illuminating quality and turned the creek into a shimmering, glittering ribbon.

☆

THE ELM and walnut trees were fast becoming bare, their leaves falling in showers of gold, and Ol' North Wind was making us shiver with the first cold blasts of the year, when the reds began to appear.

Now the maple trees really came into their own. Showing every hue and shade of red, theirs was the shocking beauty that made us stop and catch our breath in amazement.

Flaming red, brilliant scarlet and bright bright orange shouted for attention. Each day the excitement of fall mounted.

Again this year the "wren tree," so called because it held the wren house which was happily inhabited a year ago and so completely ignored this summer, was the last maple in the neighborhood to turn color.

When all the others were showing off their fiery bright reds, this tree defiantly clung to its summer coat of green.

When finally the inevitable happened, Mother Nature outdid herself and, almost overnight, the wren tree burst into a flaming torch. It was gorgeous.

☆

IN OUR line of vision, the last summer hold-outs were the mulberry trees.

Long after the other trees had turned, their bright shiny green leaves offered complimentary accents to the golds and reds of the neighboring leaves.

At least, however, they too gave in to fall, but instead of adding to the nearby splendor, they merely shriveled into a lifeless yellow-brown.

Although perhaps not as romatic as the idea of Mother Nature using a brush and palette to produce this annual fall display, the actual reasons for the chromatic change are interesting too.

The leaves which turn yellow owe their old gold coloring to the color pigments, cretone and zanthophyll. Always present in the leaves, they are, during the summer time, masked by an outer layer of chlorophyll.

Although cool weather does not affect the trees' consumption of chlorophyll, it does retard the production and thus, with more being used than is being manufactured, the green soon disappears and the leaves show yellow.

☆

THE RED LEAVES owe their color to an entirely different process. All of the many, many shades of red are due, not to subtraction of anything but to the addition of pigments called anthocyanins.

Carried in the sap of the trees, these coloring materials are also, quite logically, called cell-sap pigments.

Sunshine and cold weather combine with these anthocyanins and a few other lesser-known substances, to produce the most spectacular in autumn's color extravaganza.

Now, with November at hand, our beautiful third season must make way for the fourth.

The fall of the year is such a wonderful time but yet, I always have a nagging suspicion that Mother Nature uses it as a bribe, the sugar coating of a bitter pill as it were.

Winter is coming — enough said!

CARPET OF GREEN — Under Leo Bishop's watchful eye, Jose Anaya and Ricardo Moran carefully replace the neatly-cut rolls of bent grass on the remodeled sixth green at Tecumseh Country Club.

Green Is Remodeled

Golfers at Tecumseh Country Club will find some changes in their course next spring.

A major remodeling job on number six green was completed over the weekend by professional Leo Bishop and his grounds crew.

The green was built up more than five feet from the rear and lengthened into the shape of a bowling pin.

It was increased in size from 3,200 square feet to 4,100 and at the same time the tee has been lengthened 15 yards. This means the hole will vary from 135 to 165 yards next year.

"This will give it a range of four different clubs," states Leo.

He explains that when the course was planned in 1948, the sixth was to be constructed in this manner, but a break-down in machinery at the last minute called for a change in plans.

To add lustre, a 55-foot trap runs along the west side of the green now.

Another trap, this one on number three, will help make this a different hole, Leo says. This green will be enlarged, also.

From Leo's nursery this fall come 80 overgreens, which are being spotted around the course.

Social Security Tax Rate Increases

Social security tax rates will go up January 1, 1959, but so will benefits.

Employer and employee rates will be 2½% each. Rates for self employed persons will be 3¾%. Also beginning with the first of the coming year, earnings up to $4,800 will count toward social security benefits.

Other chainges have been made that farm people will want to check. Among these is an amendment that will allow certain dependents of disabled workers to become eligible for benefits.

Work requirements for disabled people over 50 have been liberalized. Previously these persons needed to meet two requirements: must have worked under social security for at least five out of the last 10 years before becoming disabled and least a year and a half of their work under social security must have been during the three years just before they became disabled. This second requirement has now been removed.

Disabled workers whose social security disability benefits were reduced or were not payable because they received workmen's compensation or other federal disability payments are now eligible for a full payment.

More complete details about the changes in the social security program may be obtained from the local social security office located at the County Building, Jackson.

2 Tax Changes Affect Farmers

Although many changes were made in the federal income tax law this year, only a few of these changes affect farmers.

Two changes are increased first-year depreciation and an increase in loss carryover period.

A farm business can now elect to write off 20% of the cost of tangible personnel property in the year it was purchased.

This 20% is in addition to the regular depreciation on the balance. It also applies to used as well as new property acquired after December 31, 1957, for use in the business.

This 20% depreciation is limited to tangible personnel property subject to depreciation and costing not more than $10,000 (or $20,000 on a joint return) with a remaining useful life of at least six years.

Property obtained from relatives does not qualify. The extra 20% depreciation is computed without taking in account the salvage value.

The second change permits a net operating loss to be carried back three years and forward five years. This change begins with 1958. Before net operating losses could only be carried back two years and forward five years.

More details on these and other changes will be available in a farmers' tax guide that should be on hand in the county extension office by Nov. 15.

Tecumseh Merchants Giving Away '59 Rambler

Newest sales promotion by Tecumseh businessmen—via the Chamber of Commerce — will be the give-away of a 1959 Rambler automobile.

Beginning Friday, it will run until Dec. 23 when the car is presented. From now until then more than 40 Tecumseh merchants will be giving chances.

Absolutely free, they'll go to persons old enough to have a driver's license.

The four-door Rambler, purchased by the retail division of the Chamber from Wilson Rambler Sales in Tecumseh, is listed at $2,324, includes all taxes and plates.

"We're promoting Tecumseh as a complete shopping center," explains Don Murphy, Chamber secretary, "And this seemed one of the best way merchants could join together and prove to folks they very much want their business—large and small."

Only persons not eligible to win the car are Chamber of Commerce members and those of their immediate families. Complete details of the Rambler give-away appear on page 3 of this section.

LENAWEE COUNTY'S LARGEST WEEKLY

VOL. 108 — ONE HUNDRED NINTH YEAR — NUMBER 3 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1958 | 16 PAGES — TEN CENTS A COPY

1958 MICHIGAN GENERAL EXCELLENCE

28% Over the Top

Industrial giving in Tecumseh to the Lenawee County United Fund Drive zoomed over its quota by 28%.

The goal was $42,500 and when tabulations were completed, $54,263 had been pledged, much of it via the payroll deduction plan by workers.

Locally, attention is now on the door-to-door solicitation, which is expected to raise $5,000.

So far, reports Tecumseh chairman Walt Nichols, 17% of the 175 volunteer workers have checked in with 20% of the quota, or $1,100.

Remainder of the folks, all of whom are giving their time to check with each resident and businessman for his and her contribution, will report in by next Monday when the drive closes.

Mr. Nichols is confident that the city will go over the top.

"But it's going to mean everyone continuing to do his share," he said.

"Our business and professional men are the backbone of the local drive and so far one-third of them have been solicited and they've responded very well.

"We've been asked what merchants should give. Let me answer it this way: industrial workers averaged $8, or about 30 minutes of time per month.

"Don't you think businessmen could give twice or three times this much?

"Many of them have so far," he added.

"Industry has displayed overwhelmingly that it recognizes its part in the drive. We, as citizens of the community, should also accept our individual responsibilities," the chairman went on.

In the event someone is not contacted, donation can be made to the United Savings Bank, where funds are being audited, or to the Chamber of Commerce office.

THE HERALD HAS TWO press passes for the International Live Stock Exposition in Chicago, Nov. 28 to Dec. 6.

THE TECUMSEH INDIANS' newspaper mascot, old Bootin' Pussy is with us again.

We're still unbeaten, although things are getting more rugged by the minute what with an awfully strong Hillsdale team moving into town Friday.

But Bootin' is especially excited right now after he took a peek at the Detroit Times high school ratings Sunday and discovered Tecumseh ranks 17th in the state among Class B squads.

That hasn't happened around these parts in many a harvest moon.

Whump Hillsdale.

MARDA GENE DUNCAN'S newspaper column writing career is doing much to inspire a Toledo polio victim to enter the field of journalism.

Originator of a weekly Herald feature about the world just outside her bedroom windows, Marda Gene has been completely paralyzed for 10 years. She dictates all her stories.

Her column has built up a steady following, among it is Mrs. Lee Steele, a reporter for The Toledo Blade.

When Marda Gene was ill a few weeks back and had to take a "month's leave of absence," Mrs. Steel contacted Dorothy Grigg, Herald Society Editor, and asked "How come no 'Thru My Window'?"

Dorothy told her Marda was sick and then Mrs. Steel explained why she was particularly interested in having Marda's weekly efforts.

It seems she was using them to build up the hopes of a friend, Pat Klinger of Toledo, a young lady who suffered a severe case of polio four years ago and had lost much of her zest for living.

Pat, limited to the use of four fingers on her right hand, is able to operate an electric typewriter.

From this skill, Mrs. Steele is building hope for the polio victim's future.

And our Marda Gene has become the prime example of a severly handicapped person being able to carve a writing career.

You can imagine the pride and excitement in our office when Miss Klinger wrote Mrs. Grigg recently to tell about herself and say, "I want to go into journalism."

She added that, "Mrs. Steele is helping me with my writing. She is a wonderful person."

Pat said she enjoyed learning about Marda Gene.

We'll keep you posted on the Toledo girl's progress.

For now, we'd just like to say we're mighty proud of our own Marda Gene.

APPLE QUEEN JUDY TOLFORD OF ADRIAN

Adrian College Soph Picked Apple Queen

Charming Judy Tolford, an Adrian College sophomore from that city, was chosen Lenawee County Apple Queen in Tecumseh Friday.

Named runners-up were Linda Hanna, a Tecumseh High School senior, and Choyce Strayer of Morenci, another Adrian College second-year student.

Fifteen young ladies, representing all parts of the County, took part in the elimination competition as a high point in the local celebration of National Apple Week.

The winner will be sent to Grand Rapids Dec. 2 to compete for the role of Michigan Apple Queen. Her prize here was a complete wardrobe, a gift of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the local contest.

Linda and Choyce each received $25 Savings Bonds.

Helms Furniture gave every girl taking part in the affair a string of simulated pearls.

Serving as judges were Capt. Forrest H. White, commander of the State Police Jackson District; Mrs. Dorothy Hubbell, Toledo Blade public relations department; and Henry Leutheuser, a Saline merchant.

GIRLS ARRIVED at noon Friday, were taken to Tecumseh Country Club by Mrs. Beatrice Ring and a committee which helped them prepare for the contest.

At shortly after 2 p.m., they were all backstage at the Strand Theatre and the judges seated out front at three separate stations.

Don Murphy, acting as master of ceremonies, signaled Walt Nichols to open the curtains and the competition was on. With each round the judges eliminated several girls, each identified only by a numbered arm band, finally working down to the last three.

Three Apple Queen finalist with Don Murphy moments before decision . . . "I won," exclaims Judy . . . the crowning . . . Linda Hanna, Tecumseh; Judy and Choyce Strayer, Morenci. HERALD PHOTOS

VOICE of THE HERALD

Now It's Up to Us

Tecumseh's portion of the Lenawee County United Fund Drive is on schedule as it rolls into the final phase.

As reported in a front-page story, 20% of the goal has been realized from 17% of the area canvassed.

We've heard a lot about this year's drive—much had to do with Tecumseh becoming a part of the county-wide effort. Some folks thought we had made a mistake by joining it.

Our county project is modeled after the tremendously successful Detroit Metropolitan Torch Fund, which groups the Motor City and all its suburbs.

By joining hands, dozens of agencies have been able to garner much greater benefits for their charitable goals than if they went their separate ways.

Instead of competing with one another, they are working together.

Most of us want to help the Heart Association, the Michigan Association for Better Hearing, the one for Retarded Children, Multiple Sclerosis, Sister Kenny Foundation, USO, Cerebral Palsy, Boy Scout Council, Croswell School for Retarded Children.

By giving to the County Fund we aid each one of them—and about 35 other equally worthy groups.

On top of that, we are also providing Tecumseh with funds to be used for the Band Festival, children's community parties, summer recreation, Scouts and the Tecumseh Service Club.

Not for a month or two—but for a whole year.

Charity isn't something that we give with strings attached. It must come from the heart, go to the folks who need it the most.

We can't draw a line around our community and say, "Here is where my donation must be spent."

Reputable agencies have been highly organized to handle the disbursement of funds—we must trust in the proven judgement of the persons who administer them.

Tecumseh industry and its employees have done a magnificent job in their contributing.

It's up to the rest of us to carry our fair share and help put the house-to-house and business end of the drive over the top.

Adrian Girl Wins Apple Queen Crown

ence.

The judges huddled for the final choice and then handed Mr. Murphy a paper with their choice written on it.

He stepped to the front of the stage, turned towards the girls and said,

"Would numbers 11 and 3 step forward?"

Then he went on, "Here are bonds for each of you . . . "

It was then Judy realized she was the only one left and therefore the queen. Throwing her gloved hands to her face, she moaned with joy.

Several moments went by before she regained her composure and could walk to the front of the stage and be crowned.

☆

LATER, WITH the runners-up seated next to her, she rode in the Halloween parade, gayly waving to folks along the way. Several other candidates also took part in the parade.

Miss Tolford is an elementary and physical education major, loves sports, especially football for which she is a cheerleader.

A member of Kappa Tau Delta sorority, she also works part time with H. F. Wyatt Co., Inc. in Adrian.

Miss Strayer is also affiliated with the same sorority. She's a music major, sings in the College choir and plays the piano.

Tecumseh's Miss Hanna plans to take a four-year University of Michigan dental hygiene course and is preparing for a career in this field by working part time as an assistant to Tecumseh dentist, Dr. Don Phelan.

At THS, she is a member of the Future Nurses Club, co-editor of the yearbook.

Widening Bridge

Widening of the bridge which carries M-52 over a branch of the Raisin river, 2.6 miles north of Adrian, will soon be started.

The present 56-foot bridge has a dangerous roadway only 20 feet wide.

It will be widened to provide a 40-foot clear roadway with 1½-foot safety walks.

The project will include about 100 feet of approach widening on each side of the bridge. The completion date for the project is August 31, 1959.

Clean-Up Approved

Council approved unanimously Monday night Don Murphy's request that action be taken to clean up debris and garbage behind some of the downtown business buildings.

Mr. Murphy, Chamber secretary, cited garbage left in an open can for two months at the rear of one establishment and other unsightly conditions.

The Chamber official said future improvements planned in the downtown area include improving the appearance of buildings along the alleys and in view of planned off-street parking.

For the third Council meeting in a row, officials debated the traffic control problem on Adrian Street at the new Tecumseh Acres school. Although barricade-type signs and two small flashers have been erected, officials are not satisfied.

Police have been ordered to patrol the area in the morning and afternoon when pupils enter and leave school to assure slow moving traffic at the time children are crossing the street.

Representatives from the state's safety director's office were expected here this week.

William Powell, local real estate agent, approached council about installing a sewer up Evans Creek in the west section of Tecumseh. He said a sale of property was involved and sewer installation was included.

He reported financing of the sewer for other property owners could be worked out, if necessary, by charging the owners when they tap the sewer at a later date.

City Manager Ed Nelson said that South Maumee Street from the Tecumseh Products parking lot to Russell Rd. probably would be opened to traffic this week.

Dr. Britton Resigns from Tecumseh Council

Dr. William Britton, councilman-elect last fall, resigned from the Tecumseh Council Monday night to accept a position with the Department of Agriculture.

He is the new U. S. Civil Service veterinarian for southeastern Michigan. His appointment was made Oct. 27.

Council has 60 days to appoint a new councilman.

Sin has many tools, but a lie is the handle which fits them all.

Howe Falls — Rugged Hillsdale Coming to Town

Tecumseh's poorest played game of the season turned into an easy romp for the local eleven, a swamping of hapless Howe Military School, 46-6, at Howe, Ind., Saturday afternoon.

Play, ragged and rough on both sides, nearly got out of hand in the final stages. Many Tecumseh fans who made the trip report the officiating as the poorest they had seen.

This Friday night the Indians meet Hillsdale, conqueror of Hudson last week, 13-0. Outcome of the game, homecoming here, will help decide the league championship.

Tecumseh is tied with Bedford for first place and a loss would dump the Indians into second place. Coach Dune Leckta reports the Hillsdale encounter comparable to the Bedford game which ended in a 6-6 tie for the local team.

Hillsdale boasts average size and good backfield speed. In the Hudson game, Hillsdale's fullback broke into the clear and outraced the entire Hudson secondary. Fans will recall that Hudson's backs caught Tecumseh runners from behind in the season's opener here.

The Indians clash with Howe last week was over for all practical purposes in the initial quarter. Tecumseh scored three times and then added two more TDs in the second period.

In the first quarter, Steve Kruger hit Terry Hendricks with a pass for 19 yards and a score on the first play Tecumseh had with the pigskin.

Later in the period, Larry Yoakum took in a Kruger pass for 35 yards and another TD. Mike Walters tallied the third score when he ran from the five-yard line.

Kruger, who passed for three scores and hit on 7 passes in 7 attempts, hit Jim Poley in the second quarter from the seven-yard line. Yoakum scored his second touchdown minutes later after a pass-play set up the TD on Howe's five.

The Indians continued to roll in the second half with Walters scoring his second TD in the third period on a 25-yard run. Kruger sneaked over from the one in the final stanza.

Howe's lone score came as the half ended. A kickoff return of about 80 yards to Tecumseh's three set up the score. On fourth down and as the whistle ending the first half sounded, Howe pushed over.

Tecumseh	19	13	7	7—46
Howe	0	6	0	0— 6

Howe scoring: Burger (1, plunge)

Tecumseh scoring: Hendricks (19, pass-run), Yoakum 2 (35, pass-run; 5, run), Walters 2 (5, run; 25, run), Poley (7, pass), Kruger (1, sneak. Conversions: Yoakum 4.

$9,135 Is City Share of Fund

Tecumseh will receive $9,135.-59 as its share of the State Highway Department distribution of Motor Vehicle Fund collections for the Third Quarter of 1958.

Lenawee County's total slice $177,264.81.

All state gasoline, weight and diesel fuel taxes and a small amount of miscellaneous fees collected are deposited in the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund.

After deductions for non-highway uses and collection costs, the rest of the money is divided as follows:

47% to the State Highway Department for expenditure on state trunklines highways in both rural and urban areas.

35% to the counties for expenditure on county roads.

18% to the incorporated cities and villages for expenditure on their roads and streets.

Our Readers Write

Sunday, Oct. 26

To the Editor;

I am writing this letter for two reasons. Reason number one is to tell you how much I enjoy and appreciate The Herald each week.

When I was back home, I took the paper more or less matter-of-factly. Much of the news in it was seemingly unimportant, just something to read.

However, since coming down here where I am some 370 miles from home, The Herald is just home.

Truly, The Herald is the best weekly I have seen, and I've seen quite a few since coming here.

My second reason for writing is this. I will be going to Aberdeen Proving Grounds in Maryland this coming Saturday, and don't know what my address there will be.

Please send this week's Herald to me here at Fort Knox, but hold the next weeks copy until I can send you my address. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Pvt. Glenn F. Williams

To the Editors:

I want to take this opportunity to thank The Herald for the very fine publicity given to the UNICEF project.

Because of the good publicity, the townspeople were informed, and practically all of the children collecting, were warmly welcomed.

However, if this project is to fulfill its objective, there should be no conflicts on the evening set for collections.

The committee, in setting the date, carefully avoided Hallowe'en evening, because that is the night the regular Trick or Treaters are always out.

For some reason the Mayor proclaimed the same night as Trick or Treat night in Tecumseh which kept many children from making collections for UNICEF, because they wanted to collect their own treats.

I really feel that if we are all understood the good UNICEF does, every organization in town, would be very willing to cooperate. I am looking forward to a much more unified project next year.

I wish to extend the committee's hearty thanks to all who contributed, and to all those who worked.

Sincerely yours,
Hazel Bonner
(Mrs. Robert Bonner)

BIGGER TV TUBES

Often, when we at Cook Electric are replacing picture tubes in older TV sets, customers will ask us to put in larger picture tubes then were originally in the set.

It is possible to do this but not advisable to do so. Even if the cabinet is large enough, the cost and final results is not worth it. Always replace size for size.

When you phone 692-J for electronic services, our policies are such that we want to give you the most thorough service for the most satisfaction.

Nelson Speaks to Exchange Club

At the meeting last Monday evening at the Methodist Church, the Exchange club had Mr. E. J. Nelson, city manager of Tecumseh, as the speaker.

Mr. Nelson described the progress in public works during the past year.

He outlined some of the projects of the future and problems associated with their accomplishment.

Of special concern was the matter of traffic control in the vicinity of the new Tecumseh Acres School.

Another highlight of this meeting was the presentation of a Past President Pin to Albert Musch, president of the Tecumseh Exchange Club during the preceding year.

Other past presidents present included Wallace Whiting, Paul Clauda, Owen Partridge, Russell Garno, Kenneth Hall and Leon Williamson.

You Told Us

BY DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Has spring sprung here in Michigan in November? Many of the growing things seem to think so. Mrs. Paul Maves says that her tulip bulbs are coming up again and keep her busy burying them deeper in old Mother Earth.

She also tells that she has violets in bloom and has averaged 10 quarts a week from her raspberry patch all fall.

Mrs. Ned Kotts brought a bouquet of forsythia to The Herald office this week that she found blooming in her garden. It was strange to see the flowers peeking through the foliage of green, purple and red since it ordinarily does not have foliage when in bloom.

Such lovely autumn weather made a perfect day for the voters on Tuesday and for the many other happenings in the city.

√

Those on the committee for the Hospital Auxiliary style show under the chairmanship of Mrs. Donald Purkey were Mrs. John Sisson, Mrs. Robert Laidlaw, Mrs. Earl Baldwin, Mrs. James Freckleton and Mrs. Fred Randall.

Those assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. Burlin Brees, Mrs. Thomas Hamilton, Mrs. Duane Service, Geraldine French, Mrs. Charles Stevenson and Mrs. John Sisson who poured coffee.

Jack Shutt and James Freklelton assisted the ladies with stage properties.

√

Mrs. Gilbert Burrell, state president of the Federation of Music Clubs, was the speaker following the noon luncheon at the district meeting held recently at the Baptist Youth House.

Mrs. A. V. Smih, president of the South Central district, was also a guest.

√

Mr. and Mrs. James Danforth were called to Storm Lake, Iowa over the past weekend to attend funeral services for his aunt, Mrs. Maggie Danforth.

Mrs. Vern Brown stayed in the Danforth home while they were away for the four days.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kruse and family visited his uncle, Howard Bragg, and family of Perry, Mich. Sunday. Mr. Bragg is recovering from a slight stroke.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kreps will leave Nov. 10 to spend the hunting season at their resort, Polar Bear, at Curtis, Mich.

√

Mrs. Ruth Rappoll of Blissfield and Mrs. Lizzie Ikle of Adrian were Friday guests of Mrs. Jennie Lister and Mr. and Mrs. William Spreeman.

√

Mrs. Russell Wagner of Lakewood, O. is spending the week with her aunt, Jennie Lister, and Mr. and Mrs. William Spreeman.

Another guest Sunday was Mrs. Adah Cannon on Deerfield.

√

Mrs. Clara Campbell is still confined to her bed with illness. Her condition remains the same. Callers Saturday were her brother-in-law, Earl Campbell, from Jackson and Sunday her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stultz, of Alvordton, O. and their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stultz of Adrian.

√

The Mormon Choir from the tabernacle at Salt Lake City is in Detroit this weekend for a concert at the Henry and Edsel Ford Auditorium. The 375 voices may be heard over WJR radio at 11:30 Sunday morning.

√

Austin Miller and Jack Brown were bow and arrow hunting over the weekend.

√

Mr. and Mrs. William McNulty have spent the past two weekends with their parents, in Chicago, Illinois.

√

With much prodding it was established from the gridiron star, Mike Walters, that his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wingerter of Muncie, Indiana have a new baby girl, Molly Ann. His mother, Mrs. Hugh Walters, who has been staying in the Wingerter home for the past three weeks arrived home Wednesday.

The County Federation of Women's Clubs will meet in Adrian Nov. 12 at the First Baptist Church on North Broad St. at 10 a.m.

APPLE DAY—As part of Friday's Tecumseh celebration of National Apple Week, Lenawee County growers displayed and sold their produce along Chicago Blvd. Mrs. Charles Kapnick, right, had reason to smile. She sold out on apple pies before the day was half over.

CROP Collects Food and Money for the Needy

The 1958 Community Food Appeal conducted by local C R O P committees throughout Lenawee County has been set for November 12 to November 27.

Your contributions of food and money will be used for overseas refugee relief work by Church World Service Workers in seventeen different countries around the World including Korea, Hongkong, and the Near East where 4,000,000 are living in almost complete destitution.

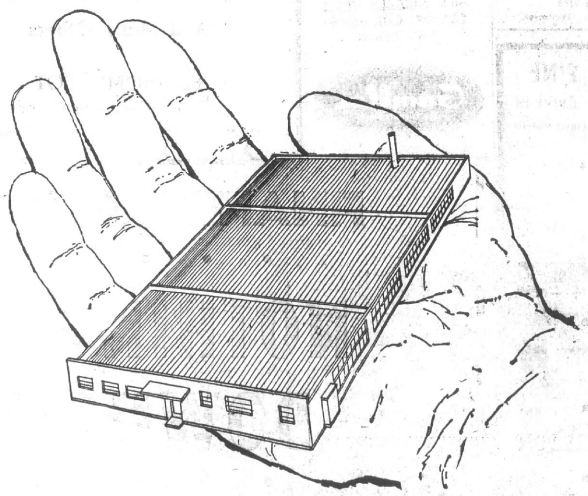
The Rev. Albert Farmer, National CROP Director of Elkhart, Indiana will be the speaker for a campaign "kick off" dinner at the West Adrian Congregational Church, Tuesday evening, November 11 at 7 p.m.

"Building Bridges of Understanding" will be his topic and reservations can be made through your church or to Mrs. Hilbert Barrow, R.R. 3, Adrian by Saturday, November 8, 1958.

Robert Ries of Ridgeway is county campaign director, Lloyd Ruesink is county chairman and Marvin Johnson is area chairman for the townships of Raisin, Tecumseh, Clinton, Macon and Ridgeway.

o

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burleson left last week for Fort Pierce, Fla. to spend the winter.



A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush!

An understatement if you've ever heard one!

Comparing the industry which is located in your town with industry located somewhere else which your town might like to get, the bird in hand is worth a hundred in the bush, and more.

It's a hundred to one that the best opportunity your town has for more industrial payroll lies in expansion of its present industry.

The industrial payroll of your town is a priceless possession. Protect it. Other towns would like to get it and some may even now be trying. Don't take the industry in your town for granted. Show your pride in it. Help it expand.

There's no better payroll than the homegrown variety and it is, by all odds, the easiest to grow.

Join hands with your local industrial development organization and the Michigan Economic Development Department to help your community prosper.

Prizes Awarded to Best Dressed Following Parade

Nearly 300 costumed children, who marched in the Halloween parade, were judged for prizes.

Ending up in the park across from the City Hall, the youngsters of all ages, formed two long lines.

In between them walked judges Mrs. Bea Ring, Mrs. Clayton Greenwald, Mrs. Bob King, and Bill Hanna.

It was an awfully tough job, but the quartet finally awarded prizes to:

Puritan Girl—Linda Cook.
Mammie—Dawn Patrice Sisson.
Record girl—Karen Miller
Superman—Michael Murphy
Apple—Kristine Humble
Mr. Tooth Decay—Jerry Hale.
Bird in Gilded Cage — Bob Glenn.

Dick Eggleston made arrangements for the awards, which were purchased in local stores by monies from the Community Chest.

Former Rectors Attend Banquet

St. Peter's Episcopal Church observed its 125th anniversary last Thursday night at a banquet at the Baptist Youth Home.

The Right Reverend Richard S. Emrich, Bishop of Michigan Diocese, addressed nearly 200 church members, friends and local ministers.

Included in the visitor list were three former rectors of the local church: Rev. Edward Green, Dearborn; Rev. O. Petersen, Youngstown — and Rev. Allan Ramsey, executive secretary of the Diocese of Michigan.

Rev. Frank Hawthorne, local pastor, introduced visiting clergy and gave recognition to five members of the church for long faithful service. They were Lester Rogers, Clarence Gilmore, Mrs. LaVern Russell, Mrs. R. K. Anderson, Mrs. Clyde Barber and Guy Grieves.

Phil Colgrove was master of ceremonies at the turkey dinner, served by the ladies of the Baptist church. A reception was held preceding the banquet at the parish.

St. Peter's held an open house Sunday afternoon with Bishop Emrich attending.

Nursery School Workshop Slated

NEWCOMERS AND OLD FRIENDS

Our glorious Indian summer brought two most surprising visitors. When the days are summer warm, the skies blue, and the sun bright, we don't expect to see chickadees. Yet, they are exactly the birds to which we played host on one of the loveliest days of our all-to-short Indian summer.

These were our first chickadees of the year and my, but it seemed early for them. Although a bird book, put out by Michigan State University, lists them for this locality as resident birds having no particular migratory habits, we seldom see them except in winter.

Like the downy woodpeckers, they spend their summers roughing it in the woods. Of course, the woodpeckers were back earlier than usual this year so maybe we should have been prepared for the chickadees.

I think, however, the fact that it was so unexpected made the "chicks" early arrival that much more exciting.

Of course, early or late, we are always thrilled to have the black-capped chickadees around. Whether frolicking from tree to tree, hanging up-side-down, clinging to a tree trunk "ala" Mr. Nuthatch or hungrily pecking away at a chunk of suet on the feeder, they are always fun to watch.

(That so many of their antics are similar to those of the nuthatchs and woodpeckers is amazing because anatomically speaking, they lack the grasping feet and blunt supporting tail which so aid their tree climbing friends.)

Always on the move, these fluffy little bits of energy seemed, on this particular afternoon, even more animated than usual.

☆

BOUNCING FROM limb to limb, they dodged in and out among the multicolored leaves and how cute they were. Never still for more than a few seconds at a time they seemed intently bent on some quest or pursuit known only to themselves.

Was it a fast game of hide-and-seek they were playing or were they of a more serious frame of talents given over to a careful search for the tasty but minute insects or insect eggs which make up a great part of their diet.

Whatever the reason, we certainly enjoyed their busy, busy comings and goings.

Either the hard playing developed enormous appetites or the insect hunting yays not good because frequent "time-outs" were called for trips to the feeder. Unfortunately we were not prepared for such an early visit from these little black, white and gray birds and the feeder lacked the suet they so dearly love.

However, the bill of fare did include sunflower seeds and there were readily accepted as good substitutes.

With a small but sharp-pointed bill, the chickadees make short work of breaking through the outer shell of the sunflower seed.

☆

THIS IS THE first year we have had black-capped chickdees so early; they are the cheery birds that in the past have come to us only after the winter weather has turned cold and blustery.

In fact, their cocky defiance of winter's worst has often put us to shame—inside a warm comfortable room we complain about the weather when these little fellows, without a gripe, brave the snow and cold. I just hope that their early appearance this year doesn't foretell an early winter.

Several weeks before our "chickadee day" a new family moved in and what a commotion they caused.

Of course, all the talk was quite understandable — after all, it isn't every day that we have a new family in the neighborhood, at least, not one with seven children.

The telephone lines buzzed with it and almost every across-the-yard conversation started, "Have you seen them yet?"

☆

SO FAR WE have had only now and then an occasional glimpse of the newcomers. They spend most of their time playing further up the creek, around the bend in back of Gertrude's house.

We are hoping, however, that as they grow and become more venturesome they will come down our way oftener. We would like to become better acquainted.

Oh, in case you are wondering, the new family consists of a mother duck and her seven ducklings

Next Week—"Good Eats! Good hooks!"

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Dalton of Adrian attended the banquet and reception honoring the Rebekah Assembly President, Mrs. LaVerne Manley of Sandusky.

"How can we improve our home without disturbing our savings?"

Many families would like to increase the livability of their homes, yet hesitate to dip into cash reserves to make the necessary repairs or improvements. Here's a popular solution: A Home Improvement Loan from our bank. We lend, at low cost, to finance modernization projects of every sound kind; borrowers repay on a convenient monthly instalment basis. If you have a "pet project" in mind for your home, get a contractor's estimate; then come in and talk with us—about a dollars-and-sense bank loan.

The Modern Funeral Service....

... is most kind to those in sorrow. The enlightened efforts of the Clergy, the floral offerings, and the hospitable facilities of the funeral home all help to soften the burden.

It is interesting to note that many helpful functions of the modern funeral directors are really recent, developments of the last century — and that the quality of service is constantly improving.

DR. W. H. ROBERTS

Dr. Roberts Speaking at Festival of Faith

Dr. Windsor Hall Roberts, professor of history at Hillsdale College since 1925, will be the afternoon speaker for the Festival of Faith Thursday, Nov. 13 at the First Presbyterian Church.

A native of Missouri, Dr. Roberts did undergraduate work at the William Jewell College in Liberty, Mo. and graduated with a B.D. degree in 1923 from the Rochester Theological Seminary.

He completed his education at the University of Chicago from where he received his doctorate in 1936.

Dr. Roberts has long been interested in International affairs and in 1949 organized the model UN Assembly for the high school of Southern Michigan.

The organization has won national acclaim and will hold its 10th assembly in March.

Dr. Roberts is a member of the Committee on International Relations for the National Education Association, the appointment being made by the president of the NEA.

The morning session of worship and meditation will open at 10 a.m. and lunch will be served at noon.

The afternoon session will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. when Dr. Roberts will speak on the topic, "Middle East, Background For Crisis."

An invitation to the public is cordially extended by the Women's Association.

Children Collect $254 for UNICEF

The UNICEF project, which was held last Thursday night, sponsored by the Methodist, Presbyterian and St. Elizabeth Churches was highly successful.

A total of $254.28 was collected for "All the children of the World."

After the collections were completed by the various groups, they returned to the Methodist church for a Halloween party.

The usual cider and doughnuts were served from a table decorated in the Halloween motif. The centerpiece was a cleverly designed Jack 'O Lantern filled with suckers.

About 140 children and adults participated in the project from the three churches.

Norma Jewell Surprized with Farewell Gathering

The Raisin Cane 4-H Club surprised Norma Jewell with a farewell party at her home on Billmeyer Highway.

Games were enjoyed and refreshments served and the club presented Miss Jewell with a gift.

She has been a member of the club since it was first organized six years ago and it now entering nurses training at Foote Hospital School of Nursing.

If success turns your head, you're facing the wrong direction.

State Police Will Soon Have Folding Carbines

Michigan State Police officers are to be equipped with .30 caliber M-1 folding carbines to give them greater effectiveness in combat with criminals in getaway cars.

Use of the new weapons was prompted by a gunfight a year ago in which a Michigan and an Indiana trooper were shot to death, a Michigan trooper was critically injured and an Indiana city patrolman hurt.

Bullets from police revolvers used in the 300-mile pursuit from Clinton, Mich., into Indiana were not effective in piercing the car used by the two gunmen.

The gunmen later were forced to abandon their car and in a gun battle one was fatally shot and the other captured.

☆

ABOUT 500 OF the short, lightweight, convertible type rifles have been obtained sufficient to equip each patrol car and have a reserve.

The guns were made available through the Michigan office of Civil Defense from military supplies at a price low enough to enable the purchase.

A training program to acquaint each officer with the new equipment will be started soon.

The main advantage of the carbine is its maneuverability. It is only 25 inches long with the 11-inch steel frame stock folded in and weighs about five pounds compared to nine or 10 pounds for standard rifles.

☆

THE QUICKNESS with which the carbine can be used with hand grips or brought into shoulder shooting position makes it a good weapon for blockade and other police work.

A flick of the stock from its folded-in position makes it ready to place against the shoulder like a regulation rifle for greater steadiness and accuracy.

The carbine takes 15 and 30-round clips, is semiautomatic and has nearly as much piercing power as a heavier .30 caliber rifle. It has enough power to pierce a car body from any angle, whereas revolver shots often ricochet off.

The M-1 has a maximum range of 600 yards, which is not as far as the higher powered rifles currently used by the State Police, but is farther than the regulation rifle will shoot.

It is the first semiautomatic weapon the department has ever used.

NEW WABJ MANAGER

Tom Fish, formerly with the Adrian Telegram, started this week as manager of the Tecumseh studio of Radio Station WABJ.

He replaces Victor Palpant who resigned to purchase Ruffer's Gas and Appliances.

It Soon Will Be 'Break-Down' Time

More than half of Michigan's annual total of car breakdowns will occur during the next four months, Automobile Club of Michigan predicted while urging motorists to take special winterizing precautions.

To cut chances of a car breakdown this winter, motorists should make these main checks and to correct any weaknesses.

1. Battery — Check for proper liquid level and strength, see that all cells are in good condition and that all connections are clean and tight.

2. Cooling systems — Check for sufficient anti-freeze, see that all hoses are in good condition and connections are tight and that the fan belt is properly adjusted.

3. Ignition system — Have a competent service man check distributor, points, coil, condenser, spark plugs and ignition wires.

It is also a good idea to periodically use additives in your gasoline tank to prevent gas line freeze-up due to condensation of moisture.

Costume Party Enjoyed by Club

The Presbyterian We Kirk enjoyed a costume party last Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Westcott sponsoring the event.

A treasure hunt and other amusing games were played.

Winners for costumes were David Clark as a clown, Patty Cook as a majorette, Linda Oberlin as Robin Hood and Bruce Westcott as Freddy the Free Loader.

Jim Lawson, Murle Miller and Randy Works were musical chair winners.

JEWELL GREEN DOES THE SPINNING AND BILL PACE THE POINTING IN FRIDAY'S HULAHOOP CONTEST.

Hula Hoopers Spin for Silver Dollars

By MARY SEAGER

Perhaps you wondered last Friday where all the children were going with their hula hoops slung over their shoulders.

All the small fry in town converged on Butler's Garage at 4 p.m. for the hula-hoop contest at which silver dollars were offered as prizes.

Many of the children performed in the costumes they were going to wear in the Halloween parade at four-thirty, so it made a rather tight schedule for the small fry. There were witches, goblins, and pageboys twirling their red, yellow and green hoops on the platform.

Managing the contest for Butler's were Bill Pace and Jim Spooner.

Judges were the Rev. Robert Bergman, the Rev. James Nixon and John Thompson.

The contest area was enjulfed by open-mouthed bystanders wondering how on earth those little tikes could keep the hoops going.

The hoop-spinners were divided into four categories: hip-swingers, wrist twirlers, neck twisters and those who did it on one leg. There were also a few hoop jumpers.

The winners in the various age groups were for the 18-80 group: Violet Gebarowski.

For the 12-18 group: two winners whose name were not known.

For the 5-12 group: first — Valerie Barrett, second — Norma Cisty, third — Bobby Creger.

In the 3-4 group: first — Patty Kay Kish, second — Pam Wittrup and single silver dollar winners — Nancy Hodges, Jewel Green and Billie Jean Cremeans.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Called "Passing the Buck"?

Sitting on my porch the other night, Buck Hanson told about a nifty new warning light for his tractor. It gives him protection on the highway at night—cost, just 75 cents.

Buck made the light from an old windshield wiper motor with a taillight attached in place of the wiper blade. He clamped the motor on to the rear of the tractor.

When the motor is hooked to a hot wire and grounded, the light moves back and forth and sure attracts attention. (The wires work off a battery, a headlight—anything "hot.")

From where I sit, it's a tradition in America for neighbors to get together and exchange ideas. We're a better country for it. Tell you what—drop in on the next session on my porch, have a glass of beer and join in. If you'd rather have a glass of milk—fine! Respecting people's preferences—that's an American tradition too.

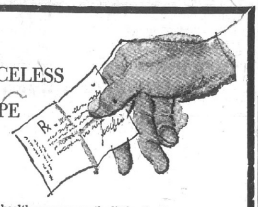
A PRICELESS RECIPE



In a health emergency, the little slip of paper on which your physician writes his prescription is priceless. You wouldn't part with it under any circumstances.

However, once the emergency has passed, human nature being what it is, you are apt to forget how valuable the prescription really was. Maybe you even grumble a little at its out-of-pocket cost, failing to remember the doctor's professional skill, the countless hours of pharmaceutical research and many other factors that made the "recipe" possible in a health crisis.

Permit our prescription department to fill your next "recipe for health."

Druggists Start Session at 10— in the Evening

The Lenawee-Hillsdale Pharmacy Association held its monthly meeting Oct. 28 in Adrian at the Eagles.

It's interesting to note that the session began at 10 p.m., traditional starting hour for such meetings. Reason: all stores are open until then.

This is probably the latest kickoff hour for any club gathering in this area.

Reports were given by various members who attended the recent Pharmacy Lectures at the University of Michigan.

A committee was appointed to investigate a possible scholarship for pharmacy students.

Speaker for the evening was Bill Hancock of Adrian who gave some new ideas in the field of photography.

Refreshments were served after the meeting to 18.

The next meeting will be held in Adrian on November 25, 1958. Mr. Hugh Morrison and Mr. Dick Bailey are in charge of the program.

1 Deer Per Hunter — That's Legal Limit advised that one deer per hunter per year is the legal limit, regardless of the open season in which the deer is taken.

If a hunter bags his deer during archery season, he is not permitted to hunt for deer during the latter firearm deer seasons. ing the later firearm deer seasons.

If he receives a permit to hunt "any deer" during the coming special seasons, he is still entitled to only one deer—not a buck plus one "any deer".

One deer per hunter per year, and that is all.

Conservation Department law enforcement officials have reported some confusion on this point among applicants for special season permits.

Christmas Seals Now Are Going Out to Homes in County

Tuberculosis-fighting Christmas Seals next week will arrive in Lenawee County homes.

The annual drive for funds by TB associations throughout the state and nation will open Nov. 14.

More than a million Michigan families will receive letters seeking public support of the volunteer tuberculosis movement.

County, city, and state TB associations hope to raise at least $1 million during the Christmas Seal sale. The annual Seal sale is the only drive for funds conducted by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association and its local affiliates.

"Tuberculosis still is a serious disease," Dr. Arthur W. Strom of Hillsdale, member of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association board of trustees, warned. "During the first nine months 4,486 new TB cases were reported. This is 658 more than last year during the same time period.

"The need for Christmas Seal money is as great today as it has ever been," the TB association official said. "Because of lack of funds, some research projects have not been started."

Ever Bake Bible Scripture Cake? Here's Recipe

Mrs. George Anderson of 420 N. Evans St. would like to share with the readers of The Tecumseh Herald her receipe for Bible Scripture Cake.

She thought just before Thanksgiving Day would be an appropriate time for looking up the ingredients of the cake in the Bible.

She says, "When we think of Thanksgiving we think of God, the giver of all good and perfect gifts."

1 cup Isiah 7:15
2 cups Jeremiah 6:20
2 tsps. Psalms 81:16
6 Deuteronomy 22:6
½ cup Judges 4:19
½ tsp. Job 6:6
3½ cups Leviticus 2:7
1 cup I Kings 4:22
2 heaping tsps. Amos 4:5
1½ cups I Samuel 30:12
1 cup Nahum 3:12
II Chronicles (to taste)
1½ cups Canticles 6:11

Bake at 375 degrees for 30 minutes.

Combine ingredients in the following order. Cream together first three. Beat fourth until frothy, then add fifth and combine with creamed mixture and beat thoroughly.

Sift together the next four then add to first mixture. The tenth and eleventh are chopped and lightly floured before adding.

Last of all add the twelfth ingredient. Mrs. Anderson used five kinds, 1 tsp. of each, stir in the final item and beat for a good five minutes. Bake as directed.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

BOOTIN' PUSSY, THE UNOFficial Tecumseh mascot, is really excited about the Adrian game. He says he intends on leaving about four o'clock the day of the game to make sure he gets a seat.

A mite early, we'd say, but we admire Bootin' for the way he has supported the club this fall and maybe even brought it a little luck.

☆

THURSDAY'S CORRESPONdent brought a piece of fan mail. Asks M. E. W. (whoever this is), "Where has Bagwell gone?"

This brought a round of good natured grins among the gang here because we had suggested in several pre-election editorials that Bagwell should get the job as Michigan governor.

Frankly, M. E. W., I don't feel so badly over the polling. Mr. Bagwell did exceptionally well.

If you scanned the county-by-county report of voting you would have seen that the GOP candidate outdistanced Soapy in many.

It is my hope that the Republicans won't fold their tents like the Arabs, etc. and forget about politics until suddenly they wake up some morning in 1960 and decide maybe some organizational work is in order.

Getting candidates elected is almost a full-time job and the GOP all over Michigan should realize this and keep right on plugging as they did in the few weeks just before the recent voting.

Oh yes, before we forget: congratulations to Mr. Williams on his sixth straight victory and to all other folks — of both parties —who won their races.

We might not have favored or voted for each one of you, but you picked up all the marbles and we'll go along with you.

☆

BOYSVILLE NOW HAS ITS ham radio club—thanks to Tim Neill and Jim Linden of Tecumseh Products.

You may recall we wrote some weeks back about the boys home near Macon having radio equipment, but no one to teach the lads how to use it.

Tim did some investigating and discovered that Mr. Linden was an experienced radio man and took him to Brother John, who soon had a group of 10 young men, interested in radio, formed into a club.

Jim now meets once a week with his proteges, who expect to learn enough by next spring to take the examination for licenses, which will qualify Boysville to have its own ham station.

Another local radio expert, Al Snyder, manager of A&P, also has visited Boysville and volunteered to help.

The Catholic brothers who operate Boysville are eager to have such wholesome activities for their young charges, who are between 13 and 18.

These are youngsters from broken families and Boysville has to serve as home, parents and school to them.

Such clubs as the newly-formed one for radio fans are always welcome.

Nov. 15 has been proclaimed "Boysville Day", which happens to be the 10th anniversary of its founding.

And right now, work on a new 80 boy dormitory is nearing completion so there's lots of excitement on the nearby campus.

☆

ED HEILMAN TELLS ME that a plan has been worked out by the County Board of Supervisors to have people on welfare work for the City of Adrian and be credited at the rate of $1 an hour.

Boardmen have stated that they would be willing to send a crew of these folks to labor for Tecumseh on the same basis.

Sounds like a good idea. Can we use them?

☆

EACH YEAR SOME CONscientious Tecumseh citizen is tapped for the role of Community Chest chairman—and with it comes mountains of toil.

This writer really admires the way Walt Nichols has gone about the job in the 1958 effort.

He battled a lot of new angles, but always came up smiling.

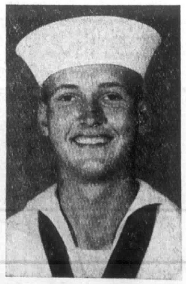
Our ivy league cap is tipped to Walt.

Chest Boards Holding Open Session Nov. 17

Owen Partridge, president, has named Nov. 17 the date for the annual meeting of the Tecumseh Community Chest Board.

The meeting will be held in the old council rooms above the fire station and the public is urged to attend to elect three members to the Board. The Board will then elect officers.

Walt Nichols will give the report of the recent drive for funds.



George Arlan Fletcher has reported to his new station in Phoenix, Ariz. after spending a ten-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fletcher of Clinton. George recently completed Navy boot training at San Diego.

Football Followers Converge on Adrian

Two great high school football teams—Tecumseh and Adrian—clash head-on Friday night at Adrian in what is developing as the most tense and emotion-packed contest of the season.

If you're planning to attend, you'd better leave mighty early to obtain a seat. The Maples' stadium holds only 2,500, and estimates have been made in Tecumseh that there'll be almost that many from here attending.

Adrian's side of the stadium seats 1,500 and the visitor's 1,000. The stands are located between the 20-yard lines. Remainder of the area is banked, making it impossible to set up temporary bleachers.

However, fans can take up positions along the banks. Tickets are $1 for adults and 50c for students.

Adrian High stadium is in south section of the city on Division St., between Beecher St. and Rt. 223, next to the Michner School.

☆

PRE-SEASON predictions that Adrian would have one of the school's greatest teams are now coming true. The Maples have jelled and developed into a fired-up ball club, winning its last five games, all by lopsided scores.

Tecumseh stands 6-0-2 and boasts one of the finest teams in the school's history. This week's Detroit Times prep ratings rank the Indians 16th among state Class B Clubs.

Adrian coach John Kosick, interviewed by The Herald Monday, was excited about the prospects of a ding-dong battle, and predicted a turnout of 5,000.

"We feel that Tecumseh will be the best team we will have met since facing Sturgis," the Maple mentor said. Adrian fell in that struggle, 21-12.

☆

USING A straight T, mixed with some single wing, the Adrian attack features two complete backfields, which the coach rates as almost equal.

"We have no really outstanding player like Tecumseh's (Larry) Yoakum," the coach stated.

"Last season I said that Yoakum was the finest back we faced, and I think he will prove to be again this year."

Adrian's defensive line, averaging about 180 pounds, compares favorably with Tecumseh's highly-touted forward wall. Much of the Maple's recent successes have resulted from the defensive line completely bottling up their opponents offense.

Where the Indian backs have romped in most of their games, this season's record shows the defense has been even more outstanding, yielding just two touchdowns in eight games.

The lines of both teams will be comparable in size on offense and defense with the Maples just slightly heavier.

In the backfield, Adrian is expected to have an edge in speed over Tecumseh's fine backs—Mike Walters, John Aho and Yoakum. However, this season's records show that Steve Kruger should be far superior to any passer the Maples can bolster.

The 135-pound quarterback has hit on nearly 70% of his passes and connected for nine touchdowns since taking over the quarterbacking slot in the third game of the season.

The Tecumseh-Adrian tilt wraps up the season for both.

General Seeks Tipton Phones

Three-hundred Tipton area homes may soon have General Telephone Co. service in place of the present Independent Co. variety.

Stockholders of the small outfit meet Dec. 4 to consider selling to General.

A representative of General has said that Tipton would be converted to dial if his firm's proposal is accepted.

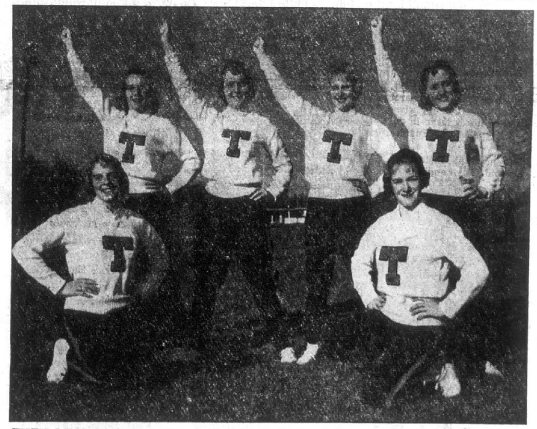
Oh, No, Not Brand of The Competitor

Keith & Don's Fleet-Wing service station was listed improperly in last week's Chamber of Commerce advertisement telling about the merchants' give-away of a 1959 Rambler automobile.

The first part was right, but the brand of gasoline named was of a competitor.

Completely left off the list was Wilson Motor Sales.

Our apologies.



THEY LEAD CHEERS—Tecumseh High School's on-the-ball yell leaders have done a great job this year. Kneeling, from left, are Jane Colgrove and Donna Nixon. Standing, Susie Rohweder, Carol Spangler, Kendra Ringman and Jean Hohenstein. Carol Sheffer, girls physical education teacher, coaches the girls.

Next: Varsity Club?

By MARY SEAGER

Ending the cheer with "Fight, Fight, Fight to Win", the six cheerleaders who make up the Tecumseh varsity squad slide into six perfectly timed and executed splits.

The crowds at the football and basketball games often wonder how much time and work it takes to get as good as they are.

All of the girls have had, at least, two years of experience as either substitutes or varsity cheerleaders.

Three of the six, Carol Spangler, Donna Nixon, and Suzie Rohweder are seniors.

Kendra Ringman and Mary Colgrove are juniors, and Jeanie Hohenstein is the only sophomore on the squad.

Suzie Owen, a freshman, is the substitute.

Carol Sheffer, their hard-working coach, says that for the first month of practice the girls drill every night. As they get better the sessions are dropped to two nights weekly with about two hours work per night.

☆

A CHEERLEADER must be ready to put cheerleading ahead of everything else — except grades.

They must have a "C" or above average to remain on the squad.

However, while talking to Kendra Ringman and Jeanie Hohenstein, they brought out the points that cheerleading helps them develop poise and the ability to meet peaple.

It makes them feel a part of the team and that their cheering has something to do with the victory or loss of the game (this year it's all victories).

They both said that they couldn't imagine not being cheerleaders. Most of them hope to try out for college squads.

When they start a cheer, they worry about getting the kids to yell. During the yell, they think mainly about synchronization, or doing all their motions together.

After they cheer, they try to get the fans to shout harder by praising hem.

☆

THE TWO GIRLS, when asked what their worst fears were, when performing said that falling down, confusing cheers, or splitting their slacks, in that order, were the main ones.

The chief job of the group is to build school spirit and encourage good sportsmanship.

They do this by having announcements made over the high school public address system about that week's game, holding regular pep meeting and rallies for big games. Signs posted around the school is another task.

They cheer at all the varsity games and their counterparts cheer for the junior varsity and junior high games.

As rewards for their efforts, they receive recognition from their school and town and varsity letters. One of their biggest, but highly improbable dreams is that some day, just maybe, they could be allowed to join the Varsity Club.

☆

OUR CHEERLEADERS won a first place in cheer demonstrations at the Smith-Walbridge Cheerleading Camp in 1957. The squad is so well trained that even the most difficult motions look easy to do.

Tecumseh cheers are characterized by their uncluttered look of simplicity and excellent synchronization. The squad makes up or arranges most of them to suit their needs.

Jeanie and Kendra, speaking for the whole squad, said, "We feel honored to be cheerleaders from a school and town where school spirit, sportsmanship, and team support are so highly valued."

City Community Chest Shoots 'Over the Top'

Over the top! That's the report on Tecumseh Community Chest door-to-door, business and professional giving, states chairman Walt Nichols.

Tecumseh folks contributed 5,139.75, which just topped the local goal of $5,000.

"Congratulations to the 180 volunteer canvassars and our sincere thanks to all those who gave," the chairman said.

He also heaped lavish praise on the group of Girl Scouts and three adult leaders who typed names on all the donation cards.

The trio who guided the girls were Mrs. T. Rentschler, Mrs. John Cameron and Mrs. Julius Vincze.

Some people, who by mistake had not been contacted, are still being given an opportunity to donate. Thus the grand total is expected to be slightly higher by next week.

Accident Victim Buried Saturday in Zion Cemetery

Funeral services were held Saturday at the Braun Funeral Home in Adrian for Delwin Dickerson of rural Adrian who was killed in a traffic accident last week near here.

A Tecumseh Products shop union steward, Mr. Dickerson was crushed to death when his pickup truck was smashed by a double oil tanker in an unmarked intersection at Ives Road and Green Highway.

He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Jerry Butler, Jr. of Ann Arbor; a brother, Dale L. Dickerson of Gould City; five sisters, Mrs. Margaret Wilks, Mrs. Queen Downard of Clayton Mrs. Gladys Norden, Mrs. Evelyn Clark of Adrian, Mrs. Donna Allen of Tipton and three grandchildren.

The Rev. Lowell Shreve of the Raisin Center Friends Church officiated and burial was in Zion cemetery.

The Adrian Odd Fellow Lodge conducted graveside services with Carl Greenwald and Arthur Hodgkinson officiating.

'Back to School' for Moms, Dads

It will be "back to school" for parents Thursday, Nov. 13.

Tecumseh High School will hold open house as part of American Education, reports John Pobuda.

Moms and dads will run through a "miniature" school day, beginning at 7:30.

Things wrap up for High School guests with refreshments in the new cafeteria.

Future Farmers Fete Parents at Banquet

Tecumseh Future Farmers entertained their parents at a chicken dinner Monday in the Grange Hall.

Fowl for the annual event was produced by the chapter. The trimmings were suplied by the FFA mothers club. The food is repared by the mothers and served by sisters of the boys.

More than 120 persons enjoyed the banquet, which was followed by a regular FFA meeting conducted by the boys.

Corsages were presented to Mrs. Lester Munger, president of FFA mothers. Mrs. Walter Wiemer, vice-president and general chairman, Mrs. Eunice Roe, secretary and treasurer and dining room chairman and Mrs. Wayne Lembrick, kitchen chairman.

Speaker for the evening was the Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins, using as his subject, "Being a Gentleman."

Paul Burns is chapter advisor.

You Told Us

BY DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Jessie Sluyter tells us that the Presbyterian people really enjoyed a wonderful weekend entertaining the students from the Christian Life Group of Michigan State University campus. They were here with the Rev. Jack Harrison to conduct special retreat services at the church.

The Sluyter family, including Chris, Jr. who was home from Ferris Institute for the weekend, learned many things about Nigeria from one of their guests. Certainly he must have enjoyed the hospitality of the Sluyter home because in Monday's morning mail Jess had a thank note addressed to Dear Mrs. 'Grandma' Sluyter. It had been posted just after he had returned to the campus.

A party for the 36 young people was held at the Harry Spencer home Saturday evening following the services and also following the "Chicken in the Rough" dinner that was served that evening at the church.

Mrs. Lee Purkey was chairman for the banquet, which was truly served in "rough" style, assisted by other ladies of the Woman's Association. Delicious chicken was served in aluminum foil wrapped in newspapers with coffee cans for finger bowls. The students were pleased with the food and the fun it inspired.

Others who entertained students were Mrs. E. J. Aebersold, Mrs. Veva Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Galazzi, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Colson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ries, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Westcott, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Millheim, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Trusdale, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Gabe French and Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Frost.

√

Among the other local students who were home over the weekend were Peggy Newell, Gary Hanna, Allan Dickinson, Kathy Tomorsky, Martha Owen and Jane Colgrove.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bradford and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Miller and daughter of Hillsdale were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Kapnick and family.

√

Mrs. Kenton Hunt assisted as organist for the Lenawee Chapter of OES at Hudson Saturday evening when officers were installed. Mrs. Robert Hunt of rural Tecumseh was soloist for the evening. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ena Whaley.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt of near Onsted have purchased the Clarence Hunt farm northeast of Tecumseh.

√

Mrs. Neil Pearson is again a happy grandmother. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pearson of Concord, New Hampshire have adopted a baby girl, Anne Marie.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Creger will leave this weekend to go north for hunting. They will have a cottage near Standish.

√

Mrs. Mary Biegelman, mother of Mrs. Robert Fuller, passed away in Detroit last week after a short illness.

√

Mrs. Ruth LaPrad, secretary of Tecumseh Public Schools, is ill. She will not be in her office for about two weeks.

√

Graduates of Tecumseh High School in 1931 will be especially interested in viewing the huge picture in the window of Rosacrans store this week. It is a picture of that class of which Ned Rosecrans was a member.

Bill Wright also has his graduation class pictures on display. Class of '32. Residents will recognize many of the young faces.

√

Hal Weakley from Western Michigan College at Kalamazoo and Jon Weakley from Central Michigan, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Weakley of Oneida St., were home over the weekend to celebrate Jon's birthday which actually occurs this coming Saturday.

√

Among those who attended the concert of the Mormon Choir from Salt Lake City held in Detroit Saturday evening were Dr. and Mrs. Truman Renchler, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Knudson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hyde, Margaret Lowry, Billy Trusedale and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bonner.

√

Mrs. Harold Moon and her mother, Mrs. Hazel Savage of Clinton and Mrs. Ben Gillies attended the funeral services of Dr. Albert A. Riddering at Redford Avenue Presbyterian Church Friday. Dr. Riddering was moderator for the Detroit Presbytery. He was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Savage and uncle to Mrs. Moon and Mrs. Gilliees.

Round Barn Poses Roofing Problem

One of Michigan's—and maybe the nation's—most unusual barns is located south of Palmyra.

Owned by Loren Bischoff, the structure is completely round.

It's in the news now because of a shingle job it's getting from Locke Roofing, owned by D. G. Locke of Occidental Highway.

Mr. Locke isn't quite sure if he's happy his firm won the job. The task has proved a tough one.

Normally, barn roofing is done in straight sections of about 10 feet each.

At the Bischoff building, the roofers are literally going around in circles, can only do about four or five feet before having to move ladders and scaffolding.

Height is another problem, the Bischoff barn standing 60 feet high, about 20 more than the average.

Built in 1916, there's a loft which holds a fantastic amount of staw and hay.

"We've put 80 tons of hay up there and it didn't look as though anything was in it," says Mr. Bischoff.

☆

APPARENTLY the original idea was to create a startling showplace.

Peter Rau, one of six sons of a successful German-extraction farmer, was given upon marriage a farm by his dad, as were all his brothers.

His dream was to have a round barn and soon after he and his bride were settled on their place the project got underway.

It took a much greater amount of work than was first anticipated and at times, legend has it, Peter wished he had never gotten the round barn idea.

Ed Demlow, who lives in Blissfield, was one of the original work crew and has told friends he drew the assignment of being hauled to the upper-most part of the structure to make fast the angled beams.

The late Gus Niemen of Riga directed the crew.

The current re-roofing job is requiring about 6,480 Barret Everlox shingles, states Mr. Locke, covering approximately 9,000 square feet.

The chap in charge, Ed Richardson has said, "It's the worst job I've ever tackled."

IS IT ONLY ONE?—This completely round barn, owned by Loren Bischoff and located just south of Palmyra, is reputed to be the only one of its kind in the state and possibly nation. Now being re-roofed, the structure is 60 feet high, about 20 more than the average barn. Owner Bischoff, left, and D. G. Locke, chat in the foreground as workers do the shingling.

Two Welcomed into Society

Mrs. David Jakubczak and Mrs. Joanne Hasselschwert were welcomed to the Altar Society of St. Elizabeth Church at the November meeting.

Thirty-six were present to hear Sister Mariam Michael, O.P. of Siena Heights who spoke on "Centenary of Darwinism."

Thanks were extended to those who took part in UNICEF on Halloween.

Final plans were formulated for the parish pot luck dinner November 1 with Mrs. Elmer Spreeman as chairman.

Altar committee for November include Mrs. James Tressler, Mrs. Jack Ries, Mrs. Charles Fitch and Mrs. Harry Weakly.

☆

CHRISTMAS SALE of baked goods, knitted articles, aprons and other holiday items will be held on a date in December to be determined later, stated chairman Mrs. Morgan Ford.

Mrs. Ted Golat was appointed 1959 Fall Festival chairman.

The December meeting will feature a gift exchange, Christmas program and a pantry shower for the Sisters.

Refreshment committee included Mrs. Louis Caterina, chairman, Mrs. James Refner co-chairman, Mrs. James Beardsley, Mrs. M. F. Flynn, Mrs. Wallace Brown, Mrs. Eugene Rebottaro, Mrs. Cal Roll, Mrs. Paul Breightenwischer and Mrs. James Short.

George Wittrup has beaten his own record for raising last strawberries in November. This year he brought four large berries to The Herald office on Veteran's Day, Nov. 11. Last year is was on Nov. 8 that he brought specimens of the luscious fruit in for consumption by office employees.

Council Asked To Purchase Lot

A recommendation to City Council that it purchase property on N. Ottawa St. for off-street parking is being made by the Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber's board of directors suggests that the city buy the home at 115 N. Ottawa, owned by Mrs. Ray Sluyter.

It was earmarked a year ago by the Planning Commisison for off-street parking facilities. The lot would be the start of a large area behind E. Chicago Blvd.

At present there is no public parking there, although Baldwin's Hardware and DesErmia Furniture maintain lots for customers.

All of the other three downtown blocks contain off-street, city-owned lots.

The 48x75 foot N. Ottawa lot and house are priced at $5,000. With the structure removed, the area would park 10 cars.

Is Buried Here

Corkery Funeral Home had charge of the service for Charles B. Hurry, international secretary of the YMCA and for many years one of the nation's "Good Will" ambassadors.

Mr. Hurry passed away in Vermont Aug. 3 where his body was cremated. He was a native of Tecumseh.

Judie Manchester Becomes Bride of Ron Francoeur

The Methodist church was the scene of a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening when Judie Manchester became the bride of Ronald D. Francoeur.

The Rev. James D. Nixon performed the ceremony before an altar arranged with fall flowers.

A charcoal gray tweed suit with a white orchid corsage was worn by the bride who is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Manchester of Clinton.

Sandra Manchester, cousin of the bride, was her only attendant.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Francouer of Tecumseh. He asked Harold Robinson to be his best man.

Following the ceremony a reception for the immediate family was held. The newlyweds will make their home at 502 Toledo St. in Adrian.

Mary Howell Is Married on Saturday

Mary Inez Howell and Charles Wayne Carlton were united in marriage at the Church of Christ in Adrian on Saturday by the Rev. Boring.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Howell of Tipton. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Carlton of Hodges, Alabama.

Mrs. Albert Hart of Toledo attended her sister as matron of honor while the best man was Ronald Plumber of Adrian.

The bride wore a white lace afternoon-length dress with tiny cap and short veil. Her flowers were small white baby chrysanthemums with red roses in the center in the shape of a cross.

WINNING FLOAT—The handiwork of juniors, this classy entry swept class honors in the annual Homecoming competition. Modeled after a box of Wheaties, the crisp, crunchy "Deafeaties" are being downed by Dave VanValkenburg. Apparently, the Hillsdale Hornets got hold of the "Breakfast of Losers" Friday morning for breakfast.

With Tecumseh Teens

BY MARY V. SEAGER

HOMECOMING WEEK STARTED off with a bang, beginning with mid-term exams on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

During these days, everyone was expected to study and work on floats for the Homecoming parade—all at the same time.

All the classes and most of the clubs built the colorful floats depicting the horrible fates of the Hornets or urging Tecumseh to victory.

The candidates and court members for Homecoming Queen were nominated during class meetings held Thursday.

The election, was held later in the library on Thursday and on Friday.

Court members were Linda Dicks, freshman; Peggy Hedges, sophomore; and Karin Walker, junior.

The queen candidates were Linda Hanna, Grace Dennis and Sharon McMichaels—Sharon winnig the title.

Thursday evening the cheerleaders held a pep rally on the field to stir up extra enthusiasm for the next night's game. It could have been better attended. The team was placed in a circle of black crepe paper reresenting a kettle in which the ingredients for a winning team were mixed.

The cheerleaders administered pep pills, then washed them down with spirit (confetti).

After that, the squad was tied up in a big orange bow to help the team organization.

Next, the team was presented a pair of boxing gloves for fight and horseshoes for good luck.

For length they received a muscular arm. A kiss (red cardboard lips) was also given to the team for, well, you know.

Once the ingredients for a winning team were mixed, Coach Leckta spoke about the team's chances. He especially praised their tackling and said they had a lot of desire.

Tecumseh's thanks to our new coaches who have presented the town with a winning team!

The band finished the pep meeting off with "Tecumseh High," our alamater.

On Friday afternoon, the Homecoming parade was organized in front of the High School.

The THS marching band led the parade with queen candidates in convertibles and the teachers following, the floats brought up the end of procession.

The judges were Mrs. Bert Ousterhout, Mrs. Bea Ring, and Tom Riordan who stood near the four corners to judge the floats.

The slogan, "We'll Spray Our Way To Victory", was effectively used by the GAA with a spray gun and hornets entangled in spun glass.

"Beat Hillsdale" with a toy drum was used by the FHA.

A cereal box and the slogan, "Defeaties, The Breakfast of Losers" were used by the juniors.

The FNC used a Vanguard missile and "Up 'N Atom" for their float.

Balloons supporting a winning streak with the slogan "Winning Streak; Let's Keep It Up" was the frosh class's first entry in the Homecoming sweepstakes.

"We'll Smoke 'Em Out" and an old car were featured by the sophomores.

After the parade, the floats were taken to the athletic field to await the announcement of the winners during half-time.

Excitement mounted during the thrilling first two quarters of the game as the crowd waited for the name of the Queen and the winning floats to be announced.

The junior float won first in the class division, and the GAA entry received the $10 check for the club division.

The committee for victorious GAA float included officer in charge — Sandra Howard; chairman, Mary Roberts; ass't chairman, Sharon Fielder; members, Ann Kempf, Camilla Grigg and Carol Bilby.

Dave Weakly, a football player who was injured earlier in the season, presented senior Queen Sharon with a kiss and a bouquet of roses.

Sharon was dressed in white as was Linda Hanna.

Both Karin Walker and Linda Dicks were dressed in blue formals.

Peggy Hedges wore green and Grace Dennis yellow. All the girls were lovely.

The red roses for the queen and the corsages for the court were donated by Dick Eggleston.

The Homecoming Dance was held from the end of the game until one o'clock. Russ Derby and his band played.

The gym was decorated with brown and orange crepe paper, draped gracefully from overhead wires. There was a big "Harvest Moon" over the bandstand and a corn shock in the middle of the dance floor.

The tables surrounding the floor had beautiful centerpieces of fall flowers in pumpkin shells which were arranged by Mrs. Ralph Helzerman.

About 300 students and alumni attended. The queen and her attendants were the only ones in formal dress.

At midnight, the queen was presented with a gift from the Student Council by Council president, Doris Oliphant. The Student Council gift committee was Kendra Ringman and Mary Colgrove.

For both the parade and the half-time festivities the drum major and the majorettes of the marching band were dressed in the Indian costumes worn for special occasions.

The drum major is John Perry. The drum majorette is Sandra Ross, and the majorettes are Dottie Roe, Lana Wright, Sharon Mitzner, Ann Marie Haughn, Synthia Poley, and Jean Wagner.

School Buys OKs Purchase of Lots

The Tecumseh school board approved purchase of two small lots on James St., Monday night at board meeting.

Although the local school is in debt since state aid has been delayed, board members agreed the lots offered for sale now at a low price would mean a big savings over what they would cost later on.

In other action, the board passed a resolution to borrow another $50,000, bringing the total amount borrowed to $200,000.

Supt. James McDowell was authorized to investigate the probability of homework for the junior high. An old board ruling prohibited home work except for book reports, which required outside reading.

THURSDAY THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT will present an assembly during third hour.

When you service your automobile consistently, you get longer and more reliable use from it. In the long run, it costs less and you have enjoyed it more.

Statistics on TV sets from several electronic organizations bear this same idea about television usage. Sets that are maintained properly, outlast many times a set that has not been properly serviced. Just replacing a worn out part would be like replacing a tire on your car without being sure that the wheel was in balance or out of allignment. Your TV set should be readjusted with every service even if the maintenance might only be minor. Sometimes we find that another cause for the actual trouble.

At COOK ELECTRIC we do the complete maintenance job. Your set is tuned for the most efficient function thereby giving you better and longer life. Phone 692-J or 946 for your next service call.

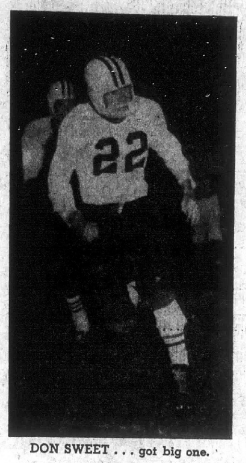
VOICE of THE HERALD

A Toast to the Indians

If you were among the Tecumseh Homecoming throng Friday and thought the air was electric, you were right. It fairly crackled.

Of course, the performance on the gridiron by coach Dunc Leckta's gridders was the climax.



DON SWEET . . . got big one.

Just 24 hours earlier, at a pre-game pep rally, the Indian chief told his audience that this team was made up of the best tacklers he had ever coached.

Oh, how the lads proved once again that statement Friday.

All season long, the Tecumseh crew has been spearheaded by a defense which has had 11 boys converging on the ball. Seldom is a tackle missed and 90% are low, sharp and deadly.

We got a particular charge out of the way Jim Neitling sliced through time after time and dumped the Hillsdale ball carriers in their tracks.

Another defensive picture-play was a tackle by Don Sweet on a kick-off. Don, running like a 10-second dashman, wheeled downfield past the entire Hornet team, sliced in behind several blockers and up-ended the runner.

The best tribute that can be paid the Indian defense is mentioning the visitor's net yardage gained—eight yards.

But there were other happy ingredients that helped round out the Homecoming picture and contributed to that electric feeling.

Class and club floats were tastefully done and the judges had quite a time before coming up with the two winners—the junior entry among classes and the GAA for organizations. To the youngsters who built them we offer our sincere congratulations.

Then there were the cheer leaders, who had done such an excellent job on the pep rally and as usual at the game had the fans roaring the Indians on to victory.

The band, led by Indian clad drum major and majorettes, was its usually sharp self.

Now, it's off to Adrian. Whether we win, lose or tie, we're sure this is going to be a great football game.

We're sure too that whatever the results, Tecumseh fans will conduct themselves as fine sports—being good winners, or if not, good losers.

Here's our wish for an Indian victory.

Tecumseh Couple Visits Hoover in New York City

The most recent desire expressed by former President Herbert Hoover is to ride a jet plane to California and return.

He also shows great optimism in the future of our people and our country.

These things were revealed in a short visit last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose C. Hamaker of Tecumseh in Mr. Hoover's apartment-home in the Waldorf Towers, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamaker, attending the Public Relations Society of America Conference at the Waldorf, called on Mr. Hoover as had been arranged at an earlier time.

Despite his age, they found Mr. Hoover an alert and vigorous person.

He spoke proudly of his devotion to his work, writing and the government studies.

When Mrs. Hamaker revealed she had boarded the Pan-American 707 Jet plane that day, he showed great interest, asking about it and saying that he expected to take the first jet flight possible to California and his beloved San Jose Valley—which he still considers home.

PROCLAMATION BOYSVILLE DAY

This year marks the Tenth Anniversary of the opening of Boysville at Macon, Michigan. During this decade the people of Michigan have witnessed an amazing experiment based on faith in the goodness of young boys, an experiment that has achieved inspiring success and a heartening reaffirmation of the idealism and principles of the American way of life.

Ten graduating classes have left Boysville since 1948. The school has been able to help over 1,500 boys, all of them from broken homes, who might otherwise not have enjoyed the experience and benefits of a high school education.

Boysville has depended upon the generous support of the people of Michigan, support that must be continued if this worthwhile educational and social program is to be continued.

THEREFORE, I, G. Mennen Williams, Governor of the State of Michigan, do hereby proclaim Saturday, November 15, 1958, as in Michigan, and call upon all our people to become more familiar with the useful function performed by this outstanding institution and to publicly recognize organizations like the Michigan Knights of Columbus in their generous support of Boysville.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Michigan, this Twenty-third Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred Fifty-eight, and of the Commonwealth the One Hundred Twenty-second.

G. MENNEN WILLIAMS, Governor

Through My Window

"GOOD EATS, GOOD LOOKS!"

Thanks to some wonderful and generous friends the patrons of our bird feeding stations will be able to enjoy sunflower seeds all winter long. It will be an eating treat for them and a viewing treat for us.

Sunflower seeds are the "prime steaks, done rare" of the bird feeders. Many of our most desirable birds find them irresistible and therefore, they are a "must" on any well stocked feeding station.

Their popularity with the free loaders can not be over-estimated.

As mentioned so often, the flashy cardinals and their lovely mates are probably our favorite birds.

They will be happy with our supply of sunflower seeds because of all the tasty tidbits our feeders hold, they much prefer the big flat seeds of the sunflower.

☆

IN ADDITION to being pretty to look at, it is fun to watch the cardinals at the feeder because they have a way of eating particular only to themselves.

With their short, broad bills they do not peck the seed open as do many birds, they hold it in their mouth and bite or crack it open.

As the strong "jaws" work to get at the tasty inside meat, broken off bits of shell fly out. It is seldom, however, that anything edible is dropped or lost.

So it is that even when eating, the cardinals never loose their dignity—their table manners are excellent.

☆

THE BLUE-JAYS too are dearly fond of sunflower seeds but, unlike the red birds, whose dining habits are near perfect, they display the worst possible etiquette.

First of all they drive everyone else off the feeder. Then having the whole tray to themselves, they swagger to and fro haughtily inspecting the free lunch.

Finally a seed is selected and taken over to the quarter-round which forms the side of the feeder.

Holding the seed firmly against the round with their feet, the jays use their large, rather long bills to break through the outer shell. Usually two or three jabs do the job but occasionally a tough seed is encountered and oh, how this infuriates the blue-jay.

☆

WHAT HAPPENS when they loose their temper? Well, when mad at a seed, up goes that big blue head and wham, the black bill is brought down with all the force their strong body can muster.

With each additional "slam down" the bird's ire rises; such a display of bad temper is, as you can well imagine, great fun to watch.

We have often marveled at the blue-jays' unerring aim, so far we have never seen one miss and hit his toe instead of the seed.

But certainly it isn't hard to imagine how furiously mad such a mishap would make him, is it?

☆

THE TRIM AND sleek tufted-titmice are also members of the "hold-and crack-open" club.

They are happy, even-tempered little birds, however, and are never as belligerent and aggressive in their eating as are the blue-jays.

Using polite dainty jabs, they open the sunflower seeds with little fuss and bother. It takes a very, very hard shell to arouse them.

Also much in evidence when a new and fresh supply of seeds has been put out are the funny up-side-down nuthatches.

☆

THEIR LONG needle bills make it impossible for them to eat at the feeder and so they "grab and run".

Taking the sunflower seeds, one at a time of course, to a tree, the nuthatches wedge them into small crevices in the bark and then use their sword-like bills to pry off the hard shell.

Our fun comes in watching the feeder as the birds worry over it in selecting just the right seed. Being fastidious eaters they pick up and test many seeds before the tastiest one is found.

Such fuss-budgets.

So there you have a brief discussion of a few of the birds who will be dining in style at our feeder this winter. Do you now see why I say, "Good eats, good looks"?

NEXT WEEK: OUR WALNUT TREE!

12,838 Youths Get TB Tests in Program

A total of 12,838 Lenawee County children, grades one through eight were given skin tests for tuberculosis in the recent tuberculin testing program.

Homes of children showing positive tests are being visited by the Public Health nurses and will be advised to have chest-X-rays now and annually to determine whether there is TB in the body.

Most of the X-rays will be normal, but periodic chest X-rays can detect TB in an early stage if it should ever develop in the future.

A positive test doesn't necessarily mean that the child has any active disease, but it does show that at one time he was exposed to the disease.

IT IS IMPORTANT that adult members in the families of these children with positive tests be checked by X-ray.

Children with negative tests should have tuberculin tests periodically.

This school tuberculin testing program is one phase of the continuous efforts of the local physicians and the health department to stamp out TB.

Sponsors of the skin testing program were the Lenawee County Health Department, in cooperation with the schools of Lenawee County, the Michigan Department of Health and the Michigan Tuberculosis Association.

The Wilsons got married last month. Each day Jim and Anne count the hours 'til they're together. They're eager to share the present . . . happy to dream of the future.

Jim figures that anything so good to come home to needs an extra measure of care. And he intends to provide it.

For one thing, he's already signed up for Blue Cross-Blue Shield protection. Jim knows it offers the most care when it's most needed . . . both today and in the future when youngsters start coming along. It saves him worry about unexpected hospital and medical bills, too.

But how about you? Don't you think your family ought to have the security only Blue Cross-Blue Shield provides? Ask about it, especially the new "M-75" medical plan.

Defense Stops Hillsdale, Larry Yoakum Gets 3 TDs

Coach Dunc Leckta's undefeated Indians turned on the steam in the fourth quarter against Hillsdale here last Friday night to rout their homecoming opponents, 19-0.

Tecumseh's sixth victory not only kept its win streak intact but gave the Indians a share of the Southeastern Michigan Conference title. Bedford, who held Tecumseh in the second half for a 6-6 tie earlier in the season, Monroe CC Friday to earn a share of the title.

Halfback Larry Yoakum and 173-pound junior guard Jim Neitling led an array of local stars in their conquest of Hillsdale. Yoakum tallied all 19 points, making him top scorer in the county, while Neitling paced one of the finest defensive units seen here in many years.

Yoakum ended up with the pigskin on a reverse play in the initial stanza for a 39-yard TD run. His hurried place kick attempt was wide.

The visiting Hornets, capitalizing on two passes in the second period, drove 65 yards to Tecumseh's 16. Neitling then broke through to toss the visitors for a seven-yard loss to the 23. On the next play, Don Sweet intercepted a pass on the 12.

Hillsdale reached the Indians' 13-yard line in the third period after a 15-yard penalty stepped off against Tecumseh put the ball on the Indians' 36. The Hornets struggled 23 yards in the next eight plays before their hopes for a score were dashed.

The Indians line stiffened to throw a Hillsdale back for a yard loss to the 14, and then Les DeJonghe crashed through on an intended end sweep to pin a five-yard loss on the visitors. On fourth down, a Hornet pass gained just one yard.

With Mike Walters and John Aho alternating, Tecumseh, then moved to the 45 where Yoakum took off again on a 55-yard scoring romp. Seconds later, the Indians were knocking only to be stymied on the four. Yoakum's field goal attempt from the 11 was wide.

Taking over on the 20 Hillsdale, after completing one of three passes for two yards, apparently punted out of danger to Tecumseh's 45. The last of 11 penalties against the Indians moved the ball back to the 40, where Steve Kruger hit Walters on the 49. Walters then picked up 13 yards to Hillsdale's 38.

Kruger took to the air again on the next play, hitting Yoakum on the 20 where Bob O'Neill threw a vital block to spring the halfback loose for the final score.

A breakdown for the statistics gives the Indians a 9 to 4 margin in first downs; 355 yards in total offense to 74; 271 yards rushing and 84 by passing to a meager eight yards rushing and 66 passing for Hillsdale.

Kruger connected on six of nine passes while the Hornets hit on five of 12. The Indians intercepted three Hillsdale passes.

The only statistic figure in Hillsdale's favor was in the penalty column where Tecumseh was penalized 85 yards to just 20 yards for the Hornets.

Hillsdale	0	0	0	0— 0

Tecumseh scoring: Yoakum 3 (39, run; 55, run; 38, pass-run from Kruger). PAT: Yoakum (place kick).

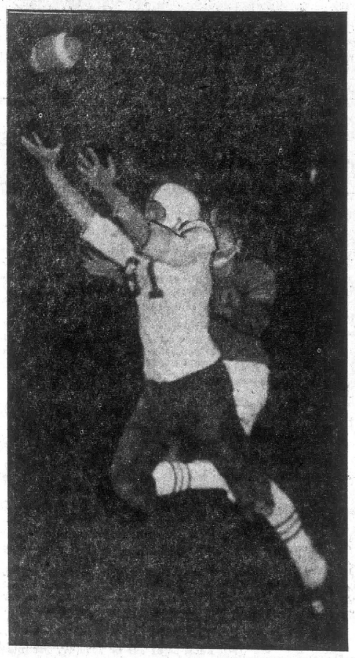
SOPH SPARKLES — John Aho, sophomore fullback who started his first game of the year, performed well against Hillsdale. Here he twists away from a Hornet and gets ready to smack into another. Steve Kruger (24) is trying to get over and lend a hand. Both of these lads will probably play important roles in the upcoming battle with Adrian.



TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTO

NEAR MISS—A Steve Kruger pass just eludes the outstretched hands of end Bob O'Neill in the Hillsdale contest. The play came in the opening period. O'Neill turned in another sterling performance for the Indians.

VFW Auxiliary Plans Party

Plans for the annual Christmas party were made at the meeting of the VFW Auxiliary Nov. 5 with Mrs. George Downard as general chairman.

A potluck supper is planned.

During the business session, members voted to contribute $5 for the Christmas party at the National Home in Eaton Rapids, $2 for the National Home Christmas seals and $5 for the indigent patients Christmas party at the Veteran's Hospital in Battle Creek.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Journey Stoner and Mrs. Harold Warrens.

The Funeral Director Has Many Talents . . .

And much is expected of him. First, he must be a good citizen, helpful to the community and its problems. He provides many services only remotely connected with his profession.

He must be alert and available twenty-four hours a day. He must be skilled and adept at the many duties that are his profession. Frequently he must render these many services to several families simultaneously. Yes, there is much behind the quiet friendliness of your funeral Director.

THE CRISIS THAT WASN'T

Today, there are many quick victories over disease. Each might be described as a crisis that didn't quite happen — thanks to today's superior medicinal agents.

Modern medicines prescribed by your physician score amazing triumphs over diseases which, only a decade ago, were almost certain to become dangerously serious.

Present-day pharmaceuticals, such as the antibiotics, require complex equipment, intricate controls and highly skilled technicians for production. Although somewhat higher in cost, they actually are an investment in economy. They effect an earlier cure and cut down expensive sick-bed time.

We are staffed and equipped to fill your doctor's prescriptions promptly at prices that are fair.

Bilbys Injured in Car Mishap

Mr. and Mrs. Dow Bilby were injured in an automobile accident Thursday evening as they were traveling with three other companions to installation ceremonies at the Plymouth Grange.

Mrs. Bilby has both collar bones broken and Mr. Bilby has a badly sprained right arm.

Jim Marr of Onsted and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Grigg, the other passengers, were not injured.

The accident happened at the intersection of the Canton Center and Plymouth Road about seven miles east of Ypsilanti.

Another car struck the driver's door of the Bilby car doing about $500 worth of damage. The other car could not be removed from the scene of the accident.

Mrs. Bilby was removed to Ryer Hospital in Ypsilanti by ambulance and Sunday was transferred to Herrick Memorial Hospital where she is still a patient.

400,000 Seek Deer

More than 400,000 hunters will open Michigan's firearm deer season Saturday at dawn.

By season's end, Conservation Department officials estimate 450,000 hunters will have been afield.

Since the opener this year falls on Saturday, which should intensify the usually heavy hunting on the front end of the season.

Of prime interest will be the state-wide concurrent special seasons. The Department has issued special permits to 55,601 licensed hunters, each of whom may hunt the entire 16-day season in their properly permitted area, and take a buck doe or fawn, as they choose.

This is the first year all special seasons have run concurrently with the regular 16-day buck season. Experience with these concurrent seasons has shown them popular with hunters.

Also, some deer that might otherwise be wasted are recovered by permit holders.

Again this year, the Department will operate deer checking stations along principal north-south highways where hunters may, if they like, have their deer checked for age, weight and physical development.

Information gathered at these stations helps state biologists with deer management programs.

Highway counts of deer on cars will be made and the figures statistically calculated to determine total deer kill.

In past years, this method has given quick and rather accurate estimates of the kill.

Health Insurance Advertising Pulls Record Inquiries

DETROIT — Using state-wide advertising media, Michigan Blue Cross-Blue Shield has completed a record two-week campaign for nongroup hospital and medical subscribers.

State law limits enrollment in non-group health plans to two weeks, but the advertising drew a record 33,067 inquiries.

Announcing the results, Louis Graff, Director of Public Relations and Advertising for Michigan Blue Cross-Blue Shield, said:

"This is the first time in the history of our state-wide nongroup campaign that both total inquiries and also newspaper-radio returns have increased substantially."

Advertising expenditures this year were approximately the same as for 1957, but the results were nearly doubled.

Newspaper-radio returns alone accounted for 12,078 inquiries this year, compared with 6,471 last year. Total inquiries from all advertising in 1958 amounted to 33,067, compared with 18,249 last year.

Mr. Graff attributed the results, in part, to the over-all Axiological, or "human value", advertising which began last February.

Michigan Blue Cross-Blue Shield ads feature the theme, "It's Wonderful to Feel Cared For", and the distinctive pen-and-ink technique of David Stone Martin, well-known American artist. Ross Roy, Inc., Detroit, is the advertising agency.

Michigan Motorists Outdo Themselves

Michigan motorists outdid themselves in October by driving safer than they have in that month for the last 25 years, including the war years of gas rationing and greatly reduced travel.

Traditionally a month of high traffic fatalities, State Police provisional reports list only 96 persons killed. This was 46 less than 142 killed in October a year ago, or a reduction of 32 per cent.

It was the sixth month this year in which less than 100 persons died on the road. The other months were January, 95, February, 91, March, 95, April, 90, and May, 92. The high month to date was August with 144 deaths.

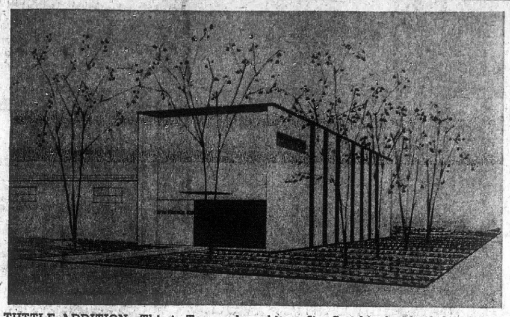
1958 MICHIGAN GENERAL EXCELLENCE



TUTTLE ADDITION—This is Tecumseh architect Jim Smith's sketch of the office and engineering two-story addition which will become the front portion of the H. W. Tuttle Co. plant here. Work begins on it in about two weeks, reports H. W. Tuttle, Jr., who complimented Mr. Smith's exceptional job of planning.

Start Addition Soon

Construction work on an addition to the H. W. Tuttle Co. building here begins in about two weeks.

The Tecumseh operation is expected to start in about 90 days, states H. W. Tuttle, Jr., executive vice-president.

It will combine the firm's present operations at two Adrian locations.

Addition to the Tuttle structure will be in two parts.

1. A one-story, oblong section along the south side, which will square off the building. This will provide about 4,000 more square feet of production space.

2. An ultra-modern two-story front, the width of the building and 25 feet deep, for offices and engineering. This also totals 4,900 square feet.

Combined with the present 15,000 square feet, this gives a total of 23,000.

Jim Smith, Tecumseh architect, designed the addition and was given lavish praise by Mr. Tuttle for its functional design. It will be of cement block and painted, with the main entrance to the south, facing the parking lot.

Lenawee Construction Co. of Adrian is the general contractor and among the sub-contractors is Clauda Plumbing & Heating of Tecumseh.

Besides its factory, Tuttle Co. owns 70-foot of frontage to the south and has options on the balance of land extending to Russell Rd., all about as deep as the factory.

"This would give us enough space for roughly 80,000 square feet of potential expansion," Mr. Tuttle stated.

"Future building plans will revolve around the acceptance of our new product, Adaptatherm," explained Mr. Tuttle.

The company will accept applications for positions here about two weeks before the plant opens —aproximately the first part of February.

Currently, Tuttle employs 85 in its two Adrian setups.

Sub-Let Work Is Handled Here

Although the opening of Tecumseh's H. W. Tuttle Co. plant is not scheduled until mid-February, sub-let work is already being done here.

Otto Beaubien's Tecumseh Non-Ferrous Co. on Green Highway was contracted to make the castings for Tuttle's Adaptatherm pilot production, which began this week.

Adaptatherm is the licensed process which molds electrical heating elements into insulating metal, can be used in ranges, water heaters, fry pans.

Its strong points are perfectly even heating and no loss of heat.

The multi-purpose room has a basketball court with hoops hung at nine instead of 10 feet. It also has a kitchen. Adjoining it is a shower room.

There's a library, skylighted lobby and safety-plate glass throughout.

Exchange Ordering Scoreboard

The Exchange Club voted to order the new electric scoreboard to be installed at the High School athletic field Monday.

Approximately $1,100 is now available for this project. The board will cost $2,000.

Donations toward the scoreboard would be welcome from anyone in the community, can be made to president Robert Bonner, treasurer David Dick or members of the club.

Selection of the exact type of scoreboard was left in the hands of the sports committee of which Chester Beach is chairman. This committee will work with High School principal Neville Hart.

☆

THE ORDER will be placed in ample time for completion of the installation by next fall.

The program at this week's Exchange Club meeting was arranged by Albert Musch.

He presented L. W. Klewer, outdoors editor of the Toledo Blade, who showed pictures of a trip to Africa.

Newest members of the club is Gerald Janousek, 505 Murray Drive. Mr. Janousek, who is science teacher in the Junior High School, received his pin in the meeting on Nov. 10.

Jack Larsen Wins $2,300 Thus Far on Tic Tac Dough

Jack Larsen, formerly of Tecumseh, was seen over WWJ-TV Monday evening by many of his friends and former school mates here.

As a contestant on the Tic Tac Dough program he won $2,300 and became the new champion.

He'll appear next Monday evening on the same show to defend his title.

Graduating from Tecumseh High School in 1938, he won honors for the school in declamation, oratory, extemporaneous speech and debate.

President of his senior class, Jack participated in football, basketball and track and was the school sports reporter.

He was editor of the annual and salutatorian.

At present he is a patent attorney in Bernardsville, New Jersey where he lives with his wife and nine children.

He made the statement over TV that he would't mind having nine more.

Open House Sunday at New Macon School

The public is invited to an open house at the new Macon Sunday School from 3 to 5 p.m.

The program of dedication will be held at 3 followed by conducted tours of the building.

Refreshments will be served throughout the afternoon.

The Ridgeway area PTA is in charge.

Jones Sealing Here Gets Ford Contract

A small Tecumseh industry, Jones Sealing Service, has landed an attractive contract with Ford Motor Co.

It signals an immediate expansion for the firm, which is owned by Carlos Jones, a metallurgist of 801 River Acres Drive.

A new building will be constructed and at least five persons added to the work force.

The Ford contract calls for 6,500 carburators to be daily impregnated with a plastic seal.

Ford will each day truck aluminum die cast carburetors to the Jones plant and return with those treated the previous day.

☆

MR. JONES explains that under certain conditions all metals are porous.

Items, such as carburators, to operate efficiently, must have those pores filled up.

The method Jones Sealing uses is not secret, however Mr. Jones has formulated his own impregnated compound, using three different types of plastic and mixing them here.

Ford learned of his success in handling carburator impregnation and contacted the Tecumseh company with the rush order, which will be in effect for a minimum of two years.

Briefly, explains Mr. Jones, the impregnation works like this:

Carburators are placed in a vat from which air is extracted. Then the plastic is introduced and under 200 pounds pressure per square inch it fills the minute openings.

From here, the castings go into a furnace where the intense heat sets the plastic and cast as a solid mass.

When completed, the item has not changed even a 10,000th of an inch in size, only the pores have been filled with plastic.

At present Jones Sealing employes eight men and women.

Christmas Party Planned for Boys

Plans are in progress for the Christmas Party Dec. 16 for Boy Scout Troop 73.

A potluck supper at 7 p.m. will precede the Court of Honor and annual Round Up and Inspection.

Due to the request of the Union, troop meetings will be held on Tuesday evenings beginning Nov. 25.

THE Long & Short OF IT

THE, REV. BLAIR BASHORE gave us some additional information on the item in this column last week about folks on welfare working for County government units.

Under this plan, I had explained last week, they receive credit at the rate of $1 per hour against assistance rendered by the County.

Blair reported that it was the County Welfare Board, of which he is a member, that worked out the plan.

It was then approved by the Board of Supervisors and went into effect some time ago, proving to be a sensible arrangement for all parties involved.

There are many on welfare who are most willing to work. This is their opportunity and they react happily to it.

Those who are able to labor, but just want to loaf and live off the County are soon smoked out.

Since Blair talked with me, there has been a new development, one he mentioned the welfare folks hoped would happen.

This is the coperation of the County Highway Comission with the policy to use people on welfare whenever possible.

At first, the road officials had balked a bit because they felt they, couldn't use untrained workers.

However, there were numerous things an able-bodied man can do, such as gut brush and repair culverts, so a few days ago the highway boys said OK.

☆

THE LAST WE SAW OF OUR football mascot, Bootin' Pussy, was right after Friday's game as he trudged across the gooey Adrian gridiron, heading west.

About midfield, he paused, turned back towards the Tecumseh side and waved. Even from that distance, I could see tears in his eyes, but at the same time a friendly grin crossed Bootin's lips.

Later, I discovered a mud-spattered note stuck among film holders in my camera case.

"Tell the boys they did real well and I'm proud of them."

It was signed with a right front paw print.

☆

BIGGIE MUNN SANG HIS swan song in a Minneapolis eating place Saturday night.

Biggie, the Michigan State athletic director, was burned up about that afternoon's loss to Minnesota.

As the waiter heaped a man-sized helping of good Gopher state spuds on Mr. Munn's plate, Biggie heaped abuse on the MSU team and staff.

Ever since Munn stepped down as the highly-successful football coach at State, he has been a thorn in the side of many at State.

This I get from a man on the inside, an old friend of mine who, as an active alumni member of the Varsity club, is in constant contact with athletic staffman and undergraduates.

It's a tragic situation.

So when Biggie blasted, he was in essence saying, "I'm leaving State and can say anything that comes to mind."

Next stop for Mr. Munn: Minnesota, where he'll become athletic director and possibly football coach, thus returning to the scene of his playing days where he was an All-American lineman.

☆

Don't look now, but Vic Lawson just dribbled a basketball in through the back door. Yep, the hardwood season has arrived.

Vic's hoopsters open the year next Wednesday evening, helping Clinton christen its new gymnasium.

Vic was asked by an innocent bystander,

"Will you have to use football players in this first one?"

Scowled the likeable Vic, "Are you kidding?"

Among his first-line lads are gridders Bob O'Neill, Steve Kruger and Larry Yoakum, all of whom are busy these afternoons working out football kinks and regaining that deft shooting touch.

Good luck, Vic.

FRIDAY'S STORY — Covered from head to toe with mud is tackle Jim Neitling of Tecumseh who with his team mates saw an undefeated season ground into the goo of Maple Stadium by Adrian. The game story and additional picture appear on the back page of this section.

Question Appointment

Council approved the apointment of Ray G. Schlegel, former councilman, to fill the unexpired term of Dr. William Britton, who resigned at the last meeting.

Monday night's action in appointing Mr. Schlegel is illegal, reports James Beardsley, city attorney.

He says, according to the city charter, a majority vote of the remaining six councilmen is needed to seat an appointee to council. By vote, Mayor H. H. Hanna, James Freckleton and Donald Brazee favored returning Mr. Schlegel to the village body.

John Hamilton and Harold Easton voted against the appointment. Mr. Hamilton voiced a recommendation of William Frownfelder, local resident who ran unsuccessfully for council last year.

Don Purky, councilman absent from the meting, will cast the deciding vote if the appointment is contested.

If he votes against Mr. Schlegel served on the council last year but did not seek re-election.

Schlegel's appointment deadlocking the issue without a majority vote, a special election may become necesearv in January, providing none of the councilmen change their vote.

☆

COUNCIL APPROVED the erection of Christmas decorations next week. Village employes will put up light pole decorations, but will wait for approval from the state before hanging Yule decorations and lights over the streets.

The $100,000 revolving fund resolution was approved. Vote by the electorate on the revolving fund will take place early next year, probably in February.

A permit for carry-out beer, wines and champaignes was approved for Ralph Hodge, local druggist and liquor outlet operator. It was reported that only wines and champagnes will be added, not beer.

Donald Murphy, Chamber secretary who sought erection of the Christmas decorations, also asked council to buy the lot behind Marv's Market for the purposes of future offstreet parking and to study new downtown street lighting.

Chest Fund Hits 105%

Walt Nichols was elected president of the Tecumseh Community Chest board at an open meeting Monday evening.

Boardmen also named Dr. Richard Coak to their group and reelected Owen Partridge, who had stepped down as president.

An interim report of the local drive could only be made, Mr. Nichols said.

The complete figures will be available next month.

As of Monday, donations totaled $5,262.75, which is 105% of the goal, with some reports still to be made.

Sixty-one percent of this amount came from business and professional people, the balance of 39% from residential sections.

The board voted unanimously to give each Tecumseh agency 100% of its budget with the overage of funds to be disbursed later. This breakdown will be determined at the board's January gathering.

Technicality Keeps Bus Law 'Out of City'

A technicality has kept motorists driving within the City of Tecumseh from being subject to the new state school bus law.

However, this is being remedied and the proper amendment scheduled to go on the books shortly.

The state introduced a statue which requires all motorists, going in either direction, to come to a complete stop when a school bus halts.

Incorporated communities then were required to put an identical amendment on their books.

Tecumseh's City Council did this— or thought it did—during October, so that the law locally would go into effect about the same time as the state's.

However, ruled City Attorney Jim Beardsley, who was on vacation at the time, the required act was incomplete.

"In cases of traffic ordinances, you can't incorporate by reference," explained Mr. Beardsley.

Council had merely gone on record to say that the new bus law would be recognized here.

Instead, the entire state law wording must be included, states Mr. Beardsley.

MRS. WENDELL WEST

Bonnie Jean Currier Wed to Wendell West Saturday

The Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins performed the ceremony Saturday at 10 a.m. at the St. Elizabeth Church that united Bonnie Jean Currier and Wendell West in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Currier, 120½ East Chicago Blvd., and the groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd West, also of Tecumseh.

The altar of the church was enhanced with lovely bouquets of white chrysanthemums and the family pews were marked with the traditional bows backed with greens.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Ben Hammack sang "Ave Maria" accompanying herself at the organ and also "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother" as the couple knelt at the altar.

About 75 guests were in attendance as the bride approached the altar on the arm of her father.

☆

SHE WORE a gown of fine embroidered white nylon organdy over taffeta fashioned with a square neckline in front and V shape in the back. It was ballerina length and was enhanced with scalloped edges and short sleeves.

She wore mitts that ended in points over the hands and a strand of pearls and earrings to match. A small band of white flowers held the finger tip veil in place.

She carried a lace and tulle covered prayer book topped with a crescent arrangement of tiny white roses which was the gift of the bridegroom.

Her only attendant was Mrs. Juan Banda of Clinton, sister of the groom, wearing a ballerina-length gown of mint green with a crown of flowers matching her dress.

She carried a cascade bouquet of bebe pompoms in shades of yellow and white.

☆

MR. BANDA served as best man and the guests were seated by Eugene Gallant of Adrian and Hillary J. Short of Tecumseh.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Currier wore a dress of navy blue crepe with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of white pompoms and Carol Amling pink rosettes.

A reception was held at the St. Elizabeth School auditorium following the ceremony with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Roesch serving as hosts.

Mary Dinse registered the guests, Mrs. Alfred Sisson and Mrs. Thomas Hartley served the cake while Barbara Buku served coffee.

Ruth Hagadorn had charge of the gift table and others assisting were Judy Hartley, Mrs. Harry Cambell, Mrs. Eugene Gallant, Sharon and Rosemary Buku. All wore shoulder nosegays of yellow pompoms.

The newly weds will make their home at 120½ E. Chicago Blvd. for the present.

Mrs. Mary Lawrence left last week for Oak Park, Fla. to spend the winter.

We're Printing Day Earlier Next Week

The Herald will be printed one day early next week — on Tuesday instead of Wednesday.

This is done so that Thanksgiving advertising may reach readers before that holiday.

Correspondents are asked to have copy to The Herald no later than Monday, or if possible on Saturday, when the staff will work a full day.

Notices of coming events and stories of happenings this week should be phoned or brought to The Herald this Friday.

The staff would greatly appreciate merchants having advertising copy ready Friday.

Tecumseh Woman Helps in Skit for Old Friend

Mrs. Neil Pearson and daughter, Mrs. Stanley Cook, were guests at a testimonial dinner for Dr. Sarah Van Hoosen Jones, a lifelong friend of Mrs. Pearson.

The dinner was held at the Kingsley Inn in Bloomfield Hills Nov. 13 by the Zonta Club of Pontiac.

Dr. John Hannah, president of the Michigan State University was the prineiple speaker and a "This is your Life" program was featured in which Mrs. Pearson was invited to take a part.

Dr. Jones is the only women in the state to be given the honor of being a Master Farmer.

She was a member of the State Board of Agriculture for 12 years. A residence hall on the campus has been named for her.

She was approached to be the Republican nominee for governor this year, but turned down the opportunity.

Many Tecumseh Garden Club members have been guests in her home in Rochester several years ago.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Good Sports, All

A lot has appeared in Detroit papers about the hubbub at Motor City football games when players and fans started fights, beat up police.

It's a sad example of fuzzy thinking by certain youths and adults—and makes one wonder.

Things have become so serious, there even has been talk of banning high school football.

But, then we regard the situation locally and see the other side of the coin, one which is clear and clean and almost inspiring.

Tecumseh fielded one of the school's finest teams this autumn and there were plenty of rabid fans.

On many an occasion, there was tough sledding, times when feelings brewed to the point where they could have exploded, but never did.

Not once did Tecumseh students or adult boosters evidence a single bit of poor sportsmanship, never did they provoke an unpleasant incident.

On the field the story was the same. The gridiron heroes played hard, always did their best., But no matter how rugged the contest was—and football is a rugged game—did they lose their heads.

When the 48 minutes of play ended week after week, the Indians were quick to shake their opponent's hands and congratulate them on a good game.

If any battle could have fermented trouble it was the Adrian fray. Pre-game publicity had been gigantic, the crowd was near record, an unbeaten season was at stake. Nerves were worn to a frazzle, both among players and ardent spectators alike.

Yet, there was no incident Friday night.

When the tilt ended, Coach Dune Leckta must have been awfully proud of his lads as they went from Maple to Maple to say, "nice game". We know we were.

When there is such conduct by so many for so long, there must be a reason.

We'd like to advance our opinion: good breeding and good training.

First there are the parents, who have taught their offspring from infancy that being a gentleman and a lady is paramount in this life. To drive home this lesson, they have used the most potent teaching tool known, good example.

After home and family, there are church and school. The same idea is carried on by ministers and priests, teachers and coaches. Firm, but fair school administrative policy, put into action by principals, helps insure the goal.

You see the results most vividly at football games where the excitement causes passions to rise.

Tecumseh has always passed the tests with flying colors.

Good sportsmen, all.

Sophomore Wins

Kenneth Beevers, Tecumseh High School sophomore, received a $5 gift certificate Thursday for selling the most tickets to the Lenawee Band Festival.

Donald Johnson, band instructor, presented it to him during band class.

Kenneth sold tickets in the amount of $15.35 in his neighborhood.

He plays tenor sax in the High School marching band.

Award was made by the Chamber of Commerce, which sponsored the event this year.

Our Readers Write

To the Editors:

Just finished reading the second item in your very enjoyable column "The Long and Short of it."

It is now 2:30 and my fingers itched to write this wee note to you regarding your correspondence from M. E. W.

I Say Hoorah! and Bravo to you for your very respectful reply to the anonymous correspondent.

You have not been afraid IN THIS LAND OF THE FREE AND HOME OF THE BRAVE to show your colors in print.

So many folks these days stand around and look stupid while trying to decide which way the crowd is going to enable themselves to get in the front line with those who always say "they're all doin' it."

Having the firm belief that the two-party system must stay in order for our democracy to fulfill its purposes of freedoms I decided that it might work in our family too, where by mother be the extra party and go to work when father is on lay-off.

I recently rented a typewriter to practice up my skill as a typist so that I might come to the aid of our busted budget.

Remembering the old high-school line that typist use to rehabilitate their finger muscles and knowing that I needed extra practice I added an extra word to the old line as follows:

NOW IS THE TIME FOR ALL GOOD MEN TO COME TO THE AID OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Now I know this "wee note" is running true to form of we women, we have said more than we intended to but I am glad to sign my name to this anyway.

Sincerely,
Mrs. James R. Feight
(Mary Lou)

P.S. Just one more say— maybe the "last word"—ah-hem! While the victorious party are rejoicing it could be that the supposed Arabs, who were folding their tents and running, are maybe gathering better equipment to fight a better battle while their victorious competitors are letting the dust lie.

(Mr. Bagwell is too fine a man to just clean house, so maybe he really has "not lost, only voters are left to plan their own house!)

To the Editors:

Thank you for your lovely articles about our fashion show and card party.

You have really made the Herald a "hometown newspaper".

To the Editors:

Many thanks for the fine news coverage and photos of the dedication of our new building at Clinton.

We appreciate having the public visit our Posts to become better acquainted with the operations of the department and this special affair attracted many and I am sure that those who were not able to be present enjoyed the fine coverage the affair was given.

With best regards, I am

To the Editors:

Would you have two extra copies of the Tecumseh Herald of May 8, 1958. There is a photograph in it of my old home, The Collins-Corkery Funeral Home. My folks after Dad passed away Mother sold it to Mr. Collins.

Some one sent my daughter a copy and I would like one for my son in Los Angeles and also for myself.

I worked on Tecumseh Herald in 1909-10, first job I ever had setting type. My name was Ila Odell then. We thank you and whatever charges let me know and thank you for your trouble.

Sincerely,
Mrs. C. C. Danny

Post Wins Trophy

A trophy honoring the memory of the late Louis S. Schneider was presented to Larry Cote, commander of the Underwood-Orr Post 34 of the American Legion, at the November 2nd District meeting held recently in Temperance.

The Louis S. Schneider Boy's State Memorial Trophy was awarded for the first time this year by Paul Moroney of Chelsea, former department finance officer and long-time friend of Mr. Schneider.

It was given for the best report and attendance at Boy's State among the Legion posts in the 2nd District which is made up of 30 posts in four counties.

Winning the trophy for three consecutive years gains permanent possession of it for that post.

It is also a tribute to Mr. Schneider that the post of which he was an active member should win the trophy the first time.

He spent many years working on the Boy's State program and as child welfare chairman, both locally and in the department.

At the meeting of local post Thursday evening an announcement was made of the joint Post and Auxiliary dinner for the purpose of meeting the County Junior Baseball team.

It will also afford an opportunity to present Robert Gillespie, service officer, a token of appreciation for his many years of fine service.

Dinner will be served at 6 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 22.

Bill Berry was elected chaplain to replace James Vallie, who has moved to Ypsilanti.

Dennis Goler reported membership is now 124.

William Powell presented Vern Campbell, leader of the University of Michigan debating team, who in turn presented team members.

They participated in a cross-question type of debate on the subject: Resolved that further development of nuclear weapons should be prohibited.

Gerald Janousek was received into club membership and presented a pin by past president Wallace Whiting.

Harold Wilson was a guest of Kenneth Hall.

Secretary Earl Greene gave a report on the attendance contest which indicated a close contact between teams of 275 to 280 points.

Indian Bubble Bursts

By JIM LINCOLN

The Tecumseh Indians' bubble—hopes for an undefeated season—burst last Friday night when the Indians went down fighting to a superior Adrian eleven, 25-13.

The loss, only defeat in nine games, was not unexpected. Adrian had one of the school's greatest teams. The feeling and enthusiasm of Tecumseh fans for the local team is still tops.

Adrian's Jim Green, 190-pound fullback, accounted for most of Tecumseh's misery and was the main difference between the two clubs. When Green wasn't bulling his way through the line, the Indians about matched the Maples.

Bob Knight capped a 58-yard march for Adrian in the first quarter, plunging over from the one. Green ran two yards for the extra point.

THE INDIANS retaliated in the second stanza, going 55 yards on nine plays. Steve Kruger passed to end Bob O'Neill for the final 24 yards with O'Neill taking the ball away from two Adrian defenders.

Shortly after the ensuing kickoff, Green crashed through the Tecumseh line, brushed off three would-be tacklers in the secondary and scooted 47 yards to paydirt.

The Maples capitalized on a break in the third quarter when they recovered an Indian fumble on the 19. Two plays later, Green ran 15 yards to move Adrian out front, 19-7.

Late in the final period, Tecumseh jumped to life when Jim Neitling scooped up an Adrian fumble on the 10 and ran the remaining 10 yards for the Indian's second TD.

☆

TRAILING BY six points, Tecumseh pounced on another Adrian fumble on the Indians' 45. Two plays picked up seven yards when the roof caved in.

A penalty set the Indians back to their own 48. After losing another seven yards, Kruger flipped to Larry Yoakum, but only for a gain of four yards.

Adrian tallied the final score with only 18 seconds left. The Indians probably could have avoided the TD, but gambled (and rightly so) when the Maples on third down were charged with a 5-yard penalty. They scored on fourth down from the four-yard line.

How much difference the mud and slippery condition of the field made will never be known. Halfbacks Mike Walters and Yoakum found it impossible to cut on the wet turf, and Kruger, who hit on six of 10 passes, had considerable trouble passing.

The loss left Tecumseh with a 6-1-2 record and Adrian 6-3, including six straight victories.

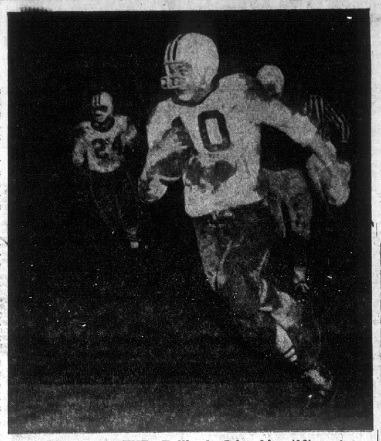
Adrian	7	6	6	6	—25
Tecumseh	0	7	0	6	—13

Adrian scoring: Green 2 (47, 15, runs); Knight (1, plunge); Fisher (4, run). PAT: Green, run.

Tecumseh scoring: O'Neill (24, pass from Kruger); Neitling (10, run with Adrian fumble). PAT: Yoakum, placekick.

TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTOS

ADRIAN GAINER—Maple halfback Bob Knight skirts right end for about 20 yards in the opening stanza. A neat block upends Tecumseh's Clarence Champanois (12) as Jim Curth (62) hopefully sprints on.



BRIGHT MOMENT—Fullback John Aho (10) sprints around right end for an eight-yard gain in the third period. It was one of the Indians' best runs of the evening. Steve Kruger (24) is other Indian.

Corn Growers Vote

Lenawee County corn farmers will go to the polls Tuesday to help make the decision on what the corn program will be for 1959 and later years.

The choice is between the present program of acreage allotments and price supports on corn, and a new program in which there would be no acreage allotments and price supports would be determined on a different basis.

A majority vote of the corn producers voting here and in 931 other commercial corn counties will decide the outcome of the referendum. Anyone who had an interest in the 1958 corn drop in the commercial area is eligible to vote.

Voting hours in Lenawee County will be 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. at:

Lenawee County ASC Office, 118 West Church Street, Adrian

Rome Town Hall.
Tecumseh Grange Hall.
Dover Town Hall on M-34.
Blissfield Central School.

The corn referendum is required under the Agricultural Act of 1958, passed by Congress late in the past session.

The two programs to be voted on are designated on the ballot as No. 1 and No. 2. The county ASC office gives the following explanation of the two programs:

PROGRAM NO. 1—This is new. There would be no acreage allotments and no designation of a commercial corn area.

Price support under this new program would be determined on the basis of 90% of the average price farmers got for corn in the last three years — but not less than 65% of parity.

It is now estimated that the national support level for 1959 under this program would be about $1.12 to $1.15 per bushel.

If the new program is approved, price supports, in proper balance with corn, would have to be offered each year on the other feed grains (oats, rye, barley, and grain sorghums).

Corn compliance would be eliminated as a Soil Bank, price suport, or any other rogram requirement.

☆

PROGRAM NO. 2—This is essentially the same program which has been in effect in 1958 and earlier years.

Corn acreage allotments would continue in effect for farms in the commercial area.

With record corn supplies, allotments would probably drop next year about 15% below 1958 and price support would probably average from $1.24 to $1.27 a bushel—at the bottom of the required 75 to 90% of parity range.

Corn acreage allotment compliance would be required for price support and for Soil Bank eligibility.

☆

ANY FARMER who has questions about voting places, eligibility, or any other feature of the referendum should get in touch with the ASC office.

Sermon Examines Words of Thanks

This Sunday at the Methodist Church in Tecumseh, "Thanksgiving Thesaurus" will be the theme.

The sermon will be delivered by the pastor, the Rev. James D. Nixon.

A nursery for pre-school children is provided during worship.

In this sermon Mr. Nixon will examine of the words and expressions which are currently used to express the mood of thankfulness.

Official Board meets in special session on Monday evening.

—o—

Stanley and Greg Wise of Tecumseh spent Sunday with their uncle, Allen Wise and family.

Homemakers Visit Ypsilanti

Thirteen members of the Future Homemakers Club of the High School with their Chapter mother, Mrs. Stella Dennis and their advisor, Mrs. Leva Brown, attended the fall meeting of Region III.

The meeting was held Nov. 8 at Roosevelt High School in Ypsilanti.

Mrs. Thelma Graper, state secretary of Homemaking Education Division, spoke on "FHA and Futurama."

Marcia Bashore Krouse was a member of the panel from Eastern Michigan University, made up of Homemakers who discussed careers.

Kay Shultz was elected regional historian during the business session.

Officers of the Tecumseh Club are:

Barbara Gebarowski — president.
Kay Shultz—vice-president.
Frances Short—secretary.
Louise Pennington—treasurer.
Sheila Kirk—historian.
Joan Robinson—student council representative.
Pat DeLisle—reporter.
Carolyn Dennis—song leader.
Donna Roe—parlimentarian.

Odds and Ends of Adrian Tilt

Rain Friday morning probably deterred some Tecumseh fans from attending, but 1,500 dyed-in-wool Indian followers were there—most of them an hour before game time.

Adrian rooters were out in force, most of them in their seats early, too.

☆

Visitors from here found Maple Stadium to be ideally construsted with wide concrete sidewalks right to their seats, a necessity in Friday's sloppy weather.

Lighting is excellent — probably half again as potent as illumination at the local field — and all poles are located behind the stands.

☆

Impromtu cheering and singing kept the Tecumseh folks busy before the teams appeared to warmup.

When the Indians trotted out onto the muddy gridiron, the loyalists greeted them as if they had just beaten Adrian.

Maple fans were equally as vocal when their blue-shirted hoard arrived.

☆

In an impressive pre-game ceremony, Adrian players and their parents were introduced, sons strolling with moms and dads across the field.

The ladies in high heels found the going almost impossible, the turf was so gooey.

☆

The gumbo covered almost every player so completely it was difficult to make out who was whom.

This condition made possible the most bizarre Indian play of the year.

On a screen pass, quarterback Steve Kruger threw to a mob of team mates swirling through the mire.

The aerial went right into the hands of a lineman, who went down just after making the catch. As if shot out of a cannon, he leaped to his feet, dropped the pigskin and dashed back to the forming Tecumseh huddle.

Adrian players spotted the illegal receiver making the snatch and pleaded with officials to "get his number."

But this was quite impossible and the referee allowed the gain.

☆

Adrian proved the perfect host. The public address announced after the game that a tractor was available in the parking lot to pull out cars stuck in mud. No charge either.

☆

Press, motion picture and spotting facilities in the spacious press booth were excellent.

Thanksgiving Has Stormy Past

The Pilgrims would have been shocked to their shoe buckles on December 13, 1621, if they had known that their day of thanks was to become a yearly national holiday celebrated by millions of people in the United States and Canada.

For the Pilgrims were dead-set against "annual" holidays, and refused to celebrate even Christmas and Easter.

According to research experts with The World Book Encyclopedia, the Pilgrims referred to the religious holidays of the Church of England as "Roman corruptions."

They believed in celebrating only when Providence granted them a particular blessing.

☆

AS IF TO prove their disdain for yearly calendar-fixed celebrations, the Pilgrims did not have a thanksgiving celebration the next year. However, other New England colonists picked up the idea and held "thanks days," usually around the end of November.

The Pilgrim-inspired holiday is today a joyous family day celebrated with big dinners and happy reunions, but the history of the holiday in the United States has been fraught with argument.

In 1789 a resolution was presented by a member of the new Congress proposing that a day be set aside to give thanks for the Constitution.

The resolution was finally adopted, but there was much opposition by those who believed the Federal Govenrment was meddling in a matter that should be the concern of the individual states.

Thomas Jefferson called such Government-proclaimed holidays a "Monarchical practice" and ignored thanksgiving during his eight years in office.

☆

MRS. SARAH HALE, editor of Godey's Lady's Book, worked for 30 years to promote the idea of a national thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Hale had a double-barreled attack—she printed editorials promoting the idea and also included tempting recipes for Thanksgiving delicacies.

In 1863 Lincoln proclaimed that Thanksgiving should be celebrated on the last Thursday of November.

However, some descendants of the original New England Puritans refused to observe the holiday, claiming that Thanksgiving should be inspired by the Deity, not by politicians.

☆

THE MOST recent Thanksgiving controversy arose when Franklin D. Roosevelt switched the date of the holiday from the fourth to the third Thursday in November.

Newspapers and magazines carried editorials advising readers to ignore the President and some Governors flatly advised their states to celebrate Thanksgiving on the traditional day.

Three years after the change was made, Congress officially restored Thanksgiving to the fourth Thursday.

Through My Window

OUR WALNUT TREE

Standing guard at the south-west corner of the house is a friendly, old walnut tree. Tall and extremely well porportioned, the tree has big limbs which spread out like large protecting arms.

In the summer, the tree is gowned by millions of shiny oblong shaped leaves which glitter and dance in the bright warm sunshine.

During the cold months, the sentinel stands out in stark naked silhouette against the gray unfriendly skies.

The squirrels love our walnut tree. They find it a superb playroom as well as a good source of food.

Up and down, around and around, over and under the play. Often, when the weather is mild and our windows open, we hear the scratch, scratch of their sharp claws on the rough bark.

☆

THE UPPER left-hand corner of our "picture window" is framed by some of the tree's big lower limbs.

These are great favorites with the birds. They like to grab a bite from the feeder and fly with it up to those "protecting arms."

The blue-jays and titmice crack sunflower seeds up there and the nuthatches use the deep crevices in the uneven bark as caches for suet.

When we first moved to the west end of Logan St., years and years ago, the prospect of having walnuts from our own tree in our own yard was most exciting.

During all the months that it took the nuts to grow and ripen, we dreamed about walnut cakes, nut fudge, etc. At first the nuts were tiny like fresh green peas, next marble size, finally like golf balls, then, at long last, baseballs.

☆

WHEN FALL came and the nuts began to fall, bushels and bushels lay on the ground.

Undaunted by the unappealing black, rotting husks we gathered walnuts right in our own front yard—oh, what a thrill.

Even when the dark, almost indelible, stain came through our work gloves and discolored our hands, we were still carried on by visions of the good things to eat.

Well, to make a long story short, we gathered, and husked, and sorted, and layed out to dry. As the time to start baking and cooking with the walnuts grew near our excitement and anticipation increased.

Remembering how fully packed with nut meats the shells were when green, it was just slightly disappointing when the first nut or two was cracked open and we found only a tiny shriveled up piece of dried out nut meat.

To our great disappointment however, the rest of our harvest was the same — we didn't find one good nut.

THE FOLLOWING year, when the little green nuts began to appear, our hopes rose and again we started envisioning walnut goodies.

Optimistically we told ourselves that probably the year before had just been a "bad year for nuts" and so, come fall, we again went through the dirty business of nutting.

It seems, however, that although our walnut tree is beautiful to look at, it is not meant that we should enjoy its fruit.

We have never had even one good walnut from our tree.

Either the squirrels know the secret of storing the nuts so that they don't dry up, or, maybe when the ground lies sleeping beneath a blanket of snow and the wind whistles strong and cold out of the north, maybe then evan a shriveled up nut tastes good.

☆

WHATEVER THE reason, each fall brings a flurry of activity. The squirrels work at a furious pace gathering the fallen nuts and stashing them away.

We just hope that they enjoy the fruits of their labor more than we did ours.

Long ago we gave up our dreams of having walnuts "from our own tree in our own yard." With only a small sigh for the delicious things that might have been, we let the squirrels have them all.

We hope, however, that for many, many years to come our beloved walnut tree will stand guard at the south-west corner of the house.

How Much Do We Spend For Health . . .
Would you like to know, or would it be too embarrassing? Well, here are the facts, in annual figures . . .
$32.00 per person for tobacco.
$55.00 per person for liquor.
$10.12 per person for drugs and medicines.
Probably the only cost about which we complain is that which protects God's greatest gift—our health.

EXPECT REPAIRS?

We shocked a customer when we told her that she should expect her TV set to need servicing after several months of steady use.

Expecting a breakdown . . . though this isn't as alarming as it sounds . . . is a natural function of everything. Doesn't your automobile wear out; electric light bulbs need replacing occasionally; even the human body needs the doctor.

Statistics show that a five year old TV set will have an average of twenty-five servicing jobs, however, most of them minor ones. Nothing remains perfect forever.

When you phone 692-J COOK ELECTRIC will quickly and professionally, with the least cost, most times right in your own living room, complete the servicing of your set. You'll like our methods; ask your neighbor about us.

KALAMAZOO — Ray Larned, ordinarily a tackle, has been working at end for the Western Michigan University freshman football team.

Doing a fine job for the Bronco Colts, Ray is one of the many reasons why the Colts are so far undefeated and have wins over Central Michigan JV, Toledo frosh and Bowling Green frosh.

Larned, 6 feet 3 inches and weighing well over 200, is agile, able to snare passes on offense and his defensive play has been outstanding.

He also kicks off for the yearlings and also the kicking for extra points.

Coach Merle Schlosser believes that he will be a strong candidate for the varsiay team next fall.

Ray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Larned, 301 Chippewa.

Joyce Randolph won the hula hoop contest held at the Halloween party of the Girl Scouts recently. As sometimes happens we were given the wrong information and reported Carol Campbell winning first prize.

The society editor offers apologies and congratulations to Miss Randolph.

Adult Courses Help To Develop Skills

Thanks to a pair of adult education courses, a group of Tecumseh women are becoming proficient dressmakers and furniture slip cover experts.

In classes taught by Mrs. Harold Clark, both meeting twice weekly for an hour and half over a six-weeks period, the students made big strides in their skills.

The women concentrating on dressmaking made suits, skirts and blouses and children's dresses.

The sessions were held in the Tecumseh High School home economics room and the gals had use of the sewing machines and work tables there.

Lighting is excellent.

Following the seamstress crew was one on slip covering.

Each student brought a chair to cover at the first meeting and then the fun began.

Working with great care, each woman gradually fashioned a professional-type covering, thanks to the constant guidance of the instructor.

Total expenditure to students for each of these two course was $4 for registration and whatever materials cost.

Both advanced dressmaking and slip covering will be offered again, shortly after the first of the year, according to Mrs. Clark.

Announcement of the exact time to register will appear in The Herald.

Mrs. Clark is well qualified for the role of teacher, having been an instructor for Singer Sewing Machine Co. and a skilled dress maker for many years.

Whitey "Auto" Not Sell Now

Folks thought it was a big joke when Whitey Fisher—who owns a chicken farm up on Murphy Hill—bought an old taxicab.

"Bought it mainly to haul eggs," Whitey told me. "Take out the rear seat and there's as much room as a truck. Put it back, and I can take all the kids on the Hill to school.

"In warm weather," he continued, "I can slide back the roof and get sunshine. And when I go hunting, I'll wind up the glass partition and the dogs can't lick the back of my neck!"

From where I sit, things aren't always what they are at first glance. "More than meets the eye" is often true whether you're talking about Whitey's "cab," or a new neighbor down the street. Give things a chance to be proved ... give every man a chance to be heard. Sit down over a glass of beer or butter-milk and get to know each other. It's the American way ... a road of "tolerance" we all ought to ride on.

"....We Need 'em Fast!"

THE SCENE IS the traffic department of any of the hundreds of manufacturing plants in Michigan. The time is 4:00 P.M. on any day of the week. The traffic manager is talking long distance to a supplier in another state about some parts needed for production.

"Send 'em by truck," he says, as he prepares to hang up, "we need 'em fast!"

He knows from experience that motor transport is the fastest link between shipping and receiving. He knows he can depend on it. In fact, he and thousands of his fellow traffic managers have been the men most responsible for the rapid growth of motor transport. Once they experienced the efficiency and speed of trucks, there was no satisfying them with anything less—and today their companies could not operate successfully without truck transport!

That's something for every wage earner in Michigan to think about.

When the medical profession approves a new remedy, it is made public so that everybody may benefit from it. Poliomyelitis vaccine is a good example.

Should you read or hear about a "secret remedy" for the cure of some serious disease, be on guard. Shun it by all means, because its use could be disastrous.

Consult your physician. Ask his views on "mystery remedies." He will give you a candid evaluation.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

EVERYONE SAID JIM NEITLING scored Tecumseh's second touchdown against Adrian. Wrong. It was Mike Walters who scooped up the Maple fumble and sprinted into the end zone. But with jerseys what they were, covered with mud, you could only tell the player was from Tecumseh from the direction he ran.

YOU MIGHT BE INTERESTED to know how our "Special to The Herald" story from New York on new-home construction happened.

An agency in that city, Park Row News Service, has developed an interesting national business.

When vital statistics are released, such as the ones on house building, Park Row obtains a copy.

Its writers then prepare stories for every paper the agency thinks—and hopes—might want them.

The local angle is played up in each, but of course, some general paragraphs can go into every release.

Park Row hopes it hits a tender nerve and thus the editors feels "this is a yarn we'll certainly want to run."

At the top of the copy is a notation, "Priced if used — $2.50." When the papers use the piece they pay, when they don't any invoices are waste-basketed. Another example of man's great faith in man.

Well, we certainly were pleased to have Park Row's service on this one. Isn't it amazing: the national level for home construction last year was 5.6 units per 1,000 population; Tecumseh's a whooping 24.1.

☆

WHO MOVES INTO THE NEW homes being built?

The Herald has begun a series on the families, some moving into new places from other locals in the city, but most making Tecumseh their home for the first time.

First story appears in this edition, on page 2 of next section.

Builders and real estate people have been helping our Dorothy Grigg get the facts together and we appreciate their assistance.

One new home sales gal, Rena Fitzpatrick, embellishd her report from the Indian Hills area.

"Our buyers have been unusually lucky", smiled Rena, then she tells why.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Randall had just purchased their new Indian Hills home when she won a Mercury automobile on the Ed Sullivan Show.

Another couple, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Richard, had hardly signed the papers when they received word of being 400 English pounds ($1,200 American bucks) richer, thanks to a ticket they held on the Irish Sweepstakes.

Finally, Rena points out, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Davis, Jr. where just transferring belonging to their place in Indian Hills when they won a Hi Fi set at the Blissfield Harvest Festival.

HAVE YOU BEEN GETTING your free chances on the 1959 Rambler being given away by Tecumseh merchants?

The $2,324 four-door auto is top award in the current promotion of the Chamber's retail division.

There are also a list of other prizes, being donated by merchants taking part in the giveaway.

Chances on everything are absolutely free, no strings. Just stop in at stores which carry the posters in their window.

The climax comes Dec. 23, when everything will be awarded. Until then, get as many chances for yourself into the containers.

Tell your out-of-town friends about the Rambler, they'll want to visit Tecumseh to get their chances.

By staging promotions like the Sidewalk Carnival, Silver Dollar Day and Apple Week and now the Rambler give-away, Tecumseh merchants are doing their darndest to show people our shopping center is complete, well-stocked and friendly.

The last feature is what I like. When you walk into a Tecumseh business place, you always feel right at home—your call is often as much social as business.

Oh, and, don't forget the free parking. There are off-street lots behind the four downtown blocks, all within short walking distance of Chicago Blvd.

THIS HAS ABSOLUTELY NO news value, but I now drink my coffee black.

For about 20 years, I always wanted sugar and cream (or milk) and couldn't bear the untreated variety.

A month ago, for no apparent reason I drank two cups at one sitting without any additions.

The stuff was so tasty, it has been black for me ever since and I seem to get much more enjoyment out of my java.

Can anyone explain?

Whenever the subject of coffee comes up I think of an old friend who now owns the lumber yard in Leslie, Mich.

Never in his life has he drank coffee. The nearest he came was during World War II when he was in North Africa on a bitterly cold night.

Somone brewed joe and it smelled so good and he was so chilled, he thought he'd have a cup.

The lad took a mouthful, but never swallowed it. Saying to himself something like, "All my life I haven't had coffee, why start now?" he spit it out.

And his record was perfect.

So what?

Like I said, this has absolutely no news value . . .

TWO VETERAN TECUMSEH authors have hit again.

Allan Seager has a story appearing in the current Saturday Evening Post.

Mrs. Bertram Updike, Patterson kindergarten teacher, recently sold a piece to an educational magazine. It's about her class making gingerbread men.

You may recall we had a write-up of this. Herald pictures, taken for our story, will be used in the magazine along with Mrs. Updike's prose.

Interest Builds in Rambler

Interest is building in the current Tecumseh merchants' promotion which will see a Rambler automobile given to some lucky person.

The car is absolutely free and so are the chances, which can be obtained in most local business places.

Containers can be found in each store in which to place chances.

One stipulations in the promotion is that no member of the Chamber of Commerce, or persons from his or her immediate family, can win.

Another is that persons entering chances must be old enough to have a driver's license.

VIC LAWSON . . . another season starts.

Veteran Cage Squad Opens Up Wednesday

A 15-game basketball card for Tecumseh High School opens Wednesday, the night before Thanksgiving, at Clinton's new gymnasium.

Beginning at 7 p.m. with a junior varsity contest, the contests will be the first played on a floor scheduled to be ready just one year ago.

Of his Indian varsity squad, coach Vic Lawson muses, "We should be fairly tough."

Coach Lawson has plenty of experienced material with which to mold a club, although he admits the loss of John Elliott will hurt. John had been the big Indian scoring and rebound threat here for several seasons.

Replacing Elliott in the lineup will be Dan Cisco, who last winter helped Hudson go to the state Class C semi-finals.

Standing 6' 4½", Cisco weighs 210 pounds. He'll work in the pivot and is being counted on for a lot of rebounding. Last year at Hudson, Cisco average 17 rebounds a game.

Teaming with Dan is an all veteran quartet—Bob O'Neill and Jack Sisson, forwards, and Larry Yoakum and Steve Kruger, guards.

These hoopsters turned in some expectional performances in the latter part of last season, especially during tournament play when Tecumseh won the district championship.

Over all record for the 1957-'58 Indians was 12 and 7.

Others who will probably see considerable action against Clinton and all during the year are the Walters boys, Mike and Tom; Bob Dick, Dave Hohenstein and Jim Curth.

Next Tuesday, Tecumsch journeys to Milan, playing on that school's recently-constructed hardwood.

Home opener come Friday, Dec. 5 against Hillsdale.

Auxiliary Still Seeks Addresses

Mrs. Robert Lowe, chairman for the American Legion Auxiliary, reports a small response to the request for the addresses of servicemen from the Tecumseh area.

The Auxiliary deems it a privilege to greet these men at Christmas time and would like to have the address of every one of them.

Parents are asked to call her 162-R.

Macon School Cost $140,463

Macon's $140,463 elementary school was dedicated Sunday with 300 attending an open house held for the occasion.

This is the second in a series of four Tecumseh District building dedications, following Ridgeway by one week.

Yet to come are Tipton and Tecumseh Acres structures.

Over all cost for the four elementary schools and an addition to the High School is $1,900,000.

At Macon an additional $11,943 was spent for a driveway, mechanical and electrical capacity for expansion to six classrooms and a kindergarten. At present there are three classrooms and a multi-purpose room.

Grades are from one through six, doubled up two to a room. Mrs. Albert Tonneberger is teaching principal.

The Rev. Walter Damberg gave the invocation and prayer of dedication Sunday.

Flags for each room were given by the VFW and its Auxiliary.

James McDowell, district superintendent, explained features of the new structure.

Rooms are L-shaped, have fluorescent lighting, steel chalk boards, plastic desks.

The multipurpose room has a scaled-down basketball floor and adjoining it is a lunch and PTA service kitchen.

Teenage Lads Play the Role of Samaritans

Several teenage boys played the role of good Samaritans one day last week to Stanley Packard, 401 S. Pearl St.

The incident took place in front of the United States Savings Bank building about 5:30 one evening when Mr. Packard discovered he had a flat tire.

He proceeded to get the necessary tools from the trunk of his auto but before this was accomplished the young men appeared on the scene volunteered to help. Within a matter of minutes the job was done.

These young men refused remuneration of any kind. While Mr. Packard didn't have the names of all of them, he did have four — Leonard Penrod, Tom Walters, David Schmidt and Harry Naugle.

'Christmas Fanfare'

A program of holiday music, entitled "Christmas Fanfare," will be presented Dec. 11 at the Strand Theatre by Les Bennett and his 92-voice Tecumseh High School chorus.

Elaborate stage settings have been planned by Mr. Bennett and Walt Nichols, manager of the Strand.

These will include replicas of Christmas cards 6-x-10 feet in size —some are scared, some comical which will be seen by the audience during music of this variety.

A system of what is actually three backgrounds will include a platform eight feet above the regular stage of pantomine, acting and silhouettes.

The evening begins with a processional of the young people moving in two lines going in opposite directions around the center section of the theatre and then onto the stage.

Accompaniment will be by piano and harp.

Besides choral music there will be mixed octet numbers, several solos, including one in which four soloists will walk among the audience.

There's also be an echo number in which the main body of chorus will sing from stage and an octet in the balcony will echo the words.

Preparations for this performance began the later part of September and will have taken 50 hours by the time the curtain rolls back the week after next.

Tickets will be 75c for adults and 50c for students, go one sale at the High School and Strand Theatre Monday.

Tecumseh Is a Leader in Home Building

(Special to the Herald)

NEW YORK—Based on national statistics, Tecumseh is one of the country's leaders in new home construction on a "units per 1,000 population" ratio.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics of the Department of Labor has just released its annual tabulation showing the number of new, non-farm dwelling units authorized in the past year.

It is based on data gathered from some 7,000 localities throughout the country.

It shows that Tecumseh had a greater amount of home building, in proportion to its size, than did most cities in the United States.

With a total of 97 dwelling units begun or authorized, exclusive of public housing, the local rate was 24.1 units per population, as of the last census.

This was greater than the rate on a national level, which averaged 5.6 units per 1,000 people. It was also above the North Central States rate of 4.6 per 1,000.

In most parts of the nation, home building was in a slump during 1957, considerably below 1956 in volume and still further behind 1955.

The decline is attributed generally to the lack of low-interest-rate mortgage money.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics gives the year's total as 1,041,900 units, of which 95% consisted of private housing and the rest public. It was the lowest number since 1949.

Despite this general trend, Tecumseh recorded a gain. The total of 97 units in 1957, shown by the Federal report, compares with 86 units in the previous year.

This year has found the country's home-building industry pushing steadily forward toward pre-recession levels. It has become one of the brightest spots in the economy.

The upswing came after April, when easier money made it possible for many more potential home owners to finance their purchases.

Although the residential building picture is dominated by single-family homes, multi-family units of the rental type have been showing a marked increase, according to the report.

One out of every six non-farm homes started last year was either a two-family structure or an apartment house. Of this type of dwelling, in fact, there was a big increase during 1957.

The Charm of Music

This is not the first time, probably won't be the last, we'll write what a wonderful thing music is. It brightens the darkest corners, lifts folks' minds out of their humdrum existence.

We couldn't help but get excited learning from Les Bennett the details of his "Christmas Fanfare", a musical program featuring the High School chorus of 92 young people.

Les and his group began work on it the opening days of school and should really be sharp come Dec. 11.

A great deal of planning for stage settings has been needed and in this respect Mr. Bennett has received close cooperation from management of the Strand Theatre, where the program is being held.

Incidentally, the Strand, having originally been an opera house, offers exceptional acoustics for anything spoken or sung from its stage, thus the Christmas program should be exceptional.

Hard Work, Superior Methods

We wish that people behind the Iron Curtain could have read the story on our front page last week about a small Tecumseh plant landing a contract with Ford Motor Co.

These poor souls get a steady diet of drool from their papers about the "decandent American capitalists." They hear how the big boys in business crush out the little fellows.

If they heard that Ford Motor Co., one of the largest manufacturers in the world, had sought out Jones Sealing Service in Tecumseh to do a job, the poor commie-dominated citizens would likely draw back in disbelief.

We can understand why, because it's doubtful if they'd ever hear of such a thing in their lands.

To us, it's more of an old story.

In fact, if we turn back the calendar not too many years we see another Tecumseh industry, just starting to cut its teeth in the compressor business. Because Tecumseh Products could do a job better and cheaper and meet delivery schedules, it soon had as customers most of the nation's refrigeration makers.

With expert management, sales and production techniques, this firm grew and prospered.

We're not going to predict today that Jones Sealing will scale the peaks as the Products did, but many marvelous things have happened in this country of ours because of hard work and superior methods. So, who really knows?

Most of Tecumseh will no doubt be proud and pleased that Ford Motor has tapped a tiny firm here for work. We'd like to add our congratulations.

Some Honest Tabulation

At least seven Thanksgiving church services are being held in various Tecumseh places of worship this week.

We hope that every one will have a capacity congregation.

Too often we bombard God with requests. Seldom after we receive what we seek do we bother to say thanks.

Most of us could find many good reasons why our lives are almost too much to bear.

By the same token, if we really did an honest job of tabulation, 99% could come up with the fact we're indeed fortunate and blessed.

For this we should be happy to put sincere "thanks" into this week's holiday and if possible attend the church service of our choice.

"We plow the fields and scatter the good seeds on the land."

Your gifts to CROP, the Christian Rural Overseas Program, plant the seeds of Christian love in the hearts of men, women, and children who have ceased to believe that life for them holds any purpose or any promise.

Gifts of food mean gifts of life and hope to the destitute and hungry in lands where war, drought, earthquakes, floods, and other disasters have left destruction and want in their wake.

The people of America contribute food and fiber (or cash in lieu of these commodities) to the CROP community appeal to help those in other lands who cannot help themselves.

Jaycees Seek Broken Toys

Any repairable, like-new toys around the house?

If so, call 583, 819 or 7007-J, or better still, drop them off at 107 E. Chicago Blvd. in downtown Tecumseh, the former Ruffer store.

Your toys will be appreciated by the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is starting its annual toy collection drive for needy children.

The Jaycees fix repairable toys (the first work session is scheduled Dec. 15) and collect new toys, and then distribute them to some of the less fortunate children on Christmas.

Duaine Service, owner of the building formerly occupied by Ruffer's, has donated the store for the work sessions and as a toy collection center. The Jaycees will have a barrel or box in the doorway during the day when the store is closed for the deposit of toys.

Malcomb Campbell is chairman of the toy drive and says local merchants will be solicited for shop-worn toys. Last year the Jaycees collected baskets and baskets of toys, thanks to local residents.

Mrs. Ronald Wonderly underwent surgery at Bixby Hospital in Adrian Friday morning. She expects to return home this week.

Acres PTA Opens Year

A total of 250 were on hand when Tecumseh Acres PTA met Thursday for the first time this year.

Teachers were in their respective rooms for parent visitation at 7:30 p.m.

Group singing, led by teacher representative Dorothy Lukens, opened the gathering.

Wayne Kaiser, principal, announced that he is at the school from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and would appreciate having personal problems presented to him during those hours rather than at PTA.

Many of the problems have to be taken up with Superintendent James McDowell and the Board of Education, thereby making an answer at PTA impossible.

Mr. Kaiser then introduced the teaching staff.

☆

ORVILLE BISHOP, chairman of the by-law committee, presented the by-laws and they were adopted.

Announcement was made of the Tecumseh Acres Elementary School Open House to be held December 14 at 3 p.m.

The public is invited to attend the ceremonies and tour the school. Refreshment and Host Committees were named for that event.

The PTA is selling candy and purchases may be made through Mrs. Robert Wood or Mrs. Amos Miller.

The $2 attendance award was presented to Marjorie Wickwire's sixth grade.

Mrs. Russell Southwell, Mrs. Bobby Robison and Mrs. A. J. Williams served refreshments.

During the evening 141 members paid dues.

The meeting dealt particularly with obtaining the lot for sale behind Marv's Market on N. Ottawa St. for future off-street parking.

No decision was reached at the meeting.

The businessmen offered a plan whereby the city would sell some land to C. O. Butler, the area behind Butler Ford garage and now used by the auto agency for its used car lot, and use the money to buy the lot on Ottawa Street.

Mr. Butler has offered to buy the land for his agency and include in the deal a small lot which he owns and is now part of the city's parking lot behind the Strand Theater.

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Edmund Rogers Thursday in Adrian.

She passed away Nov. 18 at Herrick Memorial Hospital where she had been admitted for surgery.

Known by many Tecumseh residents because of her interest in county organizations, she was employed in the fomer Lilley State Bank before her marriage.

She is survived by her husband and on brother, Fred C. Smith of Detroit. Burial was in the Ridgeway cemetery.

Among those attending the services were Mrs. Anna Morse, Lillian Cannon, Bertha LaPointe, Mrs. La Rue Hoagland, Mrs. Kenton Hunt, Enna Whaley, Mrs. Norman McConnell, Mrs. Fay Anderson, Edith Schull and Mrs. Edna Codling.

Marilyn Babcock Marries Harold Gibson Saturday

Marilyn Babcock and Harold M. Gibson were married by the Rev. Walter Damberg of Macon Saturday afternoon.

The ceremony was performed in their newly-furnished home at 11064 Tecumseh-Macon Road before an arrangement of palms, lighted candelabra and white pompoms.

The immediate families and a few close friends attended.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Russell Babcock of Dundee and the late Mr. Babcock and Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson of Ridge Rd., Tecumseh are the bridegroom's parents.

The bride was lovely in a beige lace sheath, with brown fur trimming and wore a matching fur hat. She carried an arm bouquet of white orchids.

☆

HER ONLY attendant, Mrs. William Kuehmann of Milwaukee, Wis., wore a rose-colored sheath and carried an attractive arrangement of antherium lilies.

The groom was attended by his brother-in-law, Clarence Schroeder of Britton.

Mrs. Schroeder acted as hostess.

After the ceremony a dinner was served by Mrs. Walter Murphy of Clinton.

The linen-covered buffet table was centered with a beautiful wedding cake baked by Mrs. Fern Morse.

☆

MRS. DON SCHEID of Bay City served the punch.

The wedding cake was cut by Josephine Fotjik of Dundee and Pat Holcomb, also of Dundee, presided at the coffee urn.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson left on a short wedding trip to New York City.

They are both employed at the Tecumseh Products Co.

Outdoor Day Ends Course

Girl Scout leaders enjoyed an outdoor day Nov. 18 at the sixth tee of the Country Club.

It climaxed a leadership training course which was conducted during the past two weeks by Mrs. Clifford Knudson and Mrs. Melvin Purple.

Mrs. H. M. Kemp from Michigan Center, who is the Jackson Council first aid trainer, and Mrs. Francis Metz, Jackson Council crafts trainer were present.

Mrs. Kemp instructed the leades in first aid, hiking, camping and fire building.

Following a lunch cooked out of doors the afternoon was spent at the Scout Cabin where Mrs. Metz instructed the ladies in crafts.

Mrs. Eva Filigno Buried on Monday

Funeral services were held Monday at Corkery Funeral Home for Mrs. Eva May Filigno of Manchester Township who passed away Saturday at the Herrick Memorial Hospital where she had been a patient since Wednesday.

SCHOOL TOWELS THAT FLY IN THE BREEZE

Have you seen Tecumseh High School towels flying in the breeze at private homes? Well, we have and we wonder!

The school furnishes these towels to the pupils, a clean one each day, at a cost of approximately 1c per day and parents and pupils understand that these towels are school property and are not to be taken home.

Sure they make nice souvenirs!

However, when enough disappear some pupils must go without, for our schools do not have the money to replace them.

We are attempting to gather in the spoils, so to speak, and trust that if you, as a parent, are flying our towels in the breeze that you return them regardless of whether your child has graduated or is still in school.

Only some 250 towels out of 1,500 have disappeaed in four years, but it would sure help if they were returned. Please send our wandering towels back to school.

☆

AT MEETINGS of Patterson and Tecumseh Acres PTA there was considerable discussion of the lunch programs in the city.

The hot lunch program was inaugurated for the specific purpose of serving the children who live more than one mile from the school and are therefore, by a vote of the electors of this school district, entitled to transportation to school.

No restrictions were made as to whom might be served by the lunch program and already parents of city children have swamped the program by allowing their children to stay for lunches.

We cannot possibly serve and supervise adequately, this large number of pupils.

The problem of Special Non-Educational Services to pupils through our schools must receive careful consideration by all Boards of Education.

Actually much of the present increased cost in our own school district has come through these special services such as hot lunch, health, transportation, and textbook rental.

Our Board of Education has always considered both the welfare of the children and their total educational needs in making decisions concerning special services.

The Board spent considerable time over the weekend in considering the problem.

Here is the solution:

CHILDREN WHO MAY REMAIN IN THE SCHOOL BUILDINGS FOR LUNCH INCLUDE:

1. All elementary bus pupils.
2. All elementary pupils having a physical defect presenting a statement from a medical doctor that said child cannot walk home and return in an hour and a quarter without injury to the child's health.
3. All elementary children whose parents are employed through the noon hour and present/a statement from their employers that neither can be at home from 12:30 P.M. to 12:50 P.M. during school days.
4. Early elementary pupils, grades one through three, living more than seven-tenths of a mile from school.

College Student Tells about Migrant Work

Mrs. E. H. McConnell presented Rene LeDesma, an Adrian college student, who spoke to the members of the First Baptist Women's Society Monday evening.

He gave a challenging message of his summer's work on the Lenawee Migrant Staff among the more than 1,200 migrant workers in the County. He also presented pictures.

Next year's migrant budget should be between $2,000 and $2,500 besides the contributions as made by County churches as well as quantities of good used clothing, bedding, new and as good as new toys, Bibles, good books and hand painting supplies.

Money from church groups should be sent to Mrs. E. H. McConnell, appointed from the Lenawee County churches as the migrant chairman.

Other gifts should be taken to the Rev. Virgil Oyer, 512 French St., Adrian who is the director of migrant work sponsored by the county ministerial association.

Mrs. Ben Antrobus, president, spoke of the privilege of having Mr. LeDesma as dinner guest and of his plans to continue his education and return to his homeland of Mexico as a missionary.

☆

DURING THE meeting Mrs. Antrobus announced three scheduled dinners for December. Members were asked to contact Mrs. Richard Lask for stationery with picture of the local church.

Members were reminded to send cards to Mrs. Lee Prettyman, Mrs. Dow Bilby, Mrs. Neil DePuy, Mrs. Ernest Van Vleet and Mrs. Harry Derr.

Thanks were given to the members for assisting with rummage and bake sale of the North Rome ladies, proceeds to go to pay for their new furnace.

A letter of thanks was read from Mrs. Virginia Camacho of Imlay City for the large box of clothing packed and sent to her family of five children. A letter from Florence Latter was read.

Dec. 5 is the Baptist Women's Day of Prayer.

MRS. VERN MANWARING, Mrs. Antrobus, Mrs. James Danforth, Mrs. Orville Bishop accompanied by Mrs. Vern Brown sang the years theme song, "Unto the Hills."

A love gift of $48.55 was received and dedicated.

Mrs. George Welti, Association Women's treasurer, and Mrs. Harold Kingsbury, Women's president, both of Temperance were introduced along with other guests and Mrs. Kingsbury gave the prayer of benediction.

Tasty refreshments were served from a lace-covered table centered with an arrangement of fall flowers by Mrs. Garland Gove and her committee.

Mrs. Lela Rathbun and Mrs. Hugh Walters poured.

Mrs. Carl Kempf will be hostess chairman for the December meeting with Mrs. Ruth Prettyman having devotions.

High light of the evening will be the auction for Mather school with the now "famous" auctioneer, Mrs. Eddie Kirkland.

Graveside Services Held for J. Junkin

Graveside services at Brookside Cemetery were held Nov. 19 for John P. Junkin, first cousin of the late Don Wright. The Rev. Frank Hawthorne officiated.

Mr. Junkin was a resident of Minneapolis, Minn and passed away there. He was 78-years-old.

He is survived by one son in Minneapolis and a daughter in New York City.

Arrangements were made by the Corkery Funeral Home.

Social Security Tax Rates Rise, So Do Benefits

Social security tax rates will go up January 1, 1959, but so will benefits, reminds Everett M. Elwood, extension farm management specialist at Michigan State University.

Employer and employee rates will be 2½ per cent each. Rates for self employed persons will be 3¾ per cent.

Also beginning with the first of the coming year, earnings up to $4,800 will count toward social security benefits.

Elwood says that other changes have been made that farm people will want to check. Among these is an amendment that will allow certain dependents to disabled workers to become eligible for benefits.

Work requirements for disabled people over 50 have been liberalized. Previously these persons needed to meet two requirements:

1. Must have worked under social security for at least five out of the last 10 years before becoming disabled.

2. At least a year and a half of their work under social security must have been during the three years just before they become disabled.

This second requirement has now been removed.

More complete details about the changes in the social security program may be obtained from the local social security office located at County Building, Jackson.

Farm Business Can Write Off Additional 20%

Although many changes were made in the federal income tax law this year, only a few of these changes affect farmers.

A farm business can now elect to write off 20% of the cost of tangible personal property in the year it was purchased.

This 20% is in addition to the regular depreciation on the balance. It also applies to used as well as new property acquired after December 31, 1957, for use in the business.

This 20% depreciation is limited to tangible personal property subject to depreciation and costing not more than $10,000 (or $20,000 on a joint return), with a remaining useful life of at least six years.

Property obtained from relatives does not quality.

The extra 20% depreciation is computed without taking in account the salvage value.

The second change permits a net operating loss to be carried back three years and forward five years. This change begins with 1958. Before, net operating losses could only be carried back two years and forward five years.

Might Pay Farmers To Sell Wheat Now

Wheat prices in Michigan are approaching the level where it will pay some farmers to sell their wheat and repay their price support loans.

That word comes from John Ferris, farm economist at Michigan State University.

Buyers were offering farmers around $1.80 a bushel in early November for white wheat. This is about 15 cents above harvest prices and slightly above the "effective" loan rate in most major wheat counties, points out Ferris.

The "effective" loan rate, the economist explains, is the announced loan rate for the county minus storage costs to March 31, the maturity date for government loans.

Commercial storage costs between November and March will average about 7 cents a bushel, Ferris says. And with support rates in major wheat areas ranging from $1.79 in Huron county to $1.89 in Berrien county, the effective support rate for November would be from $1.72 to $1.82 per bushel.

Through My Window

SMALL, BUT NOT FOR LONG!

Not long ago, we started an exciting adventure of "squirrel-gazing." It was the first Friday of mother's vacation, we were enjoying a noon cup of tea when we noticed two incredibly bright eyes peering down through the window at us.

There, at the tip-end of a branch in the wren-tree, peeking out from behind a clump of withered leaves, which were stubbornly holding out against their enevitable falling, was a little brown triangular face.

It was a squirrel.

When, in a few moments, he moved back to a barer spot on the limb, we were thrilled to see that it was just a baby.

Well, not baby in the tiny, helpless sense, but it was the smallest squirrel we had ever seen, and thus, our reason for calling it the baby. It was about half-grown and so cute.

We laughed at his long bushy tail and decided that it would take quite a while for the youngster to grow up to it.

When the baby came up to the feeder, we were thrilled all over again—a little brown bundle of fur, he was just the right size to hold in one's hand. He looked so soft and cuddly.

☆

BUT I AM getting ahead of myself, because before coming to the feeder, the baby squirrel and his brother put on quite a show in the tree.

Oh yes, there were two of them—we had watched the first one for only a few minutes before the other youngster came tiptoeing into view.

From their size, the second was only a bit larger than the first, and from their actions it was obvious that the two squirrels were siblings and not very old ones at that.

As the squirrels went from limb to limb, giving the tree a thorough inspection, it for all the world looked as if this were one of their first outings and they were going to be sure not to miss anything.

Such curiosity. Their sensitive little noses were poked into every nook and cranny; what couldn't be smelt was felt with their small amazingly hand-like paws.

☆

AS THEY prowled through the tree their paths often crossed and here we had a good indication of their youth.

When two adult squirrels meet there is practically always a "bristling up" and the challenge ends with one chasing the other away.

Not so with our babies—time and time again they passed each other on the same limb without showing the slightest concern.

The feeling of family was still strong enough so that each took the other for granted.

Exploring a tree for the first time must be great fun. In their anxiety to see everything the babies often ventured far, far out on frighteningly small branches.

It was almost as if they were crawling on twigs and as their precarious footings bent dangerously low, we often held our breath for fear of a fall. Fortunately no such mishap occurred. Oh, there were occasional slips but nothing serious.

In the excitement of having a good time it was hard to remember about being careful.

When the pace became too fast, a little foot was put down without due care or caution and the baby stumbled.

In a flash they regained their balance and were off again. Since it was never serious, we enjoyed watching their little mistakes.

☆

TIRING OF their game, as all kids do, the squirrels left their tree in search of something new. One went over and along the creek bank and we saw him no more that day, but the other came up towards the feeding station.

Now all the while the youngsters had been tree climbing, Mamma squirrel had been at the feeder. Never had we ever had two squirrels eating at once, but as Junior crawled up the post and scrambled onto the food tray, Mamma only moved to one side a little.

For some time they ate together—she busy on one side of the feeder at the corn and he on the other munching sunflower seeds.

All went well 'til the baby decided that he too wanted some corn. Sharing the feeder was one thing but sharing an ear of corn was quite another.

The second that the baby left his side of the feeder and started for the other, he was driven off. Mamma certainly wasted no time in giving Junior a lesson in respect for his elders.

☆

SINCE THEIR first visit, the two young squirrels have been daily visitors. It is amazing how fast they are growing up.

No longer do they make childish missteps in the trees; they are as sure-footed as any of their peers.

Unfortunately, as they grow older, there is a weakening of the family ties; when meeting each other on the ground or in a tree there is not the friendly feeling that there used to be—there have, in fact, been several rip-roaring chases.

The one thing that hasn't changed is their appetite. My, how they can eat. Although still small, it is apparent from the way they gorge themselves on sunflower seeds and corn that they don't aim to stay small for long.

Sees Picture, Gets Out Oils and Brushes

When Mrs. Kenneth Ross was reading a recent issue of The Herald she noted a picture (at left) that began her thinking. "That might look good in oils," she mused to herself.

In short order, out came canvas, brushes and oils.

A few days later, Mrs. Ross walked into The Herald and casually asked Tom Riordan, who made the original photograph, "How would you like to see your picture in oil?"

The Herald lensman was extremely pleased and immediately wheeled out the Speed Graphic to record artist and painting together (at right).

Mrs. Ross began painting in 1953 when she enrolled in an adult education class at Tecumseh High School.

She now is studying under Russell Steinke, the Tecumseh artist who holds sessions in the old Schneider Bros. building.

COUNTING AUDIENCES

In a theatre you count the admission tickets and you know how large your audience is. For television audience counts you have a problem that is colossal. There are polls of many types, but basically they depend upon a law of average to get a total figure. Advertisers aren't always satisfied with these counts; any poll based on averages have loop holes for error.

However, now they're experimenting with a tiny built in transmitter which would send back a signal giving the station number and time. If this is successful, all new TV sets would have the device added.

Our customer count at COOK ELECTRIC has increased steadily, and we know that it is our quick and modern electronic equipment that pleases the folks. Phone 629-J for guaranteed service.

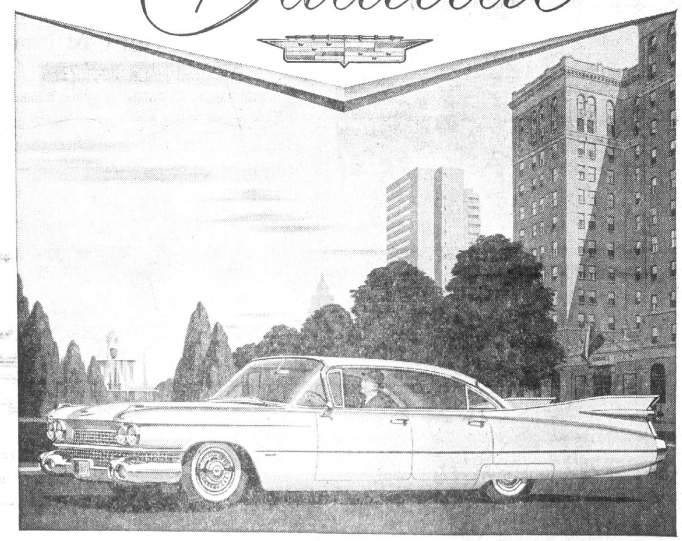
Cadillac



Even Newer from Behind the Wheel!

Odds are you've seen the new 1959 Cadillac by now—perhaps sweeping regally past you on the boulevard . . . perhaps making its majestic arrival at a fine club or hotel.

And odds are, too, that you've wondered if this 1959 "car of cars" could be as superlative in performance as it is in appearance.

Well, once you've found out for yourself, we think the truth will very likely amaze you. For this Cadillac is even newer from behind the wheel!

You will sense it, in fact, the moment you hear the whisper-quiet response of its great new engine.

And your sentiment will grow to conviction as you discover the other wonders of Cadillac's new performance . . . responsiveness so immediate and so silken in every driving range that it is difficult to believe . . . handling ease so remarkable that you follow the curves and corners with the lightest imaginable movement of hand and wheel . . . a quality of ride so smooth and level and quiet that even the byways travel like boulevards.

Indeed, the evidence will be overwhelming—a journey at its wheel is the world's most glorious interval between start and stop.

• • •

And the proof of all this is no farther away than your nearest authorized Cadillac dealer.

He'll be delighted to make you his guest—to explain the virtues of each of Cadillac's thirteen new Fleetwood-crafted models, including the fabulous new Eldorado Brougham—and to let you take the wheel for yourself.

Aid to Wildlife for Michigan Tops Million

Michigan will receive $1,029,575.76 in federal aid to wildlife programs during the present fiscal year.

The recent announcement from the Department of the Interior lists Michigan to receive $209,575.76 as its share of nearly $5,000,000 being distributed to states and territories under the federal Dingell-Johnson program.

D-J funds are collected from taxes placed on fishing tackle. States participating in the program can use the money for various programs of benefit to the fisherman.

One Michigan program using D-J money is the popular public fishing site acquistion project. More than 600 fishing sites throughout the state give Michigan anglers access to thousands of miles of stream and several hundred lakes.

Also, Michigan and Texas will each receive $820,000 under the Pittman-Roberrson program for aid to wildlife. These two states topped all others in the nation in the amount of federal and apportioned to them.

Under the D-J program, Michigan was third nationally in total amount receivable, behind California and Minnesota.

"TODAY IS THE PUPIL OF YESTERDAY"

"Miracle" drugs are not perfected overnight. In 1929 Dr. Alexander Fleming noted that Penicillium Notatum mould inhibited certain bacterial growth. It then took many more years to perfect it so that it could safely accomplish its wonderful work.

Millions of research dollars are spent on every new drug before it can be released for use. Often expected benefits do not occur and the money is entirely lost. Modern prescriptions can produce almost miraculous cures, but equally amazing is the fact that they cost so little for what they accomplish.

Medical Auxiliary Meets at Dustin's

Mrs. Ruth Dustin entertained about 30 members of the Lenawee County Medical Assistants Society Nov. 18.

A representative from Squibb and Sons presented a film on rheumatic heart.

This was followed by an informative question and answer period conducted by Dr. Sarapo, internist from Adrian.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Edwin N. Hannuia, president, and refreshments were served by the hostess in conclusion.

Mrs. Cole LaMaster Honored at Shower

Mrs. Harold Naser entertained at a shower honoring Mrs. Coleman LaMaster on Nov. 15.

Dessert was served at 1:30 and the afternoon was spent in playing cards.

Mrs. John Pobuda and Mrs. W. C. LaMaster were awarded prizes.

The honored guest received many lovely gifts.

Our Readers Write

(Editor's note: All opinions expressed in this column are solely those of the writers. This paper will always print communications from readers if they are signed and do not cross the boundries of good taste.)

To the Editors:

Tecumseh should really be proud of its school system and its council.

Everyone says "give the kids a break, they need more training in business and self reliance". We push programs of self assurance and independence.

Our FFA boys requested permission to graze some steers in corn fields near the dump and disposal plant. They tell me thirty five signers petitioned against it.

I believe the steer smell would have been a welcome change from disposal odor and the city dump stench and it would have helped the boys whose future is in agriculture to complete a project. The people said no. This is the big city. No animals here. Let the boys find a place.

My son is a member of FFA. For his project he chose ponies and was going to raise a colt and give pony rides as a project.

We have 2½ acres of commercial property (on which I have paid over $3,000.00 in taxes and assessments in the last two years) on which to operate his project.

But we also have a neighbor who lives in this commercial zone (but who also is a highly positioned officer in our public schools and hence should favor our boys and girls and their projects) who doesn't like to be bothered with ponies, dogs, cats or little boys and girls or their problems.

We took delivery of the ponies (two of them a welch mare and her colt) on Thursday nite Sept. 18th. On complaint of this neighbor the police officers were out Friday morning the 19th by 10 a.m. and informed us that we had to get rid of them because we were violating a city ordinance then in a few days they issued a warrant for my arrest and I plead not guilty before Justice French.

I was not guilty because our city ordinance plainly states that "no livestock shall be kept in a residential zone in the city of Tecumseh." This was not a residential zone.

However because of persistent pressure from certain School Board Members of our council I have been hounded to get rid of the ponies. I was told that if I beat the city (and the complainers) on this count they would issue a new warrant that the two ponies created a public nuisance and I'd still have to get rid of them.

(Editor's note: Mr. Handy is in error on this count as there are no school boardmen on Council.)

Well today I broke a couple of kid's hearts and sold the ponies at a loss (which I will make up to them) so I hope all concerned are happy.

However, I wonder how other people connected with the school board or related to the council can continue to not only keep horses but also raise colts and in strictly a residential area.

If I was a doctor or lawyer or school board or council member maybe it would be different and my kids could have kept their project for all the kids in this end of town to enjoy, but maybe they are better off running the streets.

Or maybe I should petition to start a gas station on my property. I understand that any competitive business can build anything except gas station.

Isn't it peculiar that the majority of our council members were owners, operators or connected with the gasoline business, when a recent request was turned down?

Personally, I am fed up with such two-faced, two-timing business, as we have going on in Tecumseh with special consideration of some but the - - - with the rest. And long live our kids to enjoy the freedoms and privileges we hear so much about.

Your truly
Lester Handy

To The Editors:

I do not know whether all of your readers are PTA members or not, but I do know that without a doubt 99% are parents and/or teachers, or grandparents and/or retired teachers! The rest only 1% are just tired!

I happen to be a member of the Patterson PTA and no finer group of parents and teachers and administrators can be found in this world I am sure of that—the results of this week's gathering is certainly consoling fact of the considerations and accomplishments of this group of people.

It is old-news to everyone who keeps in close contact with their children, schools and teachers that the Patterson School did have a problem causing much rightful concern of parents and inconveniences to teachers.

To give a brief picture of the problem to those who were unable to be present at this meeting and the consequences arrived at as the result of conclusions made:

1. Patterson school was built for not bussed pupils.

2. Patterson school last year consumed a few bussed pupils.

3. Patterson school this year contains many bussed pupils.

4. Patterson school this year because of the many bussed pupils offered hot lunch to these pupils who of course could not go home for their hot lunch.

5. Patterson school offered the lunch—to about 175 one week.

6. Patterson school next week found itself serving 300 with the same amount of help. (you know folks the money has not come in from the state yet—but the expenses are coming in everyday.)

7. Now as disturbances, inconveniences, naturally follow an arrangement with 300 children under foot with adequate facilities for only around 175 to be fed and watched, if this were (and IT IS you know) your business—what is the only sufficient answer?—of course, as the Patterson PTA concluded the Board may have their cooperation in deciding that the only the adequate thing can be done. Facilities are available for 175—it is absolutely insufficient, inadequate,—unsuitable to attempt to take proper care of 300.

Now then, the chairman asked for a show of hands, "all those who feel that the Board must decide which is adequate, (which is to feed only 175) raise their hands. — THE MAJORITY raised their hands — ABOUT 4-5 then raised their hands, with such questions as "my wife works all day, and I work all day and there is no one to care for the children, during noon, what can we do now? where can our children be with proper care? Is there a place where they can go with supervision?"

I went on record right here—as pointing out that all of we parents have trouble-problems without a doubt many there had the same problem — but this is the righ question — MUST THE TEACHERS BE BABY-SITTERS FOR THESE CHILDREN WHOSE PARENTS FAIL TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR THEIR OWN FAMILY PROBLEM?

THIS IS NOT THE PROBLEM OF OUR EDUCATORS OR SCHOOL BOARDS.

The majority of parents present proposed again the school serve only those children lunches who are not capable of getting home and whom (The school) is capable and has adequate facilities to serve the lunches to.

Respectfully,
Mary Lou Feight
(Mrs. James R. Feight)

To the Editors:

We wish to thank you for the splendid help you were in the past months and the excellent publicity you gave the tuberculin testing program which was recently held in the county.

Your readers might be interested in hearing that we tested 12,817 children; of these we found 179 positive reactors. The families of these children are being visited and brought in for chest x-rays.

The sponsoring agencies of this program take this means to express their apreciation to you, as well as, the registered nurses in your localities, also the school personnel and the many other helpers in the clinics who made this program the success that it was.

We never could have accomplished what we did without the help of these people who assisted the Doctors and the public health nurses in the various centers of the county.

Very truly yours,
Pearl M. Haist, R. N.,
Acting Director
Lenawee Co. Health Dept.

To the Editors:

My husband, the Rev. T. F. Wright, was rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church from about Sept. 1930 to February 1932 — so I thought some of the people there might be interested enough to purchase my books of poems "The Birth of Scouting," price $1.25.

There are about 77 poems on a great variety of subjects.

I am also managing editor of our local paper, "Three Sisters Clarion" (which is circulated in a good many more places than Canmore as we have a goodly number of out-of-town subscribers all across Canada with some in the United States, England, Europe and Hawaii.)

One of Calgary's daily papers interviewed me last week as someone on the staff had seen a copy of the book and the current issue of the paper and thought there might be a story behind it.

It was this that gave me the idea of writing to you as I naturally brought back memories of earlier days.

I wonder if Mrs. Elona Barber is still living there? I believe her husband's name was Clyde. I corresponded with her occasionally for some years after we left there.

Sincerely,
(Mrs. T. F. Wright)

To the Editors:

I am writing to clear up a misunderstanding that occurred on election day, at which time I served on the election board in Precinct Two.

During the afternoon, I made a phone call to a member of the Tri-Town Extension Club to give the names of Club members who had not yet voted.

This was done in an effort to achieve a club project of having 100 per cent representation at the polls.

This phone call was overheard and misinterpreted. I would like to make it clear that the intent of this call was strictly to get out the vote.

Perhaps it was not good judgment for me to have made such a call and in the future I will know better but, for the present, I hope this misunderstanding has been cleared up.

Most sincerely,
Nita M. Hart

1958 Huntsmen Bag Fewer Ring Necks

Pheasant hunters bagged more than one million birds for the sixth consecutive year this past season, according to state estimates based upon spot-checks and regional canvasses.

This figure represents an approximate 10% dip in hunter success as compared to last year's totals and refutes a preseason prediction that the kill would remain unchanged.

Early surveys indicated an increase in the state's pheasant supply. Unharvested corn fields at the season's onset and dry weather made hunting difficult, however.

WE STICK TO OUR LASTS

There was a time when pharmacists often were called "Doc."
Doubtless it was a complimentary gesture.

Even in this late day, the pharmacist frequently is asked to diagnose and prescribe by his customers.

But like the shoemaker, we pharmacists stick to our own lasts. We neither diagnose nor prescribe. These health team functions fall within the special province of physicians both by law and professional training.

As a member of the health team, we are an intermediary, serving both the doctor and the patient. Our job is to compound your prescriptions carefully and promptly.

Have Car, Will Travel

Have car, will travel—regardless of the weather!

That probably comes close to describing the philosophy of many of the millions of Americans who drive cars.

In summer, their driving job is fairly easy — roads are free of such hazards as snow and ice, windshields usually are clear, and it's light during all of the morning and evening rush hours when workers are on their way to or from office or factory.

In winter, though, things are a whole lot defferent behind the wheel, according to the National Safety Council.

Many motorists, lulled into confidence by a summer free of ice and snow, may find themselves unprepared these next few weeks for the added dangers of winter driving.

☆

NOT YOU we're talking about, you say?

Well, maybe not. Maybe you are up on the finer points of winter driving. If so, you probably know the answers to such questions as:

1. If my car starts to skid on glare ice, what should I do? (Keep your foot off the brake and steer in the direction of the skid.)

2. Is there any way to stop quickly on icy pavement? (No —but a fast pumping of brakes will stop you the quickest and let you keep control.)

3. How fast should I drive in winter? (That depends — remember it takes you 12 times as far to stop.)

☆

THE COUNCIL'S Committee on Winter Driving Hazards, which has made on-the-spot studies of how to go on ice and snow, gives these six tips to motorists:

1. Winterize your driving techniques and your determination to avoid accidents, as well as your car.

2. Make sure your car has good tires — preferably snow times—and use reinforced tire chains for more severe conditions. Even with the help of snow tires or tire chains, slower-than-normal speeds are a must on snow and ice.

3. Keep windshield and windows clear. Make sure your wiper blades, heater and defroster are working properly. While your car's warming up in the morning, take a couple of minutes to clear all the windows — including the rear window—of snow and ice.

4. When you're out on the road—but away from traffic — try your brakes gently to get the feel of the road.

5. Don't follow other vehicles too closely. Remember, it takes up to 12 times further to stop your car on ice and snow as it does on dry pavement.

6. Best technique for stopping on winter roads—and still keeping full control of your car —is a fast up-and-down pumping of your brakes.

Jaycee Auxiliary Sends Child to Camp

Twelve members of the Jaycee Auxiliary voted to donate $70 to the Crippled Children Association last week, to send one child to camp for two weeks.

Mrs. William Davenport was hostess for the meeting assisted by Mrs. Richard Gartee.

The December meeting was cancelled.

The Jan. 28 session will be held at the home of Mrs. Jerry Brancheau.

Guests were Mrs. Carleton Cook and Mrs. Earl Baldwin who gave a demonstration on Christmas decorations. Each member of the group made a "kissing ring."

ROOKIE INTERCEPTS — Detroit Lions freshman defensive back Dave Whitesell snatched a Packer pass Thanksgiving Day and was off and churning. After a nice runback, Whitesell was smacked out-of-bounds in a typical pro football rock-bone tackle. Lions won, 24 to 10, on a field nearly frozen from bitter cold. Nearly 51,000 attended.

Rock-Bone Tackles

When nearly 51,000 football fans brave zero temperatures to watch a couple of teams completing their poorest years, you might wonder why.

Don't fret too long over the puzzler.

This is the wonderful world of professional football, which orbits in a universe all its own.

Detroit's once-proud Lions were entertaining the hapless Green Bay Packers Thanksgiving morning in Briggs Stadium.

Both crews had been longsince eliminated from the championship race, but as the hometown gladiators sprinted onto the near-frozen gridiron, there were thousands of hearty voices to give them a warm welcome.

The day was one of the coldest this season, a time when most of these folks should have been curled up before their fire places. But can you ever imagine a Lions' fan staying home when his favorite gridders are in town?

☆

TALK ALL you want about college spirit and old school ties. These pale when compared with the dyed-in-wool pro followers—especially those of the Detroit variety.

It has been that way for years, come championships or not.

There wasn't an awful lot to shout about in the game with the Packers even though the Lions won, 24 to 10. Neither club was sharp by pro standards — missing passes, running sluggishly.

But there were the inevitable rock-bone blocks and tackles, things that never cease to that thrill the grid fan—and that's apparently why Lions games are so well attended.

The Herald photographer enjoyed the game immensely, dodging an occasional hurdling body, but managing to stay healthy.

☆

APPARENTLY, one of the things which keeps the pro athletes in reasonably good health is their ability to fall, letting the momentum of their tumble expend itself.

That's why when a hord charges out-of-bounds the play oftens carries half a dozen yards beyond the sidelines. This makes it especially exciting for the boys attempting to get pictures and pull out all at the same time.

The Lions finished out of contention this year, but probably next fall they'll be right back in the thick of things.

Certainly, their ever-loyal followers will be on hand week after week to see them and football at its best.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

REGARDING THE 1959 RAMBler being given by Tecumseh merchants—you do not have to be present to win.

In fact, you don't have to be present to be awarded any of the many valuable prizes being given by local merchants.

And here's another addition to the list:

Osborne's Dept. Store — $10 gift certificate.

Free chances on the Rambler and other items can be obtained in 43 places of business in Tecumseh.

☆

MANY YEARS AGO — Almost too long ago to recall—it was my job to take pictures at Detroit Lions football games.

In those days, the photographers all carried full-size press cameras, some had the long snouted Big Berthas. Everything had to be big and bulky.

If anyone would have showed up with a 35mm, he'd probably be hooted off the gridiron. As mentioned, that was some time back.

Thanksgiving Day, I paid a return visit to Briggs Stadium to do a little photo work. The thing which gave me a bigger jolt than the cold or the thud of beast against beast was the cameras just about everyone sported.

Almost to a man, the lads had miniature models dangling about their necks, some with giant-range telephoto lens.

A chuckle to myself was in order and I indulged. Not at these fellows, but rather at the evolution in news photography.

The tiny camera with its fast yet fine-grain film and penetrating lens has won over the newsmen to a great extent because in many instances he can get more exciting results.

This is progress and the reader, who appreciates the unusual in his pictures, is the one who gains.

☆

PROBABLY THE MOST-STATed comment after all the Thanksgiving weekend travel: "It was fun being away, but it's certainly good to be back in our own little home."

Which proves of course, none of us are getting any younger and care to stay too far, too long.

☆

A NOTE MONDAY REALLY warmed all of us at The Herald. It came from Mrs. Will E. Allen in Detroit, a former Lenawee County resident for 70 years.

"So I am sending my $4 for my 65th year.

Youth, 21 Is Buried Saturday

One-time outstanding Tecumseh High School athlete Thomas Neitling was buried in Brookside Cemetery Saturday.

Services for the 21-year-old youth were held in St. Elizabeth's Church with the Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Collins officiating.

News of the young man's murder at the hands of his Hillsdale College room mate the day before Thanksgiving shocked Tecumseh residents.

Born Oct. 27, 1937 in Chesaning, Tom is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Neitling and a brother Jim, all of 300 Island Dr.

As a Tecumseh High School student, Tom starred in football and basketball, being elected captain of the grid team in 1954.

He was also active on the Student Council and Varsity Club.

Entering Hillsdale College after his graduation in 1955, he transferred to Adrian College at the end of his first semester.

He made the Adrian grid team in 1957, working himself from third to first string quarterback.

In the first contest he started, his leg was broken in the opening half, ending his sports career there.

This fall, he again entered Hillsdale and was on the grid squad, along with his room mate, Pat Flannery, a freshman from Berkley.

The pair lived over a campus malt shop, working off a portion of their rent by cleaning up the business place.

The Tuesday night before Thanksgiving, the Flannery boy admitted being in a group which was drinking beer. When he returned to the malt shop, he saw Tom and others mopping. To avoid work, he climbed to a second floor window on a ladder.

☆

HE DISCOVERED all his clothing had been moved into the hall. Going downstairs, he complained to the others, then went up to bed.

Later in the room he argued with Tom, but the pair finally went to sleep.

About 3 a.m., the Flannery youth woke up and began to brood about the practical joke. He snatched up Tom's shotgun and struck his room mate's head until he was dead.

Taking Tom's car he drove almost to Detroit, caught a bus the rest of the way and confessed to police there.

Funeral arrangments were made by Collins-Corkery Funeral Home and bearers were LeRoy Betzoldt, Doyle Bumpus, Dennis Farley, Ritchie Davis, Douglas Hooten and Joseph Gregory.

Planning To Give Help to Needy at Christmas?

Does your club or organization plan to help needy families this Christmas?

Or do you know of someone who might need assistance?

First of all, contact the Tecumseh Service Club, an agency of the Community Chest, which coordinates this type of charity.

In the past, much more has been accomplished if the Service Club has this information and all assistance has been cleared through the group.

In this way several organizations will not be helping the same family.

The group welcomes the reporting of needy families for further investigation.

Information should be given to Mrs. F. S. Dickinson 217-J or Mrs. John R. Thompson 244-J.

An added convenience for the community is a room which is now available for the storage of used clothing.

The demand at this time is great for clothing of all sizes and the donation of such will be greatly appreciated.

The Service Club held the annual meeting Monday evening and officers were elected.

Mrs. F. S. Dickinson — president.
Mrs. Edna Codling — vice-president.
Mrs. Perry Hayden — secretary.
Mrs. Earl Roe — treasurer.

Pantry Shower for Nuns Planned

A pantry shower for the nuns at St. Elizabeth's will be held at the meeting of the Altar Society, December 10.

Mrs. Morgan Ford will be chairman for the Christmas sale to be held December 12 and 13 from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Christmas baked goods, aprons and other holiday articles will be sold.

Second in Series

Tecumseh Methodists will hear the second in the series of Advent sermons by the pastor Sunday.

Council Discusses Trading Property

By JIM LINCOLN

Sale of a city lot and trading of another with the U.S. government highlighted Council meeting Monday night.

James Spooner of Butler Motor Sales approached the city body about buying what is now the used car lot for the auto agency.

He said the agency was willing to pay in the vicinity of $4,000 plus trading two smaller lots. The land wanted is 100x100 feet, slightly larger than the present used car lot, and the agency's two lots included in the deal are located in what is largely the city parking lot behind the Strand Theater.

Mr. Spooner said that without acquisition of the lot, or an acceptable lease, the agency would probably leave its downtown site and move to property next to Partridge Implement at the corner of Occidental and Chicago Blvd.

The post office department asked council about trading the park across from city hall for the parking lot behind Adrian Federal Savings and Loan.

Purpose is to erect a new post office building on the Chicago Blvd. lot in the future.

Council deferred action, discussing other city park possibilities and the evaluation of the two lots.

☆

RAY G. SCHLEGEL, former councilman, was returned to office to fill the unexpired term of Dr. William Britton, who resigned. A technicality prevented his appointment at the previous meeting.

Councilman Donald Purkey questioned Police Chief George Kilbourn about some of the clubs in town staying open after 2 a.m. The chief said clubs violating the hours would be turned into the liquor commission office at Detroit.

Discussion was held about insialling a sewer line to the Jones Sealing Company on Occidental Rd. The line will run across the Partridge Implement lot.

George Elliott was selected to replace Perry Cook on the city's electric board.

Newest Citizen in Town

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Tecumseh's newest citizen is black-haired Park Kyung Hee — better known as "Amy Jo," the name her new parents have given her.

Sgt. Dean Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verdi Skinner was stationed in Korea, when he found the little Korean girl in a native orphanage outside of Seoul last January.

She was slowly starving from the barley diet fed to her three times each day.

Sgt. Skinner told his wife back home in Tecumseh and they decided to adopt the baby. He arranged for her transfer to an American orphanage in Seoul until they could return to the U.S.

The orphanage adoption program is supervised by Harry Holt, a native of Oregon, who prepared the papers for the Skinners.

Between 40 and 80 children are adopted each month through this program.

☆

AMY JO had been abandoned and living in the orphanage about six months when Sgt. Skinner found her and he believes her to be about 2½ years old.

It was decided that her birthday will be May 5, the same as the date on her adoption papers.

Because of distance Sgt. Skinner was only able to see his shy little daughter once a week, on Sunday. She soon learned to know her new dad and came to him readily the day they started their 10,000 mile flight for home.

Now the delightful little girl, though still shy, is blooming with good health and the affection which her adoring parents provide so abundantly.

Many good wishes went with the Skinners as they left by car Sunday for Fort Lewis, Washington where the sergeant will report for duty.

DO YOU PEMEMBER BOB Warren who served as editor of The Herald during the time Marjorie Wickwire operated the paper?

Bob and his wife, Elizabeth, are publishers of The Brown City Banner, an extremely well-produced weekly.

In his column last week Bob had a cute little squib:

"To err is human—but when you wear out the eraser before the pencil, you're overdoing it."

While on the subject of newsmen, over in Blissfield, the paper's owner Duane DeLoach is pretty happy.

His brother, Hollis, is coming home for a vacation—from his duties as a petroleum engineer in Baghdad, where he's employed by an Arabian government owned company.

Last August all American dependents were ordered to the States and that's the last time the family of Hollis has seen him.

His wife and children came to Blissfield to make a temporary home—you see, the family really enjoys life in Baghdad.

Sometime they hope to go back. But for now, everyone is looking forward to Mr. DeLoach's arrival, which will come at Christmas. What could be more appropriate?

Kohler Chosen Board Chairman

Glenn Kohler was elected chairman of the Herrick Memorial Hospital Board of Trustees at the group's November meeting.

He replaces Clarence Gilman, who had served in the capacity for eight years. Mr. Gilman remains a member of the Board.

Perry Satterthwaite was chosen vice-chairman and Harold Easton, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Kohler had been vice-chairman previously, while Paul Hohenstein was the third officer.

Italian Street Festival Features Pizza Dinners, Strolling Troubadours

Meat and cheese pizza and spaghetti dinners will be served after customers have been seated by the maitred hotel, James Bashore.

Diners will be entertained with music by strolling troubadours.

Unusual baskets, jams, jellies and candies wil be sold in the various booths beneath a gayly decked canopy.

You Told Us

BY DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

"Deck the halls with boughs of holly" and so preparations begin in Tecumseh for the holiday season commemorating the birth of Christ.

Workmen put the finishing touches on main street Monday. Each rope of green and big red bell is hanging in just the right place and letters crossing the intersection proclaim to one and all the "Season Greetings."

Inside the homes the bustle begins for the happy time when sons and daughters come home. The C. B. Brock family is expecting its oldest son, Peter, about Dec. 13. This will be his first furlough since joining Uncle Sam's armed forces. He is now with a construction group in Louisiana.

The Brocks entertained Thanksgiving day. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Graham Brock and son from Detroit and Barry, middle man in the family, was home from Michigan State for the weekend.

√

The Ed Leighton family enjoyed Thanksgiving at the home of daughter, Maxine Ernst and her family, near Macon. Guests besides Mr. and Mrs. Philip Futscher of Chelsea, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Townsend from Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hodges.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oberlin and family accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Oberlin, visited his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Oberlin, in Winfield, Pa. The latter is on the coaching staff at Bucknell University at Louisburg.

√

Guests in the F. S. Dickinson home Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lang and family from Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Sebring and family. Eighteen were seated for dinner.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Waldron were in Crawfordsville, Indiana for the holiday visiting their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Munn.

√

Mrs. C. A. Barber has received word of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Taylor of Marion, Indiana. Mrs. Taylor if the former Caryl Hanna of St. Joseph and is the granddaughter of Mrs. Barber. Congratulations to great grandmother Barber.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Robert King and family entertained Mrs. Robert King, Sr. overnight and for dinner Thursday at their home.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Easton entertained her family Thanksgiving. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gillespie and Mr. and Mrs. George Van Camp, Jr. and son.

WE'RE COMING—Mr. and Mrs. Don Murphy (right) purchase their ticket for the annual Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary holiday ball, this year entitled "Golden Fantasy" from Mrs. Harold Easton. It's Saturday evening at Tecumseh Country Club with the Rhythmaires providing music.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kempf, Lillian Owen, Mary Curran of Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Llewelyn Sisson, Priscilla Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Sisson and family were guests in the Clifford Curran home Thanksgiving.

√

Both Dr. Richard Hammel and his sister, Irene from Kalamazoo, were successful in getting their deer this year. They with Mrs. H. H. Hammel were hunting at Hubbard Lake near their cottage.

United Fund Now $173,048

Lenawee County United Fund reached $173,048 or 107.2% of its $161,379 County goal, announced Harry L. Spencer, general campaign chairman.

Since the Victory Dinner meeting on Nov. 12, Mr. Spencer stated, $2,474 has been collected in a mopping-up operation.

"We are most happy for these results," he remarked, "as it is now possible for all local, County, State and National agencies serving our area to receive their fully approved budgets for the 1959 program year."

The County Fund Board of Directors at its Dec. 17 meeting will determine the final analysis and distribution of funds.

Cisco Pops in 17 as Hoopsters Win

By JIM LINCOLN

Despite being rusty from the '58 football campaign, Tecumseh High cagers opened the basketball season with an easy 61 to 31 victory over Clinton.

Coach Vic Lawson's team bumps into visiting Hillsdale here Friday night in a league encounter. The visitors are reputed to have one of the strongest fives in the league this year.

The Indians so outclassed Clinton Wednesday night of last week that the game was hardly a contest. The clash inaugurated Clinton's new gym.

Dan Cisco, playing his first game wearing a Tecumseh uniform, topped scorers of both teams with 17 points, nine of which came in the Indians' big 19-point second quarter.

Tecumseh's fast break after the half netted 18 points to Clinton's three. Bob O'Neill, veteran forward from last year's fine squad, totaled eight points in the third period and finished the game with 14.

Coach Lawson used his entire varsity in the game with players hitting the scoring column.

Three of them — O'Neill, Larry Yoakum, and Steve Kruger —are returning regulars, and Cisco, 6-4 center, starred last year on Hudson's great team.

Jack Sisson stepped into one starting spot and scored six points.

Cliff Rogers with nine points and Bart Auito, seven, paced the Clinton scorers.

John Aho led the Tecumseh Jayvees with nine points and a 26 to 22 win in Wednesday night's first game.

He Learned the 'Why'

The timid, the quitter, the man who moaned, "It can't be done," had no place in the world of Charles F. Kettering.

"Boss Ket" was always happy to find out "why". Because of this trait and his God-given abilities as an inventor, the world around us is much better off.

But this great man, as are most great men, was a philosopher.

We'd like to bring you a few ideas Mr. Kettering once wrote. There're as vivid and as meaningful today as they were three years ago when he set them down on paper.

In another 30 years, they'll be just as true.

"Maybe you remember the old Pierce-Arrow Automobile Company in Buffalo, New York. It was a pretty fine company and it was putting out an equally fine car.

"In fact this car was so good, that when a survey was made of all their customers something like 98.5 per cent agreed that the next car they would buy would be another Pierce-Arrow.

"So these Pierce-Arrow engineers got the idea that they had made the best car there was and there was no use going any farther.

"Well, sadly to say, we all know what happened to this company. That satisfaction made them stand still.

"In a way I think this pitfall of satisfaction is the entrance to a rut. For example, when we hit upon a process that seems to work well enough, we tend to go on using it without any further effort to discover the limiting factors.

"I would say that to get things going we should not concentrate on the real big things which we cannot do; there are thousands ready to do great things for one ready to do small things.

"It is these small responsibilities that lead to bigger opportunities.

"The Japanese have an old proverb that expressed it nicely: A journey of a thousand miles begins with one step.

"Once we reach a milepost of our journey we may pause and enjoy thinking about the progress we have made. I think occasionally this is a good idea. It helps boost our pride in what we are doing; something we all need.

"But we should keep in mind, that once you get satisfied with what you have, the concrete has begun to set in your head."

Choirs Join Voices To Present Cantata

Methodist and Presbyterian choirs joined voices Sunday evening at the Methodist Church to render Roby Roy Peery's "Glory to God".

This was a Christmas Cantata for choir, soloists and organ.

Leslie M. Bennett directed the choirs and sang the tenor arias.

Bass soloist was Jay Thompson, director of the Presbyterian St. Andrews Choir.

Other soloists were Shelia Sprague and Susan Nichols.

The Solo Quartet was composed of Mr. Thompson, Edward Beal, Mrs. Arthur Schwartz, and Mrs. Fred Oberlin.

"Glory To God" follows the Christmas story as it is recorded in the Gospel of Luke.

The Methodist Asbury Choir will appear with the St. Andrews Choir at the Presbyterian Church Dec. 14 at 4 p.m. to present a second cantata.

The event last Sunday evening marked the opening of the season of Advent.

New TV Station Is on Channel 11

TOLEDO—Initial telecast from this city's new Channel 11 television station, WTOL-TV will be at 7 p.m. Friday.

The new station will open with a special inaugural program before joining the CBS television network for an opening night lineup that will include "Perry Mason," the "Jackie Gleason Show," "Phil Silvers," "Lineup" and Ed Murrow's "Person to Person."

Live local news and sports shows will be introduced at 11:00 p.m. and the finale for inaugural night will be the NBC Jack Paar show, another regular feature on Channel 11.

Students Surprise Sister with Shower

Students of St. Elizabeth School held a surprise pantry shower for the Sisters just before Thanksgiving vacation.

Canned goods, frozen food and cake mixes were among the gifts that were beautifully displayed on a large table centered with a huge cornucopia made by Mrs. Stella Dennis.

Autumn multi-colored ribbon streamers from the cornucopia to the table corners presented an extremely lovely effect.

Mrs. Gerald Henricks, second grade teacher, assisted by Mrs. Joseph Dziachan, Mrs. Leo Bishop and Mrs. Dennis had charge of the arrangements.

Report Is Given on Alma College at Gathering

"Sharing with this Nation and the World" was the theme of the program for the Womens Association of the First Presbyterian Church recently.

Those taking part were Mrs. Glen Van Vleet, Mrs. Norris Morehouse and Mrs. Al Williams.

Mrs. Arthur Schwartz sang "The Lord's Prayer."

During the business session letters were read from missionaries and a report was given on Alma College by Mrs. John Lott.

It was announced that some books have been ordered for the reading enjoyment of the ladies.

The hospital sewing quota has been received and Mrs. Harold Kempf will accept calls from those wishing to do the work.

Members will again sell Bower's candy and nut meats this year.

Mrs. E. J. Aebersold will donate the greens and trees to decorate the church for the Christmas season.

Mrs. Douglas Murdock conducted devotions and refreshments were served by Mrs. William Frownfelder, Mrs. Erwin Marsh, Mrs. Charles Osburn and Mrs. Gerald Roberts.

Everyone Honored at Birthday Party

A birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. ElRay Finnegan honored his father, George Finnegan, and his two aunts, Mrs. Ed Aleshire of Gibsonburg, O. and Mrs. Clifford Pate of Van Wert and four uncles, Floyd of Lattery, William of Melrose, Callie of Paulding, Ohio and Fred of Jonesville.

One uncle, Willis, of Paulding was unable to be present. Other guests were from Evans Lake and Norfolk, Va.

Junior Legion Baseball Team Feted at Dinner

Members of the Junior baseball team of the American Legion were honored at a dinner served Nov. 22 by the ladies of the Auxiliary under the chairmanship of the president, Mrs. LaVern Seizert.

John Harrison, coach, introduced the team and thanked the Post for the opportunity presented to the boys.

Mrs. Seizert presented the team with one dozen base balls on behalf of Taylor Spink, president and editor of the Sporting News.

The gift was given to honor the memory of Mrs. Seizert's brother, the late Oscar Ruhl, who was the associate editor of the publication.

Don Woods, chairman, accepted the gift for the team.

Walter Moore from Ypsilanti, 2nd District Jr. baseball chairman, and Fred Freye of Jackson, 2nd District committeeman, were introduced by the commander.

Consider Tri-County Group

Second meeting of Girl Scout Development Committee of Jackson, Hillsdale and Lenawee Counties elected Mrs. Frank Ames of Hudson as its permanent chairman and Mrs. Truman Rentschler of Tecumseh as secretary-treasurer.

The group is organized to study and make projected plans for a Council to include the three counties.

This plan is in keeping with the nationwide goal of Girl Scouts of the USA to cover all the United States with councils that touch each other, so that it will be possible for every girl to register through an organized chartered council.

In the trio there is one chartered council which serves all of Jackson County with the exception of Parma, a lone troop community.

Girl Scouts are registered as lone troops in Lenawee county in the communities of Addison, Onsted, Manitou Beach, Clinton, Tecumseh and Hudson.

In Hillsdale County they are the communities of Litchfield, Jonesville, Reading, Hillsdale, Jerome and North Adams.

The seventeen permanent members of the Development Committee are representative of the three county area.

☆

MRS. WYETH ALLEN of Ann Arbor a voluhteer member of the Regional VII committee of Girl Scouts of the USA and Theresa Burleigh of Chicago, Ruth Covey, Executive Director of the Jackson County Girl Scouts Council, is also assisting in an advisory capacity.

Representatives for this area serving on the committee are:

Mrs. Frank Ames—Hudson.

Mrs. Truman Rentschler—Tecumseh.

Mrs. William Meyer—Addison.

Mrs. Wayne Balliet—Clinton.

Mrs. Calvin Pawson—Onsted.

The committee will be meeting regularly between now and the end of February at which time the findings will be interpreted to all of the communities participating in the study.

Hillsdale and Litchfield are a part of this group, although there are no active troops in these groups at present.

Mark Smith son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith has been released from the Herrick Memorial Hospital.

GOOD EYE SIGHT, TOO.

This thing called TV Picture clarity is a subject that TV men soon discover various in the eye of the beholder. You wonder just what is a good TV picture and you must come up with some kind of definition for satisfactory servicing.

We think that it is a picture that you can watch for hours without tiring. Here are three things we watch for:

1. The noses on the actors. Are they shaded with light and dark areas. If they appear that you could grab them, your picture is good.

2. Garments on actresses should not appear flat. Each frill, pleat or whatever should have highlights to give it a three dimention look.

3. Back ground of setting should be in focus. Of course, here sometimes the studio cameras make mistakes or cannot get ranges quickly enough.

Our customers are satisfied with these kinds of pictures from COOK ELECTRIC. When you phone 692-J for services, you, too, will like them. Ask your neighbor about us.

. . . here to tell you about a wonderful new way to heat your home

THS Takes Part in Competition Among Debaters

ANN ARBOR—More than 1,200 Michigan high scoolers this week will begin debating the merits of the British educational system, as the 1959 competition of the Michigan High School Forensic Association opens in the Lower Peninsula.

More than 200 high schools, including Tecumseh, participate in the program, which is sponsored by The University of Michigan Bureau of School Services, Department of Speech, and The Detroit Free Press.

According to forensic manager M. L. Cubbage, students will participate in over 1,300 individually judged debates during 1958-59. Topic for the season is: "Resolved, That the United States Should Adopt the Essential Features of the British System of Education."

All schools participate in the equivalent of four debates at home and four away during the regular season, which ends with regional elimination tournaments in February.

John Babcock is the Tecumseh coach.

Pipeline Taxes Are Dropped Here

Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. will be paying slightly less in taxes to Tecumseh Township this year, states W. G. Waldron, supervisor.

Assessed valuation of the line which cuts through Tecumseh Township was dropped from $117,100 to $114,950 by the State Tax Commission.

Although the final effect here will not be great, in other areas, such as Riga Township, the loss in valuation will top $100,000 explains Mr. Waldron.

He states that this seems to be a state trend, whereby re-opening of assessed valuation for large properties have shown considerable decreases.

FOR ALL WE HOLD SACRED . . . ATTEND CHURCH !

FIRST SNOW

The first snow of the season! What excitement—what delight is written in her shining eyes! To her, the world has suddenly become a wonderland of white enchantment—a miracle.

A child accepts the miracle, and finds in it pure, unblemished joy. An adult finds it increasingly difficult to accept anything as miraculous—and his joys are dimmed by life's myriad complexities.

Yet, within every adult's grasp is the greatest miracle of all—the story of Christ and the message he left the world. This is the inheritance of every man and woman who will reach out to accept it. It waits for you . . . in the Church.

Go to church this Sunday. Discover, again, what Christ did for you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Through My Window

"MR. SHORT-EARS' AFTERNOON OF TROUBLES!"

That squirrels afford much, much looking pleasure we have always maintained. A few days ago, however, one put on a better than usual show.

Having put a small sunflower head on the feeding station, we anticipated a "red and blue" afternoon. As it turned out, a big squirrel, with amazingly short ears and an extremely long, bushy tail, beat the cardinals and bluejays to the feeder.

On this particular day, the sunflower head we had put out was smaller than usual, only about six inches in diameter.

The first thing we knew Mr. Short Ears had scrambled onto the feeder and was getting comfortably situated, anticipating I am sure a long liesurely meal.

Did you ever notice,, when a squirrel slouches down, how closely the curve of his back resembles an up-side-down question mark?

☆

CAREFULLY LOOKING over the bill-of-fare it took him only a moment to make up his mind and reaching over he picked up the sunflower head.

Settling back on his haunches and with a small hand on either side of the sunflower he held it up to his mouth and started eating.

It was such a human gesture; he looked like a wise little old man eating an ear of corn.

About this time a bluejay arrived and believe me he wasn't happy to see "his feeder" and "his food" being taken over by a squirrel.

Squawking ill-mannered protests and dive-bombing in long, low swoops did not have the desired effect. The squirrel was neither frightened or impressed.

Furious that his right to drive any diner away was not recognized, Mr. Jay retired to the roof of the house and continued to scream.

☆

EVIDENTLY, Mr. Short Ears was the nervous type or maybe, it was just that he preferred to eat in more peaceful surroundings; I'm sure he was not the least bit intimidated by the bluejays racket.

He did however, when the noise showed no signs of letting up, make motions toward leaving the feeding station.

What little triumph the bluejay might have felt when he noticed that the squirrel was going to leave was short lived. The squirrel had the last say because he took the sunflower head with him.

Over the side of the feeder and down the post he went; the sunflower, still full of seeds, firmly clasped in his mouth. Running across the lawn proved more difficult than coming head first down the post—although the sunflower head wasn't big as sunflowers go, it was quite a bundle for a squirrel to handle.

Either it was sticking up in front of his face and he couldn't see where he was going or it was hanging down, hitting the ground and getting mixed up with his front feet.

"Taking dinner with him" was a tough job, he had to make several stops to get a better hold on the sunflower head.

About half way between the feeder and the fence, apparently thinking that he was far enough away from the bluejay, he stopped to eat. I'm sure he did not realize that this was just the beginning of his troubles.

Just as the tip of Mr. Short Ear's bushy tail disappeared over the edge of the feeder, the bluejay stopped his shrill squawking; as the half blind, stumbling trek across the lawn was being made he was stomping around the feeder glaring at "his sunflower head" as it was being carried farther and farther away.

When the squirrel stopped to eat, Mr. Jay launched the second phase in his war of nerves. He left the feeder and gently glided down to a spot about 10 feet from the squirrel and just stood there staring.

☆

ROUND TWO went to the bluejay; the squirrel was beginning to show the strain of this cold war. After only a few moments of being stared at, he started across the yard again and finally came to a halt on the top rail of the fence.

He still had the prize sunflower head though so his "retreat under fire" was only strategic maneuvering.

The crafty bluejay was not about to lose his advantage however, and so up to the fence he followed the "enemy". This time though, he settled down only five feet from the squirrel.

Mr. Short Ears had apparently decided that this was the place to make a stand and for several minutes he tried to ignore the glaring bluejay.

Steeling himself against those black beady eyes, he tried so hard to continue his lunch with an air of nonchalance. But it was an impossible situation and in a last desperate show of defiance, he turned his back on the bluejay.

"Good for him!" from inside we cheered his effort.

For a while we thought that an impass had been reached; the bluejay was scowling, but the squirrel was eating. It just seemed though that this was not the squirrel's day. Those hostile, eyes grilling into his back were apparently too much and so, once again getting a secure hold on the sunflower head, he and "dinner" moved.

Down from the fence and across into Marsh's yard he went. Now the action really became fun to watch. The squirrel would run a little way and then have to stop for a short rest.

The bird flew down to the ground, hopped after the squirrel and stopped every time he did. It almost looked like a ridiculous game of follow-the-leader, but we knew that the players were in dead earnest, the stakes they were playing for were high —tasty sunflower seeds!

☆

JUST AS Mr. Short Ears reached the base of the big sprawling elm tree another squirerl appeared.

While he was chasing the bluejay away, our harrassed friend scrambled up the tree trunk and scurried out to a comfortable eating spot on one of the wide spreading lower limbs.

With the intervention of the second squirrel the bluejay gave up but as he flew away one last scream seemed to say, "Oh well, who wants an old sunflower anyway"?

As if in answer, the second squirrel began looking around and as soon as he spotted Mr. Short Ears, who by now was just starting to eat, up the tree he went. In the chase that followed the squirrels were up and down and around and around. It was a furious pace, great to watch.

Sometime in the fracas the sunflower fell to the ground. Several times Mr. Short Ears, thinking either that he had successfully eluded his new tormenter or that he had been driven off, came down the tree and headed for his lunch.

Each time the other squirrel came back however, and the chase was renewed. Finally by mutual consent a truce was called and with hardly a backward look of regret, both squirrels left the elm tree and went their separate ways.

The half eaten sunflower head, the cause of so much excitement laid rejected and untouched for the rest of the afternoon. It was good eating but it just wasn't worth so much trouble.

TO YOUR HEALTH!

This is much more than a popular toast to your pharmacist. Like your physician, he is dedicated to a single major cause —to keep you well and healthy.

The "ounce of prevention" adage is all important in preventive medicine. Annual physical examinations and prompt diagnosis of illness enable your doctor to save you precious time and money.

More and more people recognize the wisdom of regular medical checkups. It is the best way to put that "ounce of prevention" to practical use.

If a prescription is necessary, we are prepared to give you immediate service.

Tecumseh-Born Woman Dies

Tecumseh-born Mrs. Marjorie Bills Marsh, 73-years-old, passed away at her residence in Grosse Pointe Farms last week.

Born here Oct. 10, 1885, she married Benjamin R. Marsh, former president and chairman of the board of directors of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. in 1913.

They lived in Lansing from 1913 until 1917 at which time they moved to Grosse Pointe.

For a hobby she did silver-smithing, and taught this skill to veterans at a service Hospital in Detroit.

She organized the Michigan chapter of the British War Relief in WW II. In 1943, she christened the USS Marsh, a destroyer escort, named in honor of her son, Ensign Benjamin R. Marsh, Jr., who was killed on the Arizona at Pearl Harbor.

Her survivors include her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Winnifred Weyhing and Mrs. Frances Bergmann and a son, Richard B. Marsh, all of the Grosse Pointe-Detroit area.

Two sisters, Froline Burns of Tipton and Mrs. Marion Murphy of Tecumseh also survive

Burial was in Detroit.

Goodwill Can Use Discards

You will have a happier Christmas if you look through your closets now and send clothing you don't need to Goodwill Industries.

At Christmastime, many of us, busy with the season's festivities, are apt to forget that hundreds of handicapped men and women will be without work unless clothing and usable discards are sent to Goodwill.

There is no more appropriate time than now to remember Goodwill Industries. Its program of aid to physically handicapped men and women faces a cutback without a surge of discards.

Poinsettias Will Be Sold December 5, 6

The Mothers of World War II, Unit 44 of Manitou Beach will sell poinsettias Dec. 5 and 6 in the business section of Tecumseh with proceeds to be used for the residents of the Veteran's Hospitals.

At the present time there are 300 from the Korean Conflict, 1,000 from World War II and 600 from World War I at the Veteran's Administration Hospital at Fort Custer.

The Mothers volunteer their services not only at the Hospital at Battle Creek, but in eight other hospitals as well as in the local communities.

Ethel L. Brehmer of Manitou Beach says, "The need was never greater than at the present time. The residents, as they wished to be called not patients, have needs which are greater as they grow older. Some who were able to be at home, a part of the time become permanent 'residents.'"

The mothers will be on the street regardless of the weather and ask the support of the community in this volunteer work for the women and men who sacrificed so much during these world conflicts.

Letters Now Go Faster to City

Sweeping post office service improvements have been added to provide next-day first class letter service for over 4,000,000 people in the 7,000 square mile Detroit Metropolitan area.

The new program means that mail which is in the Tecumseh post office by 4:30 p.m. will be delivered in the metropolitan area the next day.

Lenawee County is not in the area, but because it is in the fringe zone the effects of the program will be felt here, Jack Metcalf said.

The area includes Detroit city and Genesee, Lapeer, Livingston, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, Washtenaw and Wayne counties.

Chorus Gives Christmas Show

Ninety-two youthful voices will fill the Strand Theatre with holiday music Thursday evening when the Tecumseh High School chorus presents its "Christmas Fanfare."

A capacity house of 600 is expected to hear the program of selections which will feature, besides the entire group, an octet, soloists, duets and an echo choir. There will also be a tableaux, animated Christmas cards and silhouette numbers.

Arranged and directed by chorus teacher Les Bennett, "Fanfare" has been in the making since last September.

"This has truly been a united effort envolving a great deal of time and many talents on the part of the students," Mr. Bennett states.

"Committee members have carried out their assignments faithfully," he said.

The students helped design and build the sets, which transform the Strand stage into a Christmas wonderland.

"An effort has been made to give the show variety, not only in the choice of numbers and program, but in specialty scenes which feature unusual lighting combinations," according to the director.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

LIKE MOST EVERY OTHER American city, Tecumseh has a long list of clubs and organizations.

Most are purely social, some are devoted to serious objectives. A few combine both.

One think which 99% of them have in common: the long meeting.

The memberships enjoy them — or else they wouldn't belong— because there's fun and relaxation.

Now about that 1%.

As far as I know there is a lone organization in town which makes a specialty of short, snappy sessions — and all business.

Gathering once each month for lunch at Don's Grill, its members have a sole item in mind: industry.

The seven men making up this unique organization want to do whatever they can for plants already here and they're anxious to induce new industries into the community.

Sliding onto Don's leather upholstered chairs about 1 p.m. the first Thursday of each month, the fellows get right down to business as they order charburgers and french fries.

First of all, each hands a check to the treasurer. This is their share of the monthly payment on a 10-acre plot the group is buying and hopes someday will become the site for another Tecumseh plant—or plants.

"What about an up-to-date brochure on Tecumseh for potential industry?" asks one.

The Tecumseh booklet worked out some years ago is badly outdated and the members feel it's time to get out something new.

Between munches on their sandwiches, one agrees to coordinate the project, assigning various segments to each. At the next session they'll have the pieces fitted together, ready for the printer.

Then there's the matter of a small plant here being offered some inducements to move to another community. One of the men says he'll chat with the owner and point out the advantages of remaining in Tecumseh.

"What about the ABC company over in XYZ which might come here?" asks someone.

Two others report that they motored over the previous day and that they'll keep in close touch.

A few more comments with the second cup of coffee and the session winds up. Not quite one hour has passed. It has been another productive meeting.

The history of this group stretches back many months, long before the Chamber of Commerce was brought back to life, although its numbers were appointed en masse to the Chamber's industrial development committee.

A burning desire to see Tecumseh grow and prosper was the major reason for the formation of the group in the first place—and the flame has never dimmed.

☆

GUESS WHO WALKED IN the front door Monday afternoon, all loaded down with Christmas presents?

"That's right — Bootin' Pussy. Dig that crazy pipe.

Bootin' says to shop early and in Tecumseh (natch).

☆

IF SALLY POPE DECIDED TO go into interior decorating—she runs Gaston & Son Jewelry — there would be quick lineup of customers.

You don't have to take my word for it. Just visit Sally's shop and see the terrific job of Christmas decorating she has done.

We're not the only one to notice either. At least one businessman has already asked Mrs. Pope to decorate his place.

"That would be fine," she smiled, " If there were just a couple more hours each day."

While on a business kick, there are spanking new signs at Brandt's 5 and 10 and Slyuter Electric. It's interesting how something so apparently minor can make such a major change in the appearance of a store.

A complete face-lifting is in progress at DesErmia's Furniture Store and is really going to make a difference.

Gets OES Life Certificate

Light from large blue candles enhanced the beautifully decorated Masonic Temple Thursday evening when the Order of the Eastern Star held its combined meeting and Christmas party.

A Christmas tree flickered colored lights as the Worthy Matron Beth LeBounty opened the meeting and welcomed all present including LaVern Russell, Master of Tecumseh F&AM No. 69.

A Christmas poem was read and greetings for Thanksgiving and Christmas were read from the Worthy Grand Matron and Patron.

Mrs. R. W. Puffer was escorted to the east and presented her life membership and a gift from the worthy matron.

☆

ANNOUNCEMENTS were made of the school of instruction Jan. 5 with a potluck supper at 6 p.m. at the Temple. Practice for the school will be Sunday, Jan. 4, from 3 to 5 p.m.

The officers party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Viele on Sat. Dec. 27.

Tecumseh Chapter has been assigned a sister chapter to visit at least twice during the year and to invite to local meetings. The Chapter is Flatrock No. 156.

Announcement was made that since the regular meeting date will fall on January 1 the meeting will be held Jan. 8.

Following the session a Christmas program was presented with Mrs. Henry Kempf, chairman.

Christmas carols were sung and the program was patterned after the TV program "Keep Talking." Prizes were awarded to those guessing the problems.

Gifts were exchanged from the tree and everyone retired to the dining room for refreshments served by Mr. and Mrs. John Lott and committee.

Tables were decorated in keeping with the Christmas season with a birthday cake for those having birthdays in December. The cake was baked by Beth LaBounty and decorated by Mrs. Harry Beland.

Cantata Switched to This Sunday

The Methodist Asbury Choir will join the St. Andrews Choir at the Presbyterian Church this Sunday at 7:30 p.m. to sing a Christmas Cantata by Matthews.

The change of time was announced last week to prevent a conflict with a school dedication.

This is the second cantata on which these two choirs have joined voices during this Advent Season.

Board Approves One-Note Policy

By JIM LINCOLN

Nine parents of children attending Patterson School protested to the Tecumseh School Board Monday night about a recent board ruling which requires notes from both parents before allowing town pupils to eat at the school's cafeteria.

Notes were required if both parents were working and the child could not come home to eat at noon. The parents insisted one note should be sufficient, preferably from the mother.

The board agreed and approved a one-note policy from the mother.

Supt. James McDowell and board members said the cafeteria facilities were not adequate to feed everyone, therefore, limiting the cafeteria to bus children, with one or two exceptions.

In reply to a question about picking up pupils living just a mile from the Patterson School, Supt. McDowell said the children must live more than a mile, according to a school law.

State financial aid is given the schools for bussing children if the bussed children live within the limits ascribed by the state.

THE TECUMSEH Public Library budget of $23,106.37, submitted by the superintendent, was approved.

$491,000 School To be Dedicated

Tecumseh Acres School will be dedicated Sunday afternoon at 3, followed by tours of the building until 5. The general public is invited.

With a capacity for 490 pupils, the entire plant cost $491,000. It's the fourth new building in the Tecumseh District to be dedicated this winter.

Allan Seager, president of the library board, asked why the budget was cut when the library needs additional books and a clerk-typist in the office.

Mr. McDowell explained the opening of the Ridgeway library contributed to the smaller budget since money previously allocated to the local library in recent years would this year be given to the operation of the Ridgeway library.

Mr. Seager said the Tecumseh school district has a population of approximately 12,000, and it is recommended that a library have three books per capita.

Tecumseh Public Library has 13,000 books, plus an additional 6,000 books in the schools, or a total of 19,000 books available to the public here.

The library board president said the library here will soon outgrow its building, a new library will be needed along with additional books and possibly a bookmobile to serve people in nearby communities.

☆

IN OTHER school board action, a country school was sold to Walter German for $2,000 through the Glenn Kohler realty agency.

Supt. McDowell reported about the physical capabilities of the schools to resist fires.

A letter of appreciation to the VFW and its Auxiliary for giving flags to the new schools was approved.

Join Lutheran Church

New members were received into the congregation of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church on Sunday by the Rev. T. Robert Bergman, pastor. Included were Mr. and Mrs. James Bliesner, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bunge, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Fink, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace MacGeorge and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Wright.

They were Mrs. Larry Coscarelli, Mrs. Reginald Dixon, Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield, Mrs. Paul Rudd, and Mrs. Donald Hardcastle.

Tipton School Is First Since 1892

Tipton's new $248,660 school, which was dedicated Sunday, is the first educational structure to have been built in Franklin Township since 1892.

This fact comes from Grover Swarts, who sold the land on which the new six-grade elementary structure is located.

The original Pink School burned in '92 and was replaced that same year.

For 66 years children in that township had only these facilities, which have now been replaced by a functional, modern structure.

During Sunday's open house nearly 300 passed through the new Tipton School and here are some of the things they saw.

* Well-lighted classrooms, built in L-shapes to provide an area for work with small groups.
* Skylighted corridors with terrazzo floors and recessed lockers.
* Hot lunch and PTA kitchen.
* Library.
* Self-contained first and second grade rooms, complete with toilet and lavatory.
* Multi-purpose room with 9 foot baskets, stage lighting, dressing rooms and shower facilities.

The school also has the use of special teachers who serve the Tecumseh District in art, music, physical education, speech correction, speech correction and band.

The dedication and open house was staged by the Tipton Grange with Mrs. Clement LaFerrier as chairman.

Invocation was given by the Rev. David Holly.

Flags for the school and the rooms were presented by the VFW and its Auxiliary.

James McDowell, superintendent, talked about features of the building.

You Told Us

BY DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Snow and cold, cold, seems to be the theme this week. Its all so beautiful if one can stay indoors, but with the many preparations for the great birthday celebration, who can?

The children enjoy it and aren't they lovely, especially when they are singing? Members of the Baptist Congregation were thrilled Sunday by the anthem sung by the Junior choir.

The thought came to mind that everyone should have the privilege of hearing young voices during the Christmas season. With so many programs scheduled surely most residents will be able to attend at least one.

"Christmas Fanfare" given by the High School Chorus promises to be a fine production for Thursday night and well worth the time it will take just to relax and enjoy it.

√

Many Tecumseh people are planning vacations just now. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Loughney with their daughter, Peggy, will leave soon to spend Christmas with her parents near Billings, Montana.

√

Mr. and Mrs. George Green, Jr. and three daughters spent last weekend here and in Hillsdale. It will be their last visit before they leave their Pentwater home to spend the holidays in Florida with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hollingshead.

√

Lyman Curtiss is in California visiting his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Sutton. Many of his friends have requested his address so we are happy to print it: 807 Sycamore St. Modesta, Cal.

Mr. Curtiss has been enjoying a wonderful visit while there, has been to Yosemite, the Sequoias and also to San Francisco.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Boss have just returned from a two weeks trip to California.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gallant and family moved Saturday to their new home at 214 Pine St.

Santa Will Be in Tecumseh . .

Starting Friday, Dec. 12, every day from 3:30 until 8 p.m. (except Sundays) until Christmas eve. His headquarters will be a trailer in front of the D&C store but he won't limit his time there, wandering about from store to store part of the evenings.

√

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Day Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. John D. McColl and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hoover of Clinton.

√

Pvt. D. J. Martin left the day after Thanksgiving to go to the Marine Base at Twenty-nine Palms, Cal. He spent his furlough here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Martin.

√

Mrs. Ted Glauser and children of Flint, former Tecumseh residents, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Sisson and family.

√

Mrs. A. R. Shigley of Freemont, Mich. is visiting with her daughters, Mrs. Jens Touborg and Mrs. P. G. Colgrove.

Kermit and Merton Boss have returned from Tilton, Nebraska where they were called by the serious illness of their father.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Beach returned Tuesday from a trip to Florida.

√

Guy Boss is a patient at Herrick Memorial Hospital where his condition is gradually improving.

Students at Patterson School are enjoying pre-holiday festivities. They are taking pennies to purchase their tree for the foyer again this year and each youngster will bring one decoration for it.

Tuesday the second grade students in Mrs. A. L. Van Winkle's class went by bus to visit the Ford Rotunda. Mrs. Purnell Osburn's fifth grade will go Dec. 18 and Mrs. Jean Miller's fifth grade will go Dec. 16.

With Tecumseh Teens

THE DANCE HELD IN THE cafeteria after the Hillsdale game was, unfortunately, not a victory dance. The varsity lost to Hillsdale by two points.

This was the first basketball dance to be held this year. It was also the first time that the new cafeteria has been used for daneing after the games.

This dance was sponsored by the GAA.

☆

A PEP MEETING WAS HELD Friday afternoon for the Hillsdale game.

THERE WAS A RECORD dance at the Teen Club last Saturday evening.

☆

THE JUNIOR CLASS PARTY was held in the cafeteria and gymnasium last Saturday night with dancing all the time in the cafeteria to records supplied by class members.

For the first few hours, there were team basketball and volleyball in the gymnasium. There was tumbling in the hall along with ping-pong.

Soon however, practically everyone went into the cafeteria for the dancing. The girls in the class did not have to pay admission as a reward for having the higher total of magazine sales. The boys had to pay a quarter for admission.

This price included potato chips and different kinds of pop. Mr. and Mrs. Rotunno, Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch, Mr. and Mrs. Leckta and Mr. and Mrs. Berkley were the projected chaperones. There was a pretty good crowd at the party.

☆

AT THE STUDENT COUNCIL meeting last week, the session was brought to order by the president, Doris Oliphant. The secretary's report and the treasurer's report were read and approved by the Council.

Projects for the coming year were discussed, among them was the basketball scoreboard.

The Constitution was revised, and a new hall monitor was set up by the cafeteria.

The hat check and program selling for the basketball season was discussed and put in working order.

It was decided to continue the spirit trophy this year.

There was a report from the Senior Honors Lounge committee. They have been looking over the room provided so they can buy suitable furniture for it.

They also discussed the Minnesota Teen-Age Code for the remainder of the period.

The next meeting is the seventeenth of December when the Council hopes that some Council members from Airport Community High School will be present.

☆

TECUMSEH'S DEBATE TEAMS won a double decision from Adrian last Monday afternoon.

Marilou Layton and Greg Mason of the affirimative and Astride Freimans and Roger Mead of the negative all defeated their respective opponents.

Their coach is John Babcock.

Keep up the good work, kids!

The topic this year is the discussion of the American and British education systems and which is the better.

☆

THE INDIVIDUAL PICTURES absolutely had to be returned by Tuesday or else you would be sent home after them.

☆

CHRISTMAS VACATION starts Friday, Dec. 19 at 3 p.m. The senior Christmas dance is also going to be held that night.

Can't You See I'm Busy?

A well-known Tecumseh citizen planned a holiday for his whole family. They'd all go to Detroit, stay at a hotel overnight and the next day (heaven forbid) do their Christmas shopping in the big metropolitan stores.

Here is what happened.

The hotel visit was most enjoyable and with stars in their eyes, the members of the family set out for the shops.

Those stars were soon gone and dad and mom were boiling mad. The clerks were rude to the point of telling them, "Can't you see I'm busy," when our family sought assistance.

The capping point came when they visited the hardware department of a famous business establishment. Dad looked about for a few moments and turned to his wife to say,

"My gosh, Tecumseh has much better hardware selections then they have here."

With this, the couple gathered up the children and they couldn't pile into the family bus fast enough. Destination: Tecumseh.

And so help us, this is where they have vowed to do all their Christmas shopping.

Join in World Prayer

Women of the First Baptist Church joined with women all over the world Friday to observe Baptist World Day of Prayer.

The programs were compiled this year by the women of Latin America using for their theme, "O Come Let Us Adore Him."

The exultations and meditations were read by Mrs. Benjamin Antrobus with Mrs. Clifford Curran reading the scripture from Matthew.

Special music was played by Mrs. Vern Brown with Mrs. James Danforth singing a solo, "My Task", and leading the group singing the hymn, "O Come All Ye Faithful."

Special prayers for the day were offered by Mrs. Floyd Bryan, Mrs. Fred Rector, Mrs. D. B. Finch, Mary Snedecor, Mrs. Richard Lask and Mrs. Fred Sheldon.

The 21 ladies and two guests from the North Rome Baptist Church formed a chain of prayer each giving a prayer for a special need, a blessing received or of thanks.

An offering of $13 was taken to be used to promote women's work all over the world as well as world relief.

Coffee and donuts were served to the ladies by Mrs. Wayne Pence with Mrs. Curran pouring.

Jerry Benedict Wins All-State

Jerry Benedict, 200-pound senior and on the 1958 Britton-Macon grid team, gained recognition early this week with a first team birth on the Associated Press state Class D eleven.

Benedict was a standout during the entire season on an otherwise weak Britton team. He also was picked on the Tri-County first team.

Advent Wreaths

Special recognition will be made of this the third Sunday in Advent, in services at the Methodist Church.

Three candles will be burning in the twin Advent wreaths in the chancel.

Gordon Mitchinson, a preministerial student at Adrian College and a Methodist licensed local preacher, will assist in conducting the service.

The Rev. James D. Nixon, pastor, will bring the third Advent sermon, using the theme "The Realities of Advent."

The Asbury Choir will sing a Christmas anthem.

Try dialing your TV set when the whole family is watching; and maybe a few friends, too. There's always a protest, no matter how lousy the program. There's always one who wants to see how it came out, anyway. Or, somebody will say, "Leave it on, in just ten minutes a good program will be starting."

And so it goes, The amount of time wasted waiting for good programs must be terrific.

But, how about the times when your TV set needs maintenance service? Often, people will get along watching distorted or hazy pictures just because it takes to long to get service. At least they think this.

No need to do this and strain your eyes. Phone 692-J or bring your set to COOK ELECTRIC. We have the most modern instruments and equipment to do a precise and quick job. Not only TV and radio, but all electronic appliances like record players and sound equipment.

Our Readers Write

To the Editor:

Enclosed please find a check for renewal of my subscription.

Our family wants to let you know how much we enjoy the paper since you took it over. It is so interesting to see the pictures and the write ups about so many happenings. In other words it a very good paper.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. Lydia M. Mason
9104 Billmyer Rd.

To the Editors,

I would like the opportunity, through the public letter box, to thank all those who worked in my behalf and who voted for me in the past election.

While I would have liked the opportunity to show our citizens what I could accomplish as governor of this great state, I am grateful for the experience of the campaign and the friendly reception given my wife and me wherever we went.

I thought it was a good campaign which focused attention on some of the major problems facing our state. If, as a result, wise and constructive action is taken to meet those problems, I will feel that the public interest was well served.

This is the great function of political parties in our free society—to discuss public programs and offer constructive solutions. Once the people have made their decision, we all abide by it and work together for the common good of the state.

To all those who worked for me and voted for me, I can express only my heartfelt gratitude. Personally, I feel richly rewarded by your friendship and expression of confidence.

Sincerely,
Paul D. Bagwell

To the Editors:

We sure were surprised last week to read in Letters to the Editor the one about keeping riding horses in our city. This is a laugh.

This same one is the one who was raised here and has seen this great city grow from a boy and he could not praise it enough two or three years ago. Tecumseh is now just as good as then and getting larger and there is more to do to keep in order. He loves dogs; what a laugh.

I think they did their duty and were right in the way they handled this. If he wants an animal farm let him move back to the farm from which he came. How fair would it have been to other tax payers, small or large, had they let him get away with this.

Driving Without License, He Gets into Two Mishaps

Lester Sweet, 208 S. Adrian St., suffered head and neck injuries in an automobile accident Friday night in which the other car disappeared.

He reported the mishap to Tecumseh police officers, who traced the driver of the other car and found him to be Elmer W. Abshire, 35-years old, also of Tecumseh.

Mr. Abshire pleaded guilty before Justice Maurice Spear to driving while his license was denied.

A 30-day jail sentence was imposed on him, he was fined $100 and costs of $4.90 or sentenced to an additional 30 days in jail.

He was arrested early Saturday morning by State Police who said his car struck a telephone pole on Comfort Road near Rogers Highway at 11:30 p.m. Friday.

The pole was damaged and a number of wires knocked down, troopers said.

Troopers said Abshire's license was denied after his third conviction for driving under the influence of alcohol.

They said he may also face a charge of leaving the scene of an accident without making a report to officers.

Chamber Sends Yule Greeting to Membership

A Christmas Greeting to each member of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce will be delivered personally by secretary Don Murphy, it was decided at the board of directors meeting Tuesday.

It was also discussed that the change-over from the July-to-July fiscal year to January-to-January be started as of January 1, 1959, which means the re-election of officers starting next month.

However, the offices of the board members will be extended from next July to January to cover this change-over period.

Expenses so far this current year are well within the operating budget, according to Mr. Murphy and Gale Fisher, treasurer.

A report on the Christmas promotional program now under way by the Retail Division of the Chamber was made. Forty-five merchants are participating in program, where almost $3,000 worth of prizes, including a 1959 Rambler, will be given away December 23.

It was suggested a re-election of officers for the Retail Division for 1959 occur simultaneously with that of the Board and Chamber itself.

The next meeting of the Board of Directors will be held Tuesday, Jan. 13 at the Chamber Offices in the Sage Building.

Voodoo Dolls Can Bring Death

Voodoo dolls can cause serious illness and death, warns the Lenawee County Health Department.

The dolls are made in Haiti for sale as souvenirs and "swizzle sticks" for mixing drinks. Persons who have the dolls in their possession should burn them immediately.

The eyes of the doll are made of seeds from the lethal jequirity plant and contain enough toxic chemicals to cause fatal poisoning if eaten by an infant.

The doll's head is made of a cashew nut shell. The shell contains an oil chemically similar to the oil in poison ivy plants. Touching the cashew shell can produce skin blisters in 35 to 50 minutes.

Junior High Notes

FLASH ! ! ! Three Junior High students and one teacher lie mortally wounded after consuming cupcakes by the eighth grade home ec. classes.

☆

THE STUDENT COUNCIL is sponsoring the sending of CARE packages to other countries. The collection of the donations from the students started about three days before Thanksgiving and ended Dec. 5.

Since one dollar will send a 20-pound package of food, the Tecumseh Junior High School is proud to send 12 packages of food overseas.

☆

ALL THE JUNIOR HIGH STUDents were overjoyed to come back to school after Thanksgiving vacation (uh-huh). Several among us were unable to return, due to a illness peculiar to this time of year. This sickness is commonly referred to as overeating" or "turkeyitess."

☆

OUR PRINCIPAL, MR. DAVID Dick, attended an area principal's meeting in Lansing on Thursday, December 4.

☆

THE JUNIOR HIGH BASKETball teams will play the first game of the season on Dec. 18. The opposing team will be Blissfield. The game will be at 4 p.m. in the boy's gym. The 1958-59 Junior High basketball schedule is as follows:

Dec. 18—Blissfield-here
Jan. 7—Clinton-here
Jan. 8—Dundee-here
Jan. 15—at Blissfield-there
Jan. 29—Milan-here
Feb. 5—at Dundee-there
Feb. 9—Saline-here
Feb. 11—Clinton-there
Feb. 19—at Milan-there

All games are played at 4 p.m. with the exception of the Feb. 11 Clinton game which will be played at 7 p.m.

☆

☆

THE ANNUAL JUNIOR HIGH Christmas dance will be held on Friday, Dec. 19 in the Junior High gymnasium. This dance will be sponsored and directed by the eighth grade class. Committees are now being chosen and a list of committee members will be posted next week.

☆

DEC. 3, AFTER SCHOOL FOUR teams of the Junior High G.A.A. played volleyball in the girls gym. The captains of the teams were Pat Lawson, Bonny Staup, Nancy Nixon and Lettie Ringman.

The winners of the games were Pat Lawson's team and Bonnie Staup's team.

☆

THE SHOWCASE ON THE main floor of the Junior High School has been arranged by the home ec. department. On the right side of the case there are styles and color harmonies on clothes. In the middle of it there are aprons made by the eighth graders. The right side is full of pictures on the seven basic foods.

☆

THE STUDENTS AT THE JUNior High School are enjoying the smell of baking cookies and cupcakes.

☆

THE SEVENTH GRADERS IN home ec. made variations of basic sugar, drop cookies.

☆

THE EIGHTH GRADERS IN home ec. made cupcakes with butter icing. All the teachers enjoy this time because they get most of the foods that are baked.

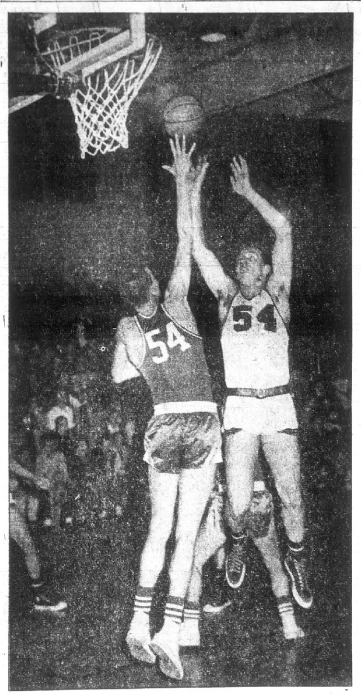
Poor First Half Sinks Indians



TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTO

TWO FOR TECUMSEH — Dan Cisco (in white 54) pops in two points as he outleeps Hillsdale's rangy Dave Granger. Dan played well under the boards, getting many vital rebounds. The Indians, however, suffered their first loss, 45 to 43.

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh High, flashing terrific potential in the second half against visiting Hillsdale last Friday night, discovered a two-quarter game against its opponents was not enough to erase a poor first half.

The Indians bowed 45-43, their first loss in three games. A home tilt is scheduled here Saturday night against Willow Run.

The veteran Tecumseh five played miserably in the first two periods against Hillsdale, scoring just 11 points in about the poorest performance displayed by the Indians in sometime.

Hillsdale, boasting a 25 to 11 lead, found the Indians just the opposite in the final two quarters and barely held on for a victory.

In eight minutes in the third stanza, Tecumseh rallied behind Larry Yoakum to close the gap to four points. Yoakum hit four fielders in the Tecumseh's big 19-point third quarter.

Late in the final stanza, the Indians knotted the count at 37 to 37 when Dan Cisco pitched in a two-pointer. Bob O'Neill tied the count at 39 to 39 seconds later, and Yoakum tossed in the final two Tecumseh buckets, tieing the game twice at 41-41 and 43-43.

Dave Granger, 6-7 Hillsdale center, bottled up practically the entire evening, popped in the winning basket with seven seconds left.

Yoakum's three-quarter court, desperation fling nearly sent the game in overtime, the ball swishing just below the net when the siren sounded.

The Indians could be one of the best in the area despite the loss to Hillsdale. Cisco, 6-4 center, was by far stronger on the boards than Granger, although outscored 13 to 6 by the highly-touted visitor.

Yoakum, who sparked several winning drives last year, was easily the outstanding player on the floor in the second half and topped all scores with 16 points.

O'Neill, a cold shooter in the first two periods as were all Tecumseh players, started hitting and connected twice in the Indians' belated rally in the final quarter.

Poor foul shooting in the final quarter contributed to the loss as much as the poor first half. The Indians hit on just one of eight free attempts in the fourth stanza.

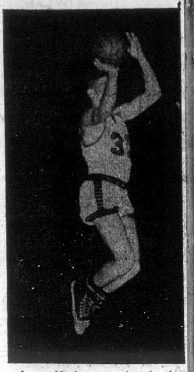
Benedict Stars as Britton Wins

Jerry Benedict, 6-4 center for the Britton Tories, paced his five to an easy 55 to 33 victory over Ida last Friday night at Ida.

The victory, second straight this season for the Tories turned into a rout in the third quarter. Benedict was top scorer with 17 points while teamamte Chuck Koman tallied 10.

Britton's reserves won 24-18.

Ida	7	9	8	9—33
Britton	8	16	16	15—55



Larry Yoakum was hot in the last quarter against Hillsdale pitching in several "clutch" baskets. He almost tied the count in the last seconds, but his try narrowly missed as the siren sounded. Here he goes up with a one-hander.

Hospital Offers Best

When folks are confined to Herrick Memorial Hospital there's no question about quality of meals they'll be served.

Always excellent.

There are many reasons for this.

First, there's the staff, headed by Mary Louden. Everyone does her bit to make the meals as tasty and wholesome as possible

The facilities with which they have to work are tops.

The new kitchen, which is part of the recently-completed south wing, is extremely well-equipped and highly functional.

From here, three times each day, emanate those tempting odors which bespeak another excellent meal is in progress.

One other factor playing an important point in hospital meals is the $1,800 serving cart which the Hospital Auxiliary donated and went into operation in late November.

It's a rolling oven, refrigerator and hot beverage dispenser.

The chilled section holds 24 trays, which contain salads and cold drinks. Another is heated and this is where hot dishes go.

When the lunch room on wheel reaches a room, the tray is slipped out; hot dish and piping hot coffee or tea are added.

The patient has his or her meal about 10 or 15 seconds after it comes out of the cart.

FINISHED PRODUCT—Mrs. Willard Swick, 6903 Green Rd., a recent guest in the maternity ward, is all smiles as Nurse Mrs. Charles Newell delivers lunch. Just seconds before it arrived in the food cart donated by the Hospital Auxiliary. It cost $1,600

PREPARING PLATES—Kitchen staffers Mrs. Lillian Shirley, Mrs. Helen Hunt, Beverly Jackson, Mrs. Maria Lopez and Mrs. Daisy Atkinson serve up a noon meal. Good food plus careful preparation are big points in maintaining top quality meals.

Retired Farmer Charles Glenn Dies in Britton

Services were held Saturday at the Niblack Funeral Home in Britton for Charles Glenn who passed away last week at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

He had been a patient since Sunday and had been in failing health for the last two years.

He was 74 years old, born in Feb. 1884 in Debica, Poland and came to the United States in 1912.

He lived in Detroit for 17 years and then brought his family to a farm home south of Tecumseh, retired in 1942 and moved to the Britton area.

He is survived by his wife, Eleanor; three sons, Frank and Walter of Tecumseh, and Joseph of Wayne; two daughters, Mrs. Frances Holmes of Adrian and Mrs. Sophie Bailey of Britton; and 15 grandchildren. He was preceded in death by two daughters, Julia in infancy and Mrs. Verna Richard, and a son Steven, in infancy.

The Rev. Soren Sorenson officiated and burial was in the Brookside cemetery.

GERTIE'S DUCKS, CHAPTER TWO

When Gertie's new duck family moved into the neighborhood three, no it was almost four months ago, the youngsters seven tiny round balls of fluff, were very, very young.

The little ducklings were all alike in appearance. Like the human species though, the baby ducklings didn't stay little for long.

My how fast they grew and of course all too soon they changed their coats, colour for adult wear.

Now the youngsters are almost as big as their mother; from a distance it is hard to tell them apart.

☆

WE WERE ALL curious as to how the Widower would react to the new family. Since his mate's untimely death on the boulevard, he had left the creek to himself.

Right after the accident we had worried about him being alone he looked so lonesome and forlorn sitting on the frozen over creek all by himself.

He finished us however, and instead of being worn down with age adjusted to single living and actually seemed to relish being "cock of the creek."

We lost our doubts about his willingness to share the creek and Gertrude's back yard with newcomers.

As it turned out, the Widower was not the one who gave trouble, it was the Mother Duck. She turned out to be flighty, unstable and some of all unfriendly.

She wouldn't let Gertrude near and in fact, whenever possible, she took her family up the creek far out of sight and away from her new home. Such ingratitude!

☆

SURPRISINGLY ENOUGH, the Widower Duck seemed quite pleased with his new status as a family man. From the very first he adopted the youngsters and tried to be friendly overtures to their mother.

She however, was not the least bit cooperative and met each of his advances with a snippy rebuff. After many heartbreaking weeks his ardor cooled and I think finally he has come to accept her for what she is, a maladjusted female.

His affection for the youngsters is genuine however, and for their sakes he tolerates her.

He has undertaken the task of raising the children and her wildness often disrupts his orderly routine. Her irresponsibility must be trying, but so far his patience has not reached the breaking point; putting peace in the family above all else he is always chivalrous and gentlemanly.

The one saving grace, the one thing for which we will always be grateful to the Mother, is that she did something the Widower has showed no signs of doing. She brought her children down to see.

☆

ONE BRIGHT sunny day, before the creek started to freeze over, a wanderlust struck and down they came.

Mother Duck led the way and the seven children followed, one back of another, so close together that it was almost a bill-to-tail procession. It was a wonderful sight.

They came paddling down the creek, stopped for a minute to look at the muskrat log and then proceeded down out of sight.

In about five minutes they had turned around and were back in view again; Mother was still in the lead with the youngsters streamed out behind.

As they worked their way back up the creek, we noted how effortlessly they swam. They just seemed to glide along — all, except the last one. He had trouble.

A trifle smaller than the others, he was apparently the runt of the clutch. He had to struggle to keep up, and struggle hard. His little feet were working as hard and fast as they could.

So frantic were his efforts that we could actually see his orange feet as they paddled and churned. The close-up look of all the ducks was fun, but the little one was the best.

The Widower was not happy with the trip "down river" and although he did nothing to interfere with Mother Duck taking her children out for a spree, his disapproval was most apparent.

We wonder how much of this interference he will tolerate and what she will do if he starts being too strict?

Sales Slips Are Required for Payments

Sheepmen in the state are reminded to save sales slips on lambs and wool sold this winter.

They will need the slips to apply for incentive payments, points out Graydon Blank, extension sheep specialist at Michigan State University.

Blank says it is particularly important that slips be saved on lambs. With wool prices lower this year, the incentive payment on the lambs could be as much as $1.00 a hundredweight.

Payment is made on lambs sold for slaughter and for feeders. Sheepmen buying feeder lambs, however, will receive payment only on the gain put on while owned by them.

Lamb feeders should also keep a record of lambs that die. Blank says the weight of the dead lambs will be substracted from the purchased weight before gain is figured.

Sales slips should be turned to county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office as soon as sales are completed. April 30, 1959, is the deadline for applying for incentive payments.

Bus Drivers Hear About Mental Health on Thursday Night

Lenawee County school bus drivers will hear Wallace Watt from the Michigan Department of Mental Health discuss the mental health aspects of school bus driving at Madison High School next Thursday evening.

This talk is a special feature of the Michigan School Bus Driver Education program.

Bus drivers are now attending classes at Tecumseh on Wednesday nights and Sand Creek on Thursday evenings.

Mr. Watt has been an Educational Consultant for the Department of Mental Health for six years. Prior to this he was executive Director for the Baptist Children's Home. He has also been Area Consultant for the Department of Social Welfare and worked for many years with the Boy Scouts of America.

Particular attention in classes has been given to the new bus stop law. Motorists are instructed to be alert for school busses which are loading or unloading children, cars must stop when both meeting and overtaking a loading school bus.

Do not look for the STOP arm it is no longer used. The flashing red lights on front and rear of the bus are your warning that the bus is stopped or about to stop and load or unload children.

The new state bus stop law is not applicable inside city limits unless signs giving notice are posted at the city limits. In Lenawee County, Adrian and Tecumseh have such an ordinance.

MERRY... AND SAFE

The trucking industry of Michigan is again working hand in glove with Santa Claus in an effort to insure all Christmas gifts arriving at their destinations on time . . . It's just one of scores of ways in which trucks serve the people of Michigan. Transporting everything you eat, wear, or use, trucks play a vital role in the running of the home, the operation of business, the provision of roads, public utilities, and facilities for national defense . . . Trucks set a pattern for safety too, and the State's thousands of truck drivers, in wishing you and yours a Merry Christmas, pledge to do their part to make 1959 a safe and Happy New Year.

"ELEMENTARY, MY DEAR WATSON

Resolve now that you will purchase all your medicines and health-aids from your pharmacist for these important reasons.

First — You are safer because our skilled training enables us to protect you more.

Second — We charge no more than food and variety stores, despite the fact that we give a more personal service.

Third — If drug stores do not get these purchases it may become impossible to keep open so many hours. Long after most stores close, your pharmacy is serving you. Isn't it elementary that you should obtain every medicine and health-aid from your pharmacist?

Marjorie Mae Anderson Marries Gordon Comfort

Marjorie Mae Anderson of Monroe became the bride of Gordon A. Comfort, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Comfort, Saturday at 4 p.m.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian O. Anderson of Lincoln Park, Michigan.

The Rev. Walter O. Kleinhans performed the informal single ring ceremony in the chapel of the Grace Lutheran Church.

Candlelight and vases of white flowers enhanced the setting for the wedding.

The bride wore an afternoon frock of Dior blue slipper satin with rounded neckline, short sleeves, sheath skirt and empire waist.

☆

HER SATIN opera pumps matched her gown and she wore formal white kid gloves. Her face was framed by a hat of feathers with pale blue centers and Dior blue edging.

She carried a colonial bouquet with a white orchid circled with stephanotis.

Mrs. John Orvath was her sister's matron of honor in an afternoon dress of blue with gently flared skirt, empire waistline and a white fur band around the rounded neckline.

She wore a headband matching the fur trim on her dress with a short veil and carried a colonial bouquet of feathered white carnations and stephanotis.

Irving Shaw, Jr. was the best man.

☆

MRS. ANDERSON wore a green print dress and hat to match with brown accessories and Mrs. Comfort wore dusty pink. Both mothers wore white feathered carnations tied with ribbons to complement their ensembles.

A short reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the new home of the bride and groom at 222 Colonial Drive in Monroe.

Dinner for immediate families and wedding guests was served at Northwood Villa in Erie, Mich.

☆

THE BRIDE is a graduate of Lincoln Park High School and Michigan State University and is now employed by the Monroe Evening News.

The groom attended the University of Michigan and Michigan State University and is with the Comfort Brick and Tile Company.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Robert Wesdelreyer, sister of the bridegroom, now living at Clarendon Hills, Illinois.

700 Tour New $491,208 School

More than 700 swarmed through the new $491,208 Tecumseh Acres School at its open house and dedication Sunday afternoon.

The formal ceremony climaxed a series of new building christenings in the Tecumseh District.

Total expenditure for the program reached $1,000,000.

Ultra-modern and functional, Tecumseh Acres serves nearly 500 children in the southern portion of the city from kindergarten through sixth grade.

Situated on a 10-acre site, which cost $3,700, the building cost per square foot was $15.13. There are 12 rooms.

Principal Wayne Kaiser heads a staff of 13 regular teachers and seven special instructors.

The dedication, held in a jam-packed multi-purpose room, was opened with an introduction of platform guests by Robert Wood, PTA president, whose group sponsored the affair.

The Rev. James Nixon gave the invocation and the Rev. Kenneth Frazier the prayer of dedication.

School flags were presented by the VFW and its Auxiliary and plants for the lobby planters were given by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Building features were explained by superintendent Jim McDowell.

Highlights include L-shaped classes, self-contained kindergarten, multi-purpose room with 9' basketball baskets with adjoining kitchen.

Toilet rooms for fourth, fifth and sixth grades will be open during vacation for children using the school playground.

The Rev. Paul Brantingham gave benediction to close the program.

tI was followed by refreshments and tours conducted by PTA members.

Council Debates about Signals at Acres Schools

Council, approving police controlled traffic in front of the Tecumseh Acres school, continued Monday night to debate about traffic light or lights in the area, and even suggested a speed trap.

City officials pointed out that traffic moving south proceeded cautiously, but much traffic coming north rounded the curve at the crest of the hill too fast.

The new elementary school on Adrian St. is hidden from the northbound traffic by the hill and curve. Most of the young children must cross Adrian St. and those living south and west have no sidewalks on which to walk.

State traffic officials are expected to make recommendations.

☆

TRADING LOTS with the post office department was delayed until the return of Mayor H. H. Hanna. The government department, by letter, requested the trade be equal in size.

The Tecumseh post office has proposed trading its lot behind Easton's gas station for the park lot across from city hall. If council approves, a referendum will be on the ballot at the spring election.

Council authorized the city attorney to study an ordinance for controlling solicitors; accepted the resignation of Ted Pihl from the Planning Commission; and requested additional information about erecting a veterans memorial at city hall.

Local officials also agreed with the Tecumseh Area Ministerial Association that erection of Christmas decorations on Sunday was in poor taste and should be avoided in the future.

Professional Touch

An audience of 550 thoroughly enjoyed itself last week at the program "Christmas Fanfare", presented by Les Bennett and his 92-voice Tecumseh High School chorus in the Strand Theatre.

No ordinary school presentation, "Fanfare" had a definite professional touch — including exceptionally attractive settings.

From the opening processional to the final number, "O Holy Night" the show was well-paced.

The beginning was unique, the young people strolling around the center seating section of the darkened theatre, each carrying flashlights, which had colored paper over the glass.

The variety of colors danced across the ceiling.

All told, the group presented 19 numbers — running from sacred to comical.

Some featured the use of a raised stage, which was located on scaffolding, hidden by curtains above, and behind the chorus proper.

In the center of three panels, placed side by side, costumed youths would act out such numbers as "I saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus," "I Ain't Gittin' Nuttin' for Christmas," and in the finale Joseph and Mary with a crib in a Nativity scene.

A trio of Sharon Muhn, Vonnie Penrod and Karen Kelly presented several numbers. Marilyn Helzerman performed on the harp as Director Bennett sang "Ave Maria" in highlights.

A recitation of "A Visit from St. Nicholas" by Janet Graham was especially well done.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

THOSE EXQUISITE POSTERS which adorned the Strand Theatre for "Christmas Fanfare" were two more examples of work by Mrs. John Dennis.

Seldom do you see signs so beautifully done as these.

The fact is, Mrs. Dennis is far more than a sign painter, as most of you know.

Her elegant lettering and art have graced many a diploma, book, and appreciation plaque, to name just a few of the items she has worked on.

Mrs. Dennis' skill is much in demand, with orders from many parts of the midwest constantly rolling in.

On top of this come many local requests — mostly for posters — almost always for her to donate her time and talent. And good-hearted Stella always says "yes."

To me, it's sort of like asking Michael Angelo to come over some evening to help paint the spare bedroom.

And when she accepts such assignments, the finished product is as beautiful as if it were being done for a sizeable fee.

All of which would add up to the fact that Stella Dennis is a mighty talented person — and an extremely charitable one, too.

"SENIORITES" IS A DREAD sport disease which every coach prays will never strike his squad.

It only comes with a veteran team, dominated by fourth-year students. They've performed for several years and are well established.

The desire to excell and win flickers only dimly within them — not as a blaze that it once was when they were sophomores and juniors battling for a position.

GI Killed in Accident

Under clear blue skies, the body of 23-year-old Peter Brock was laid to rest in Brookside Cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

An Army private home for Christmas furlough, Pvt. Brock was killed instantly Sunday in an auto accident on Occidental Highway and Valley Rd.

It was only a short distance from where another Tecumseh man, Richard Henkel, 28, was critically injured and later died last spring in a similar wreck.

Riding with Pvt. Brock was 17-year-old Joyce Partridge, who suffered back, stomach and shoulder injuries, along with several broken ribs and is reported in good condition in Adrian's Bixby Hospital.

Services for Pvt. Brock were held in St. Peter's Episcopal Church with the Rev. Frank Hawthorn officiating. Arrangements were made by Collins-Corkery Funeral Home.

Bearers were Gary Marsh, Raymond Morley, Dale Tingley, Jim Hite, Joe Gregory and Claude Walker.

☆

SUNDAY'S HIGHWAY mishap occurred when the Brock car collided with one driven by Louis Beagle of rural Blissfield.

Beagle and his three passengers, all whom were injured, included two Tecumseh High School students, Phyllis Poe, 16, a junior, and Eleanor Forgacs, 16, a sophomore.

Phyllis had a fractured leg and serious injury to her face. She was transferred to University Hospital in Ann Arbor where she has undergone facial surgery.

Eleanor's leg is badly injured, although not broken. She is in the same room at Bixby with Joyce.

Brock's car, traveling west on Occidental, skidded on a light coat of snow into the Beagle vehicle, which was going west.

It required half an hour to free occupants of the autos, which were both demolished.

☆

PVT. BROCK was born July 23, 1935 in Lemington, Canada. His family moved to Tecumseh in 1948, where he graduated from High School in 1954.

He entered Hillsdale College that fall and spent two years there. Drafted Sept. 3, 1958, he took basic training at Camp Polk, La. with a construction engineer ing outfit.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brock, 415 W. Logan St., two brothers, Barry, who is a student at Michigan State University. and David at home.

The father is accountant and ofice manager for the Stevens-Aldridge Cadillac-Oldsmobile agency in Adrian.

VOICE of THE HERALD

A Publication Is Born

A new publication was born in Tecumseh this week.

Dubbed "The Scout", it's Tecumseh High School's paper, which rolled off the press Monday morning, was distributed to 400 eager subscribers Tuesday morning.

Co-edited by Mary Seager, Marilou Layton and Jon Cook, the "Scout's" Volume 1, Number 1 contained a well-balanced cross-section of high school news and pictures.

Another young man playing an important role is Paul Surratt, who is listed as photography editor in the staff box, but also has the unofficial office of mechanical superintendent.

The student journalists, highly conscious of the cost factor in putting out a paper, leaped at an offer made by The Herald.

If the young people would like to go into the shop on Saturdays and actually make up the pages, The Herald could hold costs to typesetting, stock and press time. Besides putting the metal and engraving into place, the THS newspaper staff agreed to fold their paper.

As to content we'd like to quote from one of it's editorials.

"Creative writing—and we repeat—creative writing will be one of our chief goals.

"We do not want the hasty misconception to be made, however, that this is our only aim. Our newspaper will be printed to inform and interest the buyers. Club news, humor, sports features and general articles will be included.

"Lovelorn or gossip columns are strictly taboo. If you want to know who was with Sally last week end, ask your friends. It will not be found in 'The Scout'!

"An invitation is now extended to all for essays, satires, short stories, or poems for publication in your newspaper. Letters to the editor will also be printed, at the editor's discretion."

This veers sharply away from many student papers, which are usually loaded with senseless copy. It indicates a distinct maturity on the part of the young folks producing "The Scout."

The Herald staff is particularly proud of contributions by Miss Seager and Mr. Surratt, who have been members of our family for more than a year and know their way around our back shop. Their knowledge makes the Saturday workshops possible.

To the Scout's staff and advisor John Babcock, we say best of luck.

LONG & SHORT

It doesn't hit every senior athlete, but when one or two succumb, their performances pull down the team's over-all effort.

If it gets a firm footing—look out. What could have been a highly-successful season turns into a route.

Tecumseh basketball coach Vic Lawson is afraid "seniorites" might be nibbling away at a few of his charges.

Vic has been in coaching many years and has tackled the disease before. We are sure he can eliminate it quickly if he catches the first symptoms in time.

So, you see, teaching a boy how to toss a ball through a ring isn't the whole story of tutoring a basketball team.

A coach has to do some psychoanalysis on the side.

PLAUDITS TO LES BENNETT and his High School Chorus for their wonderful program last week.

In the best traditions of show business, Les did an outstanding job of directing the group and soloing on one number—all with a temperature of well over 100.

A cold bug had been chasing Les for several days and caught him shortly before show time.

Watching his facial expressions to his young charges as they did number after number, one would have imagined he had never felt more tip-top.

Just before the curtains closed, Marilyn Helzerman stepped to Mr. Bennett's podium and presented him with a gift from the chorus.

Nothing could have pleased him more.

Afterwards Photographer Dick Dixon asked Mr. Bennett to hold the group so that he might get some shots for the yearbook.

And then began the second concert of the evening. As Dick went about his job, the kids began to sing some of their favorite numbers and for nearly 20 minutes they continued.

Parents and friends in the audience, waiting for the young people to be released, got a bang out of the extras and probably would have hung around until midnight if the music continued.

All of which proves, folks enjoy such programs and we should have more.

Many months ago we asked about the possibility of an amateur theatrical group being started in town.

It's my opinion that, if properly organized, such a unit would prosper here.

WE REALLY CAUGHT THE devil in two anonymous notes this week—about a signed letter we had printed.

We never run unsigned correspondence and seldom put much stock in it. Why do people, who are too timid to add their names, write letters to newspapers?

WINTER TAXES UP DUE TO COUNTY TAX INCREASE

The increases which taxpayers find on their winter tax notices are due to an additional mill levied on state equalized evaluations for County purposes.

Last year the county taxes were also raised one mill thus making an increase of two mills more than the three mills collected for county purposes in 1956.

This is an increase of 66-⅔% in the last two years. A large portion of this has been needed for welfare purposes.

Tecumseh school taxes for this year are slightly lower due to the fact that the increased evaluation of the school district and the discharge of the 1952 Bond Debt has enabled the Board to decrease the levy for bonds from 8 mills in 1957 to 6.45 mills in 1958.

However, because of increased operational costs, due especially to the requirement of the Notrh Central Association of Schools and Colleges of which the High School has been a member since 1918 that it reduce class size, necessitated the hiring of 14 additional teachers, the Board requested an increase in operational millage from 8 mills in 1957 to 9.35 mills in 1958.

This was the maximum millage which the Board could request under the 15 mill limitation as the County uses 5 mills and some of the townships in the school district use .65 mills.

Thus even though the school also operates the Public Library the total school tax was reduced slightly.

It requires a vote of the electors of the school district to raise operational taxes for school purposes if the combined county, township, and operation tax for school purposes exceeds the 15 mill limitation.

It requires only a vote of the supervisors to raise county taxes which therefore makes it necessary for schoool districts to go to the people for additional funds whenever the combined county, township and school rates exceed 15 mills.

Several high school districts in the county have already been forced to go to their school electors for additional operational funds.

Tecumseh has not yet done this, but it may be necessary sometime in the future if the county and townships continue to increase their taxes.

Progress Club Will Pack Food for Needy Folks

Mrs. Edwin Bunge was hostess at the home of Mrs. Robert Kennedy Monday evening for the Progress Extension Club.

Fifteen members were present.

A Christmas centerpiece was made by the group, following the business session when Mrs. Donald Steiner presided.

Refreshments were served and a box of food was packed for a needy family.

The Jan. 26 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sharon Hinkle at 116 W. Kilbuck St. The group will do ceramics.

Jan. 12 the Club will hold a Stanley party with Mrs. Robert Kennedy. Proceeds will go to the family that the club is helping. Anyone wishing the products may attend or order from Mrs. Kennedy.

Gloria Dei Lutherans Holds Program Dec. 24

Hello Santa Clause:

Could it be possible for you to some to see my children? I have two boys ages six and ten and two girls, who are three and two. One is awful sick, has been for two years and we tell her all the time about Santa to get her to take her medicine.

Their daddy has been sick six years and I have a terrible time meeting all my bills and keeping my boys in school.

She wants a doll for Christmas and the boy who is six wants a holster set and a watch. The ten-year-old says anything will do as long as it will help him in school.

Santa, if you can't make it I won't have a Christmas at all for the children. I hope you will understand a helpless woman with four children and a sick husband.

Yours truly,
Mrs. Bertie Barnett

New Directories Out

The most widely used book in Tecumseh, Clinton and Britton—the telephone directory — went into the mail this week.

"The new directory is bigger and more attractive than ever," said D. Clark, Tecumseh local manager for General Telephone.

Describing the cover for the new directory, Mr. Clark said, "It is entirely new and different from any other published, is the first to have color illustrations."

More than 3,528 directories will be distributed throughout this area with all up-to-date information.

Mr. Clark has this suggestion about the replacement of your directory: "Leaf through your old directory. You may find something valuable in it. Folks have filed money, important letters and notes, as well as cherished addresses, in telephone directories.

"And while you are going through the old directory, you'll want to transfer the frequently called numbers you have written, to the new book."

Mr. Clark pointed out that both inside covers have space provided for frequently called numbers; information to simplify long distance or emergency calling is listed within the introductory pages; and on the inside front cover are rates to the more frequently called out-of-town points.

Visit Dairy Farm

About 35 foreign students, attending the U. of M., and their instructor, David Glicksberg, arrived by bus Thursday evening at the Harold Rohrback farm to view a modern dairy farm at milking time.

From there they went to the William Brown farm to see the modern and scientific way of feeding beef cattle.

The group, of students, representing 17 foreign countries, were guests of the Tecumseh Grange that evening. After a pot-luck supper they observed the business session.

Mrs. Floyd Barrett was appointed community service chairman for the year.

Mrs. Raymond Seagert, Mrs. Roger Gillespie and Mrs. Walter Wonderly were appointed to pack Christmas baskets for the needy.

A Christmas box was sent to Jack McClue who is in the Armed Services.

☆

GUESTS WERE present from Rome, Fruit Ridge, Madison and North Adrian Granges. Ruby Yuetter and Mrs. Geraldine Winans, county deputies, gave a few remarks.

The program opened with Christmas carols with Mrs. Keith Swain at the piano. Judy Rhorback and Janie Dickerson presented tap dances and the Rev. and Mrs. Gustavx Hannevik sang the duet, "O Holy Night."

The students entertained the Grange members with poems, songs, dances and group singing in their native languages. Dancing was enjoyed by all to conclude the evening.

The Christmas party will be held at the next meeting Dec. 26 with a 35c gift exchange. Members are asked to bring candy, pop corn or apples.

AVOID RAW SEAMS

In purchasing infant clothing, look for good workmanship, recommend Michigan State University home economists. Be careful to avoid raw seams in nighties, shirts and sleepers that might chafe baby's tender skin.

POCKETS NEAR WRISTS

Here's a sewing tip from Mic[h]igan State University extensio[n] clothing specialists. Pockets o[n] adult garments should be place[d] near the wrist when the arm is slightly bent. A slightly high[er] position is better for children.

Suffer 2 Loses

Two successive losses dropped the Tecumseh Indians below the .500 mark, the second loss handed out by high-scoring Dundee, 75-53, Tuesday night at Dundee.

Tecumseh, potentially a top-notch team in the area, never found the shooting range at Dundee and was out of the game at half time.

Darryl Miller and Don Tonnyson each collected 21 points for Dundee.

Murph Reports

By DON MURPHY
Executive Secretary

WHERE ARE WE GOING?

A community, like any other part of our modern world, cannot stand still. It must either advance or retreat in a highly competitive field.

A town must be alert and aggressive or soon become a community dominated by conservative elderly citizens uninterested in progress.

One of the unsung, yet most important advantages to be derived by a community from the acquisition of new business is keeping young people at home in the community by providing opportunities for them. Securing new industry, or business of any nature, is definitely a sales promotion job. In order to do a successful job of selling any product the salesman must have full knowledge of what is in his product and what it will do for the prospective customer.

It is equally true that you must know what you have in your community to offer prospective industries if you wish to attract new industry to your community.

☆

INDUSTRY IS interested in a community as a location only to the degree in which that community possesses the factors that will enable industry to operate successfully.

Securing new industry is not an easy task.

It requires continuing concerted effort as competition is keen, not only between communities in our own state, but between states as well.

Many of our southern and western states, which have never been considered as industrial, have had a taste of improved economy because of new business and are making an "all-out" effort to obtain more.

The cooperative effort we make now to keep the industries we have and attract new industries to our communities have a marked effect on the future economy of our state.

The small community that wants industry is in a better position to secure it than ever before.

The National Industrial Conference Board in its study "Deboard indicates that in the foreseeable future it is highly improbable that atomic warfare may be directed against communities of less that 50,000 population or industrial concentrations of less than five square miles.

☆

INDUSTRY ITSELF is interested in the small community be centralization of Industry" states that nearly one-third of the industries that have located or relocated since 1940 are now in cities of less than 10,000 population.

The Department of Defense recommends decentralization of defense industries. A report of the National Security Resources cause of better labor markets, living conditions and tax structures.

Industry is on the move, but to direct the movement of a desirable industry to your community may require a tremendous amount of effort and even more patience on the part of your industrial committee.

Good industries expect little or nothing from a community except a welcome and cooperative spirit. Their concern is with what is in a community. There are certain location factors pertinent to the success of any industry. Such factors are naturally of first interest to them seeking a location.

☆

BELOW ARE the statistics on how JUST ONE small industry employing 50 persons can effect the economy of a community:

Support from 300 to 400 people.

Require 75 to 100 homes.

Put 200 children in school.

Require six teachers.

Cause the purchase of 100 automobiles.

Support 10 stores with annual sales of $175,000.

Enable eight professional people (dentists, doctors, lawyers, ministers, etc.) to live in the community.

Pay about $175,000 annually for transportation.

Buy the products of 1,800 acres of land.

Provide a payroll of $65,000 to $85,000.

Establish a tax foundation of $800,000.

You find from the above that one average small industry will reflect itself in your housing, your schools, commerce, transportation, traffic and your tax revenue. So again I ask, "WHERE ARE WE GOING?"

VACANCIES—APT'S TO LET!

In the yard across the street, grow two big evergreen trees. One is at least 40 feet tall and proudly reaches its perfectly shaped top straight up. The other is much shorter and quite squatting, its top having been broken off years and years ago.

These two trees are the most popular bird apartment houses in the neighborhood.

As to how many birds they play host to each year, I would not venture a guess, but the number must be high.

Their natural habit of growth offers much shelter and in addition to this, they grow in front of a house which faces east and thus acts as a windbreak.

When the first wintry blasts sends the thermometer tumbling, all sorts of birds head for these trees and start looking over the accomodations.

☆

FOR A FEW days after the season's first cold snap, the air is full of birds; they mill about, flying in and out of the dense, shaggy foliage.

Only after a through check of the accomodations do they sign the lease.

Cardinals, bluejays and mourning doves, all give Marsh's evergreens as their winter address; sparrows, tufted titmice and juncos also call them home.

As in any large group there are always a few spoilers— in this case, starlings. Dirty and noisy birds, they are most undesirable.

The cardinals, and bluejays are the most colorful tenants. Oh, how the male cardinal's brilliant scarlet shows up against the dark green foliage. He makes an even more gorgeous picture after the trees have been gently dusted with snow.

The jays of course, are not so particular about selecting a complimentary backg r o u n d; however, when they do perch in an open spot or on a limb's end they too present a lovely sight.

The other birds, either because they are small in size or less flamboyant in color, we seldom notice as they rest in the trees. But their comings and goings certainly attract a lot of attention and are interesting to watch. The "in and out" traffic is almost constant.

The sparrows and the most unwelcomed starlings go and come in flocks. So far the starling group is small, we hope it will stay that way, but unfortunately starlings have a habit of sending home "for the rest of the family"

The soft gentle mourning doves are seen one at a time or in company with others. Actually, except for the starlings, which the other birds wisely shun and the bluejays, who hold themselves above all others, most of the tenants are good mixers and happily, get along well together.

IN ADDITION to the apartment trees affording excellent protection against "winter's worst", they are also well situated, close to food.

There are numerous feeders throughout the neighborhood and of course, the creek, usually open in several spots even through the coldest weather, is a king-size drinking fountain.

Then too, when the snow drifts high, Marsh's really make the living easy for their feathered guests. Each day quantities of food are put under the trees. Such service—the birds find a bountiful banquet layed right at their door step.

From the evergreens to our feeding stations it is clear sailing and we often see the birds come directly to us from their apartments.

The bluejays will make trip after trip from one point to another with never a stop in-between. Zooming into the feeder they grab a mouthful of seeds or corn and then sail back to the sheltered protection of home to eat in comfort.

Sometimes when our feeders, and even the yard, seem covered with nothing but sparrows, we become tired of their incessant quarreling and bickering. Having someone go to the window and wave his arms alleviates the situation. Frightened, the birds rise en masse, head straight for the safety of the evergreens.

For protection, for shelter, for food, Marsh's evergreens must be hard to beat. They have happy tenants all year around of course, but winter is their busiest season.

As the bird guest list grows and grows, we watch, as the trees fill up, and wait for the "no vacancy" sign to be put out—so far it never has been!

WE STICK TO OUR LASTS

There was a time when pharmacists often were called "Doc."
Doubtless it was a complimentary gesture.

Even in this late day, the pharmacist frequently is asked to diagnose and prescribe by his customers.

But like the shoemaker, we pharmacists stick to our own lasts. We neither diagnose nor prescribe. These health team functions fall within the special province of physicians both by law and professional training.

As a member of the health team, we are an intermediary, serving both the doctor and the patient. Our job is to compound your prescriptions carefully and promptly.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

One Man's Hen is Another Man's Rooster

My last column was about Whitey Fisher and his chicken farm—and now Whitey has made news again.

Whitey entertained some folks from the city last weekend and they toured his modern barn. The visitors asked all sorts of questions. The best was: "How do you tell if the two-day-old chicks are hens or roosters?"

"Easy," answered Whitey. "Just take the chicks one at a time. Place some corn meal in front of it. If she eats it, she's a hen. If he eats it, he's a rooster."

From where I sit, some answers that sound like they make sense turn out to be the silliest of all. For instance, a friend recently objected to my choice of a glass of beer with supper. When I asked him why, he replied: "I've had only coffee with my dinner for the last twenty years." Now that's not only silly—it's intolerant too. Neighbors ought to tend to the "eggs in their own baskets."

by Perry Cook

A customer told us at COOK ELECTRIC that she tuned-in a station more than a thousand miles away. "How come, I thought about 70 miles was the limit?" She asked.

It is true that TV has a very limited range. The sending tower sprays a signal in all directions to the horizon to a distance of about 70 miles and depending upon heights of antennas.

However, some of these signals go upward also and disappear into outer space. It is when these signals bounce back to earth that you receive these long distance pictures. They are called 'freak or ghost' signals and bounce back to earth because of weather conditions or the effects of sunspots on the earth's atmosphere. Sometimes a signal will bounce several times between earth and outer elements and reach great distances.

This happens unfrequently and cannot be controlled. It can spoil good reception for many hours. There is no damage caused by it. To be sure of getting to the bottom of any TV problem, phone 692-J. We give continuous service and guarantee it.

Farmers Have Choice in Filing of Income Tax

Farmers, another year has passed and it is just about income tax filing time again.

To find out when your income tax return is due, answer the following two questions:

1 — Is at least two-thirds of your gross income from farming?

2—Does your taxable year begin on Jan. 1?

If the answer to both these questions is YES, you have two choices:

1—File your return and pay the tax by Feb. 16 or

2—File an estimate of the tax due and pay it by Jan. 15, then wait until April 15, to file the tax return itself.

So, if you file the estimate and pay the tax by Jan. 15, you have an additional three months to file your income tax return. If not, both the tax return and tax are due Feb. 16.

You can read about special filing dates in the "Farmers Tax Guide" which can be obtained from your County Agricultural Agent or the local Internal Revenue Service Office.

Fund Leaders Honored

Despite wintery driving conditions following a snowfall of four inches, more than 600 Michigan community leaders gathered at Kellogg Center Dec. 9 for the annual Campaign Achievement Celebration of the Michigan United Fund.

Attending from Tecumseh were Mr. and Mrs. Walt Nichols, Harry Spencer and Mrs. T. Rentschler.

Other from the county were Howard White of Deerfield, Dave Hendrickson of Hudson and Steve Hrisko and Charles Wesley of Adrian.

The celebration is held annually by the Michigan United Fund to honor the campaign leaders of every United Fund or Community Chest throughout Michigan.

☆

PRESIDING AT the meeting was Kenneth C. Tiffany, vice-president of the Burroughs Corporation and President of the Michigan United Fund, who noted,

"Although these campaigns were conducted during a year when our economy was below the level of preceding years, community after community reached new heights in united campaigning."

Campaign chairmen and presidents of each local group were awarded a certificate of merit for the voluntary leadership.

Principal speaker Dr. R. C. S. "Scotty" Young said,

"Through a United Fund the American people preserve one of America's greatest heritages, the spirit of voluntary cooperation."

Dr. Young pointed out that in most countries people who receive aid from health and welfare agencies become dependent on these agencies because they are instruments of the state and thereby tell the recipient of aid what he can do and when he can do it.

But, in the United States Dr. Young continued, the purpose of our social agencies is not to make people dependent upon them, but rather to help people become independent.

"SCIENCE SURPASSES THE MIRACLES OF MYTHOLOGY"

The practice of medicine and pharmacy in ancient days was based chiefly on wishful hope. Little was known about how the body was constructed. Most diseases were considered to be caused by evil spirits.

Modern perfected methods of diagnosis enable physicians to correctly determine the cause of sickness. Fortified by this knowledge and ably assisted by recently perfected drugs they often, almost overnight, produce results that were formerly impossible. That is why now, more than ever, it is wise to consult your physician when sick.

BRIDGET MILLER

An essay contest about Christmas was conducted for young people of the area by the Chamber of Commerce. Entries poured in for both divisions (ages 8 to 13 and 14 to 19), making the task of judging no little chore.

The job was handled by Tecumseh's Allan Seager, U. of M. English Literature professor and a veteran novel and short story writer, who carefully went through the essays.

Five prizes were awarded: $15 in cash for first place in each division, $10 for seconds and $5 awarded each for thirds, fourths and fifths.

The older division winners received theirs at the Teen Dance Saturday evening and the younger ones at the free show that afternoon.

Don Murphy, Chamber secretary, made the presentations.

VERA MICHAJLENKO

GROUP II (AGES 8 to 13)

FIRST PRIZE

Christmas doesn't mean the georgeously decorated Christmas Tree, the beautiful lights that glitter and shine in the dark or the gaily wrapped presents under the tree. It's true meaning is the celebration of the birth of the Savior of the world. His light should shine in our lives everyday.

Bridget Miller
ten years old.
Grade: Five
St. Elizabeth School

SECOND PRIZE

Christmas is a birthday, the birthday of Jesus. How often we distort that meaning, substituting false ideals and earthly pleasures. It is true, material goods mean something but the first and most beautiful meaning of Christmas is the rejoicing and beauty of the birthday of Jesus.

Dianne Donahoe
Age: Thirteen
Grade: Eight
St. Elizabeth School

THIRD PRIZE

Broken presents, half eaten candy, and a big mess is the extent of Christmas for many. True Christmas, however, expresses the birthday of the Little King, Whose humble birthplace pleased Him greatly. On this day we should enjoy our gifts but also remember His example and be pleased with little.

Shirley Horn
Grade: Seven
Age: Twelve
St. Elizabeth School

FOURTH PRIZE

Families have lived on the earth since Adam but there is one family known and loved by all. This holy family was Joseph, Mary and Jesus Christ. To me, Christmas celebrates the birth of the Holy Babe who came to save all men and to teach them the way to heaven.

Joanne Brion
Age: Ten
Grade: Fifth
St. Elizabeth School

FIFTH PRIZE

Christmas is like a candle. The Christ Child will be the light of my heart, and will warm it with joy. Mary and Joseph are the wick to guide the flame to the end. The angels will hover over the candle always ready to protect it.

Margaret Applin
Grade: Eight
Age. Thirteen
St. Elizabeth School

GROUP I (AGES 14 through 18)

FIRST PRIZE

I'll always remember the Christmas in Austria. The little house we shared with three families did not have the happiness of Christmas. Father was out of work. We needed food, clothing, and fuel. There would be no presents this year.

Now we are in America. The true meaning of Christmas carries a new message. For wasn't Christ born in a cold and lonely stable.

Vera Michajlenko
Grade 11, Tecumseh High
17 years old

SECOND PRIZE

Christmas to me means vacation. Time off from school to do what I like. It also means presents, money, and a big meal. Christmas also is the time of the year when people are happy and gay. Christmas is the time when everybody is buying presents to give their family and friends.

William Laprad
Grade 10, Tecumseh High
15 years old

THIRD PRIZE

When I hear the word "Christmas" many thoughts come to my mind, but the most important thought is the day of the birth of a wonderful Savior. Christmas is a time of giving, but I believe the people of today have turned Christmas into a commercialized holiday. The parents of today fail to express the true meaning of Christmas to their children. These adults constantly talk of Santa Claus to their children and therefore supply the children with a one tracked mind about Christmas. What is this one tracked mind? Why of course, Santa Claus, goodies, and gifts of all sorts, as I said before, when I hear the word Christmas I still think of the birth of our wonderful Savior.

Mary Tilton
Grade 10, Tecumseh High
14 years old

FOURTH PRIZE

What does the spirit of Christmas mean to me? It means the brilliantly lit Christmas tree with its shiny ornaments and shimmering tinsel, the solemn simplicity of the creche, and the decorations of the holly and mistletoe, all portraying Christmas in their own unique way. And the hushed expectancy of Christmas Eve and the feeling of fullfillment on Christmas morn are the beautiful climaxes of the true Christmas spirit.

Jane Hodges
Grade 10, Tecumseh High
15 years old

FIFTH PRIZE

Christmas means a fairyland of shimmering white with sprays of soft, fluffy snow being swept over everything in sight. The sun shines down, making rays through the glass, and crystal droplets of ice suspend from trees like diamonds in a treasure chest. On everyone's face is a glow of giving, meaning Christmas to me.

Karin Walker
Grade: 11, Tecumseh High
16 years old

THE Long & Short OF IT

SOME TIMES THE NEWS ARrives by dog sled—but like we say, better late than never—and with the kind of weather we've been enjoying, what could be more appropriate.

This is a report of the state Apple Queen contest in Grand Rapids earlier this month.

One of the contestants was Judy Tolford of Adrian, who won the Lenawee County title right here in Tecumseh.

Well, Judy didn't get the Michigan crown, but she reports—via her mother—that she had lots of fun.

Garbed in Tecumseh-purchased clothes, Judy spent two evenings at the contest, one for the judging and the other for a coronation ball.

Suzanne Davis, 19, of Belding and a University of Michigan junior, was awarded the title.

☆

TWO OF THE MOST SURPRISed and happiest people in Tecumseh last Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rocheleau, 604 Orchard Lane, both employees at Talon, Inc.

It was their 25th wedding anniversary and what a charming present their fellow Talonites gave them.

A silver money tree, adorned with 25-cent pieces was presented to the startled couple.

Designed by Mickey Davis and Alice Foos, the tree was a cutting from a barbery bush and it and the flower pot in which it was placed were sprayed with silver paint.

From the branches hung silver quarters, made fast with silver tape.

☆

CHRISTMAS IS EVERYWHERE and in just a few more hours, the well-loved holiday will be with us.

In the hustle and bustle we often lose sight of its real meaning.

It's the birthday of Jesus Christ

Busy, You Say, How about This Tecumseh Mom?

Mrs. George Walworth has really had her hands full the past weeks — and not just wrapping gifts.

Son Geoffrey, age 4½, broke his leg and has had it in a cast. Shortly after the break he caught chicken pox.

On Friday, daughter Chris Anne, 2, got into the act by coming down with mumps.

Philosophically, Mrs. Walworth, whose hubsand is the Presbyterian Church minister, muses, "We're happy to get everything out of the way all at once."

Hawaiian Visitor Finds U.S. Wonderful Place, But Chilly

When Coast Guardsman Tom Rudd arrived home on a 30-day Christmas leave he brought along a shipmate—much to the delight of Tom's younger brother and sisters.

Ever since Tom and Nick Nakata of Hawaii arrived at the Rudd home on 506 Parkway Ct., the place has rung with laughter.

"We call Nick 'Giggles' " smiles Mrs. Paul Rudd, Tom's mother who is delighted with the guest and having her son home, "Nick is always laughing."

The Rudd twins, Don and Donna, 12; Helen, 10 and Ruth Ann, 5 are all thrilled with Nick.

The two Coast Guardsmen, both seaman, serve aboard the cutter, Kukui, which has Sand Island, Honolulu as its home port.

Their ship supplies long-range navigation vessels on a once-a-year trip which takes the Kukui all the way to Japan. Included in the junket is a leave at Hong Kong.

Food aboard their ship rates average.

THIS IS Nick's first visit to the States and he is enjoying it.

"It's big, it's a wonderful place and it's cold," grins Nick.

Born in Pauhau, Hawaii of Japanese parents, Nick says there is no Santa Claus in his homeland, but folks do exchange gifts at Christmas.

Nick's family is of the Buddist religion, but he is becoming a Christian. Nick explains that the children are permitted to choose the faith they wish to practice.

Christmas Eve he will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Rudd and their children when they attend Midnight Mass at St. Elizabeth's.

During their leave, Tom and Nick hope to make some trips about the state, including a swing to northern Michigan where Tom was once stationed.

The leave ends Jan. 11 when the pair is slated to report back aboard ship.

The seaman flew from Honolulu to Los Angeles, then hitched rides the rest of the way. They'll probably follow the same pattern in reverse going back.

The evening was spent socially, exchanging gifts from beneath a gaily-decorated tree and revealing secret pals.

Colorful refreshments were served by the hostesses and Mrs. Buelah Todd received the guest prize.

Mrs. Cecil Smith will entertain the group for the next meeting.

The children brought white gifts for dedication. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley McConnell entertained members and guests of the Senior Choir of the church Wednesday evening at their home following the rehearsal.

Games were enjoyed with prizes "awarded", an exchange of sweets was made and refreshments were served from a table centered with holly and candles.

MAIDENS MEET

The North Franklins Maidens will meet Dec. 29 for a work meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Joseph.

Indians Meet Adrian

Undefeated Adrian invades the Tecumseh gym next Tuesday evening and is a solid favorite to hand Tecumseh its fourth loss of the season.

The potent Indians, faltering to only two victories against four defeats, have not showed the class exhibited last year when they copped the district tourney here.

Probable Indian starters against Adrian are Bob O'Neill, Jack Sisson, Dan Cisco, Larry Yoakum and Steve Kruger.

Jim Poley, recovering from a shoulder injury, is expected back soon and should give the Indians additional strength.

Erratic ball handling and passing, coupled with poor shooting percentages have led to Tecumseh's defeats.

After beating Clinton and Milan, Tecumseh dropped consecutive games to Hillsdale, Willow Run and Dundee.

and should most appropriately be begun with attendance at a religious service.

There's one Christmas custom I learned about for the first time this winter—a birthday cake for the Christ Child. (Which proves no matter how old and gray one becomes, you can pick up new facts.)

The cakes are baked for family or church groups to be eaten on Christmas day. They focus attention of the young folks on the true reason for celebrating Christmas.

If you have children at home why don't you bake a cake for the Infant this year?

Tecumseh Flying Club's ship wings over city Sunday. This shot was made from a plane in which Dick Jacobs took up photographer Paul Surratt.

Here's Chance To Fly

Tecumseh Flying Club is looking for new members.

Formed last May by 10 men, the group purchased a two-seater Aeronca 10, which is kept at Meyers Field.

Each paid in $125 for the purchase and later added another $40 so that the ship could be reconditioned.

Dues of $5 a month pay for oil and maintenance and when a member flies he is charged $1.75 per hour for fuel.

It's the cheapest possible way to fly," states John McVay, one of the members.

Fellows wishing to join and obtain a share in the club may do so for $165 each.

Additional cash from new members will buy a four-seater air ship, which can be used for cross-country flying.

☆

SUCH GROUPS as the Tecumseh club are becoming popular. One in Ann Arbor has 50 members and three planes, another in downriver Detroit with 18 flyers owns a trio of ships.

Among the members here are Bill Davenport, who is president and a licensed instructor; Forest Abner, Howard Case, Ross Hadley, John McVay, Elwyn Merx, Jim Smith, Ray Thompson, Frank Bisher and Thad Lickfelt.

Of this number, eight have licenses.

The group meets every Monday night from 8 until 10 along with the senior Civil Air Patrol at the CAP shack on the Meyers Field. It's always an informal coffee-and-donuts session.

"Men interested in joining, whether they already fly or wish to learn, should drop in at one of these meetings," invites Mr. McVay.

He estimates that 100 men in the community already have "private tickets" (licenses.)

Former Resident Will Be Married

Mr. and Mrs. Emerle Franklin Stephenson of Como, N. C. are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Mary Augustine to George Arthur Hammel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Arthur Hammel of St. Albans, West Virginia.

Miss Stephenson was graduated from East Carolina College in Greenville, N. C.

Her fiance is a graduate of West Virginia Institute of Technology at Montgomery.

The wedding will take place January 11.

George Hammel formerly worked in Tecumseh.

Safety Lesson Is Necessity With Rifle Gift

Air or .22 caliber rifles given boys or girls for Christmas can provide many hours of fun and sport. And when handled properly they can be as safe as a baseball bat.

Charles Shick, wildlife specialist at Michigan State University, believes that there is more to a gift of this type than just giving it to a person. He thinks safeey training is a necessary part.

Weapons such as an air rifle or a .22 caliber rifle are impartial; they have no conscience and when improperly used they can hit a companion as easily as a tin can.

Lead BB's can travel 600 feet a second and pack enough wallop to cause severe injury. A "22" bullet may travel a mile a level, open country, Shick says.

The wildlife specialist think youths taught to follow accepted gun safety rules while using an air rifle or "22" will enjoy their training and will find it valuable when handling shotguns or high powered rifles in later years.

Boys and girls should be taught to be ever-conscious of the old western saying, "A gun is always loaded." Shick says this is the basic idea behind all gun safety.

Dean Collins returned home Monday from Fort Leonard Wood, in Missouri. He will spend the holidays with his wife Marjorie and his parents.

Through My Window

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Forgive me for getting personal, but during this wondrous Christmas season it seems fitting that we all re-examine and re-affirm our faith. If anyone ever has doubts about the existence of a Supreme Being, an all powerful Father, he need only to look outside at nature.

The beauty of a bird, the perfection of a single feather; the always fascinating parade of clouds across the sky; the miracle of growing things, trees, grass and flowers.

The fury of a strong wind; the flash and crash of a thunder storm; the soft quietness of a gentle snow fall.

The bright warmth of sunshine, the muted stillness of a heavy fog.

The glory of a sunrise and the splender of a sunset.

These are a few of the things that make us believe.

☆

NEXT WEDNESDAY night it will be 12 years since an automobile accident left me completely paralyzed from the neck down.

Twelve years—it sounds like a long time, but looking back it doesn't seem long.

Tecumseh has been good to me. Wonderful friends and the most marvelous family a person could ever wish for have made my life full and rich.

Although most of my time is, of necessity, spent in bed, I can, with the aid of full-length body braces, comfortably sit in a wheel chair or the car.

When warm weather permits, I love to get outside. In the wheel chair we prowl the neighborhood enjoying the lovely yards and gardens.

Rides in the car, whether short drives through our pretty countryside or long two-week vacations which we occasionally are privileged to take, are always exciting.

☆

BUT, AS mentioned before, most of my time is spent in bed — a hospital bed the head of which elevates so that some part of each day I can spend sitting up.

When in an upright position I look out through lovely big picture windows at well landscaped yards, always busy bird feeders and a picturesque stretch of twisting and turning Evans Creek.

And look up, the world outside still attracts my attention. Birds, tree tops and the vast expanse of the heaven, whether it be blue or gray, is always inspiring.

Truly, no matter where we look there is a constant reminder of Him whose Son's birthday we are celebrating this joyous season.

In closing, may I wish you all the Merriest of Christmases and Happiest of New Years. May you find lots of presents beneath your Christmas tree and a full measure of peace and joy in your heart.

Next Week:
Give It To The Birds.

Next time you're talking "from the shoulder"—try a bit higher up.

Pack 73 Holds Party

The annual Christmas program for Pack 73 was held Wednesday evening at the Union Hall.

The meeting opened with the flag ceremony with Gilbert Relyea, Stanley Lewis, Michael Zorn and Pat Smith presenting the colors.

One of the highlights of the evening was when Mrs. John Snyder led the group in Christmas carols as the cubs marched individually by dens to the tree and left his gift for some needy child and also helped trim the tree by putting on his own home made Christmas ornament. Those helping the cubs to trim the trees were Richard Witt and Donald Brees.

A humorous skit commemorating Christmas was presented by Den 1. Mrs. Fred Dickinson, Den mother, was surrounded by the cubs as she read the Christmas story from the Bible. She was assisted by Mrs. Robert Murray.

The Webelos also presented an interesting skit, "Old McDonald's Farm."

The following Bobcats were received and accepted into the Pack: Christopher Finnegan, Eddie Gottschalk, Daniel Green, Larry Jenkins, Michael Kossey, Douglas Mitchell, Terry and Robert Yoder.

SILVER ARROWS were presented to Gary Spillman, Merton Boss, Mike Zorn. A gold arrow was presented to Larry Kiser.

The following badges were presented:

Wolf badges, Mervin Smith and Gary Easton;

Bear badges, Howard Miller, Merton Boss and Levi Wertenan.

One year pins were presented to Mrs. Journey Stoner, Mrs. Edgar Relyea, Arthur Holdridge, Neri Collingsworth and Dan Reed.

Two year pins went to Mrs. Ben Gillis, Mrs. John Snyder, Charles Lewis, Wilmer Kiser, Kennard Wise, Gilbert Relyea, Gordon Haviland, David Wagner, Mike Zorn, John Snyder, Tom Drake, Glen Barton, Jeffrey Robinson and Tom Dickinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dickinson and Mrs. Howard Wilson each received a four year pin.

The investure into scouts and presentation of Weblo badges was presented by Howard Wilson to Wayne Brooks, Robert Titley and Douglas Huber.

"Cubby" was awarded to Den 3 for having the highest percentage of parents present. This den is led by Mrs. Roland Boyers and Mrs. Royce Durkee.

The closing ceremony was led by the Cubmaster Neri Collingsworth and as the cubs left they were presented with a treat from Santa.

Free Toss Breaks Tie, Wins Cage Tilt

Philip Stutesman sank a free throw to break a 34-34 tie and give Britton Baptist's cagers a sudden-death overtime win over North Adams Monday night at Clayton.

Dave Withrow was high for Britton with 15 while Glenn Williams had seven. The win gives Britton a 2-1 record and a tie for second place.

Murph Reports

By DON MURPHY
Executive Secretary

We citizens of Tecumseh [illegible] plain members of the human race, are naturally opposed to any further debt—whether the same be that of the city, the school district, state or nation.

The old saying — "There are many places you can be hurt, but where it hurts the most is in the pocketbook", can appropriately be used in what I am about to say.

Our city as we all know is growing rapidly, not as rapidly as to give us growing pains, but enough to cause our city government concern when there are jobs to be done and no money to do them with.

In the past the city has had to borrow large amounts of money to do some necessary improvements.

That necessitates charging the property owners for the improvements, the property owners then take this charge on a time basis, say two or three years to pay for these improvements.

This money costs the taxpayers interest and makes it tough on City Fathers.

A plan has been drafted by the city and city attorney, patterned after a Michigan State Law, which will need the aproval of the electrorate next February.

This is the $100,000 Revolving Fund Bond Issue.

☆

AT FIRST IMPACT, it may seem that the $100,000 Bond Issue would be something that should be instinctively opposed because of our other expenses.

However, the reverse is the case, for this $100,000 is not to be borrowed to spend—but is being borrowed to save.

The money will be lent to citizens of Tecumseh in connection with special assessment projects, and special assessment projects only, such as sewer and water.

This is advantageous to the individual homeowner in that he need not suddenly raise substantial sums of money to cover a special assessment affecting his property.

He can retire the obligation over a period of years, paying to the city an interest rate slightly in access of that which the city must pay, but still lower than the rate he could borrow elsewhere.

Such a procedure in addition to being advantageous to the homeowner, will also be advantageous to the city, as special assessment projects may be prosecuted on a cash basis.

This permits not only an actual saving to the city, but permits city planners to schedule projects on a sound and permanent basis—rather than upon a "Crash Program" which is dependent upon uncertain future revenues.

☆

WHAT SHOULD please us most is that we will always have the $100,000 for the law requires that we have it either in cash or in special assessment liens receivable.

Instead of spending money and then assessing a tax to repay it we are forcing ourselves to save a fund of money which can never be spent, but which will always be a source of containing revenue to the city.

Furthermore, this procedure may be done at no cost to the taxpayers, and other things being equal, will result in a decrease in municipal expenditures, rather than an increase.

As mentioned above it has been necessary for the municipality to borrow at least $20,000 per year for different projects. These loans have had to be paid back and this has cost the city about that sum annually.

The entire servicing and reduction of the Bond Issue should not require much in access of $8,000 annually, an immediate saving to the tax payers of about $12,000 per year.

The Revolving Fund has only recently been authorized by State Law and we should be among the first to take advantage of its provisions.

Nurses Aides Party

The nurses aides of Herrick Memorial Hospital held their fourth annual Christmas potluck supper Tuesday evening in the hospital dining room.

An exchange of gifts was held. Guests for the evening were members of the housekeeping department.

After the party the aides placed a decorated tree in the hospital corridor.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Windy Needs Less Horse-power!

A bunch of us—Windy Taylor included—went to see Easy Roberts' new two-year-old filly. She's a real beauty!

Right off the bat, Windy was the "authority." He told Easy what kind of bridle to buy, what saddle. He even suggested that Easy was not keeping her in a warm enough stall.

Finally Windy pointed to the horse feed Easy had purchased and said, "Oh, no, not that. There's a much better brand." Easy smiled and said, "Really? When was the last time you ate some?"

From where I sit, the best advice is not to give too much advice, too often. Sooner or later, you intrude on people's personal preferences. Like who to vote for, or what car to buy—even what beverage is most refreshing. Me—I'll take a glass of beer but maybe you like iced tea. Fine! Let's respect each other's choice and not debate each other "hoarse."

Did They Cost Too Much?

"I've been to two new school dedications," the man was saying, "And I want to know how come there had to be so much [illegible] extras'?"

This could be a common reaction when first you walk into one of the striking new educational structures recently opened here.

Maybe we're going way off the deep end by stepping into such a delicate situation—we say delicate, because this was taxpayers' money being spent and everyone who ever went to school is a pseudo expert on the subject.

But here we go.

It's always good to have someone question a public expenditure, because then the originator of the idea must go back over his plan and make sure he isn't off base.

Even after the money has been committed, questions should still be asked if citizens feel they are legitimate. It won't change the present picture, but will keep officials alert in a similar situation at some future year.

Now about the "extras" our friend mentioned.

There are some, we'll agree, but from an over all look at the Ridgeway and High School additions, new buildings for Macon, Tipton and Tecumseh Acres, we feel the money has been pretty well spent.

People are gun shy when new tax dollars are added—and why shouldn't they be. The situation in recent years has been touch-and-go and it's going to be worse as the state attempts to work its way out of a $100 million deficit.

But buying schools is a long-term investment in the future and we should seek the best possible return for our dollars. It's the old story of paying $15 for a pair of shoes which will give wear and service half a dozen years (with a retap job or two), as against an $8 pair which never looks as good and is discarded after a year.

A lot has to be taken into consideration in planning a new school and it doesn't hurt if the finished product is eye-appealing — inside and out.

Sometimes good looks and modern decor are mistaken for extravagance. Many of us subconsciously might feel that schools which don't look like ones we attended or have been used to seeing around and appear extreme in architecture probably cost too much.

Each item has to be considered in relationship to the whole picture. This takes more than a superficial glance and sometimes requires answers from an expert.

In summation, we would say the taxpayers' money has been well spent and the children of the community are going to be the big winners.

A Stimulant to Learning

We shall never cease to enjoy the writings of young people, such as those stories entered in the Christmas essay contest.

This competition can do considerable to make youngsters more interested in the study of their native language—and thereby more proficient in its use, both spoken and written.

Far too many an American is unable to express himself—and we often find ourselves in this strait, groping for a word or two to fill out a sentence.

It happens, too, at social functions when we try to keep the conversational pot boiling with folks whose interests are foreign to ours.

Maybe it would be less difficult if we had been involved in essay contests while in grade school, thus whetting our appetite at an early age for the placing of one word smoothly after another.

We're sure it wouldn't have hurt a bit.

And we're equally positive that the opportunity to compete in the Christmas contest here this month aided everyone who took part, whether he or she won a prize or not.

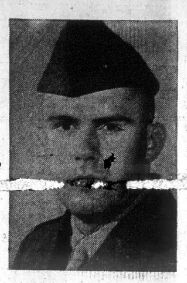
Lectures, tests, assigaments and reading for English courses mold a youngster's mind and his habits. The contest is an extra stimulant which gives an immediate goal that requires the student to put together all of his skills in one effort.

In struggling to turn out what he or she hopes will capture first place, the youth no doubt muses to himself or herself that more concentration in the subject might have made the job easier and the result a better bet in the race.

From this, we could surmise many resolutions being made to bear down harder in English courses in the future.

There's nothing like stiff competition ever so often to help a fellow—young or old—tote up his own personal score.

The boys and girls who competed in this year's endeavor were lucky to get the calibre of judging they had. Who could ask for more than a professor of English at a renowned midwestern university with 25 years in teaching and a veteran writer himself?



David G. Crocker Wins Commission in Marine Corps

QUANTICO, Va.—Commissioned a Marine second lieutenant Dec. 6, was David G. Crocker, son of Mrs. Jean V. Mutard, of 107 Adrian St., and husband of the former Doris M. Haist, 1120 Haist Rd., Chelsea Mich.

He is a graduate of the University of Michigan.

In order to qualify for a commission, he completed the ten weeks Officer Candidate Course at Quantico, which screens applicants from the nation's colleges and from the enlisted ranks.

He is now enrolled in the ninth-month officers basic course, also at Quantico, being trained as an infantry platoon leader.

State Police Urge Caution at Holidays

State Police are urging drivers to do even better than the low record of only three traffic deaths in Michigan, none of them on rural highways, over the New Year's holiday last year.

"Drivers have proved they can save lives and what better way to start the New Year than with no fatalities," says Commissioner Joseph A. Childs.

To help make it a safe holiday, all available troopers will be on duty.

Intensified patrols will start at noon Wednesday, December 31, and carry through on extended 10-hour shifts until 6 a.m. Thursday, January 1.

Detectives will perform desk duty to release uniform officers for additional patrols.

The State Police will be assisted by 50 National Guardsmen and the same number will work with sheriff's departments.

Commercial Classes Hear Talks by Lynn

Lynn VanWinkle, who attends a two-year secretarial course at Michigan State University, spoke to commercial classes at Tecumseh High School last week.

She talked about the advantages of continuing formal education after graduation from high school.

Frances Waggoner and Carl Beattie are commercial teachers here.

Women and Motor Mishaps

Among women under 65, motor vehicle accidents exceed all other accidents as a cause of death.

A report from the National Office of Vital Statistics on accidental deaths among women shows that most of the women killed [illegible] dents were drivers or passengers, not pedestrians.

Accidental injuries among women kill twice as many of them as diabetes and about four times as many as tuberculosis.

These sobering facts have nothing to do with facetious criticisms of women drivers. On the basis of fatal accidents per 100,000 drivers, three times as many men are killed at the wheel as women.

RATHER, auto accidents, as the chief cause of accidental death among women, are creating alarm by their steadily mounting rate over the past four years. Since 1954, this rate has grown [illegible] one-third.

Traffic engineers are designing and building safer roads and highways; safety organizations seek a solution through public education; high school driver training courses equip youngsters with safety skills they need.

But it appears that women, too, will have to take a more active part in solving this serious problem.

Women should interest themselves in driving safety, per se.

Mothers should be aware of the driver education their daughters are getting. They should get into community safety work wherever and whenever the opportunity presents itself.

If there is no opportunity, mothers should make one by [illegible] the nucleus of com[illegible] safety groups.

When women become a strong force for driving safety they will be helping to solve not only their own auto accident problem, but contributing an answer to the [illegible] as well.

Good Lighting Will Cost Less

Good lighting will make the farmstead a happier and safer place to work and live, believe agricultural engineers at Michigan State University.

There is no mystery and no guesswork about good lighting. It is simply the right kind of light, enough light and proper distribution of light, the engineers say.

When you can see what you are doing easily and comfortably, you have good light.

Agricultural engineers have prepared a booklet on lighting farm buildings that is based on studies of lighting and its effect on the human eye.

Where good lighting has been installed, they have found that it costs less than the results of poor lighting.

The publication, Lighting Farm Buildings, is available from the county extension office. Ask for circular 734 of the farm building series.

PROFANE JUNCTION
By Leslie White
A tree-swinging, exhilarating High Sierras.

TALE OF VALOR
By Vardis Fisher
This is a true saga of the heroic deeds and indomitable courage of the Lewis and Clarke expedition. It began when two captains and their men pushed off into the swirling yellow current of the broad Missouri to work their way to that unexplored river's headwaters hidden in the vastness of the Rockies.

SO MERCIFUL A QUEEN: SO CRUEL A WOMAN
By Alice Harwood
The beautifully intricate story of Kathryn and Mary Grey unfolds amid the political and religious turmoil, the callous cruelty and picturesque beauty of Tudor England. Elizabeth dominates the story, single-minded, ruthless, yet justified to a degree by the vision that drove her to the success she achieved.

CHEZ PAVAN
By Richard Llewellyn
A fascinating glimpse into the inner workings of a luxury hotel.

DOCTOR ZHIVAGO
By Boris Pasternak
This great novel is the first to come out of post-revolutionary Russia, and it appears with the stigma of the Communist Party's disapproval. But this sensational aspect should not obscure the fact it is a rich and moving book with an essentially religious undertone in spite of the theme of storm of war, of revolution, of human passions, of nature. Zhivago, a physician and poet, is the focal figure. Through his experiences the reader witnesses the outbreak and consequences of the Revolution, as well as his tender love for the beautiful Lara.

THE ONCE AND FUTURE KING
By T. H. White
This epic takes the great King Arthur from the glorious phase of his youth through the disillusioning early years of his reign to the mature years in which his vision of the Round Table develops into the search for the Holy Grail.

Wait in Cold Was Worth It

It was well worth standing in the cold 45 minutes Friday evening, grins Mrs. Chet Godzina of rural Britton.

That's how long its took to become the winner of an electric [illegible] in at the Hodges Drug Store.

With little Nancy Hodges pulling the slips and Ralph Seager announcing them over a public address system in front of the store, the suspense grew at eight smaller prizes were awarded.

The winners had to be present and there was a lot of trying before Mrs. Godzina's name came up.

She had patiently waited outside in the near-zero weather with a band of other hearty souls, while others crowded inside.

The train goes to her nine-year-old son Terry, a fourth grader at Britton-Macon School. Mr. Godzina works in Saline, also farms.

Winners of flashlights were: Shrelda Braden, Anna Blesing, John Boyer, Mrs. George Bower, Jerry Hale, Gary Buehrer, Larry Fairbanks and Robert Hunt.

Mrs. Herman Mehler called on her sister Mrs. Oscar Klenschmidt in Ann Arbor Saturday. Miss Wallie Jane Mehler of Ann Arbor spent the weekend with her parents.

A MERRY XMAS.

Most phone calls coming into COOK ELECTRIC generally mean a service call to the home. And working on television in the living room during the Christmas Season certainly has a big advantage. You get a lot of offers to try a Xmas cookie, pieces of chocolate and sometimes even that drink for the spirit. It certainly is a wonderful time of year, and you realize even more that friendship is truly the real meaning in life.

Naturally, it's impossible for us to see all our friends, but we want to say now, very emphatically, that we wish you all the very fullest of joys for this Christmas Season. And we mean everyone, too.

Christmas carols were sung, several special numbers were presented by a quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schwartz, Mrs. Fred Oberlin and Fred Dickinson.

Mr. Schwartz and Mr. Dickinson sang a duet and Mrs. Dickinson concluded the program with the reading of Christmas sermon, "Lets Keep Christmas" by Peter Marshall.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Al Williams and her committee.

Fire Burns Out Kitchen

A fire, which started near the stove in the kitchen of the Knights of Pythias Hall in Tipton, caused extensive damage Friday morning.

The kitchen, located in the basement, was completely burned out. Some damage, mostly smoke and water, was found in the dining room also located in the basement.

The lodge room on the first floor escaped.

The fire was discovered by Elwyn Shea as he was passing the hall, located south of M-50 on Tipton Highway.

Tecumseh and Sand Lake Fire Department were called.

Flames were quickly brought under control and the loss was covered by insurance.

Two insurance agents said they could not set an estimate at all on the damage, but a lot of the cost would be in labor. The kitchen will have to be completely rebuilt and refurnished.

Short skirts tend to make women look taller, since more of the leg area shows. The short woman can use this to advantage, point out Michigan State University home economists. The tall woman might find a modified version of the short skirt more becoming to her.

Farmers Can Get Special Tax Booklet

Income tax laws have special filing dates for individuals who are farmers for tax purposes.

The tax law says you are a farmer if AT LEAST two-thirds of your gross income is from farming.

If you held a job and also operated a farm, add your gross farm income to the wages earned.

If two-thirds of the total is made up of gross farm income, then you are a farmer for tax return filing purposes.

Know special filing dates for farmers and what is meant by farm gross income by reading the FARMERS TAX GUIDE.

Get your free copy of FARMERS TAX GUIDE from your County Agricultural Agent or the local Internal Revenue Service office.

168,000 Aliens Reported in '57

The Immigration Naturalization Service advises that the annual alien address report program will soon be under way.

A total of 168,000 aliens reported their addresses last year in the State of Michigan. The number this year is expected to be slightly larger.

The Immigration offical pointed out that the address reports are required by law and willful failure to comply with these requirements may lead to serious consequences.

Forms with which to make the reports are available at all post offices and Immigration offices. It is an easy matter to fill out one of the cards and return it to the same office.

Trained personnel will be on hand in all Immigration offices to answer any questions.

With Tecumseh Teens

BY MARY V. SEAGER

THERE WAS A NEWSPAPER staff meeting Thursday night after school in Mr. Babcock's room. Plans were made for the next issue which will be published the week after school reopens. The second issue will carry advertising to help finance the paper.

☆

A STUDENT COUNCIL meeting was held under the leadership of its President, Doris Oliphant on Friday. Both the treasurer's and secretary's reports were approved by the members.

A motion was made and approved not to read the treasurer's report at the same time as the secretary's report is read over the public address sysytem at school.

The new textbook covers with the school's picture and emblem on them were shown and a price of one for 15c or two for 25c was decided.

Bill Fielder reported for the senior lounge committee. He described the furniture that has been purchased for the room. The lounge will be in one-half of the old cafeteria. Seniors with a 2.7 average or above will be allowed to come down to the lounge during their study periods.

It was decided to continue the Spirit Trophy, even though the Senior class wins it each yeyar due to the fact that their class is smaller and therefore the percentage of class members at an athletic event would be higher.

Mr. Hart attended the meeting and discussed the Minnesota Teen-age Code with the group.

Also discussed was the swiping of outdoor decorations during the Christmas season. The Council agreed that it had no jurisdiction.

The meeting was adjourned.

☆

ALL WEEK THE VARSITY Club initiates were obeying the members in everything. They had to call them "sir" and do anything they were ordered to do. Tuesday they had to wear good clothes to school. On Wednesday they were forced to wear heavily starched blue jeans and old shirts. Fresh eggs were carried in their pockets to be smashed at random by the members.

The initiates that passed the initiation were given their club medals at the dance Friday night. The ones that didn't pass were either put on probation until school starts or indefinitely. The club, with 30 members, will then vote in these others.

☆

THURSDAY THE HIGH school chorus presented a program of Christmas music. They sang about four selections, then the sextet sang a carol. Janet Graham gave a reading of the poem, "The Night Before Christmas". The program lasted for ten minutes past the last bell.

☆

THE SENIOR AND JUNIOR high bands gave a free Christmas program Thursday evening for the parents and other interested people.

☆

THE CHORUS SANG CHRISTmas carols up and down the halls during last hour on Friday. Leslie Bennett directed them.

☆

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS under the direction of Mrs. Brown, their adviser and home ec teacher, held a lavish Christmas tea for the High School girls.

They served a great variety of cookies, coffee and punch to the girls who came downstairs during their study periods. The visitors were given a guided tour around the new homemaking room.

☆

VACATION STARTED FRIday and will end Jan. 5 at 7:59 that morning.

☆

UNFORTUNATELY, BOTH the affirmative and negative debate teams lost to Coldwater Wednesday at 1:30. Better luck, next time!

☆

THE SENIOR CLASS HELD "Silver Bells" — the Christmas dance last Friday. A crowd of over 100 couples danced to the music of Guy Nixon's orchestra from Morenci. Punch and cookies were served at eleven o'clock. The special guest celebrity was Ken Wallace as Santa Claus.

The gym was decorated in blue and white crepe paper with a mammoth tree strung with blue lights in the middle of the floor. Silver bells were hung from the streamers that lead down from the top of the tree.

There were card tables set up at the sides of the dance floor. Mistletoe was inconspicuously hung about the room.

☆

HAROLD BRODERICK'S BAND played at the dance held Saturday night at the Teen Club. There was a large crowd.

The Teen Club Christmas dance will be held Friday from 9 until 12 with Mr. Broderick's orchestra again supplying the music.

Free refreshments will be included in the admission price of 50c single and 75c couple. It will be a dressy dance.

☆

THE TEEN CLUB LEGISLAture, committee chairmen and officers met last Wednesday evening at the Teen Club.

The Christmas dance was discussed. It was decided to go ahead and buy an amplifier.

Improved Medicines Make This Possible . . .

Hospital stays are shorter—much shorter. This is made possible by newer techniques and the constantly greater use of new and better medicines.

Likewise, births in hospitals have multiplied four times, and the average stay of the newborn has decreased one-half in ten years. The Wright Drug Store is happy to handle the thousands of better drugs that make this possible.
